On the Cover

Lincolnshire's Home of the month for December of 2015

From the Editors

By Harold & Donna Wurtz (#938, 812-2670, bigchees99@aol.com)

It is once again that wonderful season of the year when we wake up to the quiet of the glistening snow covering our lawns. That quiet is slowly replaced by the sound of the wind whistling through the trees. Then the occasional crackling sounds of the icicles falling from the edges of the eaves. Then low & behold, a song rises in the air. A song of praise and a song of joy The bells are ringing from the sound of the sleigh as it rides down the street

OK – so it's just a memory of times past when we suffered through the cold while pretending to enjoy it. Now we watch the palm trees sway while we build castles in the sand. But we still hear the songs of joy and share the warmth of the season with good friends and family. Donna and I wish all of our friends and neighbors here in Lincolnshire a very Merry Christmas, and Happy Holiday Season.

We do have a request. Over the past 5 years as we have edited the "Voice" it has become increasingly difficult to meet the deadline for printing because of articles that come to us late, or don't come to us at all. We have been "ghost writing" some articles for people to insure that everything does get included. Beginning with the next edition, I'm sorry to say that this will be discontinued. For the January copy, if we do not receive an article, we will not be able to write it for you. These months especially are busy, with earlier deadlines due to the holiday season, and the time will not allow us to write additional articles.

Harold & Donna

By Brian Sliter (#574, 812-7903)

December is going to be a very busy month. The “FOOD DRIVE” is over on the 7th of this month and the “LADIES LUNCH” is on Friday the 9th. Our “HOLIDAY DANCE” is on Saturday the 10th and tickets are available at Coffee Hour on Wednesday mornings. The monthly “POT LUCK SUPPER” is on Tuesday the 13th. There is a “TRAVEL CLUB” meeting on Thursday the 17th at 4PM at the club house. The annual “CHRISTMAS PARADE AND SOCIAL” will be on Wednesday the 21st. Tickets are available at Coffee Hour. Again this year, CHRISTMAS DINNER will be catered on the 25th with tickets on sale at Coffee Hour.

The NEW YEAR’S EVE DANCE with D.J. Doug will also include a light meal and tickets this year will be $15 per person and they are on sale at Coffee Hour.

The Christmas lighting and decorating contest officially starts on the 1st and the winner will be chosen on the 21st. Santa and Mrs. Claus will put up the WINNER’S sign in front of the winning house during the PARADE OF CARTS prior to the Social. Voting Ballots are in the Voice and the ballot box is on the table by the office window in the Club House.

Ellie and I would like to wish everyone a VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Dial Directory and Database

By Donna Wurtz (#938, 812-2670 e-mail to: bigchees99@aol.com)

It’s time to start up again. It’s time once again to start compiling the list of changes to our Dial Directory, the “yellow book” list of all our neighbors and friends here in Lincolnshire. There have been many changes this year. There are many new residents, and old friends who have moved away. If you know of changes, or have met new owners, please remind them of the importance of our local directory. We wish to make it as complete as possible. Every year there are changes that so not get published because we do not get the information. We cannot publish second hand information. It must be received from the actual resident, so please let them know to contact us with their information.

Please update your current book with the following information:

Richard Williams	lot 580	202-316-4119
Gary Kottmann and Pam Niemantsverdriet	lot 1207	303-642-7894
Gail Grimm	lot 576	418-4919

The yellow book is for use by our residents only. It is not to be used for solicitation by advertisers, so please do not give anyone outside the community access to the books. Any violation of this rule by an advertiser is a violation of their contract, and will result in cancellation of any future advertising.

New owners: If you are not listed in the directory, please note that an input sheet was provided by the office along with your copy of the park rules. Please look to see if you have this form – fill it out – and return it either to the office or to Donna at lot 938 so we can input your information for next year’s edition of the directory. Any corrections can also be submitted to Donna at 812-2670.

When we have only first names, or some nick-name that you have on your coach, we cannot publish it in the directory, so please give us correct inputs.

Remember, the Dial directory is only published once each year. The directory is not produced by the office. It is a resident’s club function, so don’t expect the office to update your information for you. If you do not wish to have your birthday or anniversary listed, please let me know but we still need a phone number as we need to let the Block Captains notify you during emergency situations like water shut-off notices or other emergencies. Thank you for your cooperation.

Tai Chi

By: Art Lambert (#1117.....270-7030)

---

If you're looking for a way to reduce stress, consider tai chi (TIE-CHEE). Originally developed for self-defense, tai chi has evolved into a graceful form of exercise that's now used for stress reduction and a variety of other health conditions. Often described as meditation in motion, tai chi promotes serenity through gentle, flowing movements.

What is Tai chi:

Tai chi is an ancient Chinese tradition that, today, is practiced as a graceful form of exercise. It involves a series of movements performed in a slow, focused manner and accompanied by deep breathing.

Current members are enjoying the opportunity to use the clubhouse facilities, and look forward to continued use through the winter season with enthusiasm and energy.

Join us on Mondays and Fridays at 9:00 AM in the clubhouse and reduce your stress while getting good exercise. Our sessions are designed for our age group, and start off new each day, so you can join any time and not miss anything. If you are new to Tai Chi, and don't want to try to follow those who now know the regular moves, feel free to come at 9:30 for beginner classes. You will soon be right up with all the rest.

My thanks to all who have brought books to my house It makes it much easier for me to keep order in the library.

I try to keep the shelves in alphabetical order and when people randomly put the books back, I have to go through all the shelves each time and sort all the books.

Having them in order makes it so much easier for someone looking for a particular author

Thanks again for helping make my job less of a chore.

Also looking for some nice book-ends to use on the shelves

Keep the books coming.

By: LHOA board of Directors

DID YOU KNOW?

Association Membership and Board of Director Meetings

Florida Statute 723.078, provides that Homeowners' Associations are required to have two types of meetings: (1) Board of Directors meetings and (2) Membership Meetings.

“Board of Director Meetings” are defined in F.S. 723.078(2)(c) and states “Meetings of the Board of Directors and meetings of its committees at which a quorum is present shall be open to all members. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be posted in a conspicuous place upon the park property at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance, except in an emergency. Notice of any meeting in which assessments against members are to be made for any reason shall specifically contain a statement that assessments will be considered and the nature of such assessments.

“Membership Meetings” are defined in F.S. 723.078(2)(d) and states “Members shall meet at least once per each calendar year and the meeting shall be the annual meeting and all members of the Board shall be elected at the annual meeting unless the By-Laws provide for staggered terms”

723.078(2)(c)(4) provides Association Members the right to attend meetings of the Board of Directors and its committees and includes the right to speak at such meetings with reference to all designated agenda items. The Association’s Board of Directors may adopt reasonable written rules governing the frequency, duration and manner of member statements.

Shiraoke was held on November 5th. A big thank you goes to all who attended as entertainers, and to the audience who came out to enjoy them. We had a total of 25 entertainers and a total of over 80 in attendance. I say entertainers rather than singers, because that’s the difference between “karaoke” and “Shiraoke”. We have singers of course, but you may also be entertained by stand-up comedy, musical instruments, or sometimes even imitators. If you have never been to a “Shiraoke” show here at Lincolnshire, you have missed some very good times, and lots of free entertainment. Some of the best singers in Pinellas County also come to join us to provide extra entertainment. Singers from venues around town, including a few Bright House Senior Idol winners from past years are often among our guests.

We try to monitor the page regularly to help with answers when we can, and several were answered or referred to places to find the answers to questions.

We are up to 238 people who have liked the page. Don't be afraid to comment or ask questions about life in Lincolnshire.

Remember that we encourage positive posts and informative posts. Negative views regarding perceived life at Lincolnshire that are not helpful to residents will be removed.

The food pantry drive ends on December 7th. On that day we will deliver the food to the pantry.

Also on that day we will make a last ditch effort to surpass our goal. Last year we asked everyone coming to coffee that day to bring one last can of food so we could fill the stage. That didn't work out too well! But we are not discouraged - - s o-o-o-o - we will try again. One last can of food on December 7th. Let's fill the stage!! PLEASE – PLEASE – PRETTY PLEASE!!!!

NEW ID CARDS ARE COMING

New ID cards are coming WASHINGTON — The Department of Defense (DOD) will transition to a more secure Uniformed Services Identification (USID) card beginning in Fiscal Year 2018. USID cards, which represent over 60 percent of all DOD identification cards, are issued to facilitate access to benefits, privileges and installations for retired, Reserve and National Guard members, dependent family members of Uniformed Service members, and other eligible individuals in accordance with DOD policy. The new plastic cards will resemble existing Common Access Cards, but will not include a computer chip. The member's information will be encoded into bar codes on the back of the card. Among the recipients who will receive the new identification cards are retired Service members, members on the temporary and permanently disabled retired list, Gray Area Soldiers in the Army National Guard and Army Reserve not yet receiving retired pay, eligible dependents of service members and Retired Soldiers, and eligible surviving dependents of deceased Service members. Look for more information and an implementation schedule to be released in 2017.

Hearing aids for military retirees By Terrie Ziegler, Ft. Gordon, Ga. Audiologist

The Department of Defense-sponsored Retiree-At-Cost Hearing Aid Program (RACHAP) is designed to help military retirees purchase hearing aids through the audiology clinic at a special government negotiated cost. The hearing aids available through this program are the same state-of-the-art technologies available to active duty service members. The program is open to all military retirees who have hearing loss or tinnitus (ringing in the ears). Dependents of military retirees are not eligible for this program. Retirees can buy hearing aids at a significant savings. A set of hearing aids (one of the best available) that retails for about $5000 costs a retiree as little as $755 or a savings of about 85 percent. Services for the hearing evaluation, hearing aid fitting and follow up hearing aid checks are part of your retirement benefits and are available at no cost to you.

Not every military medical facility is able to provide the RACHAP program. If you are traveling to a participating site from out of town, you need to compare your travel costs and purchase savings to the costs of purchasing hearing aids privately in your local community. Travel and overnight expenses are not covered. Generally, at least two visits are required for you to get hearing aids; one for your hearing evaluation and one for your hearing aid fitting.

The list of facilities is available online at <http://militaryaudiology.org/rachap-rhapp-locations/>. This list may change occasionally, so call your closest clinic to see if they are participating in the program.

Military retirees may be eligible for hearing aids from the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) and receive hearing aids from the VA free of charge – in most cases there is no cost to the patient. Audiology departments can provide you with more information about VA services or you may contact the VA directly at (877) 222-8387 or (800) 827-1000. Dependents of retirees are not eligible for hearing aid services from military treatment facilities (including RACHAP) or from TRICARE. The family member is eligible for hearing evaluations and the audiologist can provide information about hearing aids.

HONORING THOSE WHO SERVED

Honoring those who served the rendering of military funeral honors is a way to show the nation's deep gratitude to those who, in times of war and peace, have faithfully defended our country. This ceremonial paying of respect is the final demonstration a grateful nation can provide to the veteran's family.

A Department of Defense website (<https://www.dmdc.osd.mil/mfh>) provides a wealth of information about military funeral honors as well as a resource tool for funeral directors as they assist veterans' families by arranging military funeral honors. Some of the information on the website includes: Who is eligible for Military Funeral Honors? • Military members who died while on active duty or in the Selected Reserve • Former military members who served on active duty or in the Selected Reserve and were discharged under other than dishonorable conditions • Former military members who completed at least one term of enlistment or period of initial obligated service in the Selected Reserve and were discharged under other than dishonorable conditions What services can the family of an eligible veteran expect? By law, military units are required to provide, at a minimum, a two-person uniformed detail to present the core elements of the funeral honors ceremony. The core elements of the funeral honors ceremony are: • Playing of Taps • Flag folding • Flag presentation What additional funeral honors elements could be provided if personnel and resources are available? • Rifle detail • Color guard • Pallbearers • Caisson • Military flyover Burial Flag You may apply for the burial flag by completing VA Form 27-2008, Application for United States Flag for Burial Purposes found at <http://www.vba.va.gov/pubs/forms/VBA-27-2008-ARE.pdf>. You may get a flag at any VA regional office or U.S. Post Office. Generally, the funeral director will help you obtain the flag. • Burial flags are provided at no cost. • After the burial, the flag will be presented to the veteran's next of kin. If no claim is made for the flag by the next of kin, it may be given, upon request, to a close friend or associate of the deceased veteran. • Additional information can be obtained from the VA's website

The Handy Hubby

By: Charlie Freeman (#260, 727-410-7542)

Tip #12 Month of December

I will fully admit to having hammered my fingers while trying to hammer a nail before. But now I know this trick! You can save your fingers from getting all busted up by using a comb to hold nails in place. Simply place the nail between the teeth of an ordinary comb, hold it in the position you wish to hammer the nail and pound away - - no fingers.

Until next time

Handy hubby

Lincolnshire Travel Club

By "Abe-Lincoln Shire" (#938, 812-2670 ...Bigchees99@aol.com)

Along with all the other activities that keep residents busy at this time of the year, the travel club is also busy with plans. Marie from advantage gave a wine & cheese party for Lincolnshire last month, and gave us some new ideas and announced some new great travel deals. Don't forget to sign up for the dinner theater shows at "Show Palace" and the day at Tampa Downs. The new cruise options that were announced all sound great. A word of caution: SIGN UP EARLY - THEY WILL SELL OUT.

Watch the bulletin board, facebook page, and coffee hour announcements for more specifics "Abe"

Lectioary Readings for December 2016

L 4 - Merciful God, who sent your messengers the prophets to preach repentance and prepare the way for our salvation: Give us grace to heed their warnings and forsake our sins, that we may greet with joy the coming of Jesus Christ our Redeemer; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. Scripture: Isaiah 11:1-10, Psalm 72:1-7, 18-19, Romans 15:4-13, Matthew 3:1-12

11 - Stir up your power, O Lord, and with great might come among us; and, because we are sorely hindered by our sins, let your bountiful grace and mercy speedily help and deliver us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen. Scripture: Isaiah 35:1-10, Psalm 146:4-9, James 5:7-10, Matthew 11:2-11

18 - Purify our conscience, Almighty God, by your daily visitation, that your Son Jesus Christ, at his coming, may find in us a mansion prepared for himself; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. Scripture: Isaiah 7:10-16, Psalm 80:1-7, 16-18, Romans 1:1-7, Matthew 1:18-25

25 - O God, you make us glad by the yearly festival of the birth of your only Son Jesus Christ: Grant that we, who joyfully receive him as our Redeemer, may with sure confidence behold him when he comes to be our Judge; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. Scripture: Isaiah 9:2-7, Psalm

Lincolnshire Kennel Club

By: "Wickett" Wurtz

Be especially patient with your humans during this time. They may appear to be more stressed-out than usual. They may come home with large bags of things they call gifts. Do not assume that all the gifts are yours. Be tolerant if your humans put decorations on you. They seem to get some special kind of pleasure out of seeing how dogs look with fake antlers. Crazy

The Christmas Tree:

They may bring a large tree into the house and set it up in a prominent place and cover it with lights and decorations. Bizarre as this may seem to you, it is an important ritual for your humans, so here are some things canines need to know:

- Don't pee on the tree.
- Don't drink water in the container that holds the tree.
- Mind your tail when you are near the tree.
- If there are packages under the tree, even ones that smell interesting or that have your name on them, don't rip them open.
- Don't chew on the cord that runs from the funny-looking hole in the wall to the tree.

Discretion:

Your humans may occasionally invite lots of strangers to come visit during this season. These parties can be lots of fun, but they also call for some discretion on the part of us dogs:

- Not all strangers appreciate kisses.
- Do not eat off the buffet table.
- Beg for goodies by all means but do it..... subtly
- Be pleasant, even if unknowing strangers on your sofa
- Don't drink out of glasses that are left within you reach
- Manners:
- Likewise, your humans may take you visiting at Christmas. Here your manners will also be important.
- Respect the territory of other animals that may live in the house.
- Tolerate children, and turn on you charm – big time.
- Most important of all: A big man with a white beard and a very loud laugh may emerge for your fireplace in the middle of the night> DO NOT BITE HIM.

Did you know that December is also...

Buckwheat Month. Designated the “December Grain of the Month” by the Whole Grains Council, buckwheat contains higher levels of zinc, copper, and manganese than other cereal grains, along with a very high level of protein. It’s used in soba noodles, crepes, blintzes, pancakes, and other delicious foods.

National Impaired Driving Prevention Month. This holiday season, make sure to plan for a safe way home, especially if your plans involve alcohol. If someone you know is drinking, don’t let that person get behind the wheel. Remember, too, that just because you’re driving sober, others on the road may not be. Always buckle up, drive with caution, and call 911 to report a suspected drunken driver.
