PARADISE ISLAND UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association Secretary

HAPPY NEW YEAR! As we welcome the year 2019 and look forward to many times of fellowship, let's take a brief look back at what happened in Paradise in 2018:

- Hosted a number of 3-park events including

Country Breakfast	Spring Dance	Pub/Trivia Night	KY Derby
Luau	Pizza Party	Italian Dinner	Oktoberfest
- Free steak dinner for Association members, a number of Hot Dog Nights and Cook Outs and to finalize the year, an outstanding Christmas Party.

The Hobby Club had another successful Arts & Crafts sale, a traditional English Tea Party, hosted a baby shower for the Bay Area Pregnancy Center and spearheaded the annual Thanksgiving Food Drive and Christmas Toy Drive, as well as coordinated the annual Community Sale. I often feel our park could not exist without the dedicated efforts of the Hobby Club members. These ladies deserve a rousing round of applause.

All things considered, it was a very good year in Paradise and extend thanks and appreciation to the executive team and to all the volunteers who pitched in to make the events memorable.

Again many thanks to the Christmas Party Committee – Carolyn Bailey, Lei Crance and Marcia Lilley – it was truly a fun night. It doesn't just "happen" there is much time and effort spent in research, shopping, setting up and clean up that goes on behind the scenes. A special thanks to Janel Balogh who pitched in to get the tables decorated and to the bingo players who moved chairs and arranged the tables for us. Everyone commented on how festive the clubhouse looked, and the two Christmas Trees certainly did not go unnoticed. The committee and park officers thank everyone who helped decorate the trees and the pool area.

A park cannot be successful without volunteers to help with the myriad of tasks required throughout the year. So if you: helped setup/clean up for functions; locked/unlocked the clubhouse; picked up the donuts; washed the dishes; laundered the dishtowels; shopped/cooked for an event; distributed Happenings and/or flyers; collected dues/paid bills.....or any number of other tasks, Paradise Island appreciates you – thanks for your personal contributions!

Our Association meetings and Pot Luck Dinners are the first Saturday each month; the January meeting will be Saturday, January 5; all residents of Paradise Island (Park #1) are welcome to attend. Please sign up in advance for the pot luck dinner – a food donation is required from Association members, a $5/pp charge for guests. Bring your place setting and choice of beverage, AND a plastic container to take your used items home.

It's also that time of year for collecting dues. You should have received a letter and collection envelope(s) – home owners receive separate envelopes for Association and HOA dues; renters receive an envelope for Association dues. These are annual fees covering the calendar year January-December. New residents will pay the annual fee regardless of the move-in month.

In January our primary focus will be on the annual Community Sale. Donations of small items can be left in the clubhouse near the stage area; please hold all large donations until the week of the sale as the garage is completely full. As always we need not only sale donations but volunteers to help set-up, sell, and pack up the unsold items. Also needed are bakery items for the bake sale table. Cookies, brownies, fruit breads and pies are always good sellers, so please, bake, bake, bake and fill the room with that enticing aroma of freshly baked goodies. Fliers will be distributed with more detailed information and sign-up forms will be posted on the bulletin board. Our social activities are dependent on income from this sale. Save Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 24, 25, 26 for this annual event. There will be a free dinner for the volunteers on the 26th.

A new rule has been instituted – reserving the clubhouse for a personal event now requires a deposit of $150; if the room is left clean and arranged as you found it, your full deposit is returned. Please contact me (733-3755) for reservations.

In March the executive team will have completed the two-year term of service specified in Paradise Island Bylaws; existing officers can be nominated for a second two-year term.

The secretary and treasurer positions are permanent unless those officers choose to resign. We encourage you to begin considering candidates to be nominated at the February meeting. The election will take place at the March meeting; newly elected officers will be inducted at the April meeting.

Look forward to seeing all of you at the January meeting where we will make plans for the new year.

Treasures Cove Going Ons -

Hello Treasure Cove and Happy New Year 2019
Bye Bye 2018 and Hello 2019. January 2019..... a New Year is here and yet another Winter we all get to enjoy in Florida, which I know so many of us are thankful for.

We all enjoyed a beautiful Christmas gathering on Saturday, December 15th. The food was amazing... prime rib, chicken, Mahi Mahi... everybody loved it. The Baklava was amazing, the cheesecake delightful and all the cookies... we all enjoyed every last bite and we are all going on a diet starting in January. The DJ was so much fun..., lots of singing and dancing and holiday cheer... everybody had such a great time. Thank you to those that helped with Christmas Decorations in the clubhouse and pool area it really makes for an enjoyable holiday season.

As we look into 2019, we look forward more activities together as a community, so keep an eye on your tubes for upcoming events. We know for sure we will be having the Mardi Gras again in 2019, that is at the beginning of February, so get ready, everybody loves that party.

A Happy New Year wish for you is for your best year yet. A year where life is peaceful, and what you want, you get. A year in which you cherish the past year's memories, and live your life each new day, full of bright expectancies. I wish for you a holiday with happiness galore; And when it's done, I wish you Happy New Year, and many more.

A New Years toast to love and laughter and happily ever after A health to you, a wealth to you, And the best that life can give to you. Dance as if no one were watching, Sing as if no one were listening and Live every day as if it were your last.

Love more, when it is hardest to love. Show compassion, always. Be kind when deserved or not. Be patient, when you are at the end of your rope. Smile, when you are saddest. Pray when you are at your lowest. Thank God when you are at your highest.

Reminder...

Our Annual Garage Sale (White Elephant/Bake Sale) fundraiser is coming up in February, it's a great time to get the clutter out. You can start putting any items you many have in the back corner of the clubhouse.

January Happenings 2019

Happy New Year everyone! Hopefully you all survived your trips back up north to visit with family and friends over this Holiday Season. Welcome back!

It's time to get ready for an action packed January. Typically now we have all the seasonal people back in place, where they well should be!

Our January association meeting is scheduled for January 2nd, I know many of you will just be arriving or returning from your holiday trips but we hope you will try to drop by for a cup of coffee and some fresh pastries.

Our potluck for January 7th is always an enjoyable event. We have several folks who choose to share their special soup and stew recipes with the community at their own expense. There will be typically 6 or 7 different varieties for you to sample. The association will be providing finger sandwiches to enhance the meal. As always we appreciate a dish to share. In this case we recommend an appetizer, salad or dessert. We do try to control the quantities as much as possible however leftovers if any will be portioned into individual containers for those of you who wish to take a bit home. We do appreciate your contributions and do not like to see anything go to waste. As always potlucks are free to members and just $5.00 should you choose to bring a guest.

The middle of the month we will once again be hosting our annual Pizza Party. Our pizza party includes made to order pizza, fresh out of the oven, a variety of salads, dessert, beer, wine, and soda. Please watch for flyers. This is a ticketed event as we will also have an evening of dancing and entertainment by the At Large Band beginning at 7PM. Details will be in your information tubes approx. 10 days prior to the event.

We will be wrapping up the month with the first BBQ of the season January 26th. This event is free to members and just $5.00 for guests. The association will be providing burgers, brats, and hotdogs as well as beverages. As always a dish to share is appreciated but not necessary. The Saturday afternoon BBQ's have grown and become one of our favorite events of the year. Hope to see you there.

As always...watch those information tubes! You just never know what is going to show up next.

Monthly

Financial Wellness Month. Are you saving enough for retirement? Are you saving at all? Will you owe the IRS money this year toward your 2018 taxes? What are your financial goals for 2019? These are just a few of the questions to ask yourself while you review your spending habits and determine your preparedness for any "rainy days" ahead.

Get a Balanced Life Month. It's the start of a new year. Use this new beginning as time to review, reconsider, streamline—and maybe even eliminate—the unnecessary commitments, responsibilities, and activities that fill your days.

Get Organized Month. It's cold outside, and more than likely you're spending more time indoors fretting that there's nothing to do. Here's an idea: Don't wait for spring to purge your work and living spaces of unnecessary clutter and unused or unwanted items. There's no better time than the present to restore a sense of order to your life.

Learn to Ski and Snowboard Month. If saying "yes" to new adventures tops your to-do list this year, why not start things off right by developing your ski legs? Go online to learntoskiandsnowboard.org to find information on destinations, deals, and other considerations.

A New Year's resolution for fiscal fitness

Most New Year's resolutions revolve around getting fit. Although that frequently means losing weight, one area you want to fatten up is your money supply. Here are some simple resolutions for adding some healthy heft to your overall financial profile:

- Pay down your mortgage. You can save more than $63,000 on a 30-year, $200,000 mortgage by paying just $100 more a month.
- Save 10 percent. Put aside 10 percent of your income for long-term investments and retirement savings before paying any bills.
- Track your expenses. Record every dollar you spend, for at least one week. You'll get a clearer idea of where the money goes and what you can cut back on.
- Energize your house. Look for ways to make your house more energy efficient. You'll save on heating and cooling costs and help the environment.
- Stay home. Resist the temptation to eat out. Cook more meals at home. Instead of going to the movies, stream a video, read a book, or play a game with your whole family.
- Don't rely on credit cards. Credit card debt can eat up your savings and your future. Start reducing your debt, and don't buy anything on credit if you don't have the money to pay the bill off promptly.

Save money at the grocery store

You have to eat—there's no getting around it for long. You don't have to sink all your money into your next trip to the grocery store, though. The Reader's Digest website shares these tips for saving money on groceries:

- Know your store's coupon policies. Many stores offer their own printable coupons on their websites. Some allow you to use that coupon with a manufacturer's coupon (that's called "stacking"). Ask your store what it allows and what's off-limits.
- Join loyalty programs. You can get discounts and money back on your purchases through your store's loyalty program. Sign up and check all the rules so you get maximum value from it.
- Look for final markdowns and clearances. Many grocery stores place clearance items in a designated area, or use special stickers to help shoppers identify them. Find out what your store does, and keep an eye open for food you can use.
- Be careful with multiples. They can trick you into spending more than you want. For example, if a sign on a bag of chips says "Two for $5," and a single bag of chips is $3.29, you're getting a good deal (if you want chips). On the other hand, a sign that promises "10 for $10" for ramen noodles when they're individually priced at $1 apiece isn't offering any savings. Do the math, and be choosy.

Many folks think they aren't good at earning money, when what they don't know is how to use it.

—Frank A. Clark

Ancient children adapted to climbing trees - based on foot fossil find

Kids love to climb trees, and they've apparently been doing it for a long time—some 3.3 million years, according to studies of the remains of a 3-year-old discovered in Ethiopia.

The CNN website reports that the child, nicknamed Selam (which means “peace” in the Ethiopian Amharic language) was found with a remarkably well-preserved foot—the most complete foot fossil yet discovered, say scientists.

Analyzing the fossil’s skeletal structure, scientists noted that the base of Selam’s big toe would have made her a great climber. Although she could walk upright, she probably spent most of her time in the trees. A study of her shoulder blades also showed a resemblance to those of an ape, adapted for tree climbing.

Trees provided escape from predators like jackals and saber-toothed cats before the discovery of tools and fire, researchers say, noting that data on chimps show that climbing to an average height of 46 feet makes them feel safe.

Ancient sword discovered in lake by young woman

It’s not exactly the fabled sword in the stone, but it’s almost as astonishing: An 8-year-old girl discovered an ancient sword while swimming in a lake in Sweden last summer.

According to The New York Times, the girl, Saga Vanecek, encountered what she thought at first was a stick. When she pulled it up, though, she realized it was a sword, covered with rust and black-brown with age.

The family turned the 33-inch-long sword over to a museum, which determined that it dated from the fifth or sixth century—before the time of the Vikings. Exceptionally well-preserved, it included a cover made from leather and wood.

The discovery was kept secret for a time while archeologists and divers used metal detectors to make a thorough search of the lake. Now that the find has been made public, the sword will be displayed in about a year as specialists perform conservation work on the artifact.

There are three stages in scientific discovery. First, people deny that it is true, then they deny that it is important; finally they credit the wrong person.
—Bill Bryson

Wasted days

A man was diagnosed with a rare but fatal illness and was told he had one year left. Because he believed he had nothing to live for, he refused treatment, quit his job, withdrew from the company of family and friends, and began to drink heavily and adopt other self-destructive behaviors.

Two years later the man realized he'd outlived his initial diagnosis. He made an appointment with a new doctor, who ordered lab work and a battery of tests. The results were shocking: He'd been misdiagnosed.

As he sat in the doctor's office trying to make sense of the news he'd received, his thoughts turned to how he'd been infected with hopelessness and wasted his days over the past few years. He knew he could never reclaim that time, but he vowed to live a more purposeful life starting that day.

He stopped drinking and took an active role in maintaining his health. He returned to work and spent time with family and friends. He even made the effort to do things that he'd always dreamed about.

His advice to those who might be sick or troubled or simply down on their luck is to make every day count for something meaningful and good. Life is too precious for wasted days.

It's all about the journey

Inspirational author and minister Steve Goodier often shares a version of this story to remind us to enjoy the journey as we set out to explore our horizons.

Armed with shovels, two young boys were hard at work, digging a hole in the corner of their backyard. Their older siblings came over to find out what they were doing.

"We're explorers!" one of the youngsters shouted. "We're digging a hole to the center of the earth."

Their older siblings began to laugh. One said, "I hate to tell you this, kiddo, but you won't make it."

"You'd need a lot more than those shovels if you really wanted to go deep into the earth," the other sibling added.

"It doesn't matter," one of the younger boys replied. "We may not get far, but we sure did find some treasures."

In his outstretched palms were a live worm, a shiny rock, an old skeleton key, and a nickel.
