PARADISE ISLAND PARK 1) UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association Secretary

Kee your eye on the sky as September is the prime month for hurricanes. However, after the wet months of July and August, can there be any rain left in the heavens above? Now if we can just hang on through September, cooler more pleasant temperatures should follow in October.

An update for us old timers: Mary Feeney suffered a bad fall and spent a few weeks recovering at Mease Continuing Care. Knowing this feisty lady, she will probably be back at her independent living facility by the time this gets published. It will take more than a fall to keep this 91 year-old out of circulation. Dick Hemme, a Park #1 resident for 40 years, passed away in August. During his early Lake Haven years, he was active in both the Association and the HOA having been president of both on more than one occasion. He established and was Chairman of the Mobile Home Owners Advisory Committee which reported directly to the Dunedin City Council. The committee is now dissolved but in its heyday Dick ensured mobile home owners concerns were addressed through the committee and through his close personal relationship with both the City Manager and the Mayor of Dunedin.

Our hearts go out to Bud Donovan whose wife, Carol, was moved to a nursing facility in Rhode Island to be near her daughters who are physically better equipped to attend to her ongoing health issues. Bud, of course, will visit as often as possible. Before her illness, Carol was a joyful spirit who brought a smile to the faces of everyone who knew her. We send her our love and best wishes.

Hope you had a good time at the August Luau – a smaller crowd than normal as folks were concerned it might be rained out since it had rained every day that week, and the week before, and the week before that – you catch my drift. Thanks to Lei Crance who did yeoman's duty shopping and prepping for the party while, as co-host, I spent my time transporting a family member to doctor appointments and to rehab. Thank you all for coming, and be sure to check out the HAPPENINGS each month for flyers on future three park events we have planned.

Paradise Association members – monthly meetings start up again effective Saturday, September 3rd. Come for coffee at 8:30 AM (bring your coffee cup) and for the park update starting at 9:00 AM. Non-members, including renters, are always invited to attend and participate; the only exception is they cannot vote on issues.

On Labor Day Monday, September 5, Master Chef Denny Wolff – who will probably commandeer his pal Chuck Oller to man the grill – will host the September cookout Pot Luck Dinner. Social time starts at 5:30 PM (bring your beverage of choice); dinner will be served at 6:00 PM (bring your own place setting). To confirm your attendance, sign up on the clubhouse Pot Luck list posted on the bulletin board and indicate what side dish you plan to bring. Aah, it feels good to get back into the groove of normal monthly routines.

HOA UPDATE

Park #2 Director and HOA Treasurer Bob Baker has resigned from the HOA Board to devote more time to his charity projects. Bob, we honor your years of service to our community; your calm demeanor, thoughtful approach to issues, and financial skills have been an asset to the Board and will long be remembered. Replacing Bob as HOA Treasurer is Park #3 Director Phyllis Becker who has experience in finance as well as the computer skills required to record and track our funds and to complete the various legal forms which must be submitted throughout the year. HOA President has appointed, and the Board members have approved, Park #3 resident Ralph Crance to complete the final months of Bob's term. Ralph's business acumen and experience make him well qualified for this appointment.

As a reminder: HOA Board terms of service for President Richard Crance, VP Bob Scott, Secretary Pat Walker, Directors Rick Williamson and Ralph Crance will end February 2017. Now is the time to consider nominees to fill these Director positions. Nominations may be submitted to President Richard Crance Lot #79 through January. Those willing to serve will be officially nominated and voted on at the Annual Meeting in February.

LAKE HAVEN TREASURE COVE HAPPENINGS!

*Written by Bob Baker,
Treasurer, Park 2 Association*

First item on the agenda is to remind everyone that our monthly Potluck Dinner is at 5:30 PM on Sunday, September 4th in the club house. Bring a dish of something good to share with others, your dinnerware and silverware and whatever you'd like to drink.

After a break for the summer, September is the month when we begin to have our monthly association business meetings again at 7:00 PM on the first Mondays. This month that's September 5th.

September 18th is also when we begin to have our association dinners in the club house at 5:30 PM on the third Sunday of each month. You only need to bring something to drink with you.

Good news! The Park 2 board of directors has approved a motion that our Christmas dinner this year will be free for all dues paid association members! The cost for non-members and guests will be $30.00. The date is December 14th at 6:00 PM and dinner will be followed by a "Chinese gift exchange". Each person attending the dinner should bring a gift wrapped "white elephant" type item or a new item having a value to $5.00 or less. Mark the event on your calendars now and we'll take reservations November 1st to November 30th. The dinner entrees will be the same as in the past: your choice of prime rib or Chicken marsala.

It's also not too early to again remind all residents including new home owners and renters moving into our park to save any clean and usable household items, dishes, books, jewelry, clothes etc. that you can't use or no longer want. Our annual White Elephant Sale, to enhance the association treasury, will be in March 2017 and we are always looking for donated items for the sale

Membership in the association is open to all residents in Park 2 (owners and renters) and the annual dues for 2017 are only $5.00 per person. For only $5.00 per person per year our monthly association dinners especially are a bargain.

Also please remember, all of the Park 2 Association board of director positions (President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and one other director) for 2017 are due for election this December. A nominating committee will be appointed in November. Until then, please let association president, Bob Scott, Lot 277, know if you'd be interested in running for one of these positions.

Finally, here are some recommendations for maintaining a healthy level of insanity in retirement:

1. At lunch time, sit in your parked car with sunglasses on, point a hair dryer at passing cars, and watch them hit the brakes!
2. On all your check stubs, write, 'For Marijuana'!
3. Skip down the street rather than walk, and see how many looks you get.
4. With a serious face, order a Diet Water whenever you go out to eat.
5. Sing along at The Opera or a Broadway musical.
6. When the money comes out of the ATM, scream 'I Won! I Won!'
7. When leaving the Zoo, run to the car parking lot, yelling, 'Run for Your Lives! They're Loose!'
8. Tell your grandchildren over dinner, 'Due to the economy, we are going to have to let one of you go....'
9. Pick up a box of condoms at the pharmacy, go to the counter and ask where the fitting room is.

And The Final Way to Keep a Healthy Level of Insanity:

America the innovator

Americans prize creativity and innovation. The Scientific American website took a look at why, asking various experts to address what drives the creative spark through the United States. Here’s what some of them said:

- John Kao, CEO, Edgemakers: “What are key elements of American culture that make up the ‘secret sauce’ of innovation? For a start, forgiveness of failure, tolerance of risk and an appetite for apparently off-the-wall ideas. In Silicon Valley, the saying goes that if you haven’t failed at least once or twice, you’re not trying hard enough.”
- Linda Weiss, professor emeritus, University of Sydney: “One of the most striking aspects of America’s innovation culture is the belief that nothing lies beyond human power to achieve, that science and technology can solve most problems, and that change invariably leads to better outcomes.”
- Shamim M. Momim, director, Los Angeles Nomadic Division (LAND): “America is a nation that celebrates its founding on individual freedom and struggle against oppressive systems of belief. It makes sense that, in order to provide each person the opportunity to pull himself or herself up by the bootstraps and succeed on one’s own merits, innovation—literally ‘a new method, idea, or product’—would be the avenue to that success.”

To invent, you need a good imagination and a pile of junk.

Give Fido a belly rub, not a hug

They've wanted to tell you for a long time, but they didn't have the words: Dogs hate being hugged.

An article in Psychology Today describes how a group of researchers analyzed the body language in a series of photos of dogs receiving hugs from humans. They found evidence of stress in 82 percent of the photos, leading them to speculate that dogs experience hugs negatively. The reason? Dogs have evolved to be fast runners, and their first line of defense against danger is running away (not biting). Hugs make running difficult, if not impossible, making dogs nervous—and more likely to bite if they feel threatened.

A pat or a belly rub may be a more positive way to appreciate your pet, the researchers say.

The cephalopods are coming

Don't look now, but cephalopods are on the rise. A team of scientists have determined that cephalopods—sea-dwellers including mollusks, squid, cuttlefish, and octopuses—are increasing their numbers below the waves.

As reported on the Sci-News website, scientists at the University of Adelaide created a database of catch rates for 35 species of cephalopods from 1953 to 2013. They found that cephalopod populations have increased across three distinct groups since the 1950s.

The sea creatures are able to adapt to environmental changes quickly due to their short lifespans, rapid growth, and life-history plasticity. Their growing numbers could have both positive and negative effects: increased pressure on the undersea species they hunt for prey, but also benefits for marine predators who in turn hunt them, as well as humans who harvest them from the sea for food.

Chinese brewed beer in ancient times

Crafts beers are thriving these days, but beer has been around for a long time, scientists say. Researchers in the United States and China have revealed that the Chinese brewed their own beer some 5,000 years ago, much earlier than previously believed.

As reported on the Voice of America website, archaeologists have uncovered brewing equipment in underground rooms in China's central plain region. Traces of ingredients found on the equipment suggests that the ancient brewmasters used a recipe of broomcorn millet, barley, a grain called Job's tears or Chinese pearl barley, and a form of tuber to brew their beverage. The presence of barley 1,000 years before it was believed to have been grown in China suggests that it might have been brought in from other regions, making beer an ingredient in early trade.

Researchers describe the possible taste of the beer as “a bit sour and a bit sweet.”

Science is most significant as one of the greatest spiritual adventures that man has yet known.

The three kick rule

A lawyer went duck hunting in rural Tennessee. He shot a bird that fell into a farmer's field. As he went to retrieve the duck, the farmer walked up.

"That duck is on my land," the farmer said. "So it belongs to me."

"But I shot it," the lawyer said. "If you don't let me have it, I'll sue you for your farm and everything you have."

The farmer smiled. "Tell you what: How about we settle this with the three kick rule?"

"What's that?" the lawyer asked.

"One of us kicks the other three times. Then the other guy gets to kick the first guy three times. We keep doing it until one of us gives in."

The farmer looked very old, and the lawyer worked out regularly. "All right," he said confidently. "We'll do it your way."

"Since we're on my land," the farmer said, "I kick first."

The lawyer agreed, positive that the elderly farmer couldn't hurt him.

He was wrong. The farmer's first kick sent him into the dirt. His second hurled him against a tree. The third had him flying into a haystack.

Dizzy, the lawyer pulled himself up and took a deep breath. "OK, now it's my turn."

"Nah," the farmer smiled. "You can have the duck."

The wrong direction

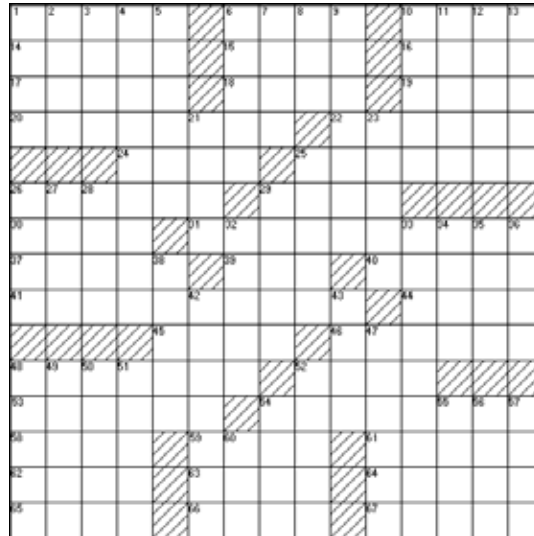

An old man and his wife argued constantly, and the husband was often heard to say, "After I die, I will dig my way out of my grave and haunt you for the rest of your life!"

When he died at age 98, superstitious friends asked the wife if she was afraid he'd make good on his threat. She shook her head. "I buried him upside down—and I know he'll never stop and ask for directions."

Recharge your most important relationships

Your relationship with your mate, your friends, and your children/grandchildren sometimes call for an infusion of fun and playfulness. You don't have to go to elaborate lengths. The small things count the most, anyway. Try these tips to recharge:

With your partner:

- Plan a date night without the kids.
- Hide inexpensive gifts around the house.
- Call or email in the middle of the day to say, "I love you."

With friends:

- Send a fun, funny card or email.
- Get together for no reason.
- Call just to see how they're doing.

With children/grandchildren:

- Have fun with the shaving cream during bath time.
- Have a race with the kids to see who can set or clear the table fastest (without breaking anything).
- Dance and sing for no reason.

Bring passion back into your life

Are your life and job getting you down? Have you lost that fire and passion you first started out with a long time ago? Burning out can create problems in both your family life and your career. Here's how to regain the right perspective on where you are and bring back your passion:

- Review your situation. Start with this simple sentence and fill in the blanks: "In the past, I felt _____, and now I feel _____." You'll find the answers to be very enlightening, whatever they are.
- Reflect on your past. Draw up a timeline from the very beginning of your childhood and figure out when you were happiest and what got you the most down. This can lead to a better understanding of your influences and obstacles.
- Check your values. List five or six principles that guide you in life, and decide whether they are values you truly live by or merely talk about.
- Look to the future. Try writing a page or two on what you would like to do with the rest of your life, or list things you would like to do before you die. Don't worry about practicalities or priorities—just create that dream list.
- Talk things out. Record your thoughts, feelings and hopes on a tape recorder, or tell them to a trusted friend. With somebody to witness and hear you out, you'll feel responsible for making some changes.

Real value

A motivational speaker started off a seminar by holding up a $20 bill in front of a room of 200 people. “Who would like this $20 bill?”

Hands started going up. The speaker proceeded to crumple up the $20 dollar bill. “Who still wants it?”

All the hands stayed in the air. “OK,” he continued. “What if I do this?” He dropped the bill on the ground and started to grind it into the floor with his shoe. He picked it up, now crumpled and dirty.

“Now, who still wants it?” Still the hands stayed high in the air.

The speaker smiled. “My friends, here’s my point: No matter what I did to the money, you still wanted it because it did not decrease in value. It was still worth $20. Many times in your life, you will be crumpled, dropped, and ground into the dirt. You’ll feel worthless. But no matter what has happened or what will happen, you will never lose your value.”

The monkey king

A kingdom of monkeys lived in a grove of mango trees alongside a river. They lived peacefully for many years until a king built a castle close by.

The king noticed the mango grove. He told his soldiers to bring him a mango, and when he tasted it he instantly decided that he wanted all the mangos for himself. So he told his army to kill all the monkeys and bring the mangos back to the village.

The king of the monkeys saw the soldiers approaching, the human king behind them. He quickly told the monkeys they had to flee. They made their way through the forest, pursuing by soldiers, until they reached the edge of a high cliff.

Safety beckoned from another cliff just out of reach. But the monkey king was large, so he was able to reach across and grab a root, allowing his body to become a living bridge from one side to the other.

The monkeys crawled over him until all reached safety. But the soldiers caught up with the tribe just before the monkey king himself could escape.

The human king had seen the whole thing. Impressed by the monkey king’s courage and self-sacrifice, he ordered his army to go home and leave the monkeys unharmed. Before he left, he asked the monkey: “Why did you do that? You might have died for them, and you are their king.”
