PARADISE ISLAND UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association Secretary

June is busting out all over – those driving outside the urban confines will experience a vista of wildflowers blooming along the highways and byways of Florida. What a beautiful sight. Unless we escape the city limits, we tend to forget what a beautiful state we live in.

High fives to Denny and Chuck for another exceptional Memorial Day BBQ – you guys are the greatest! Thanks to those in Parks 2 & 3 who joined us for fun, and in remembrance of those who fought for our freedom. We can never repay this debt – we can only pledge to never forget it.

Our thanks also go out to Marie Reiser, her daughter, and the Park 2 volunteers who ensured we all enjoyed Derby Day – what a tradition you have established; we look forward to it every year. And, let's not forget to acknowledge the delectable ham pot luck dinner hosted by Lei Crance.

Most of May was quiet from an Association event standpoint; we decided to forego Tiki Night since it had been scheduled so close to Memorial Day. The Wii bowlers had their annual awards “banquet” (Jets Pizza) to wrap up yet another season. Once again, Rick Williamson walked away with most of the honors, but all-in-all it was a tight race this year – and we had fun, which was the main objective. Bingo is the 3rd Thursday of the month through September; we hope you will join us for this monthly event.

Carolyn Bailey will coordinate a cookout for the June Pot Luck on the 6th – register to attend by signing up on the bulletin board in the clubhouse.....and don't forget, we'll need volunteers to clean up afterward. Our motto is: Cooks don't have to wash dishes -- so we need others to pitch in to get that part of the work done.

Since the weather has turned rather warm, yes that is an understatement, Tiki Night has morphed once again into Hot Dog Night. See you Saturday, the 20th at 5PM for this monthly event. A $1 donation gets you two hot dogs; bring your beverage of choice and something edible to share, and a buck or so for the 50/50. We always have a good time, and cool off in the pool before and afterward.....come join us!

See you at the Association Meeting on Saturday, June 6. Members, and those who would like to be, are encouraged to attend. We will do our best to make you feel welcome. Our newest residents are: Julie Lopes #49; Daniel McAllister #62; Dale McCalvy #75; Warren Uhle #165 – welcome to Paradise!

We extend best wishes to the Fathers in our community – have a GREAT Fathers' Day and welcome the arrival of summer on the 21st.

LAKE HAVEN TREASURE COVE HAPPENINGS!

Written By an Anonymous Ghost Writer for Bob Scott, President, Park 2 Association

It's June already. My, how time flies!

June 1 is the first day of our six month hurricane season here in Florida so keep your eyes and ears on the weather reports. We've been very fortunate the last five to seven years but don't let your guard down. Mobile home parks are in a Category A Evacuation Zone meaning, if so ordered, we are among the first to vacate the premises along with people with homes on the beaches. Dennis in the park office also reminds us that our clubhouses are not built to be hurricane shelters. Let's pray this is another inactive hurricane season for Florida but be alert and prepared to evacuate the park if ordered to do so by the Pinellas County Emergency Management Office. If you don't have someone to stay with in a non-evacuation area, plan on going to one of the approved emergency shelters that will be opened by the county.

Last month we congratulated all our neighbors who are mothers. This month it's the men's turn. The big Day is Sunday, June 21st, so "Happy Fathers' Day" to all our dads!

Summer also begins on June 21st so the pool should be even more inviting. Enjoy it but please remember when you leave to fold up the table umbrellas if you've used them.

Al and Maggie Kline have returned to Pittsburgh. We hope there will be a place for them to lease in the area again next winter as we need Maggie's great leadership in the club house for our annual White Elephant Sale.

Bob and Diane Schauer also returned north recently as did Al and Daphne. Treasure Cove gets quieter and quieter.

ATTN: World War II Veterans (Men and Women): If you served in the military during WW II and have not been on a one day free Honor Flight to Washington, D. C. to see the memorials and to visit Arlington Cemetery, contact Bob Baker, Lot 280, for an application to do so with Honor Flight of West Central Florida.

On May 2nd, the track at Churchill Downs was again dry and fast for the 141st run for the roses and residents from all three parks filled our club house for Park 2's Annual Kentucky Derby Party. As always the food brought by those there was "good and plenty". Congratulations to those who drew "American Pharaoh" as the winner as well as those with the 2nd and 3rd place winning horses. Our thanks to Marie Reiser, her family, and others who helped make the event successful. Because of health reasons, this is the last year that Marie will plan the party so hopefully someone else will "step up to the plate" as a good time is had by all at what has been an annual event in our club house for many years.

Please see the letter included in this newsletter...

Master the habits of the truly successful

Most of us dream about being rich, but only a handful of people achieve it. What makes them different? From the book Rich Habits: The Daily Success Habits of Wealthy People, by Tom Corley (Langdon Street Press), comes this list of practices that have made people like Warren Buffett and Bill Gates the richest people on the planet:

- Persistence. Successful people never quit—in any area of their lives.
- Goals. Leaders set realistic but challenging goals for themselves. They're never satisfied with the status quo.
- Mentors. You can't know everything. Successful leaders surround themselves with mentors who help steer them in the right direction.
- Positivity. People get ahead because they focus on the possibilities, not the problems. Maintain an optimistic attitude no matter what happens.
- Education. The most successful among us never stop learning. They're endlessly curious and passionate about mastering new skills.

Eat Better to Spur Creativity

Some great artists and writers are known to have used drugs or alcohol to seek inspiration, but you don't have to risk your health when you need a creative boost. The Medical Daily website suggests trying some of these foods to help stimulate the brain:

- Fruit. Fruits have lots of an amino acid called tyrosine, which helps synthesize proteins and may influence your ability to think deeply. In one study, students performed better at completing puzzles when they drank orange juice strong with tyrosine.

- Chocolate. The flavanols in chocolate may enhance short-term cognitive skills, according to one British study, because flavanols boost the amount of oxygen in the brain. Try a cup of hot cocoa before you need to be at the top of your mental game.

- Carbohydrates. Carbs deliver a quick dose of glucose to your body and brain, providing aid to concentration and memory. Potatoes, oatmeal, and other carbs may have a beneficial effect on brain function.

- Walnuts. Rich in omega-3 fatty acids, walnuts can help memory and increase brain function, according to the journal Plant Foods for Human Nutrition. The results of one study showed that rats given a diet of raw walnuts for 28 days showed better learning and memory than rodents on another diet.

Money Matters

Try these smart shopping tips at the grocery store

Everyone wants to stretch his or her food dollars. You don't have to live on ramen noodles and cold cereal three times a day to do it. Here are some tips for savvy shopping at the store:

- Don't fall for fancy displays. Items stacked at the end of the aisles, like sodas, aren't necessarily on sale. The display can make them seem like they're marked down, but often they're still regular price.
- Remember that you pay for convenience. Skinless chicken breasts cost more than those packaged with skin. The same applies to the pre-cleaned and cut carrot sticks. In both cases, they're a little more expensive. Decide whether the convenience is worth the extra money.
- Try the store brands. If you compare the contents and nutritional value of name-brand versus no-brand items, you'll often discover that they're almost identical. In many cases, they're made in the same plant and just packaged with the store label.
- Use coupons. How often have you clipped coupons only to allow them to expire? Develop a system that will ensure you remember and use them.

Here's to you, dad: The start of Father's Day

Father's Day started with a dedicated woman: Sonora Smart Dodd, the daughter of a widowed Civil War veteran who had raised her on his own. Dodd came up with the idea for a special day celebrating fathers when listening to a Mother's Day sermon in 1909. She held her own special tribute for her father on June 19, 1910, in Spokane, Wash., and began a campaign for an official celebration thereafter.

The idea of Father's Day initially met with some skepticism, but in 1919, President Calvin Coolidge expressed support for the holiday, and in 1926 a National Father's Day Committee was formed in New York City. In 1966 President Lyndon B. Johnson signed a proclamation designating the third Sunday in June as Father's Day, but it wasn't until 1972 that President Richard Nixon officially recognized it as a national holiday.

Loyalty to country, always. Loyalty to government, when it deserves it.

—Mark Twain

Quick zingers and fast chuckles

Need to get a laugh in a hurry? Try some of these handy one- or two-liners:

- Explaining puns to kleptomaniacs is hard because they always take things literally.
- I used to think the brain was the most important organ. Then I thought, "Look where that idea comes from."
- A dwarf fortune-teller who kills his customers might be known as a small medium at large.
- Did you hear about the dyslexic devil worshipper who sold his soul to Santa?
- During a prison break I saw a dwarf climb over a wall. As he jumped down he sneered at me, and I thought, "That's a little condescending."
- A blind man walks into a bar. And a table. And a chair.
- You never see a hippopotamus hiding in a tree. They must be really good at it.

Danger at home: Keep your children and grandchildren safe

The home can be a dangerous place, especially for young children. Most household accidents are avoidable, though, with some commonsense precautions. Safe Kids Worldwide, a global organization providing safety information aimed at preventing accidents and injuries to children, shares these tips for keeping your family healthy and safe:

- Bathroom. Don't leave children alone in the bath, or anywhere near water.
- Hallways. Install smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, and check their batteries at least every six months to ensure they're working properly.
- Bedrooms. At bedtime and nap time, remove any blankets, pillows, stuffed animals, and toys from your baby's crib to prevent accidental suffocation. Make sure your baby sleeps alone and on his or her back.
- Staircases. Put up safety gates to keep children from tumbling down staircases. Install similar gates for every window a child might reach.
- Medicine chest. Store all medicine in cabinets above the reach of children, and lock cabinets they might get into. Keep track of any medication you might carry in your purse or briefcase.
- Living room. Install brackets and braces to secure bookshelves and other furniture against accidental tipping. Secure television sets to the wall or place them on low platforms.
- Kitchen. Use the back burner of your stove when cooking with children present. Turn pots and pans so that their handles face away from the edge, out of reach from tiny hands. Store household cleaners in high cabinets and shelves, or lock lower cabinets to keep children out.

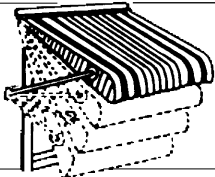

Keep kids safe from bugs during summer months

As summer comes, so do the bugs. And some of those bugs can bite. Follow these guidelines from the American Academy of Pediatrics to protect your children from getting stung or bitten:

- Avoid using scented soaps, hair sprays, and perfumes on your child. The scents can draw insects and bugs and increase your child's risk of being bitten.
- Stay away from nests or places bugs might congregate. This includes stagnant pools of water, areas where uncovered foods are abundant, and gardens where flowers are blooming.

Scientists delve deep into the heart of the world

Jules Verne's Journey to the Center of the Earth described an inner world of jungles, seas, and dinosaurs. The reality is quite different, but no less interesting to scientists, and it's changing all the time.

The latest discovery about the nature of the Earth's core comes from a professor at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. The inner core, about 3,000 miles beneath the world's crust, actually contains a second core about half the radius of the outer one. This inner core contains iron crystals, which are oriented in an east-west alignment. The outer inner core's crystals align north-south, although they appear to have flipped several times in the distant past.

Scientists liken the twin cores to the rings on a tree, which allow researchers to peer directly into the past. The discovery could provide important clues to the formation and development of our world.

'New' solar system is the oldest ever found

The oldest solar system in our galaxy is 11.2 billion years old, according to data from NASA's Kepler space telescope. By comparison, our home solar system is about 4.5 billion years old. The new find is about 117 light-years from Earth, with five Earth-sized planets in an orbit too close to their star to allow for life. But the discovery of a solar system's formation only a few billion years after the Big Bang some 13.8 billion years ago suggests that life could have proliferated throughout the cosmos much earlier than scientists previously believed.

Sophie the Stegosaurus steps on the scale (sort of)

How much did the dinosaurs weigh? That question has been answered—at least for one specimen at London's Natural History Museum.

Sophie the Stegosaurus is about 150 million years old, and was discovered in 2003 by paleontologists in Wyoming. It now resides at the British museum, its skeleton 85 percent intact. According to the Yahoo News website, British researchers created a 3-D digital version of the skeleton, then calculated the amount of flesh it would have had around its bones, and compared that with data from modern animals of a similar size.

The result? Sophie tipped the scales at about 1.6 tons, with a body mass roughly equivalent to a small rhinoceros. Knowing its weight will allow paleontologists to learn more about stegosaurus metabolism, food needs, and growth rate.

Know Your Organs: The Gallbladder

The gallbladder is a small, pear-shaped organ located beneath the liver and next to the pancreas. You may not give it a lot of thought—until it starts malfunctioning. Then it can cause pain and serious health problems.

The gallbladder stores a substance called bile, or gall, that comes from the liver and helps to digest fat. The main problem that can arise is the formation of gallstones, which can be as small as a grain of sand or as large as a golf ball. They affect both men and women, and may occur as a single large stone or a group of small ones. What causes them is unclear, though they're more common in people with excessive body fat around the waist, and in those who have lost weight very quickly. The risk of gallstones increases as you age, particularly among women as they approach menopause and everyone after age 40.

You may have gallstones for years without noticing them, regardless of their size or number. But during a gallstone attack, patients can experience sharp pain in the upper right side of the abdomen, along with nausea and vomiting. Attacks tend to occur at night, often after a large meal with lots of fat, as well as after drinking alcohol.

Gallstones are treated in a number of ways: Some people take an acid orally which dissolves the stones gradually, although they may reappear once the treatment is stopped. Otherwise, they can be broken up with ultrasonic shock waves or removed by surgery in serious cases.

Be on the lookout for these symptoms:

- Sudden severe pain in your upper right abdomen, lasting from 30 minutes to several hours.
- Pain in your right shoulder blade or under your right shoulder.
- Indigestion after eating desserts, fried foods, or foods high in fat or protein.

See a doctor immediately if abdominal pain lasts five hours or more, if you experience nausea, vomiting, fever, or chills, if you have a yellowish color in your skin or in the whites of your eyes, or if you have light-colored stools or dark urine.

Keep Your Heart Healthy With The Right Food Choices

The food you eat can make a big difference to your health, especially in matters of the heart. You can keep your heart ticking to a ripe old age by adding these foods to your diet:

- Tomatoes. A good source of vitamin C, vitamin A, potassium, and fiber, tomatoes also contain lycopene, an antioxidant that may help to lower bad cholesterol, keep blood vessels open, and lower the risk of heart disease. For best results, serve cooked tomatoes in stews, soups, and sauces.
- Blueberries. Blueberries contain antioxidants called anthocyanins, which may reduce blood pressure by relaxing blood vessels. One cup has only 80 calories, and they add fiber and vitamin C to your daily diet.
