Feel free to contact me anytime. Thank you

Emergency 911 Call Boxes

Roger Gee

We now have 3 Emergency 911 call boxes. One inside the hall, one outside the Hall in the entrance way facing the shuffle courts and the original one on the wall between the offices and card room doors. They are all clearly marked with a sign.

These are very easy to use. If there's an emergency, all you do is push the silver button, listen to the dial tone and you'll hear it automatically dial 911. Quickly, an operator will ask "is your emergency Fire, Medical or Police"? You answer the questions then quickly make sure someone is visible on the street to intercept and direct the responders.

The boxes will be tested monthly to ensure they are in working order.

Coming together is a beginning; Keeping together is progress. Working together is success. Henry Ford

Pot Luck Dinner

There has been a mix up about the pot luck dinner. In June is will be on Tues., June 21st. You will be notified when it is scheduled in July. Thank you

Gardening

Alice and Bobby Jarvis

What nice rains, the plants really enjoyed a good drink after being dry for so long. Bobby had worked getting the soccer hose ready to work and before we got to try them out, the rain came (that was a good thing though). Caladiums are starting to pop up in the flower beds around our community, and the crepe myrtles will be in full bloom soon.

Memorial Day Picnic

Guy, Cheri Watkins, Bobby and Alice Jarvis

Our pavilion was decorated very pretty in red, white and blue. This was not a pot luck dinner, but a real picnic. Everyone that attended purchased a $5 ticket. Tickets were sold each Monday by Carolyn Fertig and Phyllis Allen. The menu consisted of hamburgers, hot dog, rolls, all the trimmings for both, potato salad, watermelon, ice cream and sheet cakes with raspberry filling in white cake and the other one was chocolate. Baked beans were made Cheri and Gloria Hughes. Guy Watkins, Jim Doran and Roger Gee were the cooks and they certainly know how to grill the best hamburgers and hot dogs in town. The meat was served by Bobby and Frank Sexton, the other servers were Cheri, Kay Sexton, Sharon Gee and myself. Clean up was Justine, Don Lubkeman, Carol Pupke, and Eva Doran, along with the others that worked all day getting the picnic ready.

We had a great day with Larry Sherman leading us in songs, God Bless America, and America the Beautiful.

Pride of America

He called you to be a veteran, but at the time you didn't know
You answered the call: you were ready to go
Many sleepless nights: you're an inspiration to us all
"Thank you for our freedom" Words that seem so small
Patriotism and love, our country's shining star
The "Pride of America". That is what YOU are.

The weather was very nice so glad to have a place to party under the roof.
Thanks to all 75 that attended.

Sweet and Sour Baked Beans

This is Gloria Hughes' recipe that was served at the Memorial Day Picnic

I use Bush Beans (15oz) cans or go to Aldi's and use their three beans can

8 bacon slices fried and crumbled 1 tsp salt

½ tsp garlic powder 1 large can of green lima beans, drained

½ tsp garlic powder 1 large can B&M beans, UNdrained

1 tsp dry mustard 1 tsp salt

1 large can of butter beans, drained ½ tsp garlic powder

4 large onions cut in rings ½ cup of cider vinegar

1 cup brown sugar

Place onions in bacon fat in skillet, add sugar, mustard garlic powder,

Salt and vinegar, cook very slowly covered for 20 minutes. Add

Mixture to beans, add crumbled bacon and pour in casserole, bake 1 hr.

At 350 degrees Serve Hot

You may also use your crock pot. Cook overnight on warm

Being a Good Neighbor

A little extra sensitivity and consideration, along with some common sense, can turn your neighbor into a friend.

Don't disturb the peace and quiet of our community. Keep radios, TVs and music at a level that is respectable to others. Loud activity can be disruptive when done early or late

Don't let pets disturb the comfort and conveniences of neighbors. Make sure you clean up after your pet.

Keep our resort clean and tidy. Please pick up after yourself.

Making room

A farmer lived in a small house with his wife and six children. The lack of space was driving him crazy, and in desperation he sought advice from the local rabbi.

The rabbi listened sympathetically to his problem. “I can help you,” he said, “but you must do exactly as I say.” The farmer agreed.

“Do you own any animals?”

“Yes,” the man said. “I have a cow, two goats, and some chickens.”

“Good. When you get home, bring all your animals into the house with you.”

The farmer was puzzled, but he did as the rabbi advised. The next day he returned, complaining, “Rabbi, the animals are all over my house! What should I do?”

“Go home and take the chickens outside,” the rabbi said.

The man went home and took the chickens away. The following day he went back to the rabbi’s house. “The chickens are outside, but we still have two goats and a cow getting in the way.”

“Take the goats back outside,” the rabbi instructed.

The day after that, the man returned again. “The goats are out in the yard, but the cow is everywhere.”

The rabbi nodded. “Now take your cow back to your field.”

The farmer came back smiling the next day. “It’s amazing! The house is quiet and we have room to spare! Thank you, rabbi!”

Not so obvious

A math professor had a very rapid and hectic lecturing style. He often simply turned his back on the class and scribbled equations on the chalkboard while speaking so fast many students couldn’t keep up.

One day a student asked a question about one of the problems. The professor replied, “Well, that’s obvious!” But the student persisted. The prof listened thoughtfully, nodding, then went out into the hallway to think. He paced the hall for 10 minutes, then returned to his classroom.

“I’ve thought it over,” the professor said. “I was right: It is obvious.” And he went right back to his lecture.

Happy 4th of July!

Balance your internal ‘thinker’ and ‘doer’ to bring ideas to life

Creative people can have dual personalities: the “thinker” who comes up with bright ideas and the “doer” who puts plans into action. How can you help them work together effectively? Follow these steps:

- Record your revelations. When an idea strikes in the middle of a task, don’t stop what you’re doing so you can ponder your brainstorm. Instead, keep a notebook where you can record sudden inspirations to review at a more appropriate time.
- Take time to think. Set aside some time each day when you can forget about performing tasks and quietly focus on shaping your ideas.
- Conduct a weekly review. Bring the thinker and doer together each week to decide how to turn vision into reality. Review your ideas, then create action steps to ensure they come to fruition.

Take the risk of being creative

Creativity is a risky business. Your best ideas may get shot down—or never even make it into the air. If your worries are interfering with your ability to find creative solutions to problems, keep this advice in mind:

- Practice. Don’t wait for the pressure of a crisis to start flexing your creativity. Envision some possible scenarios where you’d have to think fast to find a solution. When real problems arise, you’ll be better prepared to deal with them.
- Seek feedback. Look for people who can help you evaluate your ideas fairly. They should challenge you, not just say, “Great idea!” This will help keep your thinking sharp.
- Take small risks. Get used to uncertainty by using your imagination when the risks are minimal. You’ll build confidence as you learn what works and what doesn’t.
- Search for data. Be on the lookout for all the information you can gather about the problem you’re trying to solve—and about your organization and industry. The more facts you have, the better the creative decisions you’ll make.

When you’re heartbroken, you’re at your most creative—you have to channel all your energies into something else to not think about it.

Did You Know That July is Also...

Independent Retailer Month. Support and celebrate independent retailers across the country. Independent Retailer Month encourages consumers to shop at independent retailers in their communities, highlighting their positive social and economic impact local, nationally, and globally.

National Black Family Month. During this month, African-American families celebrate their connection, common heritage, and commitment to one another. Families around the nation seek to implement positive changes, connect through old traditions, create new ones, and participate in activities that can be continued throughout the year.

Parks and Recreation Month. Sponsored by the National Recreation and Park Association, the leading nonprofit organization dedicated to the advancement of public parks, recreation and conservation. Discover wildlife and outdoor fun at your local park.

Captive Nations Week, July 7-13. A week aimed at raising public awareness of the oppression of nations under the control of Communist and other nondemocratic governments. Begun in 1953, it was signed into law by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1959.

Sports Cliché Week, July 10-16. It's time to celebrate—or possibly get rid of—such common sports clichés as “We’re taking it one game at a time,” “He gave 110 percent,” “Step it up,” and more.

National Zoo Keeper Week, July 17-23. Sponsored by the American Association of Zoo Keepers to advance excellence in the animal keeping profession, foster effective communication beneficial to animal care, support deserving conservation projects, and promote the preservation of our natural resources and animal life.

World UFO Day, July 2. Look to the skies for evidence of alien visitors.

Independence Day, July 4. Celebrate the birthday of the United States of America.

Global Forgiveness Day, July 7. Begun in 1994 to help people around the world identify with their personal need to forgive and be forgiven.

Space Exploration Day, July 20. Neil Armstrong and Edwin “Buzz” Aldrin first walked on the moon on this day in 1969.

World Ranger Day, July 31. Sponsored by the International Ranger Federation to celebrate the work rangers do to protect wildlife.

Advice from the A-List

Celebrities aren't necessarily smarter than the rest of us, but their success speaks for itself. Here's what they have to say about achieving success in any endeavor:

- Leonardo DiCaprio, actor: "I've been very lucky to have achieved a lot of the things that I dreamt of achieving as a young man. But at the end of the day—and I truly believe this—it is not about achieving great wealth or success, because they don't bring happiness ultimately. They really don't. What matters is whether or not you've fulfilled the idea of having led an interesting life, whether you've contributed in some way to the world around you."
- Beyoncé, singer: "The reality is, sometimes you lose. And you're never too good to lose, you're never too big to lose, you're never too smart to lose; it happens. And it happens when it needs to happen. And you have to embrace those things."
- Justin Timberlake, singer: "I like being a beginner. I like the moment where I can look at everyone and say, 'I have no idea how to do this. Let's figure it out.'"
- Chris Pine, actor: "Fear runs our lives. It doesn't matter who you are. You have to understand your relationship with fear. Whether you're scared of getting into a relationship or taking the new job or a confrontation—you have to size fear up."
- Ellen DeGeneres, talk show host: "Never follow anyone else's path, unless you're in the woods and lost and you see a path. Then, by all means, follow that path."

Succeed with kindness—and these kindly tips

Nice people can finish first. The key is knowing how to use kindness to your advantage. Practice these habits until they become second nature:

- First, be kind to yourself. You'll find being nice to others easier if you build your self-respect with positive thoughts about your personality and achievements.
- Treat everyone with respect. Don't worry about who's on top. Treat everyone the way you want to be treated, regardless of their position or job title.
- Say no when necessary. You can't do everything. But when you do say no, be polite and positive.
- Plant seeds of kindness. Do something nice every day even when your kindness may not have an immediate payoff.
- Complete this statement: "If I were a better person I would ____." Then act on it.

Stories to tell your grandkids

Most children enjoy hearing their grandparents tell stories. You can captivate your grandchildren for hours at a time with some of these tales that are certain to pique their interest:

- How their grandparents met. Did you meet your future wife in grade school? Did you initially dislike the man you eventually married? Children are often curious about how people in their lives ended up together—and they'll like the joy they see in your eyes as you talk about your enduring love.
- The day their parents were born. Kids usually like hearing about their parents. Describe in detail what happened the day their father or mother was born: what time they came, what you were hearing, who helped out, and most important—how you felt.
- The day they were born. Do the same with a story about your grandchild's birth. What preparations did you make? What did you expect? When did you first see your grandchild? What did he or she look like?
- School days. School has changed a lot since you were a child. Talk about what your typical day was like. Describe your favorite teacher. Discuss challenges you had. Tell children what life in a classroom was like without computers, DVDs, and other modern technology they take for granted.
- First jobs. Talk about the restaurant where you washed dishes, or the shop where you stocked shelves. Tell children about your best and worst bosses, experiences helping customers, and what you learned from each position.
- Proudest achievements. Think back to the moments in your life when you felt proud. You'll teach your grandchildren to try hard, never quit, and take pride in their accomplishments.

The water cure

A man went to the doctor because he had no energy. After asking a few questions, the doctor wrote a series of prescriptions.

“Now,” she told the patient. “I want you to take the red pill with two glasses of water in the morning, the yellow pill with two glasses of water at lunch, and the green pill will three glasses of water before you go to bed.”

“Wow,” the man sighed. “What do the pills do?”

“Nothing. You're not drinking enough water.”

Monthly Mania: It Pays (Up to $100) To Patronize the Advertisers in Your Newsletter

14,492 manufactured home residents have won over $130,374 since our contest began. It's simple to play ... when you patronize a current advertiser, ask for a Monthly Mania ticket (or a reasonable facsimile) and fill it out completely. Put the ticket in our Monthly Mania drop box in your community or mail your paid receipt to us at Monthly Media • PO Box 1023 • Venice, FL 34284. That's all you do. At the end of the month the Publishers will pick up the tickets and hold a drawing. If your ticket is drawn, we mail you a check.

(Allow 4-6 weeks for mailing of check). This month's cash winners are:
