Presidents Report

Ann Santos

It's time to say goodbye to Karen as the Editor for the Monthly Media. Karen has devoted her time and efforts for the past 5 years and has done a wonderful job. She had made the decision to retire from that job. We all need to thank Karen for the hard work on the Media. If anyone has anything they would like to get into the media you can call Ann Santos at 535-5797, or drop it off at #521.

Our 2 Sunshine ladies are gone for the summer, so if you know of someone who is sick or has been in the hospital, you can let Betty Silverman know, she is at #612.

We had a great turnout for our Memorial Day Celebration and picnic. Pretty close to 60 of our residents came out to join us. We thank everyone for their support and hope that you will continue to come out to our events. The July 4th Celebration and Picnic is coming up on the 4th, an Ice Cream Social on August 16 and Labor Day Celebration on September 7. You will need to buy tickets for these events so watch the bulletin boards and Media for the information.

Have a Great Summer, stay cool and MAKE IT A NICE DAY!

Thank You

I would like to let everyone how much I enjoyed being your La Plaza Newsletter Editor for the last 5 years. I have decided to step down and give someone else the opportunity to take over. I was happy to succeed Gertrude Dobshuetz in 2010. She had been the editor for many years before me. I also want to thank the board, both past and present for their support during my time as editor.

Thank You All
Karen Goleskie

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

What is Neighborhood Watch and why do we have it? Neighborhood Watch is a program that the local Police Dept's are urging neighborhoods and community's to organize to try to maintain a safe environment. We have had Neighborhood Watch in La Plaza now for about 2 years. We have had the Largo Police, specifically Julie Williams, come in and talk to us. You may see Neighborhood Watch signs on some of the houses as well as at both entrances. The Largo Police ride through here in the middle of the night at the request of Lou Goodwin who is the chairman of our Neighborhood Watch Program.

The message behind this is that we are all part of Neighborhood Watch. If you hear, see or suspect that something is not right, if you are frightened by a noise in the middle of the night, if you observe a flashlight shining in someone's windows or their car in the middle of the night, you need to call the police. You need to give specifics and they may ask a lot of questions, but this is to help them understand exactly what they are facing when they come into our community. You can request that your identity be kept confidential and they will honor that. Call 911 if you feel it is an emergency situation or you can call the non-emergency number (727-587-6730). Just don't wait until the next day and tell Lou that you were frightened during the night by a noise outside your house.

Many of our residents are part of the Neighborhood Watch team, however, we would like to see more. In the fall we will be recruiting for more members. The role is to be aware, never take aggressive action and educate your neighbors to make our community a safe place to live.

Just a reminder; if you have a bike, trike, scooter or golf cart, make sure you lock them up or secure them in some way. We have, in the past, had some of these items stolen during the night.

You can put your name, La Plaza, and lot # under the seat. If they are found there will be identifying information for the police to follow up on.

RECYCLING SUGGESTION

BOBBI PAYE

While I know that recycling is not a part of the waste removal provided by in our park, did you know that recycling is available just out the exit of 69th Street and Across East Bay Drive on the road North of the Wells Fargo Bank. You just need to drive on the Road that goes out behind the currently operating stores North of Wells Fargo Bank. It is zero sort recycling, so flattened cardboard, newspapers, magazines, plastic bottles, cans, glass, etc. can be placed in the recycling containers. No plastic bags are allowed.

Ancient bones offer clues to evolution

Scientists may have discovered a new human ancestor to go along with “Lucy,” the 3.2 million-year-old Australopithecus afarensis female from eastern Africa. Dubbed “Little Foot” because of his small bones, this specimen was unearthed in South Africa in the early 1990s. His skeleton was almost completely preserved after falling down a narrow cave shaft and dying there. Whether Little Foot was a relative of Lucy’s or a different pre-human species has been a subject of debate among anthropologists, but a new dating process suggests that Little Foot lived and died some 3.67 million years ago, close to the same time as Lucy.

Although some scientists dispute the accuracy of the dating technique, if it holds up it suggests an evolutionary link between different species of Australopithecus in ancient Africa, as well as evidence of where in Africa modern humans began to develop.

Birds do it, bees do it, and so do amorous mice

From time immemorial, men have wooed their lady loves with romantic (if sometimes off-key) music. Now scientists from Duke University believe that love songs aren’t just for humans. Mice also sing to females they hope to attract, although they aren’t likely using Barry White.

Instead, mice rely on high-pitched sounds outside the range of human hearing, using specific tunes when they smell a potential mate and different ones when they finally set eyes on her. The songs are louder and composed of more complex sounds when they smell a female scent, and get simpler—but longer—when they finally meet face to face. The complex songs seem to attract females, although what specifically draws them close is still uncertain.

The very striving and hard work that we so constantly try to avoid is the major building block in the person we are today.

—Pope Paul VI

Support innovation with continuous learning

The more you learn, the more material you have for your creative efforts. To master lifelong learning, no matter what your ambitions are, consider these points from the Innovation Excellence website:

- Laughter is good for the brain. Find the humor in whatever you do. Laughter will help you remember incidents better, and also generate a sense of security which supports a well-balanced mind.
- Learn in chunks. Instead of trying to memorize information in big blocks, concentrate on learning a few individual points at a time. You'll retain more without the mental exhaustion of cramming.
- Study a foreign language. Bilingual speakers tend to process information more efficiently than those who speak only one language. People who exercise their brains by learning Spanish, Japanese, or some other tongue frequently find they don't have to work as hard performing other cognitive tasks.

Keep your mouth shut

A turtle was lying on the bank of a river one day when he heard two hunters walk by, talking about how they planned to come back the next day to catch some turtles for soup. He worried all night, because he knew he couldn't outrun the hunters, and in the morning he had a plan.

He saw two birds in the tree overhead. As the hunters approach, the turtle called out, "You up there! Would you help me escape these hunters?"

"What do you want us to do?" the first bird asked.

"I'll hold this stick in my mouth," the turtle said, "and you two pick me up and fly me to the other side of the river."

The birds agreed and flew down to the ground. The turtle clamped a thick stick between its jaws, and the birds slowly lifted him up off the ground.

As the hunters reached the riverbank, they stared in amazement. "Look at those birds! They figured out how to carry a turtle across the river! Those must be the smartest animals in the world!"

Jealous, the turtle cried out: "It was my ideaaaaaa ..."

Monthly Mania: It Pays (Up to $100) To Patronize the Advertisers in Your Newsletter

14,492 manufactured home residents have won over $124,374 since our contest began. It's simple to play ... when you patronize a current advertiser, ask for a Monthly Mania ticket (or a reasonable facsimile) and fill it out completely. Put the ticket in our Monthly Mania drop box in your community or mail your paid receipt to us at Monthly Media • PO Box 1023 • Venice, FL 34284. That's all you do. At the end of the month the Publishers will pick up the tickets and hold a drawing. If your ticket is drawn, we mail you a check.
