PARADISE ISLAND UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association Secretary

Ready or not – here it comes: hurricane season – YIPES! Looking around I see that there are a few units still awaiting repair from Hurricane Irma. I’m hoping the Indian Burial Grounds keep us safe and sound for the next six months and there is no further damage to our park.

Things are looking up in Lake Haven, cosmetically speaking, with Park Manager Karen White leading the charge to spiffy the place up a bit. The new look has a nautical theme replete with new entry signage featuring a lighthouse surrounded by colorful plants. Clubhouse exteriors are scheduled to be painted as well. She has other improvement plans in mind, so stay patient and let’s see what she is able to accomplish.

The Kentucky Derby party was another trip to the winners circle – great job by Lei Crance and her team. Have you ever seen so much food??!! Every attendee brought something delicious to share. And, of course, the ladies again outdid themselves with an outlandish display of derby-themed hats. Hats off - pun intended - to Marcia Lilley who trotted off with the $20 first place prize by wearing a unique blend of flowers, frills, mesh and plastic water bottles that was bigger than she was. And, there were several big winners as well in the wagering department; is there some secret to picking out winners from those tiny folded up pieces of paper? If so, someone please tell me how to do it – I selected horses with 77-1 and 55-1 odds; needless to say they were not in the showing...I’m not certain they have even yet crossed the finish line.

The Wii Bowling Leaguers celebrated the end of the season with a “banquet” held at Marker 8 – the venue was so delightful that we may make this an annual tradition. This season Judy Wolff was able to strike her way to top bowler honors, she had seven 200+ games, congrats Judy! This lady can also effortlessly bowl six or seven strikes in a row, what a competitor. Lei was no slacker at bowling strikes either – I recall one game when she had only one open frame, then started the next set with several strikes in row. The other team members all had several 200 games, except me of course, but I did come close with a few games in the 190s – but hey, you can’t be good at everything, right?

Hot Dog Night is proving to be better than ever this year. Attendance at this casual affair is way up and the side dishes folks bring almost leaves pot luck dinner in the dust. Our thanks to Chuck Oller who always mans the grill for us and never complains no matter how hot the weather.

Another fantastic Memorial Day BBQ – Denny Wolff knows how to throw a party. Thanks for a great time and the food as always was always par excellence. His best bud, Chuck Oller, stood ready and willing to give him a hand – and give him a hand, he did. Thanks guys, and thanks to everyone else who worked to make the day special. Even though it was a party, we did pause to remember the reason for the holiday – to honor those in our military who gave the “last full measure” for our freedom. We never take their sacrifice lightly and we will always hold them in high esteem. To those veterans in Lake Haven, from our hearts to your ears, we say “thanks for your service”.

ATTENTION

After 2 years of researching into new cart manufacturers, we have chosen to represent JH Global "Star Cars" line of new vehicles. They have a 14 year proven track record in manufacturing & customer service and all of their major electrical components are US made instead of imported.

Over the years we have seen numerous new carts come and go from the market, leaving customers hanging with useless warranties and no parts available.

There will be a brief Association Meeting on Saturday, June 2 – followed later in the day by a very special treat. Carolyn Bailey will host a Spaghetti Dinner as the monthly pot luck. The complete meal will be provided at no cost to Association members; non-members and guests pay $5 at the door. Attendees need only bring their place setting and beverage. Important: Please sign up on the bulletin board so Carolyn will have an accurate counting for food planning purposes.

Other June events -- Hot Dog Night will be on Saturday the 16th. Bingo is down to one Thursday per month through September – join us on the 21st at 7PM. Ladies Poker and Hobby Club will continue without a break, so come have fun in Park #1. Ladies, get ready for another painting party.....something totally different this time. One of our artist residents, Jennifer Simon, will teach us how to paint with dots....intriguing, right? It's scheduled for June 19th - the cost is $25 cash. Check out Lake Haven Happenings on Facebook later in the month when Lei will post all the details. I for one am anxious to learn (or try to learn) a new skill.

That's all for now --- see you at the pool.

Treasure Cove Goings-On

Hello All in Treasure Cove!

Well with Florida turning from Spring to Summer.... It is getting hot! Although, the Ocean and Pool temperatures are fantastic. Hope you all take some time to enjoy a dip in the pool or a beautiful day at the Ocean. With the weather warming up, the last of our snow birds have left us for their Northern Families and they will be so missed. Aloha Daphane & Al and Sue & Lucy....

The Spring Fling party was a great celebration, and the food was fantastic! A big thank you for Lori Witkin-Mocerino for your hard work in making the yummy ribs and side dishes. And Thank you to the rest of the folks in park 2 that helped to make this party another success.

And the Memorial Day Party on Sunday, May 27th , Wow. So enjoyable to celebrate such a great holiday in honor of the brave men and women that defended our great Nation, which we are all so thankful for. We will enjoy Hamburgers, Hot Dogs, Beans, Potato Salad and on & on. Please think of joining us for some great food and celebration.

As we look into June and July, the board has decided that since so many are missing, that we will hold off on parties until September. So please keep an eye on your tubes. The next party to be planned will be our Labor Day Celebration..... this will be our kick off party for the Fall/Winter season, we have great things planned.

It is important to note that we continue to work ELS Management on improvements to the pool and clubhouse area. The maintenance issues and wish list for the improvements have been asked of the office on an on-going basis. The good news is that the swing by the pond has been replaced & 2 benches have also been placed by the pond for your enjoyment.

Please take good care in this hot/humid weather. Don't forget about the great swimming holes that this great State provides, one being Wiki Watchi, which is a constant 70 degrees/spring fed clear water that is delightful Wiki Watchi is about an hours' drive North off highway 19. There is an $8 entry fee per person unless you have a Florida Forrest Preserve Season Pass, then you can get 2 people in for free. I would get there early though, it fills to capacity quickly.

Please remember that the boards' next meeting will be in September, so watch your Happenings. Please don't hesitate to contact any of the board members if you have an issue you think needs to be addressed in the meantime.

Enjoy all the plants and bushes that are blooming, adding lots color all around us.

Month of June

Adopt A Cat Month. They're cute, smart, affectionate, cuddly, and sometimes dismissive. Find a shelter in your area, and make a connection with a furry friend you can take home.

National Rose Month. With 150 different species of roses and more than 11,000 hybrid varieties, you should be able to find one or two to cultivate and appreciate this time of the year.

National Migraine and Headache Awareness Month. Wear purple this month to show your support for those who suffer from headaches and migraines. To increase your awareness about these conditions, go to www.headaches.org.

Sports America Kids Month. Summer is here, so let's keep our youngsters active, healthy, and outdoors.

Lemonade Days, June 2-10. In 2004, Alexandra Scott lost her battle with cancer at age 8. During the last few years of her life, she raised $1 million to fund pediatric cancer research with the help of a lemonade stand. This week families and businesses across the United States will set up lemonade stands to raise money for a cure to childhood cancers. To learn more, go to alexlemonade.org.

National Business Etiquette Week, Jun. 3-9. This year's theme is "Toxic Workplaces: How to Resurrect Civility in Business." In case you've been slacking off, strive to conduct yourself with common sense and professionalism in the workplace and everywhere else this week and beyond.

National Week of Making, June 11-17. Individuals and organizations highlight the creativity, innovation, and accomplishments in technology, arts, and design of "makers" of all ages.

Men's Health Week, June 11-17. The days leading up to Father's Day raise awareness of men's health issues and the need for screenings and treatments. Spend time this week encouraging the men in your life to take ownership of their health and well-being.

Lightning Safety Awareness Week, June 17-23. The third full week of the month is devoted to educating the public about the danger of lightning. To learn more, go to www.lightningsafety.noaa.gov.

Practice food safety during picnics

Picnics are part of the fun of summertime, but thousands of people become ill every year from picnic food that's not safely prepared or stored. Here are some tips for making sure you have a safe picnic in the park:

- Always wash your hands thoroughly—before you prepare food and after you handle raw meats.
- Clean your food. You don't know where fruits and veggies have been.
- Wrap all foods. Keep the foods separate so drippings don't contaminate each other.
- Keep food chilled. Don't take cold foods out of the fridge until it's time to go. Pack them in a cooler as soon as you take them out of the fridge.
- Keep coolers under a tree. When you're packing the car, try keeping the cooler inside the car, rather than in a hot trunk.
- Try to plan just the right amount of food to take. Then you won't have to worry about the storage or safety of leftovers.

Work safely in the heat

As the warm days of summer set in, keep these safety tips in mind to avoid overstressing your body as you work outdoors:

- Perform your heaviest tasks during the morning. If you have work that will require you to exert a lot of energy, it's best to do it in the cooler hours of the morning.
- Build your tolerance. It usually takes a good two weeks for your body to acclimate itself to working in the heat, so give your body time to adjust to higher temps.
- Use the buddy system. That way you can keep an eye out and get help if needed.
- Drink water. Health experts say you should drink a small cup every 15 to 20 minutes when you're working in the heat to stay hydrated and cool.
- Take breaks. Give your body a chance to cool down by heading off to a cool area for a few minutes.
- Eat lightly. Try not to eat heavy or big meals before you have to work in the heat.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

How the greats got their start

Great writers have to start somewhere. Some of the most creative poets and novelists toiled in distinctly non-creative jobs before hitting it big. Here are a few of them:

- Langston Hughes. The famous poet worked as a busboy in Washington, D.C.'s Wardman Park hotel. When another poet, Vachel Lindsay, took a seat at a table, the young Hughes offered her some of his poems, and Lindsay was struck by his skill, leading to his eventual success.
- Kurt Vonnegut. The author of Slaughterhouse-5 and other novels owned and managed a Saab dealership before a stint in the U.S. Army during World War II.
- J.D. Salinger. The reclusive writer, best known for his novel The Catcher in the Rye, once served as entertainment director aboard a Swedish luxury cruise ship, the H.M.S. Kungsholm.
- Mary Higgins Clark. The award-winning mystery writer held a wide variety of jobs before turning to fulltime writing at 47—secretary, business machines manager, catalog copywriter, model, and flight attendant for Pan American Airlines.

Be a Renaissance thinker

The Renaissance, from the 14th-17th centuries, sparked a firestorm of creativity and innovation in Europe. For the first time, according to Anurag Harsh in an article on the Huffington Post, people realized that creativity wasn't some divine gift, but a talent that could be cultivated. Here's what carved the Renaissance thinkers' success:

- They were contrarian. Instead of settling for the status quo, they were willing to challenge the conventional wisdom and take a fresh, new approach to looking at the world around them.
- They were nonconformists. They didn't like the atmosphere of conformity that stifled free thought. They wanted to revolutionize the culture in technology, the arts, philosophy, and other areas.
- They were curious. They asked questions and followed potential solutions wherever they led. They searched for novelty, not the tried and true.
- They explored systems. Instead of limiting themselves to a single area of knowledge, they forged connections between different ways of thinking that led to advances in science, art, and other realms.

'The little things matter'

Aside from being the senior vice president of the Orlando Magic basketball team and a sought-after motivational speaker, Pat Williams has written more than 100 books. Many years ago, when he was working on a book about John Wooden, Williams interviewed scores of the coach's former players.

A story shared by many of these players was about a longstanding tradition of the coach. At the start of each season, Wooden spent an hour instructing his players on the proper way to wear their socks and shoes. From the snug fit of the heel of the sock to the lacing of their shoes, the coach covered every detail with great importance.

When Williams asked the coach about why he devoted this kind of time and attention to such a seemingly insignificant subject, Wooden replied, "The little things matter."

He went on to explain how one wrinkle in a sock could contribute to a blister on a toe or foot. One blister could have a huge impact on the outcome of a game—or a season.

"I started teaching about shoes and socks early in my career," Wooden said. "I saw that it really did cut down on blisters during the season. That little detail gave us an edge."

Battle of the elements

In Aesop's fable tells of an argument between the North Wind and the Sun as to which was the most powerful force of nature. They decided to end their dispute once and for all with a simple challenge: The victor would be whichever could disrobe the next hiker coming along a nearby path.

No sooner had they agreed on these terms when a traveler appeared on the path. The North Wind flexed his might and concentrated a strong gust at the hiker. The man responded by fastening his coat securely about him and turning up his collar.

Once the North Wind realized his actions had the opposite effect than intended, he stepped aside and challenged the Sun to give it a go. As the winds disappeared the Sun beamed brightly, moving closer to the Earth, showering the hiker with warm rays of light.

The man began to disrobe as he walked to a nearby river. He jumped in to cool himself and then sat on the shore bathing in the sun.

The moral: Persuasion is more powerful than force.

Millennials leading in home purchases

Millennials are buying more homes than Gen Xers, baby boomers, and other age groups, according to the Builder Online website, citing a survey by the National Association of Realtors.

Thirty-four percent of all home purchases in the United States in 2017 were made by millennials, followed by Generation X (28 percent), baby boomers (30 percent), and people born from 1925-1945 (6 percent).

In 2018, the typical millennial home buyer has a higher household income than last year ($88,200 vs. $82,000). He or she bought the same size home, 1,800 square feet, for more money at a higher price—$220,000 versus $205,000 in 2017.

Millennials in 2018 have higher student debt balances than those in previous years, and more of them say that saving for a down payment is the most difficult task in buying a home.

Rentals up in the U.S.

More Americans are living in rented homes than at any point since 1965. That's from the Pew Research Center, which says that the total number of U.S. households increased by 7.6 million from 2006-2016. However, the number of households headed by homeowners has remained flat, partially because of the aftereffects of the housing crisis late in the last decade.

On the other hand, the number of rented households rose during the same time frame, from 31.2 percent in 2006 to 36.6 percent in 2016. In 1965, the rate of rented households was 37 percent.

Yoga pants stretch sales

Yoga pants are in—whether you wear them for yoga or not. According to the Quartz website, imports of yoga pants have grown an average of 25.7 percent a year since 2010. At the same time, imports of jeans have declined by close to 4 percent a year.

A deal is a deal

Ronald made a deal with his dad that if he improved his grades by the end of the school year, pitched in around the house, attended church on Sunday with the rest of the family, and cut his now shoulder-length hair, he could have access to the car throughout the summer. Ronald began to focus on his schoolwork more, took on responsibility in the home, and was the first person in the house ready for church each Sunday.

“I knew you could do it,” his dad said as looked over Ronald’s final grades for the school year. “I’m very proud of how responsible and focused you’ve been these last few months.”

“Hand over those keys, old man,” Ronald said to his father with a laugh.

“Not so fast,” his father said. “Remember our deal? Grades, church, chores, and hair.”

“Do I really have to cut my hair?” Ronald protested.

“That was our deal,” his father said.

“Can’t you cut me some slack this one time? I’ve done everything else you wanted,” Ronald argued. “It took me so long to grow my hair out. Besides, Moses had long hair, and Samson had long hair, and even Jesus had long hair.”

“Good point,” his father agreed. “They walked everywhere.”

Timeless wisdom

During the celebration of his 100th birthday, a man was asked about the secret of his longevity.

“I never smoked, drank, or ate fried foods,” replied the man. He continued, “and I exercised every day for 30 minutes.”

“Well, a lot of people observe those same practices but don’t live to be 100,” someone in the crowd observed. “Why do you think that is?”

The old man said, “My guess would be they didn’t keep at it long enough.”
