Updates

Since we are still deep in the grip of the Covid-19 Pandemic, no activities are happening at the clubhouse. Thankfully, the pool is open to residents, and access to the library is available.

According to Gary Smith, no park resident has become ill with the virus, which is very good news. Also, for whatever reason, about 9 homes are currently for sale.

Don and Maggie, Joe and MaryJo, John and Donna, Gary and Carla, best wishes to you as you leave Honeymoon and start a new phase in your lives. We will miss you.

Carolyn Carr had a serious accident getting off her pontoon boat on July 4th. She is now recovering after surgery the end of July.

Despite Carolyn's injuries, she is still able to share some good stories....

A policeman was rushed to the hospital with an inflamed appendix. The doctors operated and advised him that all was well, however, the policeman kept feeling something pulling at the hairs in his crotch. Worried that it might be a second surgery the doctors hadn't told him about, he finally got enough energy to pull his hospital gown up enough so he could look at what was making him so uncomfortable.

Taped firmly across his pubic hair and private parts were three wide strips of adhesive tape, the kind that doesn't come off easily—if at all. Written on the tape in large black letters was the sentence, “Get well soon, from the nurse in the Ford Focus you gave a speeding ticket to last week.”

An excerpt from “A Walk Thru Time” ---

“Although Honeymoon Park offers retirement living at its finest, it appears that many residents have stayed in high gear. Truth be told, some Honeymooners have a common affliction known as 'lead foot.' Despite signs and warnings, residents often exceed the 10 mph speed limit. Speed bumps, installed in August 1972, may have helped a little, but there are still those who are trying out for the Indy 500.”

Funnies

My friend John shares these “funnies” –

Never walk a mile in my shoe. You will end up drunk, lost and looking for your shoes.

Don't wear headphones while vacuuming. I've just finished the whole house before realizing the vacuum wasn't plugged in.

“Do not touch” must be one of the scariest things to read in Braille.

During labor the pain is so great that a woman can almost imagine what a man feels like when he has a cold.

If a woman says “Do what you want” - DO NOT DO WHAT YOU WANT!! Stand still, do not blink, don't even breathe. Just play dead.

Why does toilet paper need a commercial? Who is not buying this?

Sometimes getting out of bed just ruins the whole day.

Arguing with a woman is like reading the Software License Agreement. In the end you just ignore everything and click “I agree”.

That moment when your steak is on the grill and you can already feel your mouth watering – do vegans feel the same when mowing the laws?

Yes officer, I did see the speed limit sign, I just didn't see you.

Foods you can – and can't – put down the garbage disposal

The term “garbage disposal” is actually a misnomer because these powerful grinders are designed to handle food waste exclusively. But there are even some edible things you should avoid tossing in. Always check your model's manual for a list of foods it can and can't handle. The average garbage disposal can grind almost all the food waste you throw at it, but your plumbing is another story. Some foods that pass the grinder with no problem could be the start of a clog down the line. In general, always use the disposal with cold water running and avoid overloading it. CR testers have found that one last flush of water, after the disposal is off, is also a good idea.

YES – vegetable scraps, ice, fruit scraps, fruit pits, cooked meats and other leftovers, small bones, and corn cobs.

NO – fibrous foods (corn husks, artichokes, celery, asparagus), coffee grounds, vegetable peels, clam or oyster shells, oil, egg shells, grease, starchy foods.

This is from the August issue of Consumer Reports. I thought it was interesting because I have a disposal that I'm not allowed to use. We have had a couple nasty clogs over the years.

Recipe

Last but not least, I found a recipe in the 1998 Taste of Home Annual Recipes that looks delicious. I'm acquiring the ingredients so I can make it.

Chocolate Chip Pecan Pie

- 4 eggs
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup light corn syrup
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- ½ cup butter or margarine, melted
- 1 cup chopped pecans
- ½ cup semisweet chocolate chips
- 1 unbaked 10" pastry shell
- vanilla ice cream, optional

In a mixing bowl, beat eggs, sugar, corn syrup and vanilla. Add butter and mix well.

Stir in pecans and chocolate chips. Pour into pie shell. Bake at 350 for 50-55 minutes or until set.

Serve with ice cream if desired. Yield, 10 – 12 servings.

WHEN TREATING A HEART ATTACK OR STROKE, TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. EVEN DURING THESE TIMES.

Don't hesitate when it comes to getting emergency treatment.

Even during a pandemic, you still need to be treated immediately if you have an emergency. Debating whether or not to risk going to an emergency room during a heart attack, stroke or other health emergency—waiting even a few extra minutes—could be harmful. That's why in all BayCare hospital emergency rooms, patients who have symptoms of COVID-19 are isolated from other patients. This helps keep emergency room patients and our team members safe. So if it's an emergency, don't wait. For more information: BayCareEmergencyCare.org

Three quick ones

A kid found a magic lamp. When he rubbed it, a genie appeared. “What is your first wish?” he asked.

The kid thought for a moment and said, “I want to be rich!”

The genie replied, “It is done! What is your second wish, Rich?”

A photon walked into a hotel. “I’d like a room, please.”

“Of course,” the desk clerk said. “Can we help you with your luggage?”

The photon said, “No, thanks. I’m traveling light.”

A man walked into a library, approached the librarian, and said, “I’ll have a cheeseburger and fries, please.”

The librarian said, “Sir, you know you’re in a library, right?”

“Sorry.” He lowered his voice to a whisper. “I’ll have a cheeseburger and fries, please.”

A few snappy one-liners

- Sometimes when I close my eyes, I can’t see.
- An apple a day keeps anyone away, if you throw it hard enough.
- Dear math: Please grow up and solve your own problems. I’m tired of solving them for you.
- Your secrets are safe with me ... I wasn’t listening.
- I put my phone in airplane mode, but it’s not flying.
- If I won an award for laziness, I would send somebody else to pick it up for me.
- If we shouldn’t eat at night, why is there a light in the fridge?

Something missing

A guy asks a girl to go to a dance. She agrees, and he goes to rent a suit. The rental has a long line, so he waits and waits, and finally he gets his suit.

He decides to buy flowers, so he goes to the flower shop. The flower shop has a long line, so he waits and waits, until he finally gets his flowers.

He picks up his girl and they go to the dance. There is a long line into the dance, so they wait and wait. Finally, they get into the dance.

The guy offers to get the girl a drink. She asks for punch, so he goes to the drink table, and he waits and waits—but there is no punch line.

Proud mothers

Three women were sitting around a table playing bridge and bragging about their sons.

“My Freddie,” said Margaret. “Everyone should be so lucky to have a son like my Freddie. Once a week he brings me a huge bouquet of flowers, he’s constantly bringing me out to restaurants to eat, if I so much as hint that I want something the next morning it’s on my doorstep.”

“That’s very nice about your Freddie,” said Gertrude. “But with all due respect, when I think about the way my Sammy takes care of me, it just can’t compare. Every morning as soon as I wake up, he greets me with bacon and eggs and freshly brewed coffee. Every day at noon he comes over and cooks me a gourmet lunch, and at least once a week he brings me to his house for supper. He truly treats me like a queen.”

“Well,” said Barbara, “I don’t want to make any of you feel bad or anything, but wait until you hear about my Harry. Twice a week he pays someone $200 an hour just so he can lie on their couch and talk to them, and who do you think he speaks about at those prices?” Barbara smiled. “Me! All he talks about is me!”

To truly laugh, you must be able to take your pain and play with it.
