HIGHLIGHTS OF THE DECEMBER 12, 2019 LHRO BOARD MEETING

All board members at the 9 a.m. meeting, were present except Karen Larrimore. Susan Zerbe attended via phone.

- Open forum
  - Lot 90 represented Lot 83 asking that the E-notes guidelines be reconsidered to allow more than one notice of an activity.
  - Susan Zerbe responded back from a November comment about wanting the Rules & Regulations and the list of the Board of Directors be on the Resident-only part of the website. She reported that has been done.
  - Lot 97 commented on the cracks in the pavement.
- Treasurer's Report
  - Operating fund at the end of November is $28,334. This does not mean we have made a profit. Insurance bills are due in December which will come out of that money.
  - Mr. Haskell, our CPA, is making changes to the reconciliation of accounts as requested by the Board. This will take several months to accomplish. He also attempted to create a report using QuickBooks but it was not easily understood due to its complexity, so he suggested to temporarily continue using the format which had previously been used.
  - The Board approved the 2020 budget which reflects a $3.00 increase in the monthly resident's fee. This is mostly due to increased water bills.
- MaWnager's Report
  - No election in 2020. There was only one opening on the Board and only one name was submitted – Kathy Hartwell will be serving another three-year term.
  - January 9 is the Annual Meeting in the clubhouse. A quorum is needed.
  - Pool temperature
    - It is set at 84 degrees all year. It is currently set to 84 degrees heat. The geo-thermal will shut down when the water gets too warm or if the level is too low or too high. The water does not immediately warm back up. It takes several days for that to occur.
  - No trash pickup on December 24.
  - There will be a hazardous waste drop off at Countryside High School this Saturday, December 14. This includes televisions. Lake Highlander does not recycle hazardous waste or televisions.
  - Surveys due by January 9.
  - The Shuffleboard Club has requested $500 from the Board to put in a wall and door on the east side of the court.

Members of the club will do the work. The Board voted to allow the Shuffleboard Club to build a wall and door on the east side of the shuffleboard court, not to exceed $500.

- Unfinished business
  - Road repair in front of Lot 253. Jacobson Homes have been contacted regarding the damage to the road due to the installation of a new home on Lot 253. Their December 3 reply was they did not feel they or their subcontractors were responsible, but they are willing to help with the cost to some extent. Our paving contractor has estimated the repair to be more than $2500. Lot 198 suggested that while the repairs are being made, the cracks around the lake should also be repaired. Lot 258 feels that the cracks should be filled and sealed within the next year and the entire pavement should have a sealcoat applied within the next year.
- The meeting was adjourned at 9:45 a.m.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE ANNUAL LHRO MEETING, JANUARY 9, 2020

The annual LHRO meeting was called to order after a quorum was reached. 119 shareholders were in attendance to exceed the 97 needed for a quorum. Fred Wimmer opened the meeting and led the Pledge of Allegiance. The meeting was then turned over to Gerry Killham. According to our attorney, the LHRO Board is not to preside over the annual meeting. Mary Lou Fraher took notes to share with the Board.

The minutes from last year were read and approved. Gerry read the Manager's Report from Beth Carroll. Mary Lou read the Long-Range Planning Committee report. The Long-Range Planning Committee recommended a water leakage check for all coaches. The last time this was done our water usage was reduced.

Time for an open forum was allowed with the following comments:

Lot 315 – Stated a better response is needed from the resident survey. It was mentioned in the Long-Range Planning Committee report that last year the committee met to tabulate the results of that year's survey with a 40% response from residents.

Lot 175 – Asked if our lawn care company is supposed to apply weed & feed to the lawns. The answer was no.

Lot 34 – Asked if orange and lemon trees attract fruit rats. Some fruit trees still exist in the park and some residents are being bothered with mice and rats.

Lot 212 – Stated we have several new residents, but new people are not volunteering. We need to work together. Also, someone needs to pick up the wild cats. [There was an overwhelming NO at that statement. Our resident naturalist has retired.]

Lot 244 – Requested a push button lock on the laundry room door. Some people would like to do their laundry later than the lock-up time.

Lot 157 – Requested new microphones which work properly.

Lot 164 – Currently locks up the common buildings. He retires early and thus locks up early. He suggested giving a key to someone else to lock up the laundry room later. Better yet, new volunteers are needed for lock-up duty. He also affirmed there are many feral cats.

Lot 18 – Stated the feral cats eat the rats.

Following this, Gerry Killham thanked the board of directors for their service. The meeting was adjourned about 7:20 pm.

REMEMBERING OUR LOVE

February is the month of love and we certainly have a lot of love stories at Lake Highlander, though not many who are willing to share them. The following is a poem adapted by Elaine B. Depew for Ken and Olive Bly on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. It reminds us all to "live every day as full as we can."

GOLDEN DAYS

When we were young and beginning a career
With some responsibility and a little fear,
We never thought of growing old.

Then we were married; had a brand-new life.
Our only concern Was to be a good husband and a good wife.
We never thought about growing old!

We went in debt to buy our first home,
But we always knew we weren't alone,
So, we never thought of growing old!

Our life was full, and the work never done
When God sent us two girls and a son.
No time to think of growing old!

We watched them grow up as they should;
Tried to educate them the best we could –
And forgot about growing old!

Suddenly they were adults and away from home,
Trying to make it on their own.
We realized we were growing old!

So, here we are with fifty years past,
And believe it or not, we're having a blast
Even if we are growing old!

'Tis the end of our story and here is our plan –
We're going to live every day as full as we can.
It's not so bad growing old!

DONNA AND DALE BAILEY

Donna was the only brave soul who would tell me the story of how she met her husband.

My parents always would tell me brother and I if we were anywhere, "Don't talk to strangers." I was in 10th grade and wanted to go to the first basketball game at the school for that year. When my parents dropped us off you can guess what we heard – "Don't talk to strangers!" the visiting basketball team were sitting on the first row of the bleachers. All the girls were sitting on the top bleacher above them. All the girls moved down behind the boys to talk with them – except me. Of course, they were strangers. After the game, a player came up to me and said, "What is your name?" I stated, "I'm not allowed to talk to strangers!"

We both went our separate ways. The next year was the same scenario. After the game, the same boy asked the same question. I told him the same answer but did add my name. Both of us took off again. I knew if my parents found out, that would be my last game!

My last name was not easy to spell – Hoenstine. The boy sent a letter to me and my last name was spelled wrong and the address was not correct, but being from a small town, I received it!

When I got home from school that day, I was interrogated with questions on how I knew this strange boy. He had a return address on the envelope. He even remembered what I had worn that first game.

That started a relationship. I went into nurse's training and he went into the Army. After completing these obligations, we married and lived happily for 54 years before Dale passed away in January 2015.

GROW OLD WITH ME

Robert Browing wrote a poem entitled, "Rabbi Ben Ezra." The beginning of the poem has become memorable: "Grow old along with me! The best is yet to be . . ." This quote inspired John Lennon to write the song, "Grow Old Along with Me" in 1980. It is one of the last songs he wrote. Sadly, he was not to grow old with his love. None of us know how long we will have with our loved one. May we all remember the love we share or have shared this Valentine's Day.

Grow old along with me
The best is yet to be
When our time has come
We will be as one
God bless our love
God bless our love
Grow old along with me
Two branches of one tree
Face the setting sun
When the day is done
God bless our love
God bless our love
Spending our lives together
Man and wife together
World without end
World without end
Grow old along with me
Whatever fate decrees
We will see it through
For our love is true
God bless our love
God bless our love

LAFF CORNER

The following jokes are from Milton Berle's Private Joke File, with thanks to Bill LaFever.

An auto club tow truck is summoned for roadside repairs. The ailing vehicle is in terrible shape. The engine coughs, the sparkplugs are filthy and miss, the battery is dead, the oil filter leaks, and the radiator is a sieve. The owner of the car asks fearfully, "Is there anything we can do?" The tow truck operator says, "Sure! Repeat after me – Our Father who are in Heaven . . ."

Mrs. Clay and her friend go to the police to let them know that Mr. Clay has disappeared. Mrs. Clay describes him as being six-two, a hundred and eighty pounds, wide-shouldered, brown-haired, and the closest thing to a forty-year-old lifeguard. As they walk out, her friend says, "What kind of description is that? Your husband is seventy-two. He's bald. He doesn't have a hair on his head." Mrs. Clay says, "Who wants that one back?"

A woman brought an old book into a store specializing in old volumes. The dealer studied the book and said, "This is a rare find, a Gutenberg Bible. It's worth a fortune!" The woman says, "I had two of them, but I threw the other one out. Some guy named Martin Luther had written all over it!"

A wife told her husband, "You're so involved with golf, you don't even remember the day we got married." The husband retorted, "Sure I do. It was the afternoon after I sank a forty-foot putt."

A woman well into her eighties begged her doctor for birth-control pills so she could sleep better. The doctor refused her request, but she kept begging. Finally he gave in. A month later the woman returned and asked for more pills. The doctor asked, "Do they really help you sleep better? There's not one word in the literature about the sedative effect of this pill. How does it work for you?" The old woman said, "In the morning I put one in my granddaughter's juice. I sleep like a log!"
