Letter from the President of Japanese Garden Social Club

Janet Lones

The Mexican Fiesta was a great event, it is just too bad more people did not attend. We had delicious food and a good time.

This is the time of year our neighbors and friends start returning from up North. Welcome, I am looking forward to seeing you.

Fall is the time of year we think of school starting, cooler temperatures, and start thinking about the Holidays. Have you been shopping lately? Some of the stores already have Christmas trees and decorations on display. What happened to Armistice Day (Veteran's Day), Thanksgiving or Halloween? It seems they have jumped from Back-to-School to Christmas. Well, here in Japanese Garden we will have a celebration for all Veterans on Veteran's Day.

Thanksgiving is not holiday to be put on the back burner. We have so much to be thankful for, our friends, our health and the freedom we have in this country.

Halloween is a fun time. As a child I looked forward to dressing up and going Trick-Or-Treating. These days I do not go Trick-or-Treating, but it is fun to see the little ones all dressed up and having fun. Yes, the month of October is the time we

CHRISTMAS BOUTIQUE

CHARLOTTE THOMPSON

The Holiday season is rapidly approaching, so are all the festivities we share with family and friends. Our Christmas Boutique starts our December array of get - togethers.

AS I mentioned last month, the Boutique is an Arts and Craft show. Along with that we also will have breakfast, a bake sale and a Christmas decoration sale.

Here is a preliminary outline of that event:

- Dec.5: 7pm - all crafters and helpers meet in the rec. hall to set up tables and arrange your particular area.
- Dec. 6: Saturday @ 6:30 - 7A.M. all involved with any part of the morning sales and other tables to come early and finish any last minute preparations for the "before breakfast sales".

7:30A.M. Doors open and Boutique begins,

8:00 A.M. approximately breakfast begins, after which our Craft Boutique continues.

When we are finished with sales each group or individual is responsible for straightening their area and we all help in tidying the rec. hall for the next Event! We help each other so this goes so fast it's finished in no time at all.

If you would like to participate, just organize your Christmas recipes and decide which you would like to bake and share with the Bake sale, then go through your decorations and see if you have anything to donate, (at present please hold onto those items and I will let you know who will be in charge of that table in the Nov. Domei).

To all you creative people, those of us who have been here for a number of years and anyone who is recently moved to JG please join us. Not only would it be wonderful getting to know each other, but we love having new members share their talents and ideas. Especially yours!

There will be an updated post in the November Domei, but just in case there are any questions, please call me, Charlotte Thompson, at 531-3651.

Thank you in advance for your participation. Christmas is a lovely time of year because each of you makes these events a memorable moment in time. Talk to you next month or maybe around the pool.

Mexican Fiesta

On August 16 we held our Mexican Fiesta. Rebecca Gonzales was in charge and what a great job she did. The Club House was decorated with many festive decorations and each table was adorned with colorful flowers. A video of Mexican dancers dancing various dances to Mexican music was played during or meal. All enjoyed listening and watching as we ate delicious food.

Food included: Pork and chicken Fajitas along with all the trimmings, Mexican Salad, chips and salsa, Bread pudding and cake served in Margarita glasses. Speaking of Margaritas, Rebecca's husband made ice cold peach and strawberry Margaritas for everyone. They were quite refreshing on this hot afternoon. All the food was homemade by Rebecca. Thanks to Rebecca and all her helpers for a great afternoon.

There is only one thing that could have made it better. There should have been more people there to enjoy it. All who attended agreed that those who didn't come missed out on a special event.

Biggest bird ever lived long ago

The largest known bird to ever soar the skies lived about 28 million years ago in North America, according to paleontologists (and the Sci-News website). Pelagornis sandersi had a wingspan of close to 21 feet, more than twice the span of the largest living bird, the royal albatross. With such massive wings, it could have flown great distances over the ocean in search of prey. The pelagornis belongs to a category of ancient birds called Pelagornithidae, which once ruled the skies but went extinct about 3 million years ago.

A SENIOR WEDDING'

FROM THE INTERNET, SENT IN BY MARTY MEALEY

---

Jacob, age 92, and Rebecca, age 89, living in Miami, are all excited about their decision to get married. They go for a stroll to discuss the wedding, and on the way they pass a drugstore. Jacob suggests they go in.

Jacob addresses the man behind the counter:

"Are you the owner?"

The pharmacist answers,
"Yes."

Jacob:

"We're about to get married.
Do you sell heart medication?"

Pharmacist:

"Of course, we do."

Jacob:

"How about medicine for circulation?"

Pharmacist:

"All kinds."

Jacob:

"Medicine for rheumatism?"

Pharmacist:

"Definitely."

Jacob:

"How about suppositories?"

Pharmacist:

"You bet!"

Jacob:

"Medicine for memory problems,
arthritis and Alzheimer's?"

Pharmacist:

"Yes, a large variety. The Works."

Jacob:

"What about vitamins, sleeping pills, Geritol, antidotes for Parkinson's disease?"

Pharmacist:

"Absolutely."

Jacob:

"Everything for heartburn and indigestion?"

Pharmacist:

"We sure do."

Jacob:

"You sell wheelchairs and walkers and canes?"

Pharmacist:

"All speeds and sizes."

Jacob:

"Adult diapers?"

Pharmacist:

"Sure."

Jacob:

"Wonderful!

We'd like to use this store as our Bridal Registry."

January Rummage Sale

Submitted by Marcelle Rouse and Susan Jean

Although January seems a long way off, it is not too soon to start thinking about our annual rummage sale. We welcome your good used items that you no longer need. We would also like to see the volunteers wearing a red T-shirt/blouse if at all possible on the day of the sale. The red shirts along with our name badges should make us easily identifiable to the public.

STORAGE AREA FOR RUMMAGE SALE IN JANUARY 2015

We are very lucky again this year to have a storage area given to us by the management to be used for our rummage sale. The address is 2648 Butterfly Drive.

ITEMS THAT WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED ARE:

- Large items such as:
- Sofa beds
- Mattresses/Box springs
- Washers/dryers
- Refrigerators
- Stoves
- Computer monitors
- PC towers
- Bed pillows
- Mirrors that are not framed

When donating linens, please mark size (sheets/blankets, tablecloths, curtains).

PLEASE make sure all donated items are clean, in good working condition and are bagged or boxed securely.

Remember - only certain items will be accepted. This is not a dumping area for unwanted items listed above.

DO NOT DROP OFF/LEAVE ITEMS AT HOUSE OR IN DRIVEWAY.

Call Bob Lones at 474-5303 or Bruce Jean at 612-0337 to schedule a time for you to deliver items to storage area, he/she will meet you there. If items are large or you are unable to deliver to the storage area, he/she will make arrangements for pick-up at your house.

Thank you!

Believe it or not? We're going with 'not'

History is full of practical jokers, some more successful than others. Check out these three tales of hoaxes that seemed plausible—before they fell apart:

- I'll take Manhattan. A carpenter by the name of Lozier claimed in 1825 that Manhattan was in danger of sinking because of overbuilding on the lower end. Lozier proposed that the lower end be sawed off, dragged into New York harbor, and then reattached. He came up with a plan and commissioned numerous laborers. When the day came for the big move, the laborers gathered with supplies and provisions. Lozier never showed up.
- Not so elementary. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle created the famous detective Sherlock Holmes, but his own deductive powers weren't always superior to anyone else's. Two young girls, 16 and 10, once sent him a picture of fairies supposedly photographed in the English village of Cottingley. Doyle brought them national attention. Photography experts declared there had been no touching up or manipulating of the picture. In the early 1980s, the two girls (now grown women) had admitted that they had posed with paper cutouts of fairies, which had been supported by hatpins.
- Out of the Stone Age. In 1971, the world was told that a tribe of Stone Age people, never exposed to modern civilization, was found deep in the jungles of the Philippines. There was great hubbub about the discovery. Then in 1986, a Swiss journalist revisited the tribe, only to find them living in huts and dressed in T-shirts and shorts. The group of people then revealed that they had been instructed by a government official to pretend they were cave dwellers.

The sound of anger

A young student of Zen visited a wise and renowned master. Wanting to show off his enlightenment, he sat down and said: "The mind does not exist. The true nature of the universe is emptiness. There is no realization, no delusion, no sage, no mediocrity. There is nothing to give and nothing to be received. Is this not right, master?"

The master, smoking quietly, said nothing. Suddenly he gave the student a smack on the head with his pipe.

The student grew quite angry. "Why did you do that? I came here seeking to discuss wise matters with you, and you simply hit me in the face with your pipe? How could you do such a thing?"

"If the mind does not exist," the master asked, "where did this anger come from?"

10 Benefits of Growing An Herb Garden

By Elissa Rodrigues, Monthly Media Staff Writer

My Grandmother was an excellent gardener. You name it, she could grow it - from gorgeous roses (several varieties) to blueberries, tomatoes, peppers, zucchini, she even had an apple tree! Unfortunately, unlike her, my thumb happens to be more brown than green. This Spring, however, I'm giving it another try. I'm a Realist, so instead of growing an entire salad, I'm starting with an herb garden. Here are 10 benefits that may convince you to do the same!

- 1. Fresh herbs are always available. This may seem obvious, but you'll be surprised how creative you'll get with everyday vegetables, dips and dishes when you have fresh ingredients at your fingertips.
- 2. It's good for you. Adding fresh herbs boots vitamins and nutrients to your diet, and don't forget that gardening is a great calorie-burner with all that digging, bending and stretching. Talk about a double-benefit!
- 3. Save money. Fresh herbs can be expensive and wasteful when you buy a whole bundle, and only use a few snips for a recipe. Not to mention, stores may not always have the variety you're looking for, and specialty stores mean higher prices.
- 4. Educational. Growing an herb garden is a learning experience for adults and children, and kids will love to help out! From a new gardening technique to trying out new recipes, you'll be surprised how much you'll learn.
- 5. No boring dinners. Add a few new herbs to chicken, fish, potatoes, vegetables - or your regular party dip, and it goes from bland to wow, and you can experiment with new combinations nightly.
- 6. Relieve stress. Tending to or just visiting an herb garden - and breathing in all that aroma - can do wonders for stress levels. So make yourself a cup of (fresh) mint tea, and relax!
- 7. Share the wealth. Having your own herb garden means you'll have more than enough, so be a good neighbor (and friend), and share your bounty with others! Tie on a recipe to a fresh bunch, or jar your own dried herbs and voila you've got the perfect hostess gift.
- 8. Exotic variety. There are 30 varieties of basil. Who knew? Your regular grocer only carries the most common sweet basil. Choose your own exotic variety, whether it's dark opal basil, cinnamon basil, anise basil, Italian basil, or globe basil to name a few.
- 9. Curb appeal. Adding an herb garden can give your landscape real curb appeal - it's lush and well tended-to. If you don't have room for a full herb garden, just add them to shrubs. They blend in beautifully.
- 10. Good, clean fun. Dirt aside, it'll brighten your day to watch your fresh garden grow, and it may inspire you to branch out to fruits or vegetables. With all those herbs, you know you'll have the salad dressing covered!

For some flavor inspiration, some herbs to try are: basil, bay leaf, chives, dill, garlic, parsley, sage and mint (which makes delicious tea by the way!) Be creative, and plant what you'll use. For more tips, visit <http://www.gardeningknowhow.com>. Happy gardening!
