SAVE TIME AND MONEY BY CALLING US TODAY TO GET YOUR PROJECT STARTED!

From the desk of Gerry Killham

Hope everyone is enjoying the pool and the hot summer weather.

Park news - The entrance to the clubhouse through the French doors has been renovated. The threshold is now ADA compliant.

The hurricane shutters are being installed on the clubhouse and the multi-purpose building. Fred Wimmer and others were shown how to operate the shutters.

Many thanks to Fred Wimmer and Sue Stevens for their hard work to get this project going.

A good time was had by all celebrating Independence Day. Lots of food, games and dancing for everyone to enjoy.

Lake Highlander now has what is called "grill out Sunday". Residents are welcomed to bring their food to the grill any Sunday and cook it on the grill. The residents can then eat there at the clubhouse/lanai with friends or take the cooked food home. What a "delicious" idea.

Keep safe, protect yourself from the hot sun and we will see you in the Fall.

Lakeside Lassie on Swans and Facts

by: Loche Kline

Chipper and Dipper certainly did get lots of attention, and Dipper continues to hold his own and look elegant on our Lake Highlander, despite Chipper's untimely death. Swans are very protected by Florida Laws. Because of regulations, it was required that Chipper be sent for an autopsy to insure that there were no toxins that might also effect Dipper's health. The report came back to us stating "Chipper died from a 5lb malignant tumor growing in his chest that dislodged his heart to the other side of his chest and collapsed his lungs. It was not something we would have known about. He was also tested for avian parasites and none were detected."

Some residents will remember when a few years ago, a veterinarian was in the park checking our swans. He told everyone that Lake Highlander is Chipper and Dipper's "forever home". They could not be sold, traded or displaced in any way. He went on to say that if one of the swans dies, the remaining swan will not mourn, but be fine on his own. That lone swan would not tolerate a replacement and would try to kill it, whether a cygnet (baby), cob (male) or pen (female) swan!

Several of us recently enjoyed a Carrybridge Boat Company photo, thanks to Leatrice Work. While we wistfully hoped that we could again have more than one beautiful swan on our lovely lake, unfortunately, it's just not meant to be! Lake Highlander is Dipper's territory.

Thank you, Hurricane Bob Frazier, for the park elevation correction in the July Piper. I'm so happy to know that my column is being read and creating thought and interest! I am also pleased that my friend, Bob, took the time and effort to find from our Dunedin Engineers that it is actually 40' above sea level at our flag poles. I had taken our Town and Country Van down to that spot and used the new fangled, dashboard elevation reading to determine my "fact"! It must be that Chrysler calibrates elevation in the same way that they figure their high dollar value!!!

This is Lakeside Lassie wanting you to know that I truly enjoyed digging up information about Dunedin and Lake Highlander. Please never hesitate to correct or add to "facts" that I share. Unfortunately, you're stuck dealing with my "fiction" when I write "tongue in cheek" stories!

Y area where the Alfred P. Murrah building once stood. The granite used on this pathway was salvaged from the Murrah Building. The Field of Empty Chairs is a tribute to the 168 Americans who were killed April 19, 1995. The nine rows represent the nine floors of the former Murrah Building. Each person's chair is positioned in the row that corresponds to the floor on which they worked or were visiting. The five westernmost Empty Chairs honor those who were killed outside the Murrah Building.

Keep Laughing! Thanks AL.

A couple lived near the ocean and used to walk the beach often. One Summer they noticed a girl who was at the beach pretty much every day. She wasn't unusual, nor was the travel bag she carried, except for one Thing; she would approach people who were sitting on the beach, glance around furtively, then speak to them. Generally the people would respond negatively and she would wander off, but occasionally someone would nod and there would be a quick exchange of money when she handed them something, from the bag. The couple assumed she was selling drugs but debated calling the police, since they didn't know for sure. They just continued to watch her. After a couple of weeks the wife said, "honey, have you noticed she only goes up to people with boom boxes and radios?" He hadn't noticed and said so. Then she asked him to get a towel and their big radio and go lie on the beach tomorrow. Then we can see exactly, what she's really doing. Well, the plan went off without a hitch and the wife was almost hopping up and down with anticipation when she saw the girl talk to her husband and then leave, the man walked up the beach and met his wife at the road. "Well, is she selling drugs"? She asked excitedly. "No, she's not," he said, enjoying this probably more than he should have. "Well, what is it then"? "What does she do?"

The man grinned and said, " she's selling batteries, she's a battery salesman?" "Batteries?" Cried the wife. "Yes,?" The husband replied. (Get ready!!!!)
"She sells c cells down by the sea shore!"

A man rushed into the doctor's office and shouted "doctor!" I think i'm shrinking."
The doctor calmly responded, "now, settle down, : "you'll just have to be a little patient."

Evidence has been found that William tell and family were avid bowlers.
However, all the league records were unfortunately destroyed in a fire.
Thus we'll never know for whom the tells bowled.

Wisdom not just for the elderly

Good friends are like quilts-they age with you yet never lose their warmth.
I have seen too many dear friends leave this world, too soon; before they Understood the great freedom that comes with aging.

Whose business is it, if i choose to read, or play on the piano until 4 am, or Sleep until noon? I will dance with myself to those wondrous tunes of the 50's, 60's, & 70's and if i, at the same time, wish to weep over a lost love, i will.

I will walk the beach, in a swim suit that is stretched over a bulging body,
And will dive into the waves, with abandon, if i choose to, despite the Pitying glances from the jet set. They, too will get old.

I know i am sometimes forgetful. But, there again, some of life is just as well Forgotten. And, eventually, i remember the important things.

Sure, over the years, my heart has been broken. How can your heart not Break, when you lose a loved one, or even when somebody's pet gets hit
By a car but broken hearts are what gives us strength, and understanding,
And compassion. A heart never broken, is pristine, and sterile, and will never Know the joy of being imperfect

I am so blessed to have lived. Long enough to have my hair turn grey, and to Have my youthful laughs be forever etched into deep grooves on my face.
So many have never laughed and so many have died before their hair could Turn silver.

As you get older, it seems it is easier to be positive. You care less about What other people think. I don't question myself anymore. I've even earned
The right to be wrong.

So, to answer your question, i like being old. It has set me free. I like the Person i have become. I am not going to live forever, but while i am still Here, i will not waste time lamenting what could have been, or worrying
About what will be.

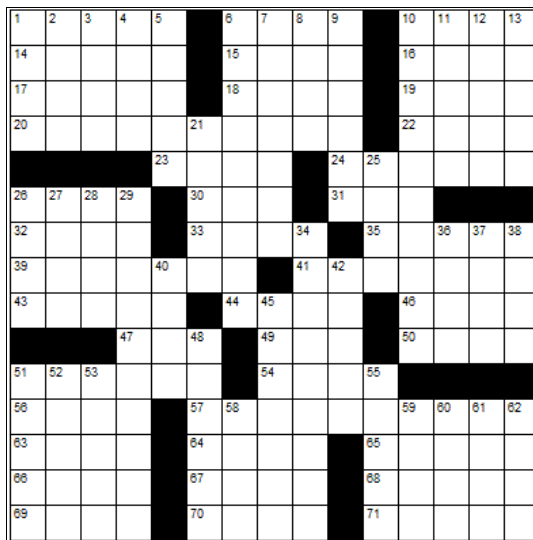

And i shall eat chocolate every single day, (if i feel like it).
