Memorial Day Dinner

Alice Jarvis & Pam Nadeau

What a nice picnic we had with 63 attending. I did not know that many people would show up because the Tuesday evening potluck in April we had 65. Thanks to all that came with picnic dishes to share with our hamburgers and hot dogs that were grilled by Dave Black and Jim Doran. We served ice cream in cones or on cake. We enjoyed much talking, laughter and eating in the pavilion.

Next potluck will be in the hall; I am sure as the weather is getting very HOT. Thanks to all as well as the social club that provided the meat and ice cream. Next will be the 4th of July picnic and maybe another potluck.

Gardening

Alice & Bobby Jarvis

Summer time and that calls for vacations from us. Carolyn Johnson, Bobby and I have been visiting in Texas and I am going again for a couple of days. We have been getting rain so guess what! The weeds keep growing. The crepe myrtles are all in bloom; the caladiums down at the entry way are still very pretty. Grounds really don't look to bad.

There are not many people here in the summer months so we want to thank everyone for signing up to help. Please sign up if you have not done Monday Morning Coffee yet. We will show you how it is done. Thanks!

July Is...

Eye Injury Prevention Month. Eye injuries occur at a rate of more than 2,000 per day, with an estimated 1,000 eye injuries occurring in American workplaces alone. In addition to wearing proper safety eyewear, early detection and treatment of eye conditions and diseases are essential to maintaining good vision throughout your life.

Independent Retailer Month. Celebrate independent retailers across the country. Support and shop independent merchants all through the year, and use July as a time to unite for the independent retailers in local communities that help build our economy.

National Hot Dog Month. What better month to enjoy a delicious hot dog? The National Hot Dog and Sausage Council estimates that Americans eat over 7 billion hot dogs between Memorial Day and Labor Day, with 150 million consumed on the Fourth of July alone. Do your part.

Parks and Recreation Month. This year marks 30 years of Parks and Recreation Month, highlighting the enduring importance of parks and recreation for the world. From the start, parks were created to give us a place to appreciate nature, exercise, socialize, and have fun—a mission that lives on into the future.

July Daily News...

World UFO Day, July 2. Have you had a close encounter? Spread the word on this day that explores the unexplained.

Independence Day, July 4. The United States declared its independence from Great Britain on this day in 1776.

Global Forgiveness Day, July 7. “To forgive is to offer opportunity for a new beginning to the offender, and provides a process of healing for the victim.”

Shark Awareness Day, July 14. As much as we enjoy being frightened by this predator of the sea, remember that the shark has a key role to play in keeping marine ecosystems in balance.

World Ranger Day, July 31. Sponsored by the International Ranger Federation to commemorate rangers killed or injured in the line of duty and to celebrate the work rangers do to protect wildlife around the world.

The strongest bonds

A farm boy took his cows to the meadows out to pasture every morning and brought them back to the barn at the end of the day. One evening, as he was tying the cows up for the night, he found that he'd lost the piece of rope he needed for the last one.

He couldn't go all the way town to buy more rope, but he didn't want the cow to wander away. So he went to his grandfather for advice.

"Here's what you do," the grandfather said. "Go up to the cow the same way you do every night and pretend to tie a rope around him, then pretend to tie the rope up to his stall. Make sure he sees you doing it, and he'll be fooled." The boy followed his grandfather's advice, and the next morning when he went to the barn he found the cow still there.

He untied all the rest of the cattle and herded them out to pasture for the day. But when he passed by the barn on his way to do his other chores, he noticed the cow was still there. He went to his grandfather again.

The grandfather smiled and said: "You forgot to untie the cow. Go back and pretend to let him loose, and you'll be able to herd him outside."

Moral: Often what holds us back are the bonds we only think are real.

Correct: A Zen parable

Two monks could not agree on a problem. Finally they went to the master of their monastery to settle the dispute. They agreed to argue their positions one at a time while the master listened.

After hearing the argument presented by the first monk, the master nodded. "You are correct." The first monk was pleased, but the master then told the second monk to speak his piece.

The other monk made his case. Once he finished, the master gave another nod. "You are correct."

"But master!" the two monks cried together. "We can't both be correct!"

Again the master nodded and smiled. "You are correct."

Trust in others rises as people grow older

In a cynical world, trust can seem hard to come by. But new research suggests it may grow as we get older. The World Values Survey, collecting data from more than 200,000 people in 83 nations, found that more than a third of people 80 years old or older agreed with that most people can be trusted, although just a quarter of 20-year-olds said the same.

The results were consistent regardless of nationality, gender, education, and income.

A similar study, analyzing data from the General Social Survey of 1,230 U.S. citizens over time, also found that our willingness to trust increases as we grow older.

One possible explanation: As time goes on, most people tend to simplify their lives and spend more time with their families, resulting in a more positive and generous attitude about the world.

That morning cup of coffee may be really good for you

A lot of us depend on a cup of coffee or two to get going in the morning. But coffee may have even more significant health benefits. Here's a quick look at what it may do to improve your life:

- Melanoma. A study by the National Institutes of Health and the AARP found that the more coffee people drink during the day, the lower their chances of developing melanoma over a 10-year period. Four cups of coffee a day was associated to a 20 percent drop in melanoma risk.
- Multiple sclerosis. An analysis of two studies of people diagnosed with MS (one in the U.S. and one in Sweden) found that consuming at least four cups of coffee a day appears to delay the onset of symptoms. The caffeine, researchers say, seems to have neuroprotective properties that inhibit MS development.
- Liver cancer. Drinkers of three or more alcoholic beverages a day may be able to cut their risk of liver cancer by drinking coffee, according to a recent World Cancer Research Fund report. Coffee and coffee extracts appear to have a preventative effect on the expression of genes involved with inflammation—an effect that's most prevalent in the liver.

Eliminate the obstacles to a good night's rest

A good night's sleep is essential to everyone's health, and yet many people have trouble getting the shut-eye they need. If you're not waking up feeling refreshed and ready to start your day with energy, check out these problems that may be preventing you from sleeping soundly:

- Procrastination. You know you should go to bed, but you let yourself get distracted by household tasks or the TV. Set a firm time limit on your evening and stick to it.
- Caffeine. Avoid coffee and other caffeinated drinks after 3 p.m. The effects can linger for up to seven hours, making sleep difficult by the time you need to go to bed.
- Heat. You may not be sweating, but feeling just a little too warm can keep you from dropping off. Try sticking one foot out from under the covers to balance the temperature.
- Stress. The news, your job, or personal worries can make relaxation and sleep difficult. Practice meditation and other techniques to un-tense your body and your mind.
- Work. If your job starts too early in the morning, you'll have trouble waking up and performing well. Try to negotiate a later arrival time. Emphasize how your productivity will increase if you get the right amount of rest.

Prevent back pain before it strikes

Back pain can make your work difficult no matter what job you do. Lifting heavy items is only one potential source of damage; poor posture and repetitive movements can also cause strain and pain. Keep your back in good shape with these general tips from the Mayo Clinic website:

- Get some exercise. Losing weight and staying in shape will decrease wear and tear on your back muscles. Combine aerobic activity with strength training that stretches and strengthens your stomach and back.
- Practice good posture. Your parents were right when they told you to stand up straight. Make a point of keeping your weight balanced on both feet without slouching. Use a chair with good back support, and make sure it's the right height, allowing you to keep both feet flat on the floor and your knees on the same level as your hips.

ATTENTION RESIDENTS!

Did you know this Emporium/Classified listing reaches over 21,000 homes in Pinellas County? It goes into 60 community newsletters (just like this one) from Dunedin to St. Petersburg. This is a great market to sell items, advertise your next event, try and get help for a function, and many other great things. Remember to think about this the next time you're planning something.

Thanks!
