I would like to take a moment to say thanks to all that have helped me get the Piper out this summer. Thanks for your continuous support and patience. I now have a new found respect for Terry Moran and I for one cannot wait for him to get back!!!

Art and Craft Fair

Submitted by Lynn Marro #256

Our fourth annual Art and Craft Fair will be FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14th from 9AM to 1PM. We have many talented artists and crafters in our park, so it will be a great place to do some of your Holiday shopping. Hope to see you all there! Social Club will, once again, have coffee and donuts available for sale.

It's not too late to sign up for a table. There is a sign up sheet on the bulletin board in the clubhouse or contact Lynn Marro #256 by e-mail at r21mar@aol.com or at 727-786-5719.

Love Lakeside Lassie!!! (aka Loche)

With the change of seasons and the leaves, which have already changed color and dropped from most of the trees, we are reminded of prior seasons that went by all too quickly. Not just the seasons of the year but the seasons of our lives!

When we were on the farm, there was a mammoth white oak tree in our back yard that we were told had to be over 200 years old. It was a gorgeous, showy tree that towered over and behind our home. The beautiful large leaves and crowned acorns were always plentiful. We added on to our house and cut off a board foot the entire 30' length of the addition, to keep from harming that mighty oak!

Our best find ever at a flea market, was a navy issued "helicopter rescue basket", purchased in 1978 for $10.00. It made the perfect swing to hang from a strong, giant oak branch that extended just outside of our back door. It became the ultimate symbol of fun as it hung there providing pure joy for over 25 years. I did have to re-weave the basket sides and bottom and replaced numerous cushions and quilts that were kept in the swing, but it never failed to furnish a comfortable ride or spin for nearly everyone who happened by. Plus, that basket was big enough for me to lie in for a relaxing nap! It also held at least 15 kids at once sitting or standing inside and hanging outside onto it, even tho we always tried to limit the capacity to 3 people at a time!

Dick and I used to invite the grade school classes from town to come out for field days every Spring. Many kids who are grown up, now give us hugs and tell us how much they liked coming out to the farm. They've told us that they often tell their own children about the farm fun back when! We had activities such as sack races, egg toss, assorted ball games, baby turtle races and hay rides but the most storied remembrances almost always end up being about the "helicopter swing"!!! The multitude of branches extending from that big tree additionally held an old fashion rope swing, wind spinners, holiday decorations and several bird feeders. It was great to sit in the back yard and watch all of the squirrels and birds who called that mighty oak "home". The trunk was easily 12' around and the shade line must have been at least 100' in diameter!

We built a second story balcony from the bedroom level of our home. It served many purposes. A shady sitting area, a cover above our back door and most of all the branches of the oak which adjoined it would have made the perfect emergency fire escape! I don't even want to know the stories about kids climbing into and out of the house when they were teenagers!!!! At any rate, our mighty oak never did so much as "groan" from all of the abuse. We never drive by the farms without at least a look to check on our old faithful friend.

This is Lakeside Lassie admitting that, yes, we really do miss the farm and that dandy 'ole oak tree. The recollection of such fond experiences are ours to savor now. Why not reminisce and enjoy again some of your memories from the seasons of your yester-years.

Thanks Loche for all your help.

German Pot Luck Dinner

Wednesday, September 24th at 5PM the Clubhouse came alive to polka music provided by Joe Kasprzak and his accordion. Smells of German dishes such as beef stroganoff, German potato salad, sauerkraut, red cabbage, harvest soup with sauerkraut, grilled kielbasa and others. Deserts were presented also with a German theme such as the Black Forest Cake with cherries and whipped cream. Attendance reached nearly 30 and conversions lingered at the tables long after seconds had been completed. Following dinner, the movie, “Mrs. Doubtfire” was viewed thanks to Dick Duclow and our new television. Thanks to all who helped make this a huge success.

Senior Wedding

Jacob, age 92, and Rebecca, age 89, living in Miami, are all excited about their decision to get married. They go for a stroll to discuss the wedding, and on the way they pass a drugstore. Jacob suggests they go in. Jacob addresses the man behind the counter: "Are you the owner?" The pharmacist answers, "Yes." Jacob: "We're about to get married. Do you sell heart medication?" Pharmacist: "Of course, we do." Jacob: "How about medicine for circulation?" Pharmacist: "All kinds." Jacob: "Medicine for rheumatism?" Pharmacist: "Definitely." Jacob: "How about suppositories?" Pharmacist: "You bet!" Jacob: "Medicine for memory problems, arthritis and Alzheimer's?" Pharmacist: "Yes, a large variety. The Works." Jacob: "What about vitamins, sleeping pills, Geritol, antidotes for Parkinson's disease?" Pharmacist: "Absolutely."

Brains of the elderly slow because they know so much.

Elderly people have so much information in their brain that it takes longer for them to access it, scientific studies show.

Older people do not decline mentally with age. It just takes them longer to recall facts, because they have more information in their brains, research suggests.

Much like a computer takes longer as the hard drive fills up, so humans take longer to access information, it has been reported.

Researchers say this slowing down is not the same as cognitive decline.

"The human brain appears to work slower in old age," said Dr. Michael Ramscar, "but only because so much information has been stored there over time. Older people simply know more, so selecting a correct choice from the trove of stored data may take a bit longer."

So there!

A quick joke

A woman and a man are lying in bed next to each other when her phone rings. She picks up, the man looks over at her and listens. She is speaking in a cheery voice, "Hi, I'm so glad you called. Really? That's wonderful. I'm so happy for you. That sounds terrific. Great! Thanks. Okay. Bye bye." She hangs up, and the man asks, "Who was that?" "Oh, she replies, "that was my husband telling me about the great time he's having on his golf trip with you."

Robots taking our jobs? Maybe not

The robots are coming. Surprisingly, even though they're replacing workers in many areas, they may not be driving down the number of jobs humans do. A survey of more than 2,000 HR and hiring pros conducted by Career-Builder and Economic Modeling Specialists found 21 percent of employers overall (and 30 percent of those with more than 500 people in their workforce) had automated at least some jobs. However, 68 percent of the employers said that adopting new technologies had resulted in new positions being added to their organizations, and 35 percent said they had ended up hiring more people. And 35 percent of organizations that replaced workers with machines said they ultimately hired people back because the technology didn't produce the results needed.
