There is not a lot of new information to put in the July Bulletin. What I have done is to reapply the important information that appeared in the June Bulletin. Thank you, Sharon

Pot Luck Dinner Celebrated on Memorial Day

Great Pot Luck Dinner on Memorial Day, May 29, 2017. Fifty Five (55) of our residents attended for the great food and fun with friends. Carolyn Fertig, Pam Nadeau and Gail Smale were there to assist everyone and a special thank you to Dan and Anna-Marie for their help.

Fashion Show this Feb., 2018

A reminder to schedule a date on your calendar. There will be a fashion show on Feb. 7, 2018 in our hall at 12:00p.m. We are choosing models and picking a theme and food for our day. We are pleased to announce that Stein Mart will be providing the fashions for us. This is great because they have many fashions and sizes to fit everyone.

Sharon Gee

HAVE A GREAT SUMMER

Our Resort has become much quieter this month. Many of our residents have returned to their other homes for the summer.

Our year round residents will tackle some jobs that did not get completed in their homes because we are all much more active in the winter when everyone is here. The half year people will do the work that is needed to be done in their current summer homes.

Remember when you are playing “catch up”, we all need to take a break and enjoy our lives and the summer sun.

It won't be long before we will all be together down here in “Our Paradise”. Everyone please take time out of schedules and enjoy our summer.

Sharon Gee

Good News About Carl Redden

Did you know that July is also...

National Cell Phone Courtesy Month. As the cell phone has developed into the smartphone, it's become one of the biggest distractions of all time. National Cell Phone Courtesy Month was founded in 2002 with the intent of making cell phone users more respectful of their surroundings.

Eye Injury Prevention Month. According to the American Academy of Ophthalmology, an estimated 90 percent of eye injuries are preventable with the use of proper safety eyewear. Even a minor injury to the cornea from a small particle of dust or debris can be painful and become a lifelong issue, so take the extra precaution and always protect your eyes.

Independent Retailer Month. Independent Retailer Month encourages consumers to shop at independent retailers locally, nationally and globally. Support and shop at independent retailers year round and use July as a time to unite as a celebration for the independent retailers across the country and in your community.

National Farriers Week, July 9-15. Honoring the men and women who care for and maintain the hooves of horses, a highly specialized trade that requires skill in hoof care, blacksmithing, and the care of injured and diseased hooves.

Captive Nations Week, July 16-22. A week aimed at raising public awareness of the oppression of nations under the control of Communist and other nondemocratic governments. It began in 1953 and declared by a congressional resolution and was signed into law by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1959.

National Parenting Gifted Children Week, July 16-22. Parents of gifted children need special understanding in order to raise and advocate for the social and emotional needs of their unique children. NPGC Week celebrates the joys and challenges of raising, guiding, and supporting bright young minds.

Canada Day, July 1. A national holiday celebrating the Constitution Act of 1867, which united the separate colonies of Canada, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick into a single dominion within the British Empire called Canada.

Independence Day, July 4. The date of the Declaration of Independence, formally announcing the separation of the original 13 colonies of the United States from Great Britain.

Official Shark Awareness Day, July 14. Much as we love to fear this predator of the seas, the shark has a key role to play in keeping marine ecosystems in balance.

National Mutt Day, July 31. Also known as National Mixed Breed Dog Day, National Mutt Day is all about embracing, saving, and celebrating mixed-breed dogs. (It's also celebrated on Dec. 2.)

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

The evolution of Independence Day

If Americans have one holiday in common, it's the Fourth of July. How long have we officially been celebrating independence from Great Britain? Here's a timeline:

- July 4, 1776. Members of the Second Continental Congress meet in Philadelphia and adopt the final draft of the Declaration of Independence.
- July 4, 1777. To commemorate the first anniversary of the signing, Philadelphians light candles and set off firecrackers. Yet with no sure outcome in the war for independence, celebrations are kept to a minimum.
- July 4, 1778. On the second anniversary of the signing, Gen. George Washington issues his troops a double ration of rum and orders a Fourth of July artillery salute.
- 1781. Massachusetts carries out the first official state celebration of the Fourth of July.
- 1801. The White House hosts its first public Fourth of July reception.
- 1870. Congress establishes the Fourth of July as an unpaid holiday for federal employees and the District of Columbia.
- 1938. Congress establishes the Fourth of July as a paid holiday for federal employees.
- 1941. Congress expands the 1938 law to include the District of Columbia.

A salute to the Fourth of July

---

On 1776, the Continental Congress adopted the Declaration of Independence, initiating 200+ years of annual fireworks, outdoor concerts, and picnics. Still, there may be a few things you don't know about our most patriotic holiday:

- The resolution to dissolve ties with Great Britain was actually introduced on June 7 and approved by 12 of the 13 colonies on July 2. New York voted aye a week later.
- It was August before most of the 56 signers managed to affix their signatures to the document. One, Thomas McKean, didn't sign until 1781.
- The Fourth of July is one of only four holidays still observed in the U.S. on the proper calendar day. The others are Halloween, Christmas, and New Year's Day.

Keep your marriage happy with these money tips

Disagreements over money can turn a happy marriage into a battleground. Don't take the risk. Follow these tips for dealing with money in your marriage without sparking conflict:

- Talk about priorities. Before you get married, and on a regular basis after the wedding, sit down and talk about what's important to both of you. If your financial goals are different—saving for college vs. traveling the world, for example—you'll always be fighting about what you want.

- Find the right balance. Don't let one person's needs overshadow his or her partner's. Work out a plan to save money while leaving the door open to a nice vacation or at least a fancy dinner once in a while. You can't splurge all the time, but don't let an obsession with money warp your relationship.

- Ignore everyone else. Don't try to maintain a "keeping up with the Joneses" lifestyle on a limited budget. Choose your house, car, and other possessions based on what makes sense for you, not your neighbors. In the long run you'll be better off and happier by living within your means.

Drive away with the best deal

Buying a new car is a big decision—and a costly one. To get the best deal, follow this advice from the GOBankingRates.com website:

- Plan ahead. Start shopping before you need a new car. Give yourself time to do as much research as you can.

- Watch your timing. You can get a better deal if you know when to buy. At the end of the month, salespeople may be more likely to give you a break in order to meet their quota. At the end of the model year, a car dealer might be motivated to clear all the unused cars off his or her lot at a reduced price.

- Decide on what you want. Don't go in blind. Before you go to a dealership, be clear on exactly what make and model of car you want—and how much you're willing to spend.

- Be friendly. Salespeople will try to build rapport with you, and you can do the same. Focus on what's best for both of you instead of turning the negotiation into a battle.

- Study pricing. Be aware of what dealers are offering—and what they aren't. Taxes and fees might not be included in a car's list price. Certain offers may only be available to buyers with top-tier credit. Fees for license, title, and registration can vary from state to state, so check up on those first.

If you can keep it

One afternoon in the 18th century a young man approached Benjamin Franklin outside Philadelphia’s Independence Hall. Throughout the broiling hot month, the statesmen of the young nation had been debating furiously over the establishment of the Constitution of the United States. The young man asked Franklin, “Well, sir, what sort of government have you given us? A monarchy or a republic?”

Franklin, understanding the importance of popular support in keeping democracy alive, responded, “A republic, if you can keep it.”

The power of short words

Mark Twain once told the story of a Missouri farmer who ran five times for the state legislature without winning. He practiced his campaign talks every day while milking his cow. He filled his speeches with wordy expressions, referring to himself as “my humble aspirant” and his audiences as “my enlightened constituents.” He talked of “obtaining a mandate” for his “legislative mission.”

Then one day the cow kicked him in the teeth. With his front teeth knocked out, the farmer could speak only words of one syllable. The result? He won his next election and got re-elected many times after that.

No answer

A powerful king once undertook an expedition to conquer foreign lands. A counselor asked him, “Great king, why do you propose to set out on this endeavor?”

“First I shall become master of Asia,” the king replied. “Then I’ll invade Arabia. After that I will conquer Europe and Africa, and finally, when the whole world is under me, I shall rest and live at ease without worries.”

The wise counselor replied, “But what keeps you from resting and living at ease here and now, if that is what you want?”

The king had no answer.
