LHRO PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Susan Zerbe

Greetings from Pennsylvania. It has been a fairly wet spring here, but the trees and flowers are just beautiful. Having the opportunity to live in two totally different environments and to be able to enjoy the beauty of each is a true blessing. I share with others that when I'm in Florida I feel at home and content, but when I return to Pennsylvania, I also feel at home and content. What a joy!

As I'm sure most of you know, Beth Carroll, our very dedicated Property Manager, has been dealing with some health issues. The good news is she is improving daily, regaining her strength and is very hopeful to return to the office soon. Most importantly, during her recovery time she has been diligently working from her home. Technology is an amazing tool, which provides the ability to access the necessary information she needs to work effectively from there. Sharon has been outstanding in managing the office and is in contact with Beth as needed. The board has also been a tremendous support and I want to extend a huge thank you to all those members who are full time residents and helping Sharon when she needs assistance. The maintenance workers have also been on task, so as far as I know, the care of Lake Highlander continues to be in good hands. Cooperative teamwork is a very positive asset of our community. For Beth, we continue to wish her the very best.

June is the start of hurricane season. Hopefully, there will be no serious concerns this year, but the recent decision to purchase and install generators for the multipurpose room should provide some comfort and security for our full-time residents should there be a need. Enjoy the lazy, hazy days of summer and I wish all of you good health and safe travels for those who may be planning vacations.

YOUR JUNE COFFEE HOUR HOSTS

Please note: While coffee hour officially starts at 9:30, recent changes have found donuts being sold as early as 9:00 on most Saturdays. Come and enjoy the fellowship!

- June 1 Reynolds [contact Bob Reynolds]
- June 8 Schultz [contact Steve or Jan Schultz]
- June 15 Schultz
- June 22 Duclow [contact Joan or Dick Duclow]
- June 29 Duclow

A Big Thank You to our hosts!!

If you wish to help with coffee and you haven't been asked, just contact one of the hosts. They would be happy to have your help.

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

The Social Club has organized the bulletin boards in the clubhouse giving the Piper a section of the board on the left [east] side as you walk toward the bathrooms. Should you wish to share an item for possible publication, and you don't want to do it electronically, just tack it up on the bulletin board. Remember, the deadline for content is the 10th of each month.

Thank you!
Jan Schultz

A NOTE FROM THE SOCIAL CLUB PRESIDENT

Submitted by Gloria MacMillan

Hello Lake Highlanders,

As the President of the Social Club - I am taking this opportunity to apologize to anyone who has ever put their names down to volunteer and then not been asked to help at functions leaving you to feel “left out” or “not wanted.” I am sorry that this has happened and we, the present Board, are working diligently to rectify that situation. I can say that for me, if I don’t write things down - they seem to just fly away. I do realize that I have been guilty of this a time or two, please accept my apology because I assure you that I never want to make anyone feel as though they’re not wanted or needed.

Our goal is to make EVERYONE at Lake Highlander feel welcome and have an active role in everything that interests you. WE NEED YOU ALL! Your suggestions, your positive opinions and your help. If you have negative opinions instead of getting “riled up” and not participating - tell us why and give us suggestions on how to make things better and more inclusive. PLEASE!

Life truly is so short and to spend any of this precious time being upset is such a waste. So, let us in on your ideas and a plan to implement them (it would be great if you would write it down). TOGETHER we can ALL make life at Lake Highlander enjoyable and all inclusive. That is our goal!

THE HAPPENINGS AT LAKE HIGHLANDER

Here are some of the things which have taken place at Lake Highlander since the last edition of The Piper. We had the Easter dinner which was hosted by Bill and Rachel Savage. It was enjoyed by all who attended. I understand there were many delicious salads, vegetables, and desserts which rounded out the ham provided by the Social Club.

On Mother's Day the Social Club put on an Italian dinner at the clubhouse. Many thanks to Gloria MacMillan and her organizational skills. Also, kudos to Bob Bernier for making the delicious marinara sauce.

Bob Bernier

April and May saw many Lake Highlander snowbirds leaving for the north. Reports back to us indicate many have had cool weather, rain, and snow since their arrival home. We full-time residents, on the other hand, have had warm weather. Now that the snowbirds have left, we are seeing faces at the pool we haven't seen since last summer. We have our pool back! As each day closes before the sun sets, the golf carts and walkers come out to enjoy the cooler part of the day. Lanai night on the last Friday of the month is a great opportunity to chat with all the summer residents and realize we are not alone. Of course, aqua aerobics and Bingo are a constant during the summer. They never end.

May you all enjoy your summer, wherever you may be.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! HEALTH TIPS

Submitted by Margaret French

We might find it a challenge to look at the question that was presented in the Health Tips the last 2 Pipers. What one simple thing can I do now that will help me make a change in my health and move me toward a healthier ME? As a reminder, one of our Health Tips was to cut back on sugars, be wary of anything with added sugars in the top 3 ingredients. Another Health Tip was to keep our bodies MOVING. Studies show that sitting too much will shorten a person's life.

So, what is another Tip that will help me become a Healthier Me? A 12 - Hour Nightly FAST. We are designed to thrive and look and feel our best when we go 12 hours of each 24-hour period without consuming any calories. By simply fasting, you can help to clear the inflammation, strengthen the immune system, and enhance your capability to heal yourself and grow stronger overnight. Fasting allows your body to divert more of its resources toward fighting off infections and an added benefit to most of us, is we can burn off belly fat while we sleep.

Fasting helps purify the mind and body, strengthens resistance, and improves concentration. Studies also show that regular fasting may improve survival and reduce risks of diabetes and heart disease.

So, when you quit eating after your evening meal and get to bed for 8 luxurious hours of healing, age-defying, restorative beauty sleep, you can be burning off belly fat while you snooze. Over time, a nightly fast can transform your bodily composition and rejuvenate your long-term health. The long night's sleep and fast provides indispensable time for healing and purifying the body and brain; leaving you feeling rested, revitalized, and recharged upon awakening the next morning.

I look forward to finding other Helpful Health Tips for next Winter's Pipers. Have a Healthy Blessed Summer. See you for Yoga Stretch in 2020.

CYBER SAFETY

By Jan Schultz

Many companies and individuals have experienced higher than normal virus and malware activity recently. An organization for which I volunteer recently sent out an email stressing the importance of email safety to prevent cyber-attacks. Here are some of the common cyber-attacks that everyone should be aware of:

- Ransomware is increasingly being used by hackers to extort money from companies and individuals. Ransomware is a type of malicious software that takes over your computer and prevents you from accessing files until you pay a ransom.
- Phishing is the most common type of cyber-attack that affects organizations and individuals. Phishing attacks can take many forms, but they all share a common goal; getting you to share sensitive information such as login credentials, credit card information, or bank account details.
- Spear phishing is a more sophisticated phishing attack that includes customized information that makes the attacker seem like a legitimate source. They may use your name and phone number in the e-mail to trick you into thinking they have a connection to you, making you more likely to click a link or attachment that they provide.
- Smishing is a combination of the terms "SMS" and "phishing." It is similar to phishing, but refers to fraudulent messages sent over SMS (text messaging) rather than email. The goal of smishing is to capture people's personal information.
- Vishing is similar to phishing, but refers to fraudulent messages sent to voice mail rather than email.
- Spoofing is when the sender address of an email has been altered to hide its true origin, used by virus and spam authors to make their emails look legitimate and lure people into clicking on links or downloading attachments. For example: The email looks as it is from one address but hovering over it reveals a different address.
- Pretexting is a social engineering technique in which a fictional situation is created for the purpose of obtaining personal and sensitive information from an unsuspecting individual. It usually involves researching a target and making use of his/her data for impersonation or manipulation. Personal data may include Social Security numbers (SSN), usernames, passwords or other privileged information. The goal of this technique is to sound legitimate to the victim in order to obtain protected information.

Think Before You Click. The most common way a virus a computer is through email. Often, scammers will include malicious links or attachments in emails that look harmless. To avoid this trap, observe the following email best practices;

- Do not click on links or attachments from senders that you do not recognize. Be especially wary of .zip or other compressed or executable file types.
- Do not provide sensitive personal information (like usernames and passwords) over email.
- Watch for email senders that use suspicious or misleading domain names. These email addresses can be spoofed to look like someone you know, but also, they could be one that has a different country's domain on it (example.com.ru, or support@microsoft.com)
- Look at the Subject line. Does it create a sense of urgency? These are typically viruses. Does it have one word in it but appears to be a response like "Re: Document"? This is also a tall tell sign of a virus.
- Look at the body of the message. If the sender is a recognized sender, does it follow their normal emailing criteria? Does it have a salutation? Is it directed to you specifically, or is it generic (Hi, vs Hi Lynne.). Does it have a signature for the person who sent it? Does it match the name of the person you identified in the email address above?
- Look at the direction of the message. Does it ask you to open the attached file? Does it create a sense of urgency? With viruses, the purpose of the body is to entice you to open the attachment. A common method is by fear and urgency.
- Are you getting an email from a Facebook friend that you normally don't correspond with by email? They may ask you to open an attachment or say, "Look at this link." If this is not the normal way of communication with that person, be suspicious.

LOVEBUG SEASON IS OVER AGAIN

Contributed by Jan Schultz

A May 10, 2019 article in the Tampa Bay Times entitled “Fatal Attraction” talked about lovebugs in Florida. Since we all endured the season and many don’t get the newspaper, I thought I would share some highlights of the article with you. The lovebug season begins just about the time many of our snowbirds are leaving in May. But there is also another lovebug season in September.

- Lovebugs are an invasive species which arrived in Florida about 1950.
- Lovebugs thrive in among cow poop and cut grass (actually, any decaying matter).
- They used to be worse than they are now (really!).
- Many service stations used to charge 75 cents to remove lovebug infestation from your car if you did not purchase gasoline.
- Children used to stand along the highway offering lovebug cleaning services for a dollar.
- Entomologists have no idea why the lovebug population has dwindled.
- As a positive benefit, according to the University of Florida, lovebugs feed on decaying matter and return organic material into the soil.
- Lovebugs are not acidic as has been reported. It is the insect’s chemical-rich eggs which cause damage to your car’s paint job.
- Ways people have protected their cars: spraying cooking oil on your bumper, pouring Coca Cola on the paint, and wiping off the car with a damp dryer sheet.
- Best and most effect way to protect your car: carry a spray bottle with water combined with car cleaning fluid and wipe the front of your car down at the end of each day. Also getting a wax job helps to keep the bugs from sticking to the front of your car.

Answer to the Trivia Quiz:

Shanghai. At a whopping 24,150,000 permanent inhabitants Shanghai is the only city that is home to over 24 million people in one city.

The Best is Yet to Come

Contributed by Karen Larrimore

There was a young woman who had been diagnosed with a terminal illness and had been given three months to live. So, as she was getting her things 'in order,' she contacted her Pastor and had him come to her house to discuss certain aspects of her final wishes.

She told him which songs she wanted sung at the service, what scriptures she would like read, and what outfit she wanted to be buried in.

Everything was in order and the Pastor was preparing to leave when the young woman suddenly remembered something very important to her.

"There's one more thing," she said excitedly. "What's that?" came the Pastor's reply. "This is very important," the young woman continued. "I want to be buried with a fork in my right hand."

The Pastor stood looking at the young woman, not knowing quite what to say.

"That surprises you, doesn't it?" the young woman asked.

"Well, to be honest, I am puzzled by the request," said the Pastor.

The young woman explained. "My grandmother once told me this story, and from that time on I have always tried to pass along its message to those I love and those who are in need of encouragement. In all my years of attending socials and dinners, I always remember that when the dishes of the main course were being cleared, someone would inevitably lean over and say, 'Keep your fork.' It was my favorite part because I knew that something better was coming... like velvety chocolate cake or deep-dish apple pie. Something wonderful, and with substance!"

"So, I just want people to see me there in that casket with a fork in my hand and I want them to wonder, 'What's with the fork?' Then I want you to tell them: 'Keep your fork. . . the best is yet to come.'"

The Pastor's eyes welled up with tears of joy as he hugged the young woman good-bye. He knew this would be one of the last times he would see her before her death. But he also knew that the young woman had a better grasp of heaven than he did. She had a better grasp of what heaven would be like than many people twice her age, with twice as much experience and knowledge.

She KNEW that something better was coming.

At the funeral people were walking by the young woman's casket and they saw the cloak she was wearing, and the fork placed in her right hand. Over and over, the Pastor heard the question, 'What's with the fork?' And over and over he smiled.

During his message, the Pastor told the people of the conversation he had with the young woman shortly before she died. He also told them about the fork and about what it symbolized to her. He told the people how he could not stop thinking about the fork and told them that they probably would not be able to stop thinking about it either.

He was right. So, the next time you reach down for your fork, let it remind you, ever so gently, that the best is yet to come.

I was invited to a wedding and when I get to the hotel, I realized there were two doors.
1st door it was Bride Relatives. 2nd door it was groom relatives.
So I decided to enter the groom's door and I found two doors again.
1st Ladies. 2nd Men.
I entered men's door and once again I found two doors.
1st people with gifts. 2nd people without gifts.
So I used to the 2nd door (people without gifts) and then I found myself outside the hotel.

HONEST AGING

My youngest son asked me how old I was.
I answered, "39 and holding."
He thought for a moment and then asked, "But how old would you be if you let go?"

CLEVER NAMES

"Nice dog. What's its name?" I asked my friend's 10-year-old son.
"Bob," he said.
"And your cat?"
"Bob."
"How do you keep them straight?"
"Well one is Bob Cat and the other is Bob Barker," the boy answered.
"Tell him your rabbit's name," his father suggested.
The kid smiled and said, "Dennis Hopper."

DON'T EAT THAT SOUP

"Dad, are bugs good to eat?" asked the boy.
"Let's not talk about such things at the dinner table, son," his father replied.
After dinner the father inquired, "Now, son, what did you want to ask me?"
"Oh, nothing," the boy said. "There was a bug in your soup, but now it's gone."
