Our park has had a busy and exciting summer. Normally summer gives everyone a chance to slow down, take a breath and relax, but this year, things were different at Lake Highlander.

We have had the usual summer issues, as well as having a new office installed, new clubhouse entrance, new hurricane shutters and screens - and then two storms to worry about. Fortunately we didn't have a lot of damage from these storms at Lake Highlander.

A huge THANK YOU to our office staff, our maintenance staff and the summer residents for being there and taking care of business at Lake Highlander - very much appreciated by all and especially by us Snowbirds.

Lakeside Lassie on FALL

by: Loche Kline

While the season did seem to be slow arriving this year, Fall has arrived! As F. Scott Fitzgerald said, in The Great Gatsby, "Life starts all over again when it gets crisp in the fall." Because this is a United States Presidential Election Year, we have the right and great responsibility of voting for a new leader for our country. A new start!

I do try to stay informed, however, I don't particularly enjoy seeing or discussing all of the controversial aspects of a Presidential election year. I did read a non-partisan article online that was very meaningful, thought provoking and worthy of sharing with you.

"Long after this election is over Trump and Hillary will still be rich. Half of us will be able to claim we "won." The other half will have 4 years to say "that's why I didn't vote for ____." Just remember we live in a different America than they do. We have to live, work, and eat with each other in OUR America. We don't get to hop on a private jet and fly away from our communities problems. We are what makes this country what it is, not the President. He/she will not stop crime in our neighborhoods, he won't stop people from stealing your identity, and she will not stop any one from shooting up our local night clubs. Hillary will not come teach your child right from wrong, and you can. Trump will not come to your home and teach her math, but you can. WE as the UNITED people with sound morals, values and ethics can make this country what ever we want. Vote for whom ever you want, but remember WE are the ones who shape our communities, not them."

Some of you Lake Highlanders are not U.S. voters, however I believe that the above message can be applied to folks everywhere and to an assortment of situations. Today we face lots of issues with both world-wide and personal implications.

This is Lakeside Lassie thinking about our family, our friends, our home, and our communities and saying, "it's crisp in the fall" wherever we are and we need to care enough to become involved in order for the outcome to be "what ever we want"!

Giving Thanks

This is the time for giving thanks for all the good thing in your life. I hope you all take time to remember all that we have to be thankful for.

L is for Love in lake highlander
A is Alive and kicking
K is Knowledge that you have good neighbors watching over you.
E Excited when everyone returns

H Helping hands in a great community
I Idyllic surroundings of your permanent or "winter home"
G Generous giving of time
H Hellos you receive when passing each other daily
L Lunches and dinner are great gather times
A Another sunny day
N Neighbors new and old
D Dedicated volunteers, board members and staff
E Endless supply of laughter
R Really really great year

These are some things to be thankful for.

On that note:

Wow wow wow. How do you say Thank you?

I think I would like to take a minute and thank all of you for your generosity.

When we first heard about the generous donation of a new office we were blown away. Thank you does not quite cut it. This office will serve this park for many years to come.

Since then another anonymous resident has donated $5000.00 for furnishings. Again Thank you does not cut it.

Ok so it keeps coming from another resident who has donated new phones and yet more donations from residents donating money for extras.

We even had a resident donate generously to Bill Shedd for his bikes for kids. Bill fixes bikes for kids who do not have one to get back and forth to school.

And so many of you know 1st hand the generosity of the resident volunteers who give their time graciously by driving to and from doctors' appointments etc. or just sitting with those who need them.

And here is a thank you note for all the donations of food to the "Arc of Tampa Bay".

Thank You Note!

The developmentry Handicapped consumers at the San Christopher Group Home would like to thank the Generous people at Lake Highlander Mobile Home Park for the great food given to us when you have extra.

We belong to the Arc of Tampa Bay. Our Home is Located at 664 San Christopher Dr. in Dunedin. We are 4 women & 4 Men. We can always share with other homes. There is a home on Pinehurst near the Park.

Arc stands for Assc. for Retarded Consumers. Because of Hipaa Regulations they do not allow pictures of the Clients to be published. Arc is always looking for volunteers to step in and help. Bev is the one to contact at Arc 799-3330 ext. 0. Arc is located behind the Long Center on Belcher Hwy. Clearwater.

ART/CRAFT FAIR

Submitted by Lynn Marro #256

Our fall Art and Craft Fair will be Friday, November 18 from 9 AM to 1 PM. There will be many talented artists and crafters, so this will be a great place to do some of your holiday shopping!

There is a sign-up sheet in the clubhouse. There is no fee for Lake Highlander residents. If you know of anyone outside of our Park who would like to participate or who you think has something interesting to offer, please contact me before you sign them up. Or you can just give me their contact information, and I will get in touch with them. I try not to have outsiders who will compete with our resident artists and crafters. There will be a $5 per table fee for outsiders.

Keep em laughing!!

A minister was called away unexpectedly by the illness of a close family member. He entrusted his new assistant with filling the pulpit. The pastor's wife stayed home. When he returned, the pastor asked his wife how the young mans sermon was and what she thought of it. "The poorest i ever heard" she said. "There was nothing to it and it was very unorganized" it didn't even make any sense. Later the minister asked the assistant exactly how things went, being concerned about his wifes comments. Just how did you manage ? " All went well, sir, absolutely wonderful," He said. " I didn't really have time to prepare a new sermon of my own on such a short notice, so i got on your computer and pulled up one of your old sermons from last year.

Through the pitch-black night, the captain sees a light dead ahead on a collision course with his ship. He sends a signal: "Change your course ten degrees east." The light signals back: "Change yours, ten degrees west." Angry, the captain sends: "I'm a Navy captain! Change your course, sir!" "I'm a seaman, second class," comes the reply. "Change your course, sir." Now the captain is furious. "I'm a battleship! I'm not changing course!" There's one last reply. "I'm a lighthouse. Your call."

The proud owner of a magnificent 1956 Chevrolet convertible, wrote to say he had restored the car to perfection over the last few years, and sent this...

On a very warm summer afternoon he decided to take his car to town. It needed gas, as the gauge was practically on empty, but he wanted ice cream, so he headed first to his favorite ice cream shop.

He had trouble finding a parking space and had to park the car down a side street. He noticed a group of young guys standing around smoking cigarettes and eyeing my car rather covetously. He was a bit uneasy leaving it there, but people often take interest in such an old and well-preserved car, so he went off to enjoy his ice cream.

The line at the ice cream shop was long and it took him quite a while to return to his car. When he did, his worst fears were realized... his car was gone.

He called the police and reported the theft and then went back and bought a quart of pistachio ice cream. About ten minutes later the police called him to say they had found the car abandoned near a gas station a few miles out of town.

It was unharmed and he was relieved. It seems just before he called, the police had received a call from a young woman who was an employee at a self-service gas station. She told them that three young men had driven in with this beautiful old convertible. One of them came to the window and prepaid for 20 dollars worth of gas.

Then all three of them walked around the car. Then they all got in the car and drove off, without filling the tank.

The question is, why would anybody steal a car, pay for gas that they never pumped and then abandon the car later and walk away?

Answer: They couldn't find where to put the gas!

New Season Bible Study will begin Tuesday November 1st at 9:00 AM

We will start again where we left off in the spring, studying Genesis! I love Genesis! That is where we meet the characters that are mentioned throughout of the rest of the Bible. Their stories are fascinating!

We start our time together with prayer. If you have a prayer concern and/or would like to study the Bible, please join us in the library at 9:00 AM. We first lift in prayer any needs that are mentioned.

No one will ever be made to feel uncomfortable. It is ok if you are unsure of your faith, remember Thomas. Jesus loved doubting Thomas! It is a time of sharing and growing in our faith. As I said in the past, I see my role more as a facilitator and not a teacher. I always learn from everyone who comes.

If you have a concern, please feel free to join us for the prayer time, even if you can't stay for the Bible Study. Our schedule is to start at 9:00 and finish at 10:00.

We look forward to seeing you soon!

It's An Honest Mistake

A social worker from Ohio who was recently transferred to the mountains of North Georgia, was on the first tour of his new territory when he came upon the tiniest cabin he had ever seen in his life. Intrigued, he went up and knocked on the door.

"Anybody home?" he asked. "Yep," came a kid's voice through the door.

"Is your father there?" asked the social worker.

"Pa? Nope, he left before Ma came in," said the kid.

"Well, is your mother there?" persisted the social worker.

"Ma? Nope, she left just before I got here," said the kid.

"But what," protested the social worker, "are you never together as a family?"

"Sure, but not here," said the kid through the door. "This is the outhouse."

The Considerate Husband

The room was full of pregnant women and their partners, and the class was in full swing. The instructor was teaching the women how to breathe properly, along with informing the men how to give the necessary assurances at this stage of the plan.

The teacher then announced, "Ladies, exercise is good for you. Walking is especially beneficial. And, gentlemen, it wouldn't hurt you to take the time to go walking with your partner."

The room got quiet. Finally, a man in the middle of the group raised his hand. "Yes?" replied the teacher.

"Is it all right if she carries a golf bag while we walk?"

Get more creativity with a clear focus

Creativity and innovation aren't always accidental. A consistent focus will produce better results, so you don't have to wait for lightning to strike. Try these techniques to spur your imagination as you work:

- Start your day with a purpose. Instead of rushing out the door without a plan, spend a few minutes in the morning thinking about what you want to accomplish that day. Do this before checking your cell phone or email. You'll be less likely to get distracted by other demands.
- Shake up your routine. Get out of your comfort zone so you aren't always surrounded by what's familiar. Get up earlier than normal, take a new route to work, do your tasks in a different order, try something new and exciting—anything to shake your mind free of its preconceptions and look at your work in a different light.
- Be mindful. Don't go on autopilot. Pay attention to everything around you—the people you work with, the tasks you work on, the environment you work in, and so forth. The more aware you are of what's going on, the more likely you'll see a new connection or find an idea where you least expect it.

Don't be afraid to ask questions

Alyssa Mastromonaco was deputy chief of staff in the Obama White House until 2014. She told a radio station an important lesson she learned early on about the importance of asking questions:

During an Oval Office meeting on the economic crisis, she was close to panic, worried that the president would ask her a question about issues she knew nothing about, such as quantitative easing. She began quickly writing down key words and phrases to look up later.

Economic adviser Larry Summers noticed and tapped her on the shoulder. "Come to my office later," he said.

Worried that Summers was mad at her, Mastromonaco went to his office after the meeting. Summers asked about her list.

When she told him what she'd written down and why, Summers said, "I'll tell you anything you need to know." He proceeded to give her a quick lesson on economics. She left the office feeling relieved—and better informed than before. Nowadays she knows that admitting you don't know something is better informed than pretending you do—and she never thinks asking for information is stupid.

A troubling trend: Americans overdoing antibiotics

Antibiotics are a boon to doctors and their patients, but they pose dangers if they're overused. That makes this news especially concerning: A Texas study reported on the UPI website found that about one in 20 adults have stockpiled supplies of antibiotics in their homes and use them without a physician's advice.

The study of 400 adults in the Houston area found that 14 percent of adults have a stash of antibiotic medications in their home, and 5 percent have used them without a doctor's guidance in the past year. The medications come from a variety of sources: 40 percent came from a store or pharmacy, 24 percent were purchased outside the United States, 20 percent came from family or friends, and 12 percent were left over from past prescriptions.

In 4 percent of cases, the drugs obtained without a prescription were intended for use on animals, not humans.

Millennials worry about debt

Millennials aren't the carefree kids you might think they are. A FICO survey found that they're concerned about debt—with good reason. According to FICO's online survey of approximately 1,000 Americans over 17, 32 percent of millennials owe $20,000 or more in student loans, and 45 percent owe at least $7,000 on car loans.

In all, 37 percent of millennials ages 25-34 say they're concerned about their level of debt, and 33 percent would like assistance in managing their debt. For example, 65 percent would like to receive an email alert when their student loan payments are overdue by less than 90 days, and 35 percent want to be notified by app when their mortgage payments are less than 90 days late (but they'd prefer a phone call if their payments are more than 90 days overdue).

These tiny robots may save your life

The newest medical robots look and move like bacteria, and they can deliver medications to specific locations within the human body and perform intricate surgeries like clearing clogged arteries.

According to the Science Daily website, a team of scientists is working to develop a selection of biological robots that are soft, flexible, and move through bodies under the control of an electromagnetic field. Once they reach their destination, they're heated to change shape, mimicking—for example—the bacterium that causes African trypanosomiasis, or sleeping sickness. Although still in development, these microrobots could revolutionize the way patients are treated in the not-so-distant future.

A lesson in determination

British runner Derek Redmond was one of the favorites for a gold medal in the 400-meter spring at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona. But halfway through the race, Redmond—in the lead—collapsed on the track with a hamstring injury.

Medical staff rushed to help him, but Redmond waved them away. He somehow got to his feet and started staggering down the track. With thousands watching, and officials unsure of what to do, Redmond's father ran out to him.

“You don't have to do this, son,” he said.

“Yes, I do,” Redmond replied.

His father helped Redmond down the track, tears streaming down both their faces, waving away anyone who tried to stop them.

The crowd roared when Redmond finally crossed the finish line. The feat is considered by many to be the defining moment of the Barcelona Olympics.

Keep learning at any age

As you and your family members age, you may find you have more difficulty remembering things. Try to help you stay on top of the knowledge game and keep you learning as you age:

- Visualize. Mentally rehearse an event, conversation or activity before it actually happens. This visualization helps eliminate the stress you may feel over the unknown. Plus, when you're more relaxed, you're better able to learn.
- Take a break and exercise. If you're trying to remember information you're reading, take frequent breaks. Don't just sit around, though. Engage in some kind of activity to keep your mind alert and your blood flowing.
- Focus on concentrating. Distractions are the bane of any learning attempt. If you're attending a class or lecture, sit near the instructor and maintain eye contact with him or her. Try not to fidget; simply relax into the session and let your focused attention do the job.
- Say it out loud. Read aloud the material you're trying to learn and repeat out loud the facts you want to retain. This way, both your mind and your ears are taking in information.
- Tame frustration. If you grow frustrated over material you're trying to learn, remind yourself that getting emotional will only hamper your ability to retain information. If you have to, step back and take a long break.
