From the desk of Gerry Killham

Hello Lake Highlanders

Fantastic news. An anonymous donor has offered to purchase a much needed new office for Lake Highlander.

The new office will be in the same location. It will be larger in size with separate offices for Beth and Sharon, a washroom, a small kitchen, storage area and a conference room. It will be ADA compliant with a ramp leading to the front doors and a handicap parking spot. The office will be able to withstand hurricane winds up to 172 miles an hour.

During the removal of the old and installation of the new office the staff will work out of the card room. (located beside the laundry area) So, not to worry folks, it will be business as usual.

I know we are all excited and looking forward to our new office. We will celebrate with an Open House as soon as everything is organized. Until that time, please allow the staff and workers to focus on the construction.

A huge THANK YOU from all the residents for this very generous gift.

Sorry to announce Steve Schultz has resigned from the board of Directors.

We thank Steve for his hard work and wish him all the best.

Residents:

If you haven't heard about the awesome gift for the park then I will fill you in. A couple of residents who have been residents for over ten years came to see me back in July and told me they would like to make a donation to the park. I thought this is nice and then they told me what the donation would be – a BRAND NEW OFFIE. Well I about went into shock. The donors are insistent that they remain anonymous and I have kept that promise Yes, it has finally happened! The office which is the hub of the park and the first impression will now look like it belongs in this beautiful park. There has been a multitude of organizational details with dislocates, relocates, professional questions, city permitting and building plan meetings, contractor meetings, packing, moving, etc. By the time you read this the temporary office will already be settled in the card room. The new office will be installed sometime in October but you know how the unknown goes. I will be keeping a picture book of the events since this is a big event for the park and the park will always have it in their possession. The old office will be removed between August 22nd and middle of Sept. So please take note, there will be no more drop box because there will be no more office. For those of you that like to put your payments in the drop box you will now have to take it to the card room. I hope you are excited as much as Sharon and I are and we would like to thank the donor again for this very awesome gift.

BILL The CARPET GUY 727-521-4163

Lakeside Lassie for September by: Loche Kline

The Lazy, Hazy, Crazy Days of Summer!

In case you haven't noticed, it been pretty hot everywhere this summer! Frying eggs on the hood of your car kind of hot!!! By the way, who does that and do they use non-stick spray? Doesn't that leave a mark? It is times like this that I have a deep appreciation for Willis Carrier. If you're wondering, he was the patron saint of sweaty people and the brilliant individual who invented the modern day Air Conditioner. Bless him!

We didn't have air conditioning at home, in our vehicles or at school when I was growing up. I'll bet some you didn't either!?! At any rate, it's easy to remember the first time that I experienced a/c. My grandmother had a window unit with a bit of red ribbon tied to the vent... apparently to prove that it was working. I remember sticking my face up to that vent and then trying to get cool air to blow up under my shirt. I also remember immediately being yelled at to "stop blocking the cold air" and to "go outside and play". Looking back, I think that the adults knew that the heat would wear us kids out, thus keeping us from getting into quite as much mischief.

Dick and I recently flew out to Arizona for a week with my sister, Barb, and her hubby. When we were kids, Barb and I never wore ourselves out enough to keep us out of trouble. I guess it carried over to adulthood! While we spent plenty of time outside recently, in the AZ "dry" heat, it slowed us down only a little. It didn't keep us from racing thru a nearly empty store in matching mobility carts. We might have had a mannequin or two teetering, and possibly rearranged a few displays, but the smiling clerks who clocked us, agreed that their store REALLY wasn't very "mobility cart" friendly!!! What can I say other than it seemed like a good way for us to spend some time in the air conditioning.

I'm sure that each of you must also have fond memories and thankfulness for Willis Carrier, especially when the temperatures get "egg frying on a car hood" HOT!

"Roll out those lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer... Dust off the sun and moon and sing a song of cheer!" Unlike Nat King Cole, most of us do NOT "wish that summer could ALWAYS be here!" This is Lakeside Lassie, looking forward to fall, cooler temperatures and returning to our Lake Highlander tin castle, friends and activities.

From Gloria!

Hi everybody- I hope that you are all having a great summer. Us "full timers" have been keeping busy with cookouts, shuffleboard, corn hole, movies, pizza etc. We wanted to let everyone know that we WILL ALL have New Year's Eve fun. We have scheduled the clubhouse to hold "LAKE HIGHLANDERS BIGGEST HOUSE PARTY". It is open to all. Residents, renters, guests and family.

Here's the plan.

You get your group together, bring your own drinks and food/munchies. We'll have a contest for the most festively decorated table (we'll discuss more when you snowbirds get back here). We have lots of CD's that were donated by Ron Work and Don Runnells, so there will be music plus some of us have wireless speakers which means we can play ANY kind of music using Pandora.

It might make it more fun to have some sort of a theme- pajama party, tropical, thrift store duds, dress up or down. Think about it and come back ready to start 2017 off with a lot of smiles, fun and friends.

This is not a Social Club event, it is simply all of us getting together and doing our own "thing".

Surprise sighting of old friend Joan Hoyt!

Word of the day Paraprosdokian

A Paraprosdokian is a figure of speech in which the latter part of a sentence is unexpected and oft times very humorous.
If I had a dollar for every girl that found me unattractive, they'd eventually find me attractive

Today a man knocked on my door and asked for a small donation towards the local swimming pool, so I gave him a glass of water.

Artificial intelligence is no match for natural stupidity.

Take my advice — I'm not using it.

Behind every great man is a woman rolling her eyes.

Ever stop to think and forget to start again?

Women spend more time wondering what men are thinking than men spend thinking.

He who laughs last thinks slowest.

Women sometimes make fools of men, but most guys are the do-it-yourself type.

I was going to give him a nasty look, but he already had one.

Change is inevitable, except from a vending machine.

I was going to wear my camouflage shirt today, but I couldn't find it.

If at first you don't succeed, skydiving is not for you.

I find it ironic that the colors red, white, and blue stand for freedom, until they're flashing behind you.

NOBODY PAYS MORE!

From Bob Greer

Dr. Geezer

An old geezer became very bored in retirement and decided to open a medical clinic.

He put a sign up outside that said: "Dr. Geezer's clinic. Get your treatment for $500, if not cured, get back $1,000."

Doctor "Young," who was positive that this old geezer didn't know beans about medicine, thought this would be a great opportunity to get $1,000.

So he went to Dr. Geezer's clinic.

This is what transpired:

Dr. Young: "Dr. Geezer, I have lost all taste in my mouth. Can you please help me ??"

Dr. Geezer: "Nurse, please bring medicine from box 22 and put 3 drops in Dr. Young's mouth."

Dr. Young: Aaagh !! -- "This is Gasoline!"

Dr. Geezer: "Congratulations! You've got your taste back. That will be $500."

Dr. Young gets annoyed and goes back after a couple of days figuring to recover his money.

Dr. Young: "I have lost my memory, I cannot remember anything."

Dr. Geezer: "Nurse, please bring medicine from box 22 and put 3 drops in the patient's mouth."

Dr. Young: "Oh, no you don't, -- that is Gasoline!"

Dr. Geezer: "Congratulations! You've got your memory back. That will be $500."

Dr. Young (after having lost $1000) leaves angrily and comes back after several more days.

Dr. Young: "My eyesight has become weak --- I can hardly see anything !!!!

Dr. Geezer: "Well, I don't have any medicine for that so, "Here's your $1000 back." (giving him a $10 bill)

Dr. Young: "But this is only $10!"

Dr. Geezer: "Congratulations! You got your vision back! That will be $500."

Moral of story--Just because you're "Young" doesn't mean that you can outsmart an "old Geezer " !

Keep Laughing! Thanks AL.

This could happen to you/us.....

This is what all of us: 70+, other seniors, and kids (south of 60) have to look forward to!! This is something that happened at an assisted living center.

The people who lived there have small apartments but they all eat at a central cafeteria. One morning one of the residents didn't show up for breakfast so my wife went upstairs and knocked on his door to see if everything was OK. She could hear him through the door and he said that he was running late and would be down shortly so she went back to the dining area.

An hour later he still hadn't arrived so she went back up towards his room and she found him on the stairs. He was coming down the stairs but was having a hell of a time. He had a death grip on the hand rail and seemed to have trouble getting his legs to work right. She told him she was going to call an ambulance but he told her no, he wasn't in any pain and just wanted to have his breakfast. So she helped him the rest of the way down the stairs and he had his breakfast.

When he tried to return to his room he was completely unable to get up even the first step so they called an ambulance for him. A couple hours later she called the hospital to see how he was doing. The receptionist there said he was fine, he just had both of his legs in one leg of his boxer shorts.

PEOPLE ARE LIKE POTATOES.

1. Some people are very bossy and like to tell everyone what to do and of course they don't want to get their hands dirty. You could call them "dick-tators".
2. Some people never seem to be motivated to participate, they are content to watch while others do. They are speck-tators".
3. Some people never do anything to help, but they are gifted at finding fault with the way others do things. They might be called "comment-tators".
4. Some people are always looking for ways to cause problems. They look for others to agree with them. You could call them "aggie-tators".
5. Then there are those who always say they will, but somehow never get around to doing anything. They are hezzie-tators".
6. Some people put on a good front and act like they are someone they are not. They are "emma-tators".
7. Still, there are those who live what they talk. They are always prepared to stop what they are doing to lend a hand. They bring real sunshine into others lives.

FUNNY STORY

A guy is driving around the back woods of Montana and he sees a sign in front of a broken down shanty-style house: 'Talking Dog For Sale'

He rings the bell and the owner appears and tells him the dog is in the backyard.

The guy goes into the backyard and sees a nice looking Labrador Retriever sitting there.

'You talk?' he asks.

'Yep,' the Lab replies.

After the guy recovers from the shock of hearing a dog talk, he says 'So, what's your story?'

The Lab looks up and says, 'Well, I discovered that I could talk when I was pretty young. I wanted to help the government, so... I told the CIA.

In no time at all they had me jetting from country to country, sitting in rooms with spies and world leaders, because no one figured a dog would be eavesdropping.'

'I was one of their most valuable spies for eight years running...

But the jetting around really tired me out, and I knew I wasn't getting any younger so I decided to settle down. I signed up for a job at the airport to do some undercover security, wandering near suspicious characters and listening in. I uncovered some incredible dealings and was awarded a batch of medals.'

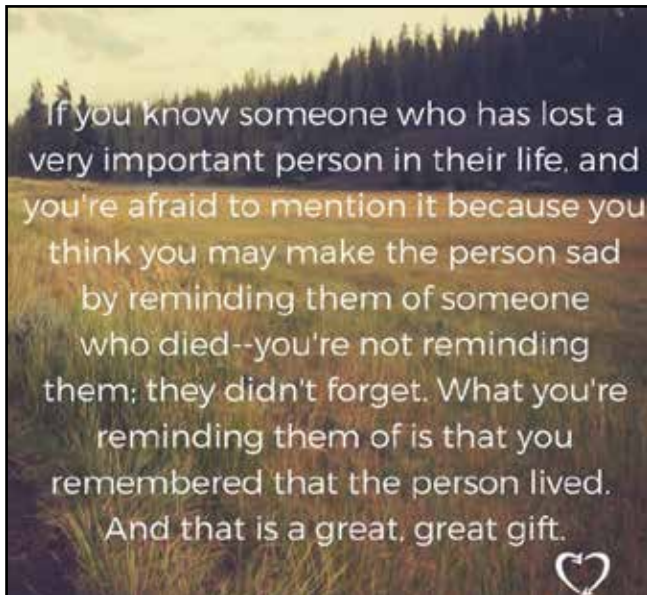

'I got married, had a mess of puppies, and now I'm just retired.'

The guy is amazed. He goes back in and asks the owner what he wants for the dog.

'Ten dollars,' the guy says.

'Ten dollars? This dog is amazing! Why on earth are you selling him so cheap?'

'Because he's a bull shitter - he's never been out of the yard'.

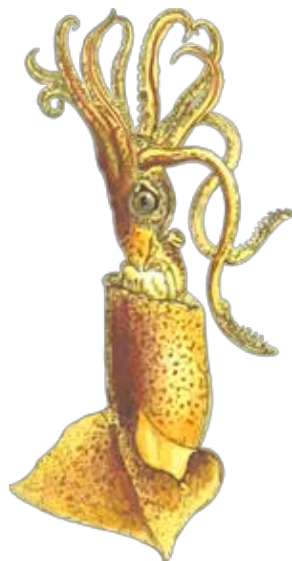

The cephalopods are coming

Don't look now, but cephalopods are on the rise. A team of scientists have determined that cephalopods—sea-dwellers including mollusks, squid, cuttlefish, and octopuses—are increasing their numbers below the waves.

As reported on the Sci-News website, scientists at the University of Adelaide created a database of catch rates for 35 species of cephalopods from 1953 to 2013. They found that cephalopod populations have increased across three distinct groups since the 1950s.

The sea creatures are able to adapt to environmental changes quickly due to their short lifespans, rapid growth, and life-history plasticity. Their growing numbers could have both positive and negative effects: increased pressure on the undersea species they hunt for prey, but also benefits for marine predators who in turn hunt them, as well as humans who harvest them from the sea for food.

Chinese brewed beer in ancient times

Crafts beers are thriving these days, but beer has been around for a long time, scientists say. Researchers in the United States and China have revealed that the Chinese brewed their own beer some 5,000 years ago, much earlier than previously believed.

As reported on the Voice of America website, archaeologists have uncovered brewing equipment in underground rooms in China's central plain region. Traces of ingredients found on the equipment suggests that the ancient brewmasters used a recipe of broomcorn millet, barley, a grain called Job's tears or Chinese pearl barley, and a form of tuber to brew their beverage. The presence of barley 1,000 years before it was believed to have been grown in China suggests that it might have been brought in from other regions, making beer an ingredient in early trade.

Researchers describe the possible taste of the beer as “a bit sour and a bit sweet.”

Science is most significant as one of the greatest spiritual adventures that man has yet known.

Do and don't say these to people with depression

Clinical depression is part of life for 16 million adults in the United States, according to the National Institute for Mental Health. People with depression often feel isolated and alone, so support is as much a part of treatment as therapy and medication. Here's what to say—and not to say—if someone you know suffers from depression:

Do:

- “I’m here for you.” Let people know you’re available to listen when they need to talk. Check in regularly to show that you care.
- “Let’s do something.” Help them get out of the house. Suggest activities like taking a walk, going to a movie, or getting some coffee.
- “I know this is difficult.” Recognize the other person’s struggle. Just knowing that someone understands the challenges of depression can help.

Don't:

- “You just need ____.” Minimizing the person’s pain doesn’t help. Don’t offer a quick-fix solution to a long-term problem.
- “I get depressed, too.” Yes, everyone feels down from time to time, but clinical depression can feel like a never-ending battle. Don’t compare your occasional blue days to another person’s serious condition.
- “Other people have worse problems.” Comparing your friend’s problem to other people rarely helps—and may make the person feel worse. Show compassion for the situation and help as much as

Move here to get into shape

Does where you live influence your physical health? Some cities are more conducive to a healthy lifestyle than others in terms of access to parks and recreation, “walkability,” and other factors. The American Fitness Index, produced by the American College of Sports Medicine and the Anthem Foundation, lists the ten best cities for fitness in the United States. They are:

10. San Diego
9. Hartford, Connecticut
8. Salt Lake City
7. Boston
6. Seattle

5. San Francisco
4. Portland, Oregon

The three kick rule

A lawyer went duck hunting in rural Tennessee. He shot a bird that fell into a farmer's field. As he went to retrieve the duck, the farmer walked up.

"That duck is on my land," the farmer said. "So it belongs to me."

"But I shot it," the lawyer said. "If you don't let me have it, I'll sue you for your farm and everything you have."

The farmer smiled. "Tell you what: How about we settle this with the three kick rule?"

"What's that?" the lawyer asked.

"One of us kicks the other three times. Then the other guy gets to kick the first guy three times. We keep doing it until one of us gives in."

The farmer looked very old, and the lawyer worked out regularly. "All right," he said confidently. "We'll do it your way."

"Since we're on my land," the farmer said, "I kick first."

The lawyer agreed, positive that the elderly farmer couldn't hurt him.

He was wrong. The farmer's first kick sent him into the dirt. His second hurled him against a tree. The third had him flying into a haystack.

Dizzy, the lawyer pulled himself up and took a deep breath. "OK, now it's my turn."

"Nah," the farmer smiled. "You can have the duck."

The wrong direction

An old man and his wife argued constantly, and the husband was often heard to say, "After I die, I will dig my way out of my grave and haunt you for the rest of your life!"

When he died at age 98, superstitious friends asked the wife if she was afraid he'd make good on his threat. She shook her head. "I buried him upside down—and I know he'll never stop and ask for directions."

Libraries still important to most Americans

Most Americans believe that libraries still do a good job of serving their communities' learning needs. A Pew Research Center survey found that 76 percent of adults agree that their local library is fulfilling its educational function, with 37 percent saying it does so "very well" and 39 percent saying "pretty well."

About 78 percent of survey respondents indicated they've visited a library at least one time in their lives, and 44 percent said they'd been to their library at least once in the past 12 months.

Among the latter group, 97 percent consider themselves "lifelong learners," along with 98 percent who rely on library websites for information and learning.

Say cheese! Most of us rate our photography skills highly

Most of us like to take photographs, and most of us think we're pretty good at it. In a Canon USA survey of 1,000 adults, 80 percent described their photography skills as "good to excellent," and 62 percent said their picture-taking talents had improved over the last two years.

What are people taking pictures of? More than half—55 percent—post photos of recipes they're proud of, and 27 percent have shared pictures of their meals to brag about. The survey also discovered that people tend to take more pics of their pets than themselves (59 percent), although 47 percent admit they take selfies regularly.

Mostly we take pictures of our friends and family on special occasions (64 percent). Holidays and family gatherings are popular occasions for snapping images, with 80 percent taking photos on Christmas, Hanukkah, Memorial Day, and the like.

Video is popular, too: Seventeen percent of people in the survey say they shoot videos for online posts, with 50 percent taking videos of themselves to share on Facebook and other platforms.

When you have mastered numbers, you will in fact no longer be reading numbers, any more than you read words when reading books. You will be reading meanings.
