President's Letter

Kathy Troll

Where does the time go? Here we are heading into June, six months of the year gone already!

The homes in the park are getting empty as our "snowbirds" have flown North. From all of us here year-round, we wish for you a very happy and healthy Summer and look forward to seeing you all in the Fall. Our events committee has some great events planned for the Summer months. You will find the "Save the date" flyer along with the Domei so mark your calendars! Becky Collins will be selling the tickets for these events.

As many of you may have heard, we no longer have the use of the house we use for the Rummage Sale. Therefore, the sale has been tentatively cancelled for January. We are currently working on an alternative, such as a community yard sale. Any suggestions please contact me or Sandy and Marc Rasmussen. Details will follow.

We still have several events that need Chairpersons. Please think about chairing an event. It is not difficult, as it is you that chooses your committee to assist for a successful event. If we have no volunteers, the events planned may have to be cancelled. Open events are Halloween, Christmas and Hands Across the Border. The sign up sheet is on our bulletin board. So, please consider chairing or co-chairing an event. Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have.

Please be mindful of little ones visiting, as the posted speed limit is to keep us all safe. Enjoy the beautiful Summer months and the beautiful park we all call home

Snippets

Medical supplies (i.e. walkers, canes, etc.) are available for temporary use, for residents, and guests. Please be sure to wash these items before returning them to the office. Contact Victor Mederos for these items and to return them. 508-287-0466

Remember, when leaving for the summer, and in preparation of the Florida rainy season, please be certain to empty all flower pots, water pots, and any containers that might be breeding grounds for disease carrying mosquitoes.

Fire Department Identifying Numbers, in case of emergency, please be certain your home is clearly marked with house numbers at least four inches tall. This recommendation is from the Florida State Fire Department.

Wi-Fi is still available in the clubhouse, library, and poolside. The password is JAPANESEGARDEN.

Notary Service is available in the Park Office, as is copying and fax service

Hard cover books can be accepted in the Library. The problem was that the shelves were not wide enough to accept the width and length for anything except paperbacks. This was resolved when our former resident and Librarian, Gwen Burgess measured and found the problem to be an easy fix. The library now has a section of wider shelves to accommodate hard cover books for donation. Thanks Gwen.

Karaoke

"MR. BILL".....I LOVE ENTERTAINMENT!!!!

Second Saturday of every month; 7pm with doors opening at 6:30
BYOB and snacks; phone 813-335-1114
Need at least 5 singers

As many of you are aware, we have a star in our community. He works diligently to provide entertainment for our community. Whether he is setting up for Karaoke or providing music and entertainment for the community dances, events and activities, this is one very busy man.

Let's see the "younger crowd" keep up with him. He can dance and sing circles around just about any age..and I am still a spring chicken. O.K, close, depending on your interpretation of "spring chicken".

Did you know, you do NOT have to sing or dress up in costume in order to attend. required. His largest attendance was 120 including 17 entertainers, even without publicity.

There is no wonder why he is considering "Kamikaze Karaoke" (you will have to ask him for details). How about Do-Wop Karaoke, or maybe even Scaree Karaoke?

DO YOU LIKE MONEY?? How about 50/50. Did you know you can actually win money by attending Karaoke?? If line dancing is your thing, it is also available.

There is a multitude of genre, with an excess of over 125 thousand songs to choose from. The choices range from the current to the 1960's, '70's even back to the Rat Pack and the Big Band Era. If he does not have a requested selection, he will find it and have it for you on the next Karaoke night event.

"Mr. Bill", aka Bill Roberts has been involved with Karaoke for over 12 years, starting in Marathon, Florida. He has been providing music for Japanese Garden for the last four years.

Here is a trick question. How did Karaoke begin? According to Bill, Karaoke started as a management tool in Japan. It seems the upper echelon of corporate Japanese management, were reticent to speak publicly, before their peers. It's a culture thing. But, one of the innovators came up with an idea to break the ice, slowly of course. By doing so, a new form of entertainment was born and continues today. It appeals to all ages with varying styles, even in many countries.

There is so much more to be written about Karaoke and "Mr. Bill". It would fill an entire Domeii.

In the few years I have lived here, I have learned a major life lesson. Marriages that have lasted from 20 to 70 years, and more, have weathered much in life, good and bad. Many of you met Bill's motivation and joy, through out his life, Marlea, his wife. She was a woman and friend with a winning smile and good heart. When I think of her, the only word that comes to mind is vivacious. When she passed, the community and many friends felt the emptiness and loss, especially "Mr. Bill".

What Happens In The Summer When The "Year Rounders" Take Over

Noreen

Joe, Carmen, Mark and Sandy, happen. They are a few residents who wanted to continue giving back to the community, on their own. So, on Sunday afternoons from approximately 12:00pm until when the food runs out, be sure to come to the pool ready to eat.

Joe, Carmen, Mark and Sandy, contribute their efforts to this labor of love for the gathering of their neighbors.

It is not held INSIDE the Clubhouse. What better place for a Sunday afternoon meal, with friends, than poolside.

The "event" is not sponsored by the Japanese Garden Social Club, or the Japanese Garden Park Office Management. It is truly a community, neighborhood effort. Contact them for further details.

It is sponsored by the kindness of our neighbors who saw a need and filled it, no questions asked, no fanfare, no glory, just being good neighbors.

For more information, just stop by the pool on Sunday afternoons.

Oh, and be sure to say.."Thank you!!"

Every ending is a beginning, we just don't know it at the time

By-Laws Refresher

Now that so many of our friends, neighbors, and Board Members, have gone north during the summer, the monthly Board Meetings and General Council Meetings have been postponed until November 2016, as usual, so here is a brain teaser.

According to ARTICLE VI, SECTION 3 OF THE BY-LAWS:

"Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President, Vice President, or by three members of the Board, provided at least three (3) days notice is given to each Director, stating the date, time, place, and purpose of such meeting. No business may be transacted or considered at any special meeting except that business for which the meeting was called."

Translation, even if the Board Members are not here, meetings can still be held electronically, i.e. by e-mail.

Additional unknown fact, is that any Social Club member in good standing, is allowed to attend any board meeting. The main stipulation is that the attending club member cannot have verbal input. They can only view, listen, and take notes. They are not allowed to actually "participate" or interact. This is useful in being prepared for the topics to be presented at the next General Council Meeting. Also, all meetings are open to the membership.

For further clarification please refer to your By-Laws Revised 11/14/2015, or contact Social Club President Kathy Troll, or Secretary of the Board Marshall Giles. If you happen to have a "Roberts Rules of Order" on hand, this is the best governing book for meetings and their procedures.

"Have you experienced the Sunset Appliance Difference? It's all about our Service!"

Are We The Ones Who Are Aging? Really????

By Myrna Whitehead

ONE

Recently, I went to McDonald's and I saw on the menu that you could have an order of 6, 9 or 12 Chicken McNuggets. I asked for a half dozen nuggets. 'We don't have half dozen nuggets,' said the teenager at the counter. 'You don't?' I replied. 'We only have six, nine, or twelve,' was the reply. 'So I can't order a half dozen nuggets, but I can order six?' 'That's right.' So I shook my head and ordered six McNuggets (Unbelievable but sadly true) (Must have been the same one I asked for sweetener and she said they didn't have any, only Splenda and sugar.) (And they think they are worth $15.00 per hour)

TWO

I was checking out at the local Wal-Mart with just a few items and the lady behind me put her things on the belt close to mine. I picked up one of those dividers that they keep by the cash register and placed it between our things so they wouldn't get mixed. After the girl had scanned all of my items, she picked up the divider, looking it all over for the bar code so she could scan it. Not finding the bar code, she said to me, 'Do you know how much this is?' I said to her 'I've changed my mind; I don't think I'll buy that today.' She said 'OK,' and I paid her for the things and left. She had no clue to what had just happened. (But the lady behind me had a big smirk on her face as I left)

THREE

A woman at work was seen putting a credit card into her DVD drive and pulling it out very quickly. When I inquired as to what she was doing, she said she was shopping on the Internet and they kept asking for a credit card number, so she was using the ATM thingy. (Keep shuddering!!)

FOUR

I recently saw a distraught young lady weeping beside her car. 'Do you need some help?' I asked. She replied, 'I knew I should have replaced the battery to this remote door un-locker. Now I can't get into my car. Do you think they (pointing to a distant convenience store) would have a battery to fit this?' Hmm, I don't know. Do you have an alarm, too?' I asked. 'No, just this remote thingy,' she answered, handing it and the car keys to me. As I took the key and manually unlocked the door, I replied, 'Why don't you drive over there and check about the batteries. It's a long walk....' PLEASE just lie down before you hurt yourself!!!

FIVE

Several years ago, we had an Intern who was none too swift. One day she was typing and turned to a secretary and said, 'I'm almost out of typing paper. What do I do?' 'Just use paper from the photocopier', the secretary told her. With that, the intern took her last remaining blank piece of paper, put it on the photocopier and proceeded to make five blank copies. A Brunette, by the way!!

SIX

A mother calls 911 very worried asking the dispatcher if she needs to take her kid to the emergency room, the kid had eaten ants. The dispatcher tells her to give the kid some Benadryl and he should be fine, the mother says, 'I just gave him some ant killer.....' Dispatcher: 'Rush him in to emergency right now!' Life is tough. It's even tougher if you're stupid!!!! Someone had to remind me, so I'm reminding you too. Don't laugh....it is all true... Perks of reaching 60 or being over 70 and heading towards 80!

1. Kidnappers are not very interested in you.
2. In a hostage situation you are likely to be released first.
3. No one expects you to run--anywhere.
4. People call at 8 PM and ask, "Did I wake you?"
5. People no longer view you as a hypochondriac.
6. There is nothing left to learn the hard way.
7. Things you buy now won't wear out.
8. You can eat supper at 5PM .
9. You can live without sex but not your glasses.
10. Your supply of brain cells is finally down to manageable size.
11. You can't remember who sent you this list.
12. And you notice these are all in Big Print for your convenience.

And remember, never, ever, under any circumstances, take a sleeping pill and a laxative on the same evening!

Old Age or Something Else? 10 Early Signs of Dementia

What Exactly Is Dementia?

What's confusing about dementia is that it's not actually a disease. Rather, it's a collection of symptoms that can be caused by various diseases.

Dementia symptoms include impairments in thinking, communicating, and memory.

The leading cause of dementia is Alzheimer's disease.

Dementia can also be caused by brain damage incurred from an injury or stroke, and from other diseases like Huntington's or Lewy body dementia.

Memory Loss Isn't Necessarily Dementia

If a loved one is experiencing some troubling memory problems, you might immediately conclude that it's dementia. However, a person needs to have at least two types of impairment that are significant enough to interfere with everyday life to be considered a dementia diagnosis.

In addition to difficulty remembering, the patient may also experience impairments in:

- language
- communication
- focus
- reasoning

Subtle Short-Term Memory Changes Trouble with memory can be an early sign of dementia. The changes are often subtle and tend to involve short-term memory. Your elderly relative may be able to remember years past, but not what they had for breakfast.

Other signs of changes in short-term memory include forgetting where they left something, struggling to remember why they went into a particular room, or forgetting what they were supposed to do on any given day.

Difficulty Finding the Right Words Another early sign of dementia is struggling to communicate thoughts the way you want to. This may mean that a person can't seem to explain things. They may reach for the right words, but just can't seem to grasp them.

Conversations with an elderly parent who has dementia can become difficult and take longer than usual to conclude.

Changes in mood are also common with dementia. It isn't always easy to recognize this aspect of dementia in yourself, but it's easy to notice in a loved one. Depression, for instance, is typical of early dementia.

Along with mood changes, you might also see a shift in personality. One typical type of personality change seen with dementia is a shift from being shy to outgoing. This is because judgment is often affected. A common symptom of early dementia is a listlessness or apathy. You might notice that your elderly loved one is starting to lose interest in hobbies or activities. They may not want to go out anymore or to do anything fun. They may be losing interest in spending time with friends and family and may seem emotionally flat.

Difficulty Doing Normal Tasks

A subtle shift in the ability to complete normal tasks may indicate an early sign of dementia. This usually starts with difficulty doing more complex things like balancing the checkbook or playing games that have a lot of rules.

Along with the struggle to complete familiar tasks, you may notice your loved one struggling to learn how to do new things or follow new routines.

Confusion: Someone in the early stages of dementia may often show signs of confusion. When memory, thinking, or judgment lapses, confusion arises as your loved one can no longer remember faces, find the right words, or interact with people normally.

Confusion can occur for a number of reasons. For example, missing car keys, forgetting what comes next in the day, or trying to remember who someone is.

Following Storylines: If you notice that your elderly loved one has a hard time following storylines, it may be due to early dementia. Just as finding and using the right words becomes difficult, people with dementia also sometimes forget the meanings of words they hear. Struggling to follow along with conversations or TV programs is a classic early warning sign.

A Failing Sense of Direction Sense of direction and spatial orientation is a common function of thinking that starts to deteriorate with the onset of dementia. This can mean not recognizing once-familiar landmarks and forgetting regularly used directions.

It also becomes more difficult to follow series of directions and step-by-step instructions.

Being Repetitive

Repetition is common in dementia because of memory loss and general behavioral changes. You might notice your elderly parent or loved one repeat daily tasks like shaving or collecting items obsessively.

They also may repeat the same questions in a conversation after you've already answered them.

Struggling to Adapt to Change

For someone in the early stages of dementia, the experience is frightening. Suddenly they can't remember people they know or follow what others are saying. They can't remember why they went to the store and get lost on the way home.

Because of this, they might crave routine and not want to try new things. Having difficulty adapting to changes is a typical sign of early dementia.

Mother's Day

Florence Miller

On the Saturday before Mother's Day, May 7th at noon we had a lovely luncheon for those ladies and gentlemen who got their tickets. The cost was very low: no charge for women and $3.00 for men. All of the ladies were given carnation corsages.

Music played softly as we dined on fresh fruit, a croissant sandwich and fresh veggies, pickles and olives. The "door prizes" were awarded for the lady who was the oldest mother, then the youngest mother and the lady who had the most grandchildren. Then dessert of carrot cake was distributed. We even had a few Hershey kisses for everyone.

My committee did a marvelous job - Connie Hobbs, Janet Episcopo, Bob, Becky Collins, Kathy Troll, and Bob Craig worked hard to put together a marvelous time and clean up afterwards.

The only comment I would have is that more should have attended - we had extra food which was taken to shut-ins.

Be on the lookout for next month - there will be a Father's Day lunch. Please keep in mind that it is something you would not want to miss. The cost will be the same except that it will be $3.00 for women and no charge for men. Contact Becky for your tickets

A mother's love is an unrivaled force of nature.

Much Needed Suggestion

By Dorothy Ravener

This is only another suggestion on how to inform our residents of what's happening at the Clubhouse.

Another Mobile resident park, down the street, Bay Aristocrat, south of us, has a Blackboard, on the outside of the Clubhouse, informing their residents of, dances, dinners, special events. This could be erected on the side of the Laundry room, facing Japonica Drive. When that event is over, erase that and replace with the next event.

The blackboard would serve as one more form of notification, communication for those in the community who do not have channel 96, who do not have internet for the Japanese Garden website, or who cannot make it to the Clubhouse to check out the postings on the bulletin board.

It would serve to inform the community on a larger scale, of the details of upcoming events. Think it over!!!!

I Got Rhythm, You Got Rhythm

Noreen

I have only been here a few years. During that short time, there have been many observations made about our home and the people that constitute our community. Personally, I love the early morning solitude of the benches by the bay. One can either watch the sunrise, or wait for the sun to dance on the water, like glistening diamonds. The variety of choices is beyond belief.

A rather unique phenomenon also exists in the park. It just takes a while to actually see and feel it.

We usually rise and have coffee or tea (at least one to start the day) before 7:00am. The peace and quiet before others affect our day's beginning. Maybe a bite to eat before starting the day. We have so many choices. Some start by taking the dog to the doggie park for a brisk walk, or leisurely ride in the golf cart.

Don't forget, those who begin the day with a walk around the park. Each resident has their own pace, the stroll or the jog, or somewhere in between.

Even the cyclists have their own individual style and pace and length of time.

Then back home for chores, or shopping, or relaxing by the pool. Next comes lunch or brunch, between 12:00pm and 2:00pm. What happens after a nice afternoon meal? Nap time of course. Besides, it's summer time and the temperature has increased, so relax.

Dinner approximately 5:00pm to 6:00pm and martinis by the bay, or a club event or activity, afterwards. Unless of course, you are taking the dog to the doggie park, by golf cart parade, or stroller. Right, don't forget the walkers or people that stroll, and the cyclists.

Now, back home by 8:00pm or 9:00pm for some "telly" and onto bed. But most of us toss and turn, without a solid night's sleep. We normally wake every two to three hours, only to wake the next morning out of frustration, (No REM sleep here), and begin the dance all over again.

Now, you have those choices I always talk about. Admit this is true and laugh, or maybe set it to the music of your mind and go with the rhythm.

Something like this:

morning wake and coffee/tea morning doggie park, jog, stroll, cycle...activity of some sort morning chores, shopping, poolside, etc.

lunch

dinner

martinis by the bay ..or club activity, event, etc., or doggies, walking, strolling, cycling (you got the idea) back to bed and a night of tossing and turning, only to be repeated the next day.

So the theme song is based on our own life's rhythm of, "Summer time and the living is easy" or "You got Rhythm, I got Rhythm, who could ask for anything more?" or my favorite "Free Byrd" where you choose your own pace and time. (Sorry folks, I am just NOT into rap.)

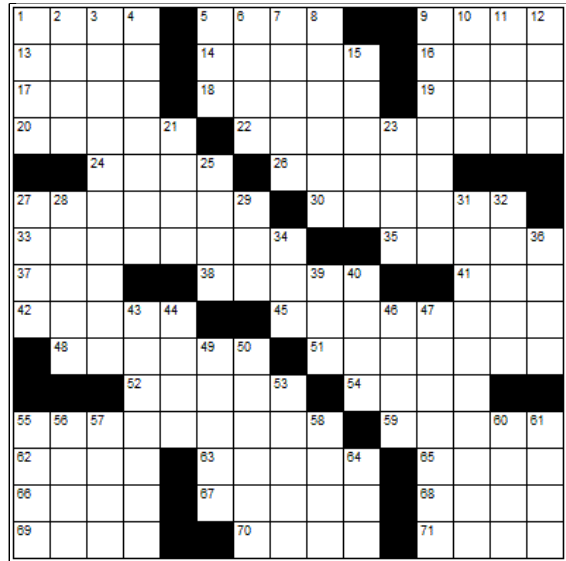

But, hey it's all about individuality and choices.
