LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

BY KERRY ELLIS

First of all I would like to thank all of you who voted for me, and our new board members. Our goals are to bring our residents together and create new and fun events for all. We hope to increase Social Club Membership and event attendance. Not to forget about tradition however because it is also very important. You will still be seeing a lot of the traditional events you have all enjoyed for years.

If you have not logged onto our new park web site created by Marshall Giles please do so. It has a lot of interesting information for you. The site is jgsocial.wordpress.com. If you have any event changes or additions or any We Care information, contact one our editors. Judy Bossie, Kerry Ellis or Florence Miller.

Finally, we have had a couple of controversial discussions about the order we should play the national anthems. I and two others have investigated this extensively and protocol dictates we play our guests anthem first then our own anthem. I hope this settles any arguements that have occurred regarding this topic.

MANAGER'S CORNER

There still are a few folks that continue to drive fast in our park. The speed limit in the park is still ten miles an hour. That includes Golf carts as well. It seems that folks drive faster in the morning when they are going to work. This is also the time when many seniors are out for their daily walk. Be careful, drive safely, the late model cars are very quiet and many seniors have some degree of hearing loss.

EDITOR'S CORNER

A SADLY MISSED FRIEND

Long time resident Joanne Hebenstreit, originally from New York, has passed away after a brief illness. She will be sorely missed. Joanne was an inspiration to many park residents as she rode around in her golf cart greeting her many friends. Even a brief conversation with this grand lady would lift one's spirits for the rest of the day. She will certainly be fondly remembered by all who knew her.

BY JIM EVELAND

The Family of Joann Hebenstriet would like to thank everyone for their cards and condolence. They did not know anyone but was glad to see she had so many friends. She is in a better place but I know she will miss Japanese Garden and the nice people who live there.

Thank you

Noreen Adams will be writing the DOMEI for the summer starting with the May DOMEI. Please E-Mail all articles to Noreen Adams. Email, theredheadedgranny@yahoo.com

Hal Schroth has finished building new display frames in order to properly present this year's results of our paper tole classes.

Thanks to the many folks in our park, who always volunteer to help out, plans for our annual Chicken Bake are moving forward nicely.

UNLAWFUL

Remember, It is unlawful for any one, other that a postal employee, to put ANYTHING in a mail box. It is sometimes tempting, but remember, unlawful.

STREET LIGHTS IN THE PARK

If you have a street light out or giving any problem at all on your street in the park, call the electric company at 1 800 228 8485 and report the street address of the coach nearest the offending light. They will usually be out as son as the next day to take care of it.

Our own memory garden, located behind the library, is quite well maintained by our manager Steve Lyle. Stop by and visit for a quiet moment or two of quiet reflection. I'm sure you will find it quite enjoyable. Also it is right next to the veteran's memorial. One might visit that as well. You will come away with a greater sense of peace.

SUPER DANCE PARTY

On another note, don't forget Elizabeth's Super Dance Party at the club house on Sunday evening April 12 at 7:30 PM. It is always a really great time. Don't miss it, even if you only want to sit down and observe. It's always a great event.

Folks are still speeding with their cars and golf carts. You wouldn't want to be responsible for an injury to one of our senior residents. Slow down and enjoy your drive through our park.

ROMEO CLUB LUNCHEON SCHEDULE

BY JOE WALKER

The ROMEO Club (Retired Old Men Eat Out), will continue the practice of meeting once a month at different area restaurants on the 3rd Thursday of each month from October to May. Any male resident of the park, (or their male guest), is invited to attend. A sign-up sheet will be posted on the Club House Bulletin Board around the 1st of each month and will identify the selected restaurant for that month. Please mark your calendars and sign-up at least 2 days prior to the luncheon so that reservations can be confirmed.

EVERY DAY

BY JOE WALKER

I decided to change calling the bathroom the John and renamed it the Jim. I feel so much better saying I went to the Jim this morning.
Peace is that brief glorious moment in history, when everybody stands around reloading"

OBSERVATIONS

By Marty Mealey

The closest I ever got to a 4.0 in college was my blood alcohol content.
Money can't buy happiness but it sure makes misery easier to live with.
If flying is so safe, why do they call the airport the "terminal"?
I don't approve of political jokes. I've seen too many of them get elected.
The most precious thing we have is life, yet it has absolutely no trade-in value.
If life deals you lemons, make lemonade. If life deals you tomatoes, make Bloody Marys.
Shopping tip: You can get shoes for a buck at bowling alleys.
Every day I beat my own previous record for number of consecutive days I've stayed alive.
No one ever says, "It's only a game!" when their team is winning.
Ever notice that people who spend money on beer, cigarettes and lottery tickets are always complaining about being broke and not feeling well?
How long a minute is, depends on what side of the bathroom door you're on.
Why is it that most nudists are people you don't want to see naked?
Snowmen fall from Heaven un-assembled.
How come we choose from just two people to run for president and over fifty for Miss America?
I signed up for an exercise class and was told to wear loose fitting clothing. If I HAD any loose fitting clothing, I wouldn't have signed up in the first place.
Wouldn't it be nice if whenever we messed up our life we could simply press Ctrl Alt delete and start all over?
Wouldn't you know it! Brain cells come and brain cells go, but FAT cells live forever.
Why is it that our children can't read a Bible in school, but they can in prison?

THE CENTIPEDE

SENT IN BY MARTY MEALEY

A single guy decided life would be more fun if he had a pet. So he went to the pet store and told the owner that he wanted to buy an unusual pet. After some thought and discussion, he finally bought a talking centipede, (100-legged bug), which came in a little white box to use for his house.

He took the box back home, found a good spot for the box, and decided he would start off by taking his new pet to church with him.

So he asked the centipede in the box "Would you like to go to church with me today?"

We will have a good time and it will be fun. But there was no answer from the box.

This bothered him a bit, but he waited a few minutes and then asked again,

"How about going to church with me and receive blessings?"

But again, there was no answer from his new friend and pet.

So he waited a few minutes more, thinking about the situation.

The guy decided to invite the centipede one last time.

This time he put his face up right up against the centipede's house and shouted,

"HEY, in there! Would you like to go to church with me and learn about God?"

This time, a little voice came out of the little box,

"I heard you the first time! I'm putting my shoes on!"

ELECTRONIC RECYCLING

Free Electronics Collection Days are held on the last Wednesday of the month from 7:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at 1701 N. Hercules Avenue (562-4933). Bring up to six electronics and a utility bill for proof of residency.

It was quite nice to see Tim Wilkins back doing the music for a party. Tim has a knack for what music we like and keeps his volume just right.

IRISH JOKES

BY MARTY MEALEY

The late Bishop Sheen stated that the reason the Irish fight so often among themselves is, that they're always assured of having a worthy opponent.

An American lawyer asked, "Paddy, why is it, that whenever you ask an Irishman a question, he answers with another question?"

"Who told you that?" asked Paddy.

Question - Why are Irish jokes so simple?

Answer, So the English can understand them.

Reilly went to trial for armed robbery. The jury foreman came out and announced, "Not guilty. That's grand!" shouted Reilly. "Does that mean I can keep the money?"

Finnegin: My wife has a terrible habit of staying up 'till two o'clock in the morning. I can't break her of it.

Keenan: What on earth is she doin' at that time?

Finnegin: Waitin' for me to come home .

Slaney phoned the maternity ward at the hospital. "Quick!" he said. "Send an ambulance, the wife is goin' to have a baby! "Tell me, is this her first baby?" the intern asked.

"No, this is her husband, Kevin, speakin'."

LONG TERM PARKING

Some people left their car in the long-term parking at San Jose while away, and someone broke into the car. Using the information on the car's registration in the glove compartment, they drove the car to the people's home in Pebble Beach and robbed it. So I guess if we are going to leave the car in long-term parking, we should NOT leave our registration/insurance cards in it, nor the remote garage door opener. This gives us something to think about with all our new electronic technology.

GPS

Someone had their car broken into while they were at a football game. Their car was parked on the green which was adjacent to the football stadium and specially allotted to football fans. Things stolen from the car included a garage door remote control, some money and a GPS which had been prominently mounted on the dashboard. When the victims got home, they found that their house had been ransacked and just about everything worth anything had been stolen. The thieves had used the GPS to guide them to the house. They then used the garage remote control to open the garage door and gain entry to the house. The thieves knew the owners were at the football game, they knew what time the game was scheduled to finish and so they knew how much time they had to clean out the house. It would appear that they had brought a truck to empty the house of its contents.

Something to consider if you have a GPS - don't put your home address in it. Put a nearby address (like a store or gas station) so you can still find your way home if you need to, but no one else would know where you live if your GPS were stolen.

CELL PHONES

I never thought of this! This lady has now changed her habit of how she lists names on her cell phone after her handbag was stolen. Her handbag, which contained her cell phone, credit card, wallet, etc., was stolen. Twenty minutes later when she called her hubby, from a pay phone telling him what had happened, hubby says, "I received your text asking about our PIN number and I replied a little while ago." When they rushed down to the bank, the bank staff told them all the money was already withdrawn. The thief had actually used the stolen cell phone to text "hubby" in the contact list and got hold of the PIN. Within 20 minutes he had withdrawn all the money from their bank account.

Moral of this story*

1. Do not disclose the relationship between you and the people in your contact list. Avoid using names like Home, Honey, Hubby, Sweetheart, Dad, Mom, etc.
2. And, very importantly, when sensitive info is being asked through texts, CONFIRM by calling back.
3. Also, when you're being texted by friends or family to meet them somewhere, be sure to call back to confirm that the message came from them. If you don't reach them, be very careful about going places to meet "family and friends" who text you.

PURSE IN THE GROCERY CART SCAM

A lady went grocery-shopping at a local mall and left her purse sitting in the child seat of the cart while she reached something off a shelf. Wait till you read the WHOLE story! Her wallet was stolen, and she reported it to the store personnel. After returning home, she received a phone call from the Mall Security to say that they had her wallet and that although there was no money in it, it did still hold her personal papers. She immediately went to pick up her wallet, only to be told by Mall Security that they had not called her. By the time she returned home again, her house had been broken into and burgled. The thieves knew that by calling and saying they were Mall Security, they could lure her out of her house long enough for them to burgle it.
