OUR LOSS

Noreen

It is with great regret that we as a club accepted the resignation of Connie Hobbs from the Social Club Board of Directors and as head of the Entertainment Committee. We all know, she never said that word "NO". I guess it was not in her vocabulary. She has, however, agreed to work behind the scenes as a committee member, but not as a chairman of any committee.

She will bring her vast experience to any activity or event that she is involved with.

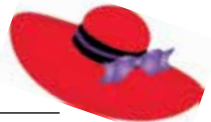

Our thanks to her commitment to the Social Club, and many of us have heard her mantra, "I just want this to be a happy place.!"

Now that is quite a task considering the number of residents. My response, sadly, was always: Good luck with that!
Yet she keeps trying.

I AM BORED .. AND I LOVE IT

Mel Moen

When I was young, I spent a lot of time (especially my summers) with my grandmother (we al called her Mom). She and my grandfather ran the “family farm”. The farm was originally homesteaded by our family. Several of the kids, from our extended family, spent part or all of their summer vacation on the farm. Mom was a built-in babysitter for all of the family’s kids.

The kids were often guilty of the over-use of that familiar kid’s phrase, “I’m bored!” But many of them learned that the use of that phrase was usually followed with a work assignment. So most of them learned to just go outside and find something to do, in order to avoid working.

I, however, loved it there. I loved the quiet and peacefulness. I’m sure that was because of the fact that, even at a very young age, I had endured way too much trauma in my life. My best childhood memories are of sitting in Mom’s kitchen, watching her cook and doing little chores for her.

I learned, at a very early age, to be a pretty good potato peeler. My first attempts at peeling potatoes consisted of chopping away the outside of the potato and ending up with a small chunk of the potato middle. Mom was very patient and didn’t get upset by the amount of the potato that was “wasted”. I think that was partially because, on the farm, nothing was ever really wasted. The overly-thick potato peeling, while not desirable, were not truly “wasted”.

This was because the potato peelings were never thrown away. They were fed to the hogs!

Under Mom’s guidance, I soon learned to peel a pretty good potato. I became Mom’s little kitchen helper. I learned to shred cabbage, without shredding my fingers. I learned to wash dishes and actually get them clean (including in between the tongs of the forks). Mom gave me a sense of pride in the fact that plates, that I washed, had no egg yolk stains left on them.

During those summers, Mom instilled, in me, a work ethic that has served me very well, through out my entire life. She also taught me a love for a state of being that many might call “being bored”!

I have told several of my friends, at various times, that “all I really want out of life is to be bored”! Their responses were, basically “Are you crazy . . . Why would you want to be bored?”

I explained to them that, to me, being bored means: Nothing is going wrong in your life! You are not about to be kicked out of your apartment! They are not about to repossess your car! No one is abusing you! Things are peaceful!

The house that we sold when we moved down here, from Illinois, was located in a neighborhood that was filled with families (with lots of kids). I love kids, but: I was constantly being annoyed by kids making noise while I was trying to take a nap. I was constantly yelling at some kid to stop taking a shortcut across my yard. I was constantly chasing kids away from my house because they were throwing rocks, which, of course, landed in my yard.

When we first arrived down here, all of our “stuff“ was put into storage. We stayed with Bonnie’s son and his spouse, for a month. It took us that month to find our trailer and have it updated and made ready to move in. Staying in someone else’s home is never peaceful. Even if they are trying to be nice and make you feel welcome. There is still tension!

Once we moved into Teakwood, the first thing that we noticed was how very quiet it was. No noise! No one messing with your home or yard! We have been here for just over 2 years and it is wonderful!

All in all, I will have to say that I am bored . . . and I love it

Isn't it funny when our dreams come true.... it's never the way we want.

RUMMAGE SALE 2018

Sandy Rassmussen

Although January seems a long way off, it is not too soon to start thinking about our annual rummage sale. We welcome your good used items that you no longer need. Once again, I would like to see our volunteers wearing a red T-shirt/blouse if at all possible on the day of the sale. The red shirts along with our name badges make us easily identifiable to the public.

Last year we utilized a storage area, for our items, across the highway. Paid with our raffle monies, so $600.00 we did not have to use from our budget or funds raised during event. We will be doing this again this year, so look forward to ongoing raffles at Events and 50/50 at Saturday Koffee Klatch.

 Also food at the event was a hit, so this will also continue, so look forward to a Bake Sale and Lunch; we will be looking for volunteers to bring food for the volunteers, during set-up on Thursday and Friday.

Collection of items will be the same as last year. Collection days will be Saturdays after Koffee Klatch 10-Noon by the Rassmussens, on your driveway. Again we are asking, if possible, to please keep your large items at your place until January pick-up. Please make sure all donated items are clean, in good working condition and are bagged or boxed securely. When donating linens, please mark size (sheets/blankets/table clothes). Look for list of Volunteers needed on the board by the pool. We will be having volunteers and residents buy from the Pre-sale on Friday night, different from last year.

Dates for items to be picked up from residents drive-way Oct-Dec. 10am-12

December 2, 16, 30
January 11th (4-6pm) 12th (9-11am)

Items we are unable to pick up: mirrors, mattress and boxsprings, old computer monitors and broken items. Large items and appliances will be picked up in January. This list may be subject to change, determined by committee member.

Questions, please feel free to contact Sandy Rassmussen, 612/432-7874

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

THANK YOU.....(Neighbors Helping Neighbors)

Delores and Mike Pryor

I want to thank the person that left us two beautiful blankets. I hate to tell you what my son and I have as blankets. I have already started getting ready for the winter. This trailer is like a refrigerator in the winter and like a steam room in the summer. Sofia gave us a heater and I already have it ready. I have used it since she brought it. I love it here and hope I am not a bother to anyone. I am 85 and my son, who is 57, is mentally challenged. He has no one but me. I have a niece in California, who just got me a car since I was paying for a cab to take me to church. So, Thanks again and pray for my son and I. God Bless.

All things wicked start with innocence

Thank YOU!

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Connie Hobbs

Held on October 28th, the Halloween Party was a huge success in spite of this chairperson not confirming the music. Bill Roberts came at the last possible minute all dressed for Halloween and we all danced and had a good time.

We had a contest for best costume and the winners were:

- #1 Janet and Bob - Jail Birds
- #2 Rita - Flapper
- #3 Paula and Gil - Joan Jett & Alice Cooper
- #4 June and Chuck - Cave people

But, everyone dressed up so it was really hard to pick a winner and was fun doing it. A good time was had by all.

Book Recommendation:

Here Vultures Fly

by Rudy Rodrigues

This is the narration of the personal experiences of the author, Rudy Rodrigues, during his ten years of service with the United Nations in Afghanistan, where he was engaged in emergency relief and later rehabilitation programs in close collaboration with the Communist government, the mujahideen, the Taliban, and the post-Taliban government.

The author was responsible for opening the first UNICEF office in Kyrgyzstan soon after the collapse of the Soviet Union in a unique environment and culture. During this time, he was working with a government unfamiliar with the United Nations and its goals and objectives. In addition, the Kyrgyz population was traumatized by this sudden period of transition and uncertainty. A major focus of the author's work was gaining the confidence of the government in Uzbekistan and to ensure the building of meaningful partnership programs for women and children.

This book also covers the adventures, romance, and thrill of being born and raised in Kenya; serving as an officer in the army; the challenges of working in Papua New Guinea; and having the glorious opportunity of working in the UN in different parts of the world with a multiethnic/multicultural community.

About the Author

Rudy Rodrigues was born and raised in Kenya. He graduated from the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst and the British Army Staff College. He was commissioned and served as an officer in the Kenya Army in both command and staff appointments. Resigning after sixteen years of active service, he then immigrated to Canada with his wife and three children.

Later, Rodrigues was appointed country director of a Canadian NGO in the Sudan, with a mandate to provide leadership, strategic planning and the delivery of UN (WFP) emergency relief supplies to the more than three million starving people displaced by the famine of 1985. He did so using a fleet of 350 cargo vehicles and a staff of over 3,000 people. This trucking operation was later taken over by the UN, and Rodrigues served as its Director.

In 2006 Rodrigues ended his career, and moved from Afghanistan, where he was last working with the United Nations. He retired to Winter Park, Florida where he lives today, and enjoys traveling, writing and spending time with his family, children and grandchildren.
