HIGHLIGHTS OF THE APRIL 11 LHRO BOARD MEETING

The April meeting was a short one. There were two main items of note:

- The Board revisited the issue of purchasing a commercial ice maker for use during power outages. After examining the specs of several commercial units, it was found that they do not operate with a generator.
- The Board voted to purchase a new air conditioner/heater unit for the card room.

APRIL 8 SOCIAL CLUB MEETING

- All officers were present.
- Treasurer's Report: Book balance is $9,255.82. Petty cash balance is $100.00.
- The proposed amendment, which had been posted as required, was passed by majority vote.
- Hosts are needed for coffee hour. Please sign up to host if you want to see coffee hours continue. While many like the new approach to coffee hour, getting a donut when first arriving, those who host may choose any format they wish.
- Donna Flint wished to have a more detailed treasurer's report at the Social Club meetings. She was advised that only the highlights are given to conserve time, but the entire report is attached to the Secretary's Minutes.
- Bob and Pat Reynolds are retiring as Bingo hosts. Cathy Sargeant has agreed to run Bingo during the winter months, but someone is needed during the summer. Callers are also needed.
- The fall and winter season events will be posted on the bulletin board.
- Secretary discussed the latest on a planned January 16, 2020, cruise from Tampa to Cozumel, on Royal Caribbean. A list of possible trips and tours was passed around surveying those present on which tours would be of the most interest. Secretary would like to know where to direct time and attention at organizing the tours. A list will be posted on the bulletin board for members comments.

The HOBBY CLUB SAYS GOOD-BYE

Submitted by Donna Flint

The Hobby club would like to thank EVERYONE for their support over the years. Without your help, attendance at our Annual Spring Teas, purchasing 50/50 tickets and participation in the Craft Sales we could not have accomplished the following:

- When the sewing machines were hot a lot of articles were made and sold.
- Pillows donated to Nursing Homes as well as Christmas parties & gifts.
- Sweat suits purchased for the Nursing Homes.
- Cookie exchange for the park shut-ins and Nursing Homes.
- Monetary donations to:

JOYCE HUNTLEY RECEIVES AWARD

By Jan Schultz

Joyce Huntley, Lot 317, is an avid genealogist. While working with her on her genealogy I have come to appreciate the richness of her lineage. One ancestor, her great-grandfather Major James Henry Whitmore, was part of Company B of the Maine 15th Volunteer Infantry Regiment during the American Civil War. The unit saw much action and in a historically-significant event they were able to raise the first Union flag over the shores of Texas during the Civil War in 1862. After the war the flag was presented to Major Whitmore. The flag was passed down to Major Whitmore's daughter, Emily Whitmore Morton, then to her daughter Nadine Morton Meshko, and finally to her son George Meshko (Joyce Huntley's cousin). George passed away in 2014. His widow Nancy then became the possessor of the flag.

Before his death, George paid to have the flag framed and hermetically sealed behind glass. His cousin Joyce told him about the Maine Military Museum and its reputation for preserving military history but the donation to the museum did not happen during his lifetime. In March, at Joyce's encouragement, Nancy Meshko arranged to have the flag shipped to the museum. Much hoopla accompanied the donation with television and newspaper coverage. "The flag has come home" was the excited headline.

The Daughters of the American Revolution heard about the donation and decided to award Joyce and Nancy the Women in American History Award and Medal which honors those individuals who have significantly advanced the understanding of America's past. Joyce and Nancy were both awarded the medal in separate venues on April 15: Joyce received hers from the Caladisi Chapter DAR in a ceremony in Dunedin and Nancy received hers in a ceremony in Colorado.

Congratulations Joyce!

Joyce upon receiving her award

ART/CRAFT FAIR

Submitted by Lynn Marro #256

The spring Art and Craft Fair was one of the biggest yet. There were 24 vendors including nine new vendors along with many "old" favorites who brought new arts and crafts. A special thank you to the wonderful kitchen helpers Beth Martin, Mary Lou Fraher, Joy Adams, Jerry Santerre, Sandy Clark, Julie Bigelow, and Karen Judson and to our own Music Man, Bob Birchmore.

MARK YOU CALENDAR!! The fall 2020 Fair will be Saturday, November 23rd. The sign-up sheet is in the clubhouse.

CANCER DRIVE RESULTS

By Joan Bernier

It's official. This years' donations totaled $2,840.00, just shy of last year. You have proven, once again, Lake Highlander folks are caring people!! Somewhere, someday, you might have saved a life. KUDOS!!!!

HOW WELL DO YOU KNOW LAKE HIGHLANDER'S RULES AND REGULATIONS?

By Jan Schultz

For the next few months I will be giving you a quiz on our LH Rules and Regulations. They can be found at the back of the park's yellow directory. This month the questions are from the introduction and the eligibility for residency.

1. The Rules and Regulations form part of the _____ of the Lake Highlander R. O. Association.
2. What are the quiet hours in the Park?
3. Who reserves the right to approve new owners prior to the purchase of a home in LH?
4. No unit may be occupied by more than _____ persons unless approval has been obtained from the Association.
5. In accordance with _____, at least one person living in each home must be 55 years of age or older. A second occupant must be age _____ or older.
6. May Care Givers for a resident request permission to reside in a coach with the said resident?

Look for the answers later in this issue.

ATTENTION BINGO PLAYERS

Submitted by Pat Reynolds

This article is to inform you that as of June 1, 2019, Bob and I will be stepping down as Bingo coordinators. We have been "running" Bingo for about 15 years!! Believe me when I tell you it takes a village!

As most of you know by now, I have some medical issues that I need to give 100% of my attention to.

As of this writing we have Kathy Sargent who has come forward to volunteer to "run" Bingo when she returns in the fall. Thank you, Kathy!

Also, at this time I want to thank ALL our volunteers who helped us out "behind" the scenes every week – from "Callers," to those who called back numbers, to Bev Hanson our "up front" helper and who filled in whenever we were away!

Last, but not least, a BIG THANKS to Gerry Santerre and her kitchen crew. I think anyone who has been on the receiving end of their delicious desserts have been amazed by their "culinary" delights!

If there is anyone who would like to keep Bingo running over the summer, please let us know!

Bob and I have loved running Bingo. Again, thanks to one and all who helped us every week! You are all our unsung heroes and without you we could not have done it! You know who you are – we were blessed to have you in our corner.

Pat & Bob

PAINT NITE

Submitted by Lisa Howell

Beautiful New England roof slates were graciously given to Terry Lucas, Lisa Howell, and Loche Kline by Nat Wright and Shirley Greer. The lucky recipients then thought it would be nice to share them with LH friends, so on March 18 approximately 35 ladies and men met at the clubhouse and were inspired by very talented guest artist, Shawn Dell Joyce. Shawn Dell has a long list of credentials, and LH residents were fortunate to have her as a guide. [See her website at www.shawndelljoyce.net.]

The ladies look forward to inviting her back next season for another fun project. A big thank you to Nat and Shirley and all who attended!

HEALTH TIPS

Submitted by Margaret French

Aging isn't avoidable, but you can optimize the journey. I mentioned in the last Piper about looking ahead 5 years in your life. Visualize yourself in 5 years...

Lifestyle choices that are under your own control can increase longevity with graceful aging. Most of us know the important steps to take to stave off the ravages of old age.

Now that we are retired, we have more time to set some realistic goals and ask that question What few simple things can I change in my daily life that will move me to a "Healthier Me"?

We all know how important our eating habits are; but there are so many other healthy habits to develop, and hopefully place them in our lifestyle. Although we have viewed the ages of 50-55-60 as the age to start thinking about winding down, we now know that is the time we should feel our second wind kicking in.

Now, individuals over age 55 launch more startup companies than any other age group. Maybe we should get out of the mindset of retiring and instead plan on transitioning to another active pursuit. ...Like moving our bodies more...

One way we can do all the things we always wanted to do is – (are you sitting down or standing up) – “MOVE!”

Spending more time on our bottoms is getting to be a big problem. Studies show that sitting too much may shorten a person's life by about two years or more. We sit for breakfast, we sit to read the paper, we sit and watch TV, we sit for coffee, we sit in the car, and then eat again and sit. Then we sit and watch TV and then go to bed. Now this does not pertain to all of us, I know. It gives you an idea of how much we do sit. If we made a healthy habit of moving or just standing an additional three hours a day for a year, it would add up to 30,000 extra calories, or around eight pounds of fat. This would be the amount of energy you would burn if you ran 10 marathons during the year!

The Helpful Habit Hint for this month is. . . MOVE MORE . . .so you can feel like doing all those things you have always wanted to do....

MEMORIAL DAY

By Jan Schultz

For as long as I can remember, Memorial Day was the holiday which signified the beginning of summer. We always had a family picnic and the end of the school year was just around the corner. On the serious side, graves were decorated, and we remembered those who died in service to our country. Since 1970, Memorial Day has been celebrated in the U.S. on the last Monday in May. Prior to that it was celebrated on May 30.

In my family, we remembered my Dad's only brother who died at the close of World War II. He was on Luzon in the Philippines. A letter to his mother for Mother's Day stated, "I am in the best of health and we are now in a comparatively safe place on another and higher mountain – 4000 feet up." At that time the 136th Infantry, of which he was a part, was rooting out the Japanese troops which had fled into the mountains.

My uncle wrote home one last time on May 8, 1945. He stated his company was patrolling the mountains during the day and sitting up on watch during the night. He said, "As far as I'm concerned, this is the way I like to fight the war. During the day we have nothing to do but sit around and play cards, write letters, clean our guns, and cook our meals. At night we have three men in a pill box and take turns watching. My CP (command post) is a sand bagged cave dug in the side of a hill which I occupy with my Sgt. and the aid man. It is complete with telephone but no lights or running water. Freedom from running water is an asset when it rains, and that we get for an hour or two every day right on schedule after supper time. Each of us takes two 1 ½ hour shifts. This is a monotonous life, but someone has to do it. Anyway, it is better than being up about where the boys are fighting. You're probably reading in the papers that this campaign is ended, but there are still a lot of Japs to be cleaned out of the surrounding mountains. This Regt. didn't share in the glory of any triumphal entry, but continues to fight in some of the worst terrain of the Philippines. The mountains are beautiful, yes, but what a job climbing them. Besides, there are Japs up here. I've seen them myself."

From a history of my uncle's division, The Golden Cross: A History of the 33d Infantry Division in World War II, I was able to find out copious details about the events of that time. In brief, beginning on May 11 the troops confronted the enemy and Companies C and F were in a constant state of tension with no opportunity to rest. The next day my uncle and another platoon leader were killed by machine gun fire.

My grandparents were informed of their son's death by their daughter-in-law on Memorial Day. Upon hearing the news, my grandfather went out into the yard where a flag was flying on a pole and lowered the flag to half-mast. The neighbors knew by the lowered flag that one of their sons had been killed in action and they shared the family's grief.

We all have been touched by the lives of men and women who have sacrificed their lives in defense of our freedom. I, for one, am very grateful we have a day in which we can remember them and their valor.

When John F. Kennedy was asked how he became a war hero, he said, “It was absolutely involuntary. They sank my boat.” [From Presidential Wit & Wisdom, by Charlotte Gross, ed. [Kansas City, Mo.]: Hallmark Gift Books, 2016.]

DANCING IN THE STREET

Rita Teeter had a vision of a new kind of end of the year dance – Dancing in the Street. She and her crew pulled it off. There was music – sweet music, there was music everywhere – and lots of food. Kudos to Jim Mundt, Dan Fraher, and Bob Martin for grilling tasty hamburger and to the wonderful cooks of Lake Highlander.

Grill masters Jim Mundt, Bob Martin, and Dan Fraher

“Dancing in the Street” by Marvin Gaye, Bill Stevenson, and George Ivy Hunter
Calling out around the world are you ready for a brand new beat?
Summer’s here and the time is right for dancing in the street.

All we need is music, sweet music
There’ll be music everywhere
There’ll be swinging, swaying, and records playing
Dancing in the street.

It doesn’t matter what you where, just as long as you are there.

So come on, every guy, grab a girl
Everywhere around the world
They’ll be dancing in the street.

LAKE HIGHLANDER LIBRARY NEWS

By Jan Schultz

Our Lake Highlander Library has a good variety of books for your reading pleasure. One section of the library is devoted to “General Interest” books. These are non-fiction books and can be found on two shelves below the southeast window of the library. Here are some of the titles:

- Nature’s Great Events, by Karen Bass, 2009.
- The Perfect Horse: The Daring Mission to Rescue the Priceless Stallions from the Nazis by Elizabeth Letts, 2016.
- Cat Sense: The Feline Enigma Revealed, by John Bradshaw, 2014.
- An Irish Country Childhood: A Bygone Age Remembered, by Marie Walsh, 2004. It is the story of a young girl’s “magical” childhood on a farm in the west part of Ireland in the 1930s and 1940s.
- The Smuggler’s Ghost, by Steve Lamb and Diane Marcou, 2010. This locally published book tells the tales smuggling and drug trafficking in Florida.
- Of the People: A History of the United States [in two volumes], 2014.
- Living on the Black: Two Pitchers, Two Teams, One Season to Remember, by John Feinstein, 2009. This book tells of the events of one nerve-racking season through the eyes of two great pitchers: Tom Glavine and Mike Mussina.
- Behind the Curtain: An Insider’s View of Jay Leno’s Tonight Show, by Dave Berg, 2014.
- Trailblazers: 33 Women in Science Who Changed the World, Rachel Swaby, 2017.

Answer to AI’s Quiz:

East Antarctic: On the high ridge of the East Antarctic Plateau the temperature can drop to as low as -135.8 degrees Fahrenheit, which was recorded in August, 2010.

GREAT DANCING

Submitted by Jan Schultz

This is a true story, but I found it amusing. I recently met an 82-year-old woman who does not live in the park. She attends Zumba classes four times a week at the Community Center. Last summer she attended her granddaughter's wedding. During the dancing at the reception she decided she would get up and do her Zumba moves. Her grandchildren were very impressed and said, "Nana, you are a great dancer!"

BURMA SHAVE SIGNS

Submitted by Bob Frazier

A man, a miss,
A car, a curve.
He kissed the miss,
And missed the curve.
Burma Shave

Burma Shave probably saved some lives. People laughed and then were more careful! It was a REAL service to America, even though it was an advertisement and it was one of the RARE useful ones!

As a reminder, here is a quick lesson in the history of Burma Shave signs. In the 1930's and '40's, when everyone drove down the old two-lane roads and before the interstates, Burma Shave signs would be posted all over the countryside in farmers' fields. They were small red signs with white letters. Five signs, about 100 feet apart, each containing one line of a four-line couplet and the obligatory 5th sign advertising Burma Shave, a popular shaving cream. Here are some good ones:

DON'T STICK YOUR ELBOW

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"
