"Thank you for doing a very professional job on my roof. I am not easily pleased with most contractors, ASC is the exception! Your crew was on time, sometimes even early. There are no leaks and it looks great. ASC was not the cheapest, which proves you get what you pay for."

Security

Please remember to lock your homes and cars and look out for suspicious activities in our community. Although the statistics for the area may seem scary, people should not ignore it and think that we are isolated. The police encourage you to report any suspicious persons, vehicles or activity in your area by calling 911 or 727 582-6200, a direct line to the Sheriff's Office.

Things to consider:

- Neighborhood Watch is a program to protect you, your property, and your neighbors.
- Never leave a vehicle running unattended
- Always lock your vehicle
- Park in a well-lit area
- Don't leave valuables or purchases in plain view in your car at night
- Always lock your doors and windows at home
- Please become more vigilant

Pool

Although we do pay for maintenance of the pool, our pool is not covered and open to the elements so bugs will find their way in, especially after rain. Thank you to everyone who helps clean the pool by grabbing the pool net and getting rid of anything floating there that doesn't belong.

Monday Morning Coffee

Carolyn Fertig

Thank you so much to my faithful coffee helpers who help every Monday to make coffee a success. Hosts: Judith Cox; Dan & Annamarie Blackburn. M.C.'s: Barbara Fix; Nelson Slansky; and Alice Jarvis. Of course, thanks to Jim Henry for picking up the donuts. Your help is appreciated.

Thank you

Carol Pupke

A heartfelt thank you to all my friends and neighbors who came to my aide when I fell. It means so much to me to live in this caring community. God Bless each and every one of you.

Flea Market

Please drop off your donations at the Laundry room on Mondays between 10:30 am – Noon. Do not leave items there all week.

Recycling and Trash

Please do not put electronics or chemicals in our dumpsters. If you have these items and need to dispose of them, take them to the Pinellas County Recycling Center. The center is located at 2855 109th Ave. N, St. Petersburg and is open Mon-Sat, 7 a.m. - 5 p.m. (Drive East on 102nd/Bryan Dairy for 7.6 miles and turn right at 28th Street.) Items accepted at this facility: Cellphones, smartphones and tablets; Computers and laptops; Monitors; Rechargeable batteries; Televisions; Automotive fluids and motor oil; Any type of battery; Alkaline Cleaners; Cooking oil; Fluorescent bulbs and other mercury-containing devices; Fuels; Fungicides, herbicides, insecticides, fertilizers and pesticides; Paint, paint remover, paint thinner and solvents; Pool and spa chemicals; Smoke detectors; and Wood preservatives. If you have any questions, call (727)464-7500.

Get Prepared!

There are 2018 Hazard Preparedness guides in the office. Stop in and get a copy!

Some topics in the guide include:

- How should I plan & prepare?
- What public shelters might be open?
- Build an Emergency Preparedness Kit.

Art in the Park

Barb Touchette and Margot Thomas

Mark your calendars - On Sunday afternoon February 17, 2019, Art in the Park is coming back to Lake Seminole Resort. In 2017, we held our first display of over 20 exhibitors and we are hoping to show case even more artisans next year. We welcome exhibits from renters and residents of the park. More information will be forthcoming in the fall, but now is the time to mark your calendar and explore your creative self.

Ignore these creativity myths

Freeing your creativity sometimes means letting go of the misconceptions many people have about it. Don't fall prey to these mistaken assumptions:

- Only a few people are creative. Some people may seem to be more creative than others, but all of us have the power to generate new and innovative ideas.
- You can't teach creativity. You can train people (and yourself) to be creative with mental exercises and just learning to look at the world through different and fresh angles.
- Discard bad ideas quickly. You may think this will save time, but dropping "bad" ideas means you may miss opportunities. Analyze them to find out what makes them bad. Maybe you can fix it, or perhaps you could salvage at least part of the idea for use later.

Live by the principles of creative people

Creativity isn't something you have to be born with. Here are some habits and traits of creative people that you can put to work in your quest to make your imagination blossom:

- Intolerance for boredom. Creative people don't like to spend their time with the same old ideas. When they get bored, they start looking for something new and different to play with.
- Willingness to take chances. Trying or suggesting anything new has an element of risk. The people you want to emulate aren't afraid of being laughed at or rejected as long as they're committed to their ideas.
- Enthusiasm. No one works hard on a project or idea they don't feel strongly about. Don't pursue a project if its possibilities don't excite you.
- Generosity. Don't worry too much about people "stealing" your ideas. Creative types know that they do better when sharing their thoughts with a wide array of people and listening to the feedback they generate.
- Optimism. You won't succeed if you think only about the possibility of failure. The most successful creative people reached their goals because they never believed that giving up was a good idea.
- Realism. At the same time, the best artists, writers, designers, and entrepreneurs understand that hanging on to an idea too long doesn't work. Persistence is a positive trait, but it has to be tempered with an understanding that moving on to a better idea is sometimes the best path to take.

BOB NEEDS OUR HELP!

Our delivery driver, Bob Davis (whom many of you know and have liked over the years), had a SERIOUS FALL while trimming a tree for a needy person on Sunday, August 5th.

He broke bones in his neck plus other injuries. He has NO insurance and he is the sole provider for his family. ANY donation you may be able to help with will be GREATLY APPRECIATED!!!

We are attempting to set up a "GoFundMe" page and/or a special account for him. For more info call 727-548-8460.

Plan your cookout for safety

If you're planning a cookout for Labor Day—or any other time—you should observe the following safety tips:

- Always wash the racks on your grill. Unwashed racks can be breeding grounds for bacteria and could contaminate your food at your next cookout. Use a brass-bristle brush to remove all the debris from the rack.
- Never place your grill close to your picnic table or other seating. Place it instead far away from where people will be gathered.
- Don't wear loose or flowing clothes when you are grilling. A drooping sleeve could brush against the grill or coals and catch fire.
- Use heat-resistant cooking mitts and long-handled utensils to avoid burns.
- Make sure you keep a fire extinguisher or a large spray bottle filled with water nearby in case of fire emergencies.
- Never add charcoal starter or fluid to coals that are already warm or hot. The fluid could cause flames to flare dangerously.
- Never use alcohol, kerosene, or gasoline to start a fire or grill. Using any of these fluids to start a fire can cause an explosion.

Saltwater trout evolve to freshwater species

Evolution normally takes place over thousands or millions of years, but sometimes it can happen more quickly. The Science website reports that a group of saltwater steelhead trout transplanted from California to the salt-free waters of Lake Michigan in the 1890s have evolved into a species that can live wholly in fresh water—in only 100 years.

Genetics helped. The steelheads hatch in freshwater rivers before swimming out to the ocean for much of their lives, returning to the rivers to spawn. That probably allowed key genetic differences to develop in their new home, demonstrating how quickly an organism can change and adapt to a new environment if it has the right genetic makeup.

We're all moving to the big city

The days of living far out in the country appear to be dwindling, according to a report from the Population Division of the U.N. Department of Economic and Social Affairs. Approximately 4.2 billion people live in urban areas worldwide, and 2.5 billion more are expected to join them in the next 30 years—68 percent of the world's population.

The U.N. predicts that by 2030, the world will have 43 “megacities,” with populations of more than 10 million people. The world's largest city will be New Delhi, outpacing Tokyo with a population of 43.3 million inhabitants by 2035.

In the meantime, the rural population is expected to peak and then decline to 3.1 billion by 2050.

Technology—good or evil?

Do you love all the new technology or hate it? Chances are it's a little bit of both. In a survey by Vrge Strategies, 81 percent of respondents said that smartphones, the internet, and other technologies have made their lives better—but at the same time, 51 percent said they believe these tools have had a negative impact on society.

The respondents were concerned about security. Forty-one percent said the internet and other new technologies should have more regulation than they do now, and 72 percent don't think lawmakers are keeping up, given the rapid pace of change in the tech industry.

Another concern: income inequality. Thirty-eight percent of participants in the survey said they believe technology increases the gap between the rich and the poor—although 22 percent said they think new tech reduces the gap.

Teens and social media use

Instagram is fading in popularity among teenagers, according to a Pew Research Center study, and YouTube appears to be taking its place.

The survey, reported on the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette website, found that 85 percent of teenagers in the United States are users of YouTube, but only 72 percent are using Instagram (owned by social media giant Facebook), and 69 percent use Snapchat.

Use of Facebook's main site is down to 51 percent among teens, dropping from 71 percent in 2014-15.

The Pew study also found that 95 percent of teenagers either own a smartphone or have access to one, a rise from 73 percent in the previous survey, and 45 percent report using the internet “almost constantly,” almost double the percentage from the earlier survey.
