From the IITS Media Editor:

April 17, 2020

Welcome to the April 2020 edition of your 'Island in the Sun Sentinel'.
NOTE: Cindy Sadusky has volunteered to take for Bob and Dottie Newman since they are moving out of our community. As you know, they keep up with our Remembrance Corner, phone book listings, and birthday and anniversary info. I do not have her information yet, but will get it and include it in the next media. Thank you Cindy!

I included an article from last month with various informational websites on the Coronavirus (COVID-19). The common denominator seems to be avoiding crowds; social distancing (not shaking hands or hugging 😞); and good personal hygiene. WASH YOUR HANDS OFTEN WITH SOAP AND WATER FOR 20 SECONDS, or USE HAND SANITIZER WITH AT LEAST 60% ALCOHOL WHEN YOU CAN'T WASH YOUR HANDS!

We have seen some on our community reaching out to help others who may have compromised immune systems or are unable/unwilling to go out in public, and we thank you for your kindness.

I would really like to hear ideas of what you as residents would like to have included in the monthly media, or if there are any topics you would like to see on a monthly basis. Participation and submission of articles from you would be welcomed.

Calendar and monthly activities information is provided by the HOA and the activities committee. Currently, all activities are closed, but I encourage everyone to watch the sign board, sign up for the various FB sites, and the RoboCall phone messaging service.

Please submit articles to: iits.media.magazine@gmail.com or if you prefer to submit via handwritten articles, please place them on top of the chest by the slider door in the carport, or hand to Jim or me personally.

Thank you to those who continue to contribute articles for the monthly media!

Everyone stay safe and be careful!

President's Corner – Tony Williams, Lot 74

May 2020 - Letter from the President

With the Covid-19 pandemic currently in full swing, the world is experiencing what seems to be a total shutdown.

There is a lot of panic and uncertainty. We really don't know what is going to happen next. Whole nations have been crippled financially.

It never ceases to amaze me that the days are dark, but the human spirit still rises above. Look at how folks, right here in our community, have offered to help one another. Some have offered to go to the grocery store for their neighbors who can't get out or are not comfortable venturing out of their homes.

Look on Facebook and you'll see different stories of how neighbors get together nightly and sing songs from their windows.

We all have that spirit in us to overcome ANY negative circumstances that come our way.

Find that fighting spirit in YOU and let's be strong TOGETHER and let's beat this thing together!

Inclusiveness and respect are the keys to our success in this community and if you feel that you are not being heard, you can contact me at anthony.williams110@gmail.com.

Regards,
Tony Williams

Helping Your Local Animal Shelter During a Pandemic

For all you animal lovers out there feeling helpless during this pandemic, you may consider thinking of your furry friends during these difficult times. Animal shelters across the nation would greatly appreciate all assistance you are willing and able to give. Here are a few ways you can help homeless pets in your community.

Consider fostering a shelter pet. Fostering entails bringing a dog or cat (or possibly another type of homeless pet) into your home until the animal can be placed with a forever family. Fostering a pet allows you to socialize the pet and give them a home environment to acclimate to. Many animals experience stress in animal shelters, and a quiet home can help them relax and feel safer. Fostering also frees up a spot at the shelter for another homeless pet.

Monetary donations are always welcome at shelters. Many shelters have suspended their in-person fundraising events. Since most shelters are non-profit centers, they thrive on donations.

Donate supplies directly to your local shelter. If you'd rather donate actual supplies, check with your local animal shelter to see what needs they currently have. Many shelters have online wish lists available for viewing. You could even shop online and have the supplies mailed directly to your shelter!

Adoption is always an option! Maybe you're ready to add a furry friend to your family permanently. Call your local shelter before visiting to ask about making an appointment to visit the shelter. In an effort to comply with social distancing recommendations, many shelters are making appointments for potential adopters to visit and find their new addition.

“Until one has loved an animal, a part of one’s soul remains unawakened.” –Anatole France

Meal Kit Services

It's quite understandable that individuals are hesitant to leave their home during this time, but unless you're self-sufficient, you'll probably still need to buy food. Now is the time to explore and experiment with different cuisines by using a meal kit delivery service. No need to leave your home to go food shopping! Here are a few popular options:

Sun Basket – Chef-curated meals with organic produce and delicious flavors. Right now, when you join, you are offered four FREE grab'n'go breakfasts and snacks. One unique feature of this service is that they offer breakfast, lunch, and snack options where many meal kit services only offer dinners. Another perk, Sun Basket offers several options to suit any dietary needs you may have (Vegetarian, Gluten-Free, Diabetes-Friendly, etc.)

Freshly – Each meal from Freshly is one serving for one person. All you have to do is heat and eat! Many meal delivery services send ingredients and you prepare the meal yourself, but if you're looking for something more convenient, Freshly might be the right option for you.

Blue Apron - One of the original meal kit services, Blue Apron delivers fresh ingredients right to your door. If you want to test your culinary skills, with pre-measured and pre-portioned ingredients of course, Blue Apron might be the perfect pick for you.

Daily Harvest – Meals designed by chefs and nutritionists. No preservatives, no additives, no artificial ingredients. Daily Harvest offers options for smoothies, harvest bowls, soups, lattes, chia bowls, and oat bowls. For those looking to incorporate more fruits and vegetable into their diets, this may be the best pick.

Dottie Newman Lot #46 724-6283 pcfriar64@yahoo.com or dlnewman823@gmail.com

- Jan Wisdom, #170, is a newer resident in our park. Her Mom passed away in hospice after a long illness.
- Keith Custy, #229, had by-pass surgery and was home recuperating when he had a bit of a setback. He spent a night in the hospital where the doctors tweaked his medicine dosage and was back home the next day... to stay! Good luck, Keith and just keep eating those delicious desserts Karen bakes. That is the best medicine ever!
- Horace Mathews, #243, was taken to the hospital, but no additional information has come to our attention yet.

Since this is my last report before Bob and I move, I do hope someone will step up and continue our Remembrance Corner. People who are ill or who have lost a loved one need to know their community offers them "Get Well" wishes or condolences.

Thank you to those who kept me apprised of illnesses or deaths.
Stay well!

NO BAKE ENERGY BITES

Recipe by gimmesomeoven.com

These No-Bake Energy Bites are easy to make, full of feel-good ingredients, and irresistibly delicious!

Ingredients

- 1 cup old fashioned oats
- 2/3 cup toasted shredded coconut
- ½ cup Creamy peanut butter
- ½ cup Ground flaxseed
- ½ cup chocolate chips
- 1/3 cup honey
- 1 tablespoon chia seeds
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Instructions

1. Stir all ingredients together in a large mixing bowl until thoroughly combined.
2. Cover the mixing bowl and chill in the refrigerator for 1-2 hours, or until the mixture is chilled. (This will help the mixture stick together more easily.)
3. Roll mixture into 1-inch balls.
4. Enjoy immediately! Or refrigerate in a sealed container for up to 1 week or freeze for up to 3 months.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. PILLSBURY DOUGHBOY OBITUARY

Submitted by Chrissie Riley, Lot #290

It is with the saddest heart I pass on the following:

Please join me in remembering a great icon — the Pillsbury Spokesman, The Pillsbury Doughboy died yesterday of a yeast infection and complications from repeated pokes in the belly. He was 71 years old.

Doughboy was buried in a lightly greased coffin. Dozens of celebrities turned out to pay respects, including Mrs. Butterworth, Hungry Jack, the California Raisins, Betty Crocker, The Hostess Twinkies, and Captain Crunch. The graveside was piled high with flours. As a long time friend, Aunt Jemima delivered the eulogy describing Doughboy as a man who never knew how much he was kneaded.

Doughboy rose quickly in show business, but his later life was filled with turnovers. He was not considered a very “Smart” cookie, wasting much of his dough on half-baked schemes. Despite being a little flaky at times, he even still, as a crusty old man, was considered a roll model for millions. Toward the end, it was thought he would rise again but alas, he was no tart.

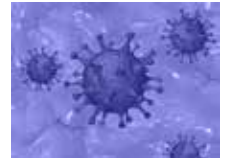

Doughboy is survived by his wife, Play Dough, two children, John and Jane Dough, plus they had one in the oven. He is also survived by his elder father, Pop Tart.

The funeral was held at 3:50 for about twenty minutes.

May Days

Hug Your Cat Day, May 1. You should be doing this every day, but in case you're not, today is the day to show your kitty some affection.

Learn to Ride a Bike Day, May 2. Slap on the training wheels if it makes you feel better. The point is, just get on a bike and go for a spin.

No Diet Day, May 6. You don't have to follow the latest trends to change your relationship with food. Start today with a commitment to live a healthier life by decreasing your consumption of junk foods.

Letter Carrier's "Stamp Out Hunger" Food Drive, May 9. Check with your local postal carrier and station to find out what items they are accepting during the largest national food drive in the U.S.

Stay Up All Night Night, May 9. Reconnect with your inner child and have some fun as you stay up (and out) well past the time when the streetlights come on.

Mother's Day, May 10. She carried you in her womb for nine months, and that did a number on her back. Now give her some flowers and take her out to brunch. It's the least you can do.

How to set reasonable goals

Setting a goal is important, but setting a good goal is what really counts. What is a good goal? A good goal usually has a few definable characteristics. Good goals are:

- Specifically focused.
- Neither too hard, nor too easy.
- Shared and agreed upon with others who will be working on them.
- Written down and visualized.

If it's not the flower, it could be the flour

National Allergy and Asthma Awareness Month serves as a reminder to tackle your spring cleaning projects to maintain a safe environment for optimal health.

There's no better time than the present to address these areas:

- Around the house. Shampoo carpets and upholstery, clean window treatments, vacuum out corners and crevices, and address those areas in your home where dust, mold, and allergens could be lurking and waiting to trigger an asthma event.
- In the kitchen. If you or someone in your family is one of the 32 million Americans with a food-based allergy, you'll want to check your pantry and cupboards. After you toss out all the expired food items, take time to review the ingredients of those remaining for known allergens such as wheat, dairy, eggs, soy, nuts, tree nuts, fish, and seafood.

Here are a few more areas you'll want to check for allergens that might be hiding in plain sight:

- Your child or grandchild's room. Make sure stuffed animals and bean bag toys aren't filled with nut shells, crayons are soy-free crayons, and play dough is the wheat-free version.
- Fido's corner. Your dog loves those biscuits and bone treats you give him, but if they contain peanut butter or milk by-products, more sensitive members of your household might have adverse reactions.
- The bathroom. The biggest culprit here might be your shampoo, conditioner, soap, or lotion, so read the labels carefully.

As I get older, I think about the quality of my life and a balanced way to enjoy that. That's true wellness—being well from inside out.

—Anna Kaiser

Make fitness a part of your daily routine

The warm sunny days of May invite us to go outdoors and play. It's also National Physical Fitness and Sports Month, so you have no excuse to be sitting on the couch doing nothing. Even if you think there's not enough time in your busy day to squeeze in a workout, you can find the time to make fitness part of your day.

Here are four strategies that will help you get active. They're inspired by Cat Kom, a working mom, physical trainer, and CEO of the digital exercise platform Studio SWEAT onDemand:

1. Make it a part of your day. Check your schedule and you're sure to find 30-minutes to an hour you can set aside for a workout. It might not be the same time each day, but surely you have free time you can commit doing something for your health.

2. Do what you love, and then some. Start with an activity you like and will be easy for you to commit to. Once you've found your groove and your plan is become a consistent part of your routine, begin to incorporate some different workouts to make sure you are addressing all muscle groups. Don't forget to make warmups, cool downs, and stretching a part of your rou-tines.

3. Try something new. There are so many different ways to stay active these days and you should try some of them. Consider spinning, hula hooping, working out with resistance bands, or a cardio-trampoline class. You'll never get bored trying new things, and it will help you continually develop fun and diverse goals.

4. Be reasonable. Some weeks will be more challenging than others, and there just won't seem like there is enough time to squeeze in a workout, but you can. If you only have 15 minutes you can jump rope, hula hoop, walk/jog around the block, or repeat a circuit of push-ups, planks, and burpees. The point is to do something physical every day.

The clock is ticking. Are you becoming the person you want to be?
