CHRISTMAS POST OFFICE

NOREEN ADAMS

It's that time of year again. Time to share endearing thoughts of Christmas love and joy.

Our Christmas elves will be busy putting up the annual mailbox for the Christmas cards, the first week of December.

This will be for all park residents and will be individually labeled. Please place each card in the cubicle for each resident and they will be delivered. If by any chance a name is not listed, please notify elves Becky Collins (727-459-5185) or Noreen Adams (727-776-3151) or Kerry Ellis (727-813-838-4418)

Santa will not want to miss anyone.

SEASONS THOUGHTS

NOREEN ADAMS

So many of our residents have departed for one reason or another. We have grown attached to each of them and their absence affects us.

A group of our residents decided to get together and show our appreciation for the contribution of the Lones family to the community. Like many others, they helped their neighbors. This group wanted to show their appreciation for all the effort of the Lones family, during the past six years in the community. The Lones family show what it is like to pick up a small fractured neighborhood community and place it to become a cohesive metropolitan neighborhood. More than once they slowly changed a quiet hermit into an active community member.

Janet took on the responsibility of two terms of office of President of the Social Club. Bob would start each day deciding which neighbors to help, he would clean their gutters mow their lawn, or set up tables for events, or serve coffee, with Janet by his side. This couple exemplified what we stand for at Japanese Gardens. They will be sorely missed by many.

On another note, We are very glad and grateful to have Tim Wilkins providing the evening's entertainment, as you dance in the New Year. Snacks will be provided, but you need to furnish your own drinks. Champagne will be provided to help bring in the New Year.

Doors will open at 8:00pm.

TICKETS - $5.00 members....$8.00 non-members

Contact ..Sue Gang at 727-692-1166

Cut off day is Monday, December 29th

SURPRISE! SURPRISE!

BOB & JANET LONES

This is what happened to Bob and Me on Sunday, November 9. We were told we were going to a meeting for the committee for Italian Night. When we walked into the Club House we were greeted with tables and tables filled with friends. The next thing I knew we were told that it was a Going Away Party for us. That was something we certainly did not expect.

Not only were there many, many friends but also flowers, cards and delicious food and CAKE. I am not certain who was in charge of this event, but we want to say THANK YOU. We also want to thank everyone who came and made this such a special day for us. I guess that we should have known that it would be a special day because everyone there was a special friend. I am just amazed that that many people could keep a secret. Thanks again. We will miss everyone but are really looking forward to moving to our new place. We plan to keep in touch and come and see us. If you come real soon I am sure there will be a box to unpack.

HALLOWEEN, HOBO DINNER DANCE REPORT

BY JANET LONES

The Club House was filled with people in costumes and dressed as Hobos. There were 50 people in attendance to enjoy a wonderful meal of chicken, served in foil packets, tables were covered in news paper, tin cans with bandana napkins were holding the table service for each place.

I am happy to report that we had several new residents join us. It was great to see them and hope they will continue to attend our many future events.

Everyone there voted for those in costume. 1st place-Maureen Kirslis, 2nd place-Jim Connell, 3rd place Dorothy Ravener, 4th place-Frank Darche. Following the dinner we were entertained by the musical Duo, "Just the Two of Us". The music was great and it was a splendid evening of great fun.

Several months ago Alice Moldenhauer told me that in the past they had had a Hobo Dinner and I thought it sounded like fun, so planned it. As you know she is no longer in the park, but we made arrangements to have her join us. It was great to see her have a most enjoyable evening. To top off the evening, Alice won the 50/50 drawing. CONGRATULATIONS ALICE!

CHILI COOK-OFF REPORT

---

It was a delicious and spicy afternoon. There were over 40 people there to sample and judge all the great chili made by our residents of Japanese Garden. There were seven chili's made and each one was delicious, yet different. The votes were very close.

Those who entered the contest: Mark Russmuesses, Phyllis LePage, Nancy Bunko, Kathy Troll, Darlene Kassien, Paul Jeffries and Janet Lones.

Results of the votes:

1st prize, Phyllis LePage

2nd prize, Mark Russemusses

Thank you to all who attended also a thank you to our great chefs. Door prizes were given and Sandy Russmuesses won the 50/50 drawing.

SALUTE TO VETERANS

November 11 we had a luncheon and a short program to salute and honor all Veterans. The Club House was decorated in red, white and blue. There were two tables covered with pictures of Veterans who came or who were relatives of those who came. There was a special display including beautiful art work. It was wonderful to see so many people (60) come out to show their thanks and honor not only the Veterans that were there, but Veterans all over. We had a short ceremony showing reverence to all POWs and MIAs. Dorothy Ravener told a short lesson as to the purpose of Veteran's Day.

Each Veteran came forward as the military song of their branch of Service were played. Each was given a small token of thanks for their service. Woody Sakemiller was honored as the oldest Veteran present at the age of 96. There were a total of 17 Veterans there.

A donation of $25.00 will be sent to Wounded Warriors. Thanks for your support. We not only recognized Wounded Warriors but also had a Remembrance Ceremony for POW' and MIAs.

I wish to thank Frank and Rosemary Darche, Dorothy Ravener, Noreen Adams, Charlotte Thompson, Darlene Kassien, Maureen Kirslis, Judy Bossie and Carolee Kingsbury for the part they played in the program. A big thanks to everyone that helped in anyway to make this day a huge success, and a big thank you to all who came.

These book are filled with great recipes from people that live or have lived in the park.

WE ARE ASKING THAT EACH PERSON BRING A NON-PERISHABLE FOOD ITEM TO BE DONATED TO R.C.S.

This is open to all residents of the park, please come and purchase your Social Club Membership for 2015. $6.00 each

ALBERTSON'S GREEN STAMPS

BY JANET LONES

For the past few years this has been the project of Alice Moldenhauer. As she is no longer living in the park, Carolee Kingsbury has volunteered to keep this project alive.

For those of you who shop Albertson Grocery Store, they give little stamps when you make a purchase. Someone said that you sometimes need to ask for them. If you are not collecting them for yourself, please save them and give them to Carolee. She will turn them in for items which the Social Club uses for door prizes at events. In the past we have gotten many great items. Help us to keep this project going.

FROM THE INTERNET

SHE HAD 4 HUSBANDS

The local news station was interviewing an 80-year-old lady because she had just remarried for the fourth time. The interviewer asked her questions about her life, about what it felt like to be marrying again at 80, and then about her new husband's occupation.. "He's a funeral director," she answered. "Interesting," the newsman thought... He then asked her if she wouldn't mind telling him a little about her first three husbands and what they did for a living. She paused for a few moments, needing time to reflect on all those years. After a short time, a smile came to her face and she answered proudly, explaining that she had first married a banker when she was in her 20's, then a circus ringmaster when in her 40's, and a preacher when in her 60's, and now - in her 80's - a funeral director. The interviewer looked at her, quite astonished, and asked why she had married four men with such diverse careers. She smiled and explained: I married one for the money, two for the show, three to get ready, and four to go." (Oh, just hush-up and send this one on to somebody who needs a laugh.)

FROM THE INTERNET

BY ERROL MCCLUSKEY

Doesn't matter what you call it, destiny has a way of intervening. The head of a company survived 9/11 because his son started kindergarten. Another fellow is alive because it was his turn to bring donuts. One woman was late because her alarm clock didn't go off in time. One was late because of being stuck on the NJ Turnpike because of an auto accident. One of them missed his bus. One spilled food on her clothes and had to take time to change. One's Car wouldn't start. One couldn't get a taxi the one that struck me was the man who put on a new pair of shoes that morning, took the various means to get to work, but before he got there, he developed a blister on his foot. He stopped at a drugstore to buy a Band-Aid. That is why he is alive today. When you can't seem to find the car keys, you hit every traffic light, don't get mad or frustrated; It may be just that God is at work watching over you.

MANAGER'S CORNER

STEVE & LINDA LYLE

In the next several weeks Linda Lyle might not be available at the office every day. However, we do have a temporary office assistant named Pat that will be in the office from 12 til 4 Mon, Wed, and Thursday to assist us at this time. For administrative issues such as making copies of documents or to have documents notarized, please go to the office as normal. In the event that no one is available, simply call the office number and it will be automatically switched to Steve Lyle, who will answer your call as soon as he can.

As a Reminder: Remember overnight parking on our streets is not allowed. There is plenty of room in the parking spaces located at the front of our park.

There have been no more reports recently of stolen three wheel bicycles from our park. Please remember to Keep up the good work folks and keep remembering to use your bicycle locks and also keep your vehicles locked.

Thanks for all your patients and support.

EDITORS CORNER

FROM THE INTERNET

Someone asked the other day, 'What was your favorite 'fast food' when you were growing up?' 'We didn't have fast food when I was growing up,' I informed him. 'All the food was slow.' 'C'mon, seriously.. Where did you eat?' 'It was a place called 'home,' I explained. 'Mum cooked every day and when Dad got home from work, we sat down together at the dining room table, and if I didn't like what she put on my plate, I was allowed to sit there until I did like it.'

By this time, the lad was laughing so hard I was afraid he was going to suffer serious internal damage, so I didn't tell him the part about how I had to have permission to leave the table.

But here are some other things I would have told him about my childhood if I'd figured his system could have handled it:

Some parents NEVER owned their own house, wore jeans, set foot on a golf course, traveled out of the country or had a credit card.

My parents never drove me to school... I had a bicycle that weighed probably 50 pounds, and only had one speed (slow).

We didn't have a television in our house until I was 10. It was, of course, black and white, and the station went off the air at 10 PM, after playing the national anthem and epilogue; it came back on the air at about 6 am. And there was usually a locally produced news and farm show on, featuring local people...

Pizzas were not delivered to our home... But milk was.

All newspapers were delivered by boys and all boys delivered newspapers --My brother delivered a newspaper, seven days a week. He had to get up at 6 every morning.

Film stars kissed with their mouths shut. At least, they did in the films. There were no movie ratings because all movies were responsibly produced for everyone to enjoy viewing, without profanity or violence or almost anything offensive.

If you grew up in a generation before there was fast food, you may want to share some of these memories with your children or grandchildren. Just don't blame me if they bust a gut laughing. Growing up isn't what it used to be, is it?

MEMORIES from a friend:

My Dad is cleaning out my grandmother's house (she died recently) and he brought me an old lemonade bottle.

In the bottle top was a stopper with a bunch of holes in it. I knew immediately what it was, but my daughter had no idea.

She thought they had tried to make it a salt shaker or something. I knew it as the bottle that sat on the end of the ironing board to 'sprinkle' clothes with because we didn't have steam irons.

Man, I am old.

How many do you remember?

Headlight dip-switches on the floor of the car.

Ignition switches on the dashboard.

Trouser leg clips for bicycles without chain guards.

Soldering irons you heated on a gas burner.

Using hand signals for cars without turn indicators.

Older Than Dirt Quiz:

Count all the ones that you remember, not the ones you were told about. Ratings at the bottom.

1. Sweet cigarettes
2. Coffee shops with juke boxes
3. Home milk delivery in glass bottles

Don't forget to pass this along!
Especially to all your really OLD friends....I just did!

(PS. I used a large type face so you could read it easily)
Yep, I guess I must be "positively" ancient

ITEMS THAT WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED ARE: large items such as sofa beds, mattresses, box springs, washers/dryers, refrigerators, stoves, computer monitors, PC towers, bed pillows and mirrors that are NOT framed.

Remember – only certain items will be accepted. This is not a dumping area for unwanted items listed above.

We are very lucky again this year to have a storage area given to us by the management to be used for our rummage sale.

LEXOPHILE

FROM THE INTERNET BY JOE WALKER

A "lexophile" is a lover of words, enjoying and creating puns and sayings, such as "You can tune a piano, but you can't tuna fish", or "To write with a broken pencil is pointless." Competitions among lexophiles prevail, and this year's winning statement is posted at the end of this list.

When fish are in schools, they sometimes take debate.
A thief who stole a calendar got twelve months.
When the smog lifts in Los Angeles U.C.L.A.
The batteries were given out free of charge.
A dentist and a manicurist married. They fought tooth and nail.
A will is a dead giveaway.
With her marriage, she got a new name and a dress.
A boiled egg is hard to beat.
When you've seen one shopping center you've seen a mall.
Police were summoned to a daycare center where a three-year-old was resisting a rest.
Did you hear about the fellow whose entire left side was cut off? He's all right now.
A bicycle can't stand alone; it's just two tired.
When a clock is hungry it goes back four seconds.
The guy who fell onto an upholstery machine is now fully recovered.
He had a photographic memory which was never developed.
When she saw her first strands of grey hair, she thought she'd dye.
Acupuncture is a job well done. That's the point of it.
And the cream of the twisted crop:
Those who get too big for their pants will be totally exposed in the end.
ALWAYS LAUGH WHEN YOU CAN...IT'S CHEAP MEDICINE.
