Pancake Breakfast

On Saturday September 22, 2018, several of the Honeymoon Park residents got together for fellowship and a fine, but limited, pancake breakfast.

At the last board meeting it was decided to try our hand at a limited menu of pancakes, sausage, coffee and orange juice at a reduced cost as opposed to the now approved $7.00 minimum for events during the regular season.

Jim Cook suggested the idea last April. The board approved the suggestion and we decided to do a practice run on Saturday, September 22nd. It was well received as an option to the regular season Park Breakfast. Since the menu is limited, the price was only $5.00. No frills, just a lot of conversation and all the pancakes, sausages, coffee and/or OJ a person could want!

My friend Ron shared this story.....

Yesterday, I wore my Vietnam Veteran cap to Wal-Mart. There was nothing in particular that I needed at the world's largest retailer; but, since I retired, trips to "Wally World" to look at the Walmartians is always good for some comic relief. Besides, I always feel pretty normal after seeing some of the people that frequent the establishment.

But, I digress, . . . enough of my psychological fixations. While standing in line to check out, the guy in front of me, probably in his early thirties, asked, "Are you really a Viet Nam Vet?"

"No," I replied.

"Then why are you wearing that cap?"

"Because I couldn't find one from the War of 1812." I thought it was a snappy retort.

"The War of 1812, huh?" the Walmartian queried, "When was that?"

God forgive me, but I couldn't pass up such an opportunity. "1946," I answered, as straight-faced as possible.

He pondered my response for a moment and responded, "Why do they call it the War of 1812 if it was in 1946?"

"It was a Black Op Mission. No one is supposed to know about it." This was beginning to become fun!

"Dude! Really?" He exclaimed. "How did you get to do something that COOOOL?"

I glanced furtively around me for effect, leaned toward the guy and in low voice said, "I'm not sure. I was the only Caucasian on the mission."

"Dude," he was really getting excited about what he was hearing, "that is seriously awesome! But, didn't you kind of stand out?"

"Not really. The other guys were wearing white camouflage." The moron nodded knowingly.

"Listen man," I said in a very serious tone, "You can't tell anyone about this. It's still classified 'Top Secret' and I shouldn't have said anything"

"Oh yeah?" he gave me the 'don't threaten me' look. "Like, what's gonna' happen if I do?"

With a really hard look I said, "You have a family don't you? We wouldn't want anything to happen to them, would we?"

The guy gulped, left his basket where it was and fled through the door. The lady behind me started laughing so hard I thought she was about to have a heart attack.

I just grinned at her.

After checking out and going to the parking lot, I saw dimwit leaning in a car window talking to a young woman. Upon catching sight of me, he started pointing excitedly in my direction.

Giving him another 'deadly' serious look, I made the 'I see you' gesture. He turned kind of pale, jumped in the car and sped out of the parking lot.

And these people VOTE!

What a great time! Tomorrow I'm going back, wearing my Homeland Security cap.

Then the next day I will go to the driver's license bureau wearing my Border Patrol hat, and see how long it takes to empty the place.

Whoever said retirement is boring? You just need to wear the right kind of cap!

See you at Walmart

Medicare has very strict rules prohibiting the enrollment into most products via door-to-door sales. Still many seniors are experiencing unsolicited calls and visitors. Making a decision about your health coverage is important and should be done every year, but not by someone who shows up on your doorstep or is cold calling you. At Best Plan Choice, we encourage you to find out how good a full-service health agency can be for you. We work directly with individuals, groups and communities to bring our services to you, at your request.

During the annual enrollment season for Medicare health coverage (Oct 15-Dec 7) we host seminars with free coffee and dessert (see our enclosed insert or call 855-BOOMER65). Throughout the year, we are available to present every available plan, assist you with customer service issues or become your agent if you need one.

Are you debating if you need Medicare Part B? We can show you how to save money on your Part B premium each month. Do you need financial assistance? We can help you apply for Medicaid or extra help for the high pharmacy costs you may have. Is your spouse still working to provide health insurance for you? We may have options which will start their retirement sooner. We will provide a complete needs analysis during a personalized appointment so you can make the best plan choice for you. As always, our services are without charge or cost to you. Call us at Best Plan Choice, where Clients become Friends, and Friends become Clients!

November 11th, Veteran's Day.

Originally called Armistice Day, the holiday was first celebrated in 1938 to honor the soldiers who served in World War I. November 11th was picked as the date because the war ended at 11:00am on 11/11/1918. In 1954, after the US had been involved in two additional wars – WW II and the Korean War, the holiday was renamed Veterans Day to honor the brave soldiers who fought in all three wars.

At the 11th hour, on the 11th day of the 11th month, ceremonies take place all over the US honoring all veterans of all the wars and conflicts. These remembrances will include the playing of Taps.

Taps began as a revision to the signal for Extinguish Lights at the end of the day. It was composed in July, 1862, during the Civil War by Brig. Gen. Daniel Butterfield. How, then, did Taps become associated with military funerals?

At a funeral in an artillery company shortly after the song was composed, Capt. John Tidball decided that he did not want to fire the customary three volleys over the grave, as the enemy might think they were resuming the fighting. So he told his bugler to sound Taps. After the Civil War, both Taps and the firing of the three volleys became a part of our military funerals that we know today.

“Day is done, Gone the sun, From the lakes, From the hills, From the sky. All is well. Safely rest. God is nigh.”

Remember -

They are the reason

An excerpt from “A Walk Through Time 30th Anniversary 1968-1998”

In addition to all the regularly scheduled activities at Honeymoon, stories of special events from the past bring back fond memories and inspire hearty laughs. In the Park there were Hawaiian, Chinese and spaghetti dinners, block parties and street dances, costume parties and fashion shows.

In the early '70s, Ted Alexander cleverly challenged residents who participated in a treasure hunt with clues in the form of poems. There were Honeymoon Olympics on August 18, 1972, complete with a torch bearer in an abbreviated toga fashioned from a sheet. A fully clothed and newly coifed Alice Johnson made quite a splash when she ended up in the pool while trying to retrieve a ball during the games.

According to those who were here in the '70s, a lot more partying and drinking took place back then, and there are stories and pictures to prove it. Honeymooners made cross-dressing popular at reverse fashion shows long before anyone ever heard of it. There are also unconfirmed rumors that one well-know “gentil homme” lost everything, including his shirt, at a Las Vegas Night event and went home in nothing but a box.

From the Editor's Desk

by Susie Buckley

Last month as I was completing the October newsletter, I was reminiscing about the close call we had when Hurricane Irma visited Florida. Now, just one month later, I am saddened by the destruction in the Florida Panhandle caused by Hurricane Michael. How very fortunate we are to have been spared again!

So now, as November approaches and we “snowbirds” begin our migration to Honeymoon, let's be thankful that we have homes to go to and great friends to embrace.

Safe travels, ya'all! See ya soon!

And now, since the newsletter is short this month, here are some photos from the past. See if you can figure out what they are. Sorry, no prizes!

P.S. Deadline for December newsletter is Monday, November 12.

Busy as a bee—even when the bees are sick

---

Honeybees are hard workers—even when they're sick. The (e)Science News website reports that researchers using radar technology have learned that honeybees continue to seek and collect honey for their hives even when they're suffering from infections or viruses.

The scientists mounted tiny, lightweight transponders to bees' thoraxes, enabling them to track individual bees using a radar signal. Studying the flight paths of 78 bees, the researchers found that although the sick bees didn't fly as far or as long as their healthy counterparts, they continued their search, suggesting that bees are hardwired to seek and procure honey even when they're ill.

Copper bracelet suggests vast ancient trade network

An ancient copper band unearthed with cremated human remains in Georgia suggests that Native Americans may have traded across greater distances than previously was thought, according to the EurekAlert website. The band, a little wider than a bracelet, came from the Great Lakes region some 1,500 miles away. Scientists were able to determine the band's origin because copper sources have a unique chemical makeup.

The fact that the Native Americans were cremated is also significant, because cremation was unknown in the Southeast United States during the time period the bracelet dates from—some 3,500 years ago—but was commonly practiced in the Great Lakes region and other northern regions. This suggests that our ancient ancestors may have had connections across large distances, allowing for wide trading networks across North America.

VINYL IS FINAL

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"
