In the know from Beth!

The TV channel, channel 732, is up and running. The TV channel is available to residents that have a Bright house digital box. We are still perfecting it but it is generally working out well. Sharon and I have discussed the parameters for information that will be included on the channel based on the required input time. We will input changes as necessary but not every day unless it is an emergency situation.

We will be putting the room schedules on the site. Please do not assume that when you look at the calendar and see a vacancy for day and/or time that the room is available. The schedule changes day to day and all bookings must continue to be made at the office. If we do not have your event on the calendar then it is not booked that includes playing cards, dancing, exercise. All social events and park events will be reflected on the room schedule calendar but specifics, such as price, BYOB, entertainment, etc. regarding any social function will continue to be posted on the bulletin board. Park news will always lead the channel lineup and that includes emergencies, updates, Board meetings, etc

PUMPKINS in the Snow!

One of our nations leading symbols of Fall has to be the plump, orange Pumpkin! While seeing a field or even a patch of growing pumpkins in our Dunedin area of Florida would be a rare thing, it isn't an unusual sight in Ohio.

I've always loved James Whitcomb Riley's poem "When the Frost is on the Punkin". He says, in part:

"They's something kindo' harty-like about the atmusfere
When the heat of summer's over an the coolin' fall is here---
Of course we miss the flowers, and the blossums on the trees,
And the mumble of the hummin' birds and buzzin' of the bees;
But the air's so appetizin'; and the landscape through the haze
Of a crisp and sunny morning of the airly autumn days
Is a pictur' that no painter has the colorin' to mock---
When the frost in on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock."

I'm reminded that our Ohio snow season is fast approaching. Oh my, we'd better hurry back to Lake Highlander!!! It is this time of the year when Dick and I were on a drive and I noticed that there were still a few pumpkins in the snow out in a small field. More than the sight of the pumpkins, the very words stayed in my mind. I couldn't help comparing those "pumpkins in the snow" to people!

Maybe it's because our political elections, debates etc. occur during this season, or maybe it's because people are extra busy and feel pressured to get things done before winter hibernation. At any rate, I believe that fall often brings out aggressive personality traits. Sometimes a person seems to have no control over what they like or dislike, or even what they do or do not do. Why are some folks kind and others not so much? I'd like to think that we all have the natural tendency to always be kind. But, truth be told, some people prefer to march forward as inconsiderate bullies. It is as though they prefer to be ice cold like "pumpkins in the snow".

Many of us prefer our pumpkins warm and in the form of pie, perhaps accompanied by a hot cup of spiced tea. In the spirit of the pumpkin pie season, I offer this recipe: 2 cups of consideration whipped into a froth and gradually mixed with 1 cup of personal courtesy. Slowly add sugar to taste. Pour into a shell and bake. Let it cool before you slice it and speak it.

It's actually more pleasant to think about something much, much bigger. He travels by way of a big sleigh, wears a big red and white suit and has a big laugh to match. Ho Ho Ho! AND he knows if you are the naughty, harsh, snow on the frozen pumpkin sort or the nice, warm, soft pumpkin pie type of person.

This is Lakeside Lassie adding that if someone chooses to sit out in the field, frozen, like a "pumpkin in the snow", then there's more warm pumpkin pie for everyone else! Ho Ho Ho!

For all you crafters “Save the Date”

A RT AND CRAFT FAIR - Submitted by Lynn Marro, Lot 256 - There is something new and exciting for our Friday, November 20th Fair. We will be inviting friends and relatives of Lake Highlander residents who have new or different wares for sale to participate in the Fair. They will be charged a small fee to cover advertising. Before they sign up for a table, please have them contact me any time at r21mar@aol.com or at lot #256 (727-786-5719) after October 10th. We are looking for new and different arts and crafts that will expand the interest in the Fair but will not compete with our resident artists and crafters.

LAKE HIGHLANDER GOLF LEAGUE

Welcome back everyone!! Our Golf League officially starts on Friday, November 6, 2015. However, we will start golfing as soon as it cools down a bit. I will put a notice up in the clubhouse when we start.

Please consider joining our group. Lots of fun and good natured ribbing every week. Ladies and gentlemen of all golfing levels are welcome!! We are a fun league. We play at Countryway Golf Club on Waters Ave. in Tampa (just after the Oldsmar Flea Market). It is an executive course.

Joan Bernier

From the President's Desk

The summer has passed quickly and we have seen many changes.

The new aerator is in the south end of the lake and the old one has had a full maintenance and has been moved to the north end. We are adding to the pool area seating capacity, in both new chairs and lounges and by removal of the wall near the lanai and adding area.

The board has reviewed options for the fencing along Falcon Dr. that I think everyone will agree is sorely needed. As I write this the Oleanders have been removed and the fence is being painted green in preparation of Pota Carpus plants being put in. Curbing is being added along First St. and the drip lines cleaned. AWESOME.

The social club provided many exciting events this year and Ladies Luncheons were held in August and September that were very successful.

Currently we have only two units available. Lake Highlander has become “the” place to live.

We are now anxiously awaiting the return of all our northern friends.

I hope you've all had a healthy and safe summer, see you soon!

Fun Facts!

THANKSGIVING AT PLYMOUTH

In September 1620, a small ship called the Mayflower left Plymouth, England, carrying 102 passengers—an assortment of religious separatists seeking a new home where they could freely practice their faith and other individuals lured by the promise of prosperity and land ownership in the New World. After a treacherous and uncomfortable crossing that lasted 66 days, they dropped anchor near the tip of Cape Cod, far north of their intended destination at the mouth of the Hudson River. One month later, the Mayflower crossed Massachusetts Bay, where the Pilgrims, as they are now commonly known, began the work of establishing a village at Plymouth.

Did You Know?

Loobster, seal and swans were on the Pilgrims' menu.

Throughout that first brutal winter, most of the colonists remained on board the ship, where they suffered from exposure, scurvy and outbreaks of contagious disease. Only half of the Mayflower's original passengers and crew lived to see their first New England spring. In March, the remaining settlers moved ashore, where they received an astonishing visit from an Abenaki Indian who greeted them in English. Several days later, he returned with another Native American, Squanto, a member of the Pawtuxet tribe who had been kidnapped by an English sea captain and sold into slavery before escaping to London and returning to his homeland on an exploratory expedition. Squanto taught the Pilgrims, weakened by malnutrition and illness, how to cultivate corn, extract sap from maple trees, catch fish in the rivers and avoid poisonous plants. He also helped the settlers forge an alliance with the Wampanoag, a local tribe, which would endure for more than 50 years and tragically remains one of the sole examples of harmony between European colonists and Native Americans.

In November 1621, after the Pilgrims' first corn harvest proved successful, Governor William Bradford organized a celebratory feast and invited a group of the fledgling colony's Native American allies, including the Wampanoag chief Massasoit. Now remembered as American's "first Thanksgiving"—although the Pilgrims themselves may not have used the term at the time—the festival lasted for three days. While no record exists of the historic banquet's exact menu, the Pilgrim chronicler Edward Winslow wrote in his journal that Governor Bradford sent four men on a "fowling" mission in preparation for the event, and that the Wampanoag guests arrived bearing five deer. Historians have suggested that many of the dishes were likely prepared using traditional Native American spices and cooking methods. Because the Pilgrims had no oven and the Mayflower's sugar supply had dwindled by the fall of 1621, the meal did not feature pies, cakes or other desserts, which have become a hallmark of contemporary celebrations.

Check out the Thanksgiving by the Numbers infographic for more facts about how the first Thanksgiving compares to modern holiday traditions.

THANKSGIVING BECOMES AN OFFICIAL HOLIDAY

Pilgrims held their second Thanksgiving celebration in 1623 to mark the end of a long drought that had threatened the year's harvest and prompted Governor Bradford to call for a religious fast. Days of fasting and thanksgiving on an annual or occasional basis became common practice in other New England settlements as well. During the American Revolution, the Continental Congress designated one or more days of thanksgiving a year, and in 1789 George Washington issued the first Thanksgiving proclamation by the national government of the United States; in it, he called upon Americans to express their gratitude for the happy conclusion to the country's war of independence and the successful ratification of the U.S. Constitution. His successors John Adams and James Madison also designated days of thanks during their presidencies.

In 1817, New York became the first of several states to officially adopt an annual Thanksgiving holiday; each celebrated it on a different day, however, and the American South remained largely unfamiliar with the tradition. In 1827, the noted magazine editor and prolific writer Sarah Josepha Hale—author, among countless other things, of the nursery rhyme "Mary Had a Little Lamb"—launched a campaign to establish Thanksgiving as a national holiday. For 36 years, she published numerous editorials and sent scores of letters to governors, senators, presidents and other politicians. Abraham Lincoln finally heeded her request in 1863, at the height of the Civil War, in a proclamation entreating all Americans to ask God to "commend to his tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, mourners or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife” and to “heal the wounds of the nation.” He scheduled Thanksgiving for the final Thursday in November, and it was celebrated on that day every year until 1939, when Franklin D. Roosevelt moved the holiday up a week in an attempt to spur retail sales during the Great Depression. Roosevelt’s plan, known derisively as Franksgiving, was met with passionate opposition, and in 1941 the president reluctantly signed a bill making Thanksgiving the fourth Thursday in November.

THANKSGIVING TRADITIONS

In many American households, the Thanksgiving celebration has lost much of its original religious significance; instead, it now centers on cooking and sharing a bountiful meal with family and friends. Turkey, a Thanksgiving staple so ubiquitous it has become all but synonymous with the holiday, may or may not have been on offer when the Pilgrims hosted the inaugural feast in 1621. Today, however, nearly 90 percent of Americans eat the bird—whether roasted, baked or deep-fried—on Thanksgiving, according to the National Turkey Federation. Other traditional foods include stuffing, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie. Volunteering is a common Thanksgiving Day activity, and communities often hold food drives and host free dinners for the less fortunate.

Parades have also become an integral part of the holiday in cities and towns across the United States. Presented by Macy’s department store since 1924, New York City’s Thanksgiving Day parade is the largest and most famous, attracting some 2 to 3 million spectators along its 2.5-mile route and drawing an enormous television audience. It typically features marching bands, performers, elaborate floats conveying various celebrities and giant balloons shaped like cartoon characters.

Beginning in the mid-20th century and perhaps even earlier, the president of the United States has “pardoned” one or two Thanksgiving turkeys each year, sparing the birds from slaughter and sending them to a farm for retirement. A number of U.S. governors also perform the annual turkey pardoning ritual.

The Tip of The Day from WisdomTips.com

Wealth amounts in not having great possessions but in having few wants.
- EPICURIS

Relationship Dynamics - Marriage Jokes

The "car way" of telling how far the relationship is:

- Trying to impress the woman: unlocks and opens the door, waits for her to get inside, closes her door behind her
- Dating: the guy unlocks her door and then goes around to his side to get in.
- Engaged: The man opens his door leans over and unlocks her door and opens it.
- Married: The man gets in to the driver's seat unlocks the doors and says "Aren't you getting in?"

Heteronyms... This is intriguing

Homographs are words of like spelling but with more than one meaning.

A homograph that is also pronounced differently is a heteronym.

- 19) I had to subject the subject to a series of tests.
- 20) How can I intimate this to my most intimate friend?

Let's face it - English is a crazy language. There is no egg in eggplant, nor ham in hamburger; neither apple nor pine in pineapple. English muffins weren't invented in England or French fries in France. Sweetmeats are candies while sweetbreads, which aren't sweet, are meat. We take English for granted. But if we explore its paradoxes, we find that quicksand can work slowly, boxing rings are square and a guinea pig is neither from Guinea nor is it a pig.

And why is it that writers write but fingers don't fing, grocers don't groce and hammers don't ham? If the plural of tooth is teeth, why isn't the plural of booth, beeth? One goose, 2 geese. So one moose, 2 meese? One index, 2 indices? Doesn't it seem crazy that you can make amends but not one amend? If you have a bunch of odds and ends and get rid of all but one of them, what do you call it?

If teachers taught, why didn't preachers praught? If a vegetarian eats vegetables, what does a humanitarian eat? Sometimes I think all the English speakers should be committed to an asylum for the verbally insane. In what language do people recite at a play and play at a recital? Ship by truck and send cargo by ship? Have noses that run and feet that smell.

How can a slim chance and a fat chance be the same, while a wise man and a wise guy are opposites? You have to marvel at the unique lunacy of a language in which your house can burn up as it burns down, in which you fill in a form by filling it out and in which, an alarm goes off by going on.

English was invented by people, not computers, and it reflects the creativity of the human race, which, of course, is not a race at all. That is why, when the stars are out, they are visible, but when the lights are out, they are invisible.

AS I AGE, I REALIZE THAT:

1. I talk to myself, because sometimes I need expert advice.
2. Sometimes I roll my eyes out loud.
3. I don't need anger management. I need people to stop ticking me off.?
4. My people skills are just fine. It's my tolerance of idiots that needs work.
5. The biggest lie I tell myself is "I don't need to write that down, I'll remember it."
6. When I was a child I thought nap time was punishment. Now it's like a mini vacation
7. The day the world runs out of wine is just too terrible to think about?
8. Even duct tape can't fix stupid, but it can muffle the sound!
9. Wouldn't it be great if we could put ourselves in the dryer for ten minutes; come out wrinkle-free and three sizes smaller?
10. If God wanted me to touch my toes, he would've put them on my knees.
11. At my age "Getting lucky" means walking into a room and remembering what I came in there for.?

Bible Study and prayer time has begun.....

I would like to invite anyone who has a prayer concern and/or who would like to study the Bible to join us in the Library on Tuesdays at 9:00 AM. We first lift up in prayer any needs that are mentioned.

We finished The Book of Revelation with Don Jones last spring. So now we will start 'In the beginning' with Genesis. I love Genesis because it is the basis for understanding the rest of the Bible.

I see my role more as a facilitator and not a teacher. I am sure I will learn at least as much from each of you as you do from me. No one will ever be made to feel uncomfortable. I would like for it to be a time of sharing and growing in our faith.

Please feel free to join us for the prayer time, even if you can't stay for the Bible Study. Our schedule is to start at 9:00 and finish at 10:00.
