On the Cover

May was kinda boring and real quiet, until one night Richard and Ace were out walking late and came up to 3st. to see a BIG Alligator walking down the street. He called Largo PD and they came out in force to keep the gator, who was by now between Ken Deka and Ken Benson's places on 10th, boxed in until the wildlife trapper got here with his equipment and trailer. It looked like a raid on Lincolnshire cause every cop came in his own car. This was all happening across the street from yours truly, so I got out my camera and tried to get the scoop. Only a few of us were up to watch the excitement, since many go to bed early and weren't even awake.

From the Editor

By Ann Curry (#1015.....420-6518.....acuria10@gmail.com)

June is upon us and with that we all start paying a little bit more attention to the weather and the weatherman. It's HURRICANE season!!!! I know, I know we all went through it last year and yes, it was one of the scariest and most stressful times for all of us. I just want to provide some heads up information so we are better prepared this time.

1. Go to and bookmark on your computer, tablet or phone, www.pinellascounty.org/emergencymanagement
2. There is a preparedness guide with a wealth of info in it and it is about 20 pages. Here are some basics....
3. Get a notebook and keep this stuff together. List each person your plan will cover and their full contact information. Each person should carry their identification with them if you evacuate. Get a couple of large plastic totes to store stuff in that you will take.
4. List all supplies and equipment needed for each person. It may be 72 hours or more before help can arrive. Identify any health conditions or health related needs.
5. DECIDE WHERE YOU WILL GO IF EVACUATION IS NECESSARY. Plan your route and include alternates. Don't just follow the leader, they might not REALLY have a plan! Remember a manufactured home park is always a level A, and is mandatory if officials say so.

6. Make copies of your financial, insurance and medical records and keep them with your emergency plan.
7. Include your service animals and family pets in your plan.
8. Only go to a shelter if you have nowhere else to go. You will have a roof over your head but... It's not a pleasant place to go, as you will sleep on a cot or the floor and it's full of noisy kids, pets and scared adults.
9. Shelters are in order of closest to farthest: Largo High School, Ross Norton Rec. Ctr., Belleair Elementary, Pinellas Park H.S., High Point Elementary, Skycrest Elementary.
10. Keep your vehicle's basic maintenance up to date and refill your gas tank when it gets half full.
11. Pray that we don't have to use this information.

• This information is the viewpoint of the Editor. If you'd like to write an opinion, or article, call me at 727-420-6518 or send it to acuria10@gmail.com, usually before the 15th of the month for publication.

From the Desk of the President

By Brian Sliter (Lot 574...727-812-7903)

It's been a cold and wet Spring up here in Tillsonburg with freezing rain and temperatures hitting a high of 80* F and then plummeting to the low 40's and 50's for days at a time. Hopefully June will be a much better month weather wise.

Lincolnshire Humor—I'm very happy to hear that Sue Bogle is back home from her re-hab. For those that missed the action and didn't hear, Sue brought her new pet home with her. Yes it's true! A nine and a half foot Alligator (I'm not sure of its name) has been living on 3rd street. The City of Largo informed Sue that a Pet Alligator must have a collar on at all times with a name tag for identification. Sue informed me that —no way was she going to put a collar on him! So Nine Police officers along with Florida Wildlife were called to remove the Alligator. Pity! The Alligator might have been the answer to the Coyotes.

Back in Tillsonburg, Ellie has decided to put on a LIP SYNC SHOW similar to our Canadian Showcase shows from the past in Lincolnshire. She is also teaching line dancing. She has to keep busy! I will keep you informed of the show's progress.

Back to Lincolnshire, don't forget about the Hawaiian Night on Saturday the 16th. Harold will keep you informed of upcoming events at COFFEE HOUR so please plan on attending.

Deb Wright, a former resident of Lincolnshire, my daughter Jenny and myself put on a 70th Birthday party for Ellie here at our Clubhouse in Tillsonburg with over a hundred in attendance. At first it was going to be a surprise party but after many weeks of Ellie receiving no e-mails, or phone calls and nobody wanting to talk to her, Ellie was getting depressed. You see I threatened to do bodily harm to anybody that let the secret out. So we had to tell her.

By now our new Managers Leon and Laura Stevers will be settled into their new life at Lincolnshire, I wish them well and look forward to meeting them in October.

Enjoy your month of June, and yes Summer is on its way.

“Welcome to Lincolnshire”

By: Donna Wurtz (lot 938.....509-8112)

Our new Owners’ Orientation was held on Thursday May 10 at 6:30 PM. We had 7 new owners at the orientation, and a group of “seasoned” active residents sharing information.

If you did not receive a personal visit and were unable to attend our last orientation in May, or perhaps you have joined our community more recently, we hope you will be able to join us for the upcoming event in July. Lots of information about the community and the surrounding area will be available to you at one quick easy meeting. Hope you will be there, watch the voice for the upcoming July date

Attention all residents: We need your help. If you are aware of people moving in or out of Lincolnshire, please let a committee person know so that we may extend an invitation. Names are unnecessary, just lot numbers. And don’t be shy yourself, join us at the session too. You might be surprised by what you don’t already know

See you in July!

Lincolnshire’s 7th Annual Luau

B: Harold Wurtz (Lot938.....459-0394.....bigchees99@aol.com)

It’s hard for us to believe that we have been hosting the “Lincolnshire Luau” for 7 years. The only break was when the clubhouse was closed for the renovations. Those who have been attending every year, we thank you for participating, and hope you will help talk up this year’s event. By popular demand, we will have our Hawaiian dance team led by “Miraj”. She will once again be bringing her dance team with some new moves, and a partially new routine. There will be Hawaiian and Tahitian dance entertainment inside the clubhouse. To be sure to get everyone involved, we are again going with the earlier time slot, with doors opening at 4:30, and dinner served at 5:30. This means we will not be doing the “Fire-dance” this year.

If you are new to Lincolnshire, be sure to mark your calendar for this event on Saturday June 16. Ask your neighbors about the event. Great Hawaiian food, and good entertainment too. Price is $8.00 for all you can eat, and entertainment.

Tickets are on sale at coffee, or call Harold or Donna.

Menu includes Hawaiian Roast Pork, Teriyaki Chicken, South Pacific Style Rice, and lots of exotic fruits and veggies plus a unique dessert. Bring your own beverage, or enjoy some punch. (if you want it spiked, you must do it yourself)

Dial Directory and Database

By Donna Wurtz (#938

509-1182.....e-mail to: momshse@aol.com)

The 2018-2019 “yellow Book” is in print.. If you did not provide us with your new numbers and permission to publish them, your number will not be listed in the directory. A scrap piece of paper with your number is not enough, unless you are just changing a previously published number. Over the past few years we have received complaints from residents whose numbers are not listed. Almost every time it is someone who gave us information too late for publication, or gave us a paper with a number not containing the required permission to publish. Please note that if we do not have a signed permission to publish your number, it will take another year before you will be listed in the book.

New owners: If you are not listed in the directory, please note that an input sheet was provided by the office along with your copy of the park rules. Please look to see if you have this form – fill it out – and return it either to the office or to Donna at lot 938 so we can input your information for the next edition of the directory. Any corrections can also be submitted to Donna at 509-1182.

Please make the following changes to your current book, and remember that these new changes MAY BE TOO LATE FOR THE EDITION THAT IS IN PRINT, so keep them for your new version when it is delivered:

Rosemarie Waller: lot#1370 new number: 240-1916

John Ferlito lot #508 (new resident) 614-530-4699 (delete Thompson)

Fred Sanger & Charles Chimera 315-345-6135

Don & Deb Jory #1021 705-738-4017

Roger & Sandra Wood lot #1217 (new residents) 585-747-6219, 585-747-6232

Sue Weiland lot #1355 (new resident) 271-0036 (delete Millett)

Remember, the Dial directory is only published once each year, and the next one will not be published until summer of 2019, so if you are not listed – it will be a while before your listing is published. The directory is not produced by the office. It is a resident’s club function, so don’t expect the office to update your information for you. If you do not wish to have your birthday or anniversary listed, please tell us, BUT we still need a phone number to let the Block Captains notify you during emergency situations like water shut-off notices or other emergencies. Thank you for your cooperation.

Lincolnshire Travel Club

By "Abe-Lincoln Shire" (#938..... 459-0394....Bigchees99@aol.com)

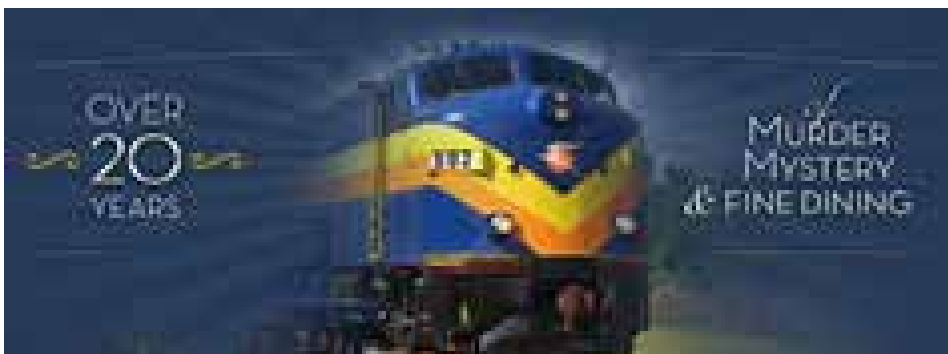

Last chance: we are still taking reservations for a trip in July to the Palm dinner theater and Immokalee Casino July 10 - 11. The dinner theater show is the musical "Annie." There are only a few spots left, and we can't guarantee reservations as this is going to print weeks before you will see it, so call as soon as you can if you are interested. $259/pp includes luxury motor coach, matinee & lunch at Broadway Palm Theater, Waterfront hotel, breakfast, shopping at "Best of Everything" and a stop at Immokalee Casino.

On September 13 – 14, we have organized a trip to Jacksonville. $281/pp. The "Jacksonville Jaunt" includes luxury motor coach, hotel, dinner & show at Alhambra Dinner Theater, Tour of Sweet Pete's Chocolate Factory, Tour of Anheuser Busch, & Beer School

As promised, we have a trip to Kennedy Space Center. This is a 1 day trip on January 28, 2019. It is a full day, with the Kennedy Space Center Tour Package included. Details of the tour are on the flyer. Price is $105/pp.

We finally have a date and reservations for the requested return to Ft. Myers to board the "Murder Mystery Train." This will be a great trip, as many will remember the previous trip we made for this great destination just 2 years ago. Trip includes Motor Coach transportation, Hotel for 1 night, Murder Mystery Train show & dinner (best prime rib ever – and on a train – wow) Breakfast Gratuities and a side trip to Immokalee Casino. The date? -What better way to spend Valentine's Day than show, and dinner? This trip is limited, and is already selling. The hotel only has a limited number of rooms available. If you are interested, sign up now. Price is $339/pp, and deposit is $50/PP. No reservation is final until deposit is received.

If you were waiting to make reservations for our sponsored cruises, you waited too long. All the reduced price cabins that were held are sold. However, if you would like to get away for Christmas, there are cabins available on the Brilliance of the Seas for our 5 night Western Caribbean Cruise 12/24 – 12/29. Call for info.

TIME IN A BOTTLE...

By Teri Thera (Lot 717.....teri thara@gmail.com)

Many of us always say, where does time go? Our children are getting older, but we are not, lol! This holds true for our dear Mae Jackson who is about to leave our Lincolnshire Community to head back north to be close to her family.

Mae and her husband, Ramon, began coming to Florida and rented in Lincolnshire on 5th over 30 years ago. Ramon had some health difficulties and they rented here 6 months out of the year for nearly five years. They then purchased a home on 13th and eventually on 15th, where Mae resides now. Mae fell in love with her home on 15th because it had the washer and dryer inside instead of in the shed off the lanai. Her husband, Ramon, loved the stain glass divider in the kitchen. Lincolnshire became their permanent residence.

Mae and Ramon formerly resided in Buffalo, NY. During Mae's married life, she worked part time and Ramon was a banker. They raised a son and a daughter and were blessed with two grand-daughters. Ramon lived much longer than the doctors predicted due to the wonderful weather and being active in the community.

After the loss of Ramon, Mae continued to call Lincolnshire her home. As she put it, "I love, love, love this place and all of the wonderful people. I am going to miss living here."

Mae is leaving us on or around June 10th. Her family worked with her to find an assisted living facility. Mae will be living ten minutes from her daughter, son-in-law, and the granddaughters in New Hampton, NY. Her son who resides in Manhattan will be just an hour away.

Mae has always been active in our Lincolnshire Community. She loves bingo, walking in the pool, and in the past has been on golf and bowling leagues and has helped on all the committees in her 30 years of living here.

What a gal Miss Mae is! We will miss her smiling face. Again, Mae just wants to let everyone to know how much she loves all of us, her home that she is going to miss, and Lincolnshire in general. We too will miss Mae. Yes, time passes way too fast. Knowing the person Mae is, she will make new friends. And as she said, "if someone doesn't want to be my friend, at this stage, walk on." It was an honor to have a sit down with Mae. Thank you, Mae, for sharing in just a few words your time at Lincolnshire and your family background. May God Bless you and keep you. We know that the new home you are going to will be blessed to have you. Take good care of yourself, our dear friend!

Time.....memories.....it's not good-bye, it's I'll be seeing you!

ATTENTION

After 2 years of researching into new cart manufacturers, we have chosen to represent JH Global "Star Cars" line of new vehicles. They have a 14 year proven track record in manufacturing & customer service and all of their major electrical components are US made instead of imported.

Over the years we have seen numerous new carts come and go from the market, leaving customers hanging with useless warranties and no parts available.

Don't be fooled!

For those who follow Lincolnshire Residents Club page on Facebook, we have 11 new likes this month. To date we have 321 likes from residents and friends. We would like to see even more people become active on the page. Take a look, leave a message, click "like," share a picture. We want your input to make sure it remains current and relevant to all our resident friends. Postings should be newsworthy or just fun information. We try to delete any negative posts regarding Lincolnshire residents. Be positive, and share your fun times with your neighbors. What are you doing on your summer vacation up north?? Let us know. New Grandchildren? Graduations? Fun Trips? Let us know

And don't forget, if you are not here in the summer months, you can also view the "voice" on-line by visiting www.monthly-media.com and searching under park newsletters for our Lincolnshire version. You can even look at past months at this site, so if you missed something, you can find it. Just remember, all the advertising is also in the on-line version, so you still have to scroll the pages to read it all.

DID YOU KNOW?

When individuals come together to discuss mutual concerns, no matter what the common element is, the nucleus of an association is formed. There is evidence that associations existed in Canada even earlier than they did in the United States. Samuel de Champlain is credited with founding the first association in Canada in 1604.

As our country was founded, American citizens began to expand and formalize guilds into what we identify as an association today. Citizens of the United States began exercising their first amendment freedoms of speech, assembly and the press. New laws were developed to support and define these new groups.

The number of community associations in the U.S. is hundreds of thousands (Florida has over 47,000). As a result of that long history, we can have confidence they will continue to form and exist in today's society. Almost every facet of life is represented in some form or fashion by an association. The challenges they face have never been greater and the new opportunities they have are just as great.

Ever wonder why associations exist, what purposes they serve and why people join them? A sense of community is at the heart of associations. People voluntarily join associations because they want to work together on a common cause or interest. Associations empower people to get involved in issues that affect personal and professional communities and their quality of life.

TRDP to FEDVIP Transition (Reminder)

1. The TRICARE Retiree Dental Program (TRDP) will end December 31, 2018. Retirees will be able to enroll in the Federal Employees Dental and Vision Insurance Program (FEDVIP) during Open Season this fall (Nov 12 - Dec 10, 2018). There is NOTHING that current TRDP enrollees need to do right now, but in order for them to continue with dental coverage for 2019, they MUST select a FEDVIP plan during Open Season; they will not automatically be rolled into a FEDVIP dental plan. There are up to 10 Dental Carrier options in FEDVIP from which to choose, one of which is Delta Dental who has administered the TRDP since 1998. New enrollments in the TRDP will be accepted until October 31, 2018 and current TRDP enrollees should continue to use their TRDP benefits with confidence throughout the rest of the year.

VIET NAM VET IDENTIFIED AND BURIED

2. SAN ANTONIO — The remains of a Green Beret from Texas who was missing in action since 1971 have been recovered and a service will be held Friday for the Vietnam War veteran. The Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency on Monday announced the remains of 32-year-old Army Maj. Donald G. Carr of San Antonio are being returned to his family. Burial will be at San Antonio National Cemetery. Records show Carr on July 6, 1971, was on a reconnaissance flight when the plane crashed during bad weather. A ground team failed to immediately locate the crash site. Carr was declared missing in action. In April 2014, a Vietnamese citizen contacted U.S. officials about possible American remains found in Kon Tum Province. The wreckage yielded personal items from Carr, who also was identified through DNA.

Many Medically Discharged Vets Missing Out on Rating Upgrade

3. Hardeep Grewal was a 29-year-old Air Force computer operations specialist suffering a mild case of pneumonia when he deployed to Saudi Arabia and a series of other Southwest Asian countries in 2003. The staff sergeant stayed ill and returned to the United States “looking like a scare crow,” he said. He was diagnosed with asthma, which would require two medications daily for the rest of his life. By December 2004, Grewal was medically discharged with a 10 percent disability rating and a small severance payment. The Air Force physical evaluation board “lowballed me,” he recalled in a phone conversation Wednesday from his Northern Virginia home. “They were trying to get rid of people” from a specialty that, after offering an attractive reenlistment bonus, quickly became overmanned. Grewal promptly applied to the Department of Veterans Affairs for disability compensation and his initial VA rating was set at 30 percent. Full VA payments were delayed until Grewal’s Air Force severance was recouped. Twelve years later, in August 2016, he got a letter inviting him to have his military disability rating reviewed by a special board Congress created solely to determine whether veterans like him, discharged for conditions rated 20 percent disabling or less from Sept. 11, 2001, to Dec. 31, 2009, were treated fairly. “I waited like almost two months to apply because I didn’t know if somebody was pulling my leg,” Grewal said. “I talked to a lot of people, including a friend at Langley Air Force Base, to find out if it was legit. He said other service members he knew who had gotten out were saying, ‘Yeah, it’s legit. You can look it up.’” Grewal had to wait 18 months but he received his decision letter from the Physical Disability Board of Review (PDBR) this month. It recommends to the Air Force Secretary that Grewal’s discharge with severance pay be characterized to permanent disability retirement, effective the date of his prior medical separation. If, as expected, the Air Force approves a revised disability rating to 30 percent back to December 2004, Grewal will receive retroactive disability retirement, become eligible for TRICARE health insurance and begin to enjoy other privileges of “retiree” status including access to discount shopping on base. Congress ordered that the PDBR established as part of the 2008 National Defense Authorization Act after a mountain of evidence surfaced that service branches had been low-balling disability ratings given to thousands of service members medically separated over a nine-year period through recent wars. The PDBR began accepting applications in January 2009. So far only 19,000 veterans have applied from pool of 71,000 known to be eligible for at least a disability rating review. All of them were medically-discharged with disability ratings of 20 percent or less sometime during the qualifying period. A bump in rating to 30 percent or higher bestows retiree status including a tax-free disability retirement and TRICARE eligibility. And yet only 27 percent of veterans believed eligible for a rating review have applied. Indeed, applications to the PDBR have slowed to a trickle of 40 to 50 per month.

4. For this column, Greg Johnson, director of the PDRB, provided written responses to two dozen questions on the board's operations. Overall, he explained, 42 percent of applicants receive a recommendation that their original rating be upgraded. Their service branch has the final say on whether a recommendation is approved but in almost every instance they have been. To date, 47 percent of Army veterans who applied got a recommendation for upgrade, and 18 percent saw their rating increased to at least 30 percent to qualify for disability retirement. For the Navy Department, which includes Sailors and Marines, 34 percent of applicants received upgrade recommendations and 17 percent gained retiree status. For Air Force applicants the approval rate also has been 34 percent, but 21 percent airmen got a revised rating high enough to qualify for disability retirement. The top three medical conditions triggering favorable recommendations are mental health issues, including post-traumatic stress, back ailments and arthritis. As Grewal learned, decisions are not made quickly. The current wait, on average, is eight to 12 months, Johnson said. But that is faster than the 18-to-24-month wait that was routine in earlier years. Also, veterans need not fear that a new review will result in a rating downgrade. The law establishing the PDBR doesn't allow for it. Once received, applications are scanned into the PDBR data base and the board requests from the service branch a copy of their physical evaluation board case file. Also, PDBR retrieves from VA the veteran's treatment records and all documents associated with a VA disability rating decision. After paperwork is gathered, a PDBR panel of one medical officer and two non-medical officers, military or civilian, reviews the original rating decision. All panelists are the rank of colonel or lieutenant colonel (for Navy, captain or commander) or their civilian equivalents. The board has 34 voting members plus support staff, which is more than PDBR had in its early years, Johnson said. The wait for a decision is long because of the time it takes to retrieve records, the thoroughness of the review and the complexity of the cases, Johnson said. About 70 percent of applicants have been Army, 20 percent Navy or Marine Corps veterans, 10 percent Air Force and less than one percent Coast Guard. PDBR notification letters have been sent to eligible veterans at last-known addresses at least twice and include applications and pre-stamped return envelopes. Grewal said he had moved four times since leaving service which might be why he never heard of the board before the notification letter reach him in 2016. At some point Congress could set a deadline for the board to cease operations but it hasn't yet. The board advises veterans, however, to apply as soon as they can. The longer they wait, it notes on its website, "the more difficult it may be to gather required medical evidence from your VA rating process, your service treatment record or other in-service sources [needed] to assess your claim." If an eligible veteran is incapacitated or deceased, a surviving spouse, next of kin or legal representative also can request the PDBR review. Robert Behm, LTC (Ret)

Lincolnshire Lending Library

By Cynthia Varga (Lot 163.....727-584-6402)

I am in charge of keeping the books at Lincolnshire Lending Library in the clubhouse. I have a system which I use to track the books. It is alphabetical by author from left to right. The sections are divided with the first 2 being fiction, the next nonfiction and the last being romance.

When you finish using them, either leave them at my coach at lot 163 or ON the credenza in the Clubhouse. Please DO NOT attempt to put them back IN the shelves. I know you mean well and are trying to be helpful, but I look them over sometimes, rotating them out with different ones. I've also noticed books being left in the laundry/mail room. Leave them in the clubhouse or my coach. I don't need to be home, book donations and returns can be left on a chair in my carport.

Also, there are movie videos and games which you may use in the lower drawers of the credenza and the tables along the west side of the room.

Thanks for your cooperation.

Weedon Island Preserve

By Ann Curry (Lot 1015.....727-420-6518.....acuria10@gmail.com)

Weedon Island Preserve is located near Gandy Blvd. at 1800 Weedon Dr. NE. St Petersburg 33702. It is open at 7am daily. Although it is listed as an island, it is accessible off Gandy Blvd. past Derby Lane to San Martine Blvd. until you come to Weedon Dr. It has 3,190 acres and offers a variety of recreational activities. Hiking is the biggest with several trails and a boardwalk and observation tower. The boardwalk is handicap accessible and extends over tidal flats and mangrove forests and saltwater ponds teeming with fish and birds. The Boy Scout Loop is a one mile loop that goes through pine flatwoods and maritime hammocks. There is additional trail that has picnic areas to stop and rest.

Next there is the Cultural and learning center and Gift Shop. It is open from 9to 4pm. The 3 story center has educational programs, and exhibits. The building was designed with the help if Native Americans and keeps with their traditions. It is free.

There were people that lived on this island 1,000 to 1800 yrs. ago. Many artifacts have been found here including a prehistoric canoe found more recently. Portions of the preserve are on the National Register of Historic Places. If you plan to hike, check out the suggested trail companions and trail rules. Go to Pinellas County.org, clic on parks and recreation, clic on list of county parks to find out more about Weedon Island.

Astronomy for June

By Sandra Pongratz (Lot 1022)

What is that in the western sky shining so bright right after Sunset? It's the lovely planet Venus. As the moon goes through its phases it makes the rounds and eventually pairs up with Veuus and is a beautiful sight because the moon will be in a small crescent phase. Brilliant Venus, although it is a round planet, reflects so much sunlight it will look like a very bright star! So look in the west for a very bright starlight object. As the new moon begins its new phase, both objects will be close together for two consecutive nights.

Our winter constellations are now setting west and summer constellations are rising in the east. As we say goodbye to Orion the Hunter, we welcome Sagittarius. The heart of the Milky Way lies in Sagittarius. If you are in dark skies, a good pair of binoculars will reveal many star clusters and nebulae as you slowly scan around it.

Keep looking up and enjoy the summer.

Hi Everybody! Man it has gotten quiet around here. But to all you guys up there, wherever that is, Happy Tails! I have met one guy on my street named Brass. He's a chocolate lab named Brass. He's very friendly and has worked for his Mom as a Service Dog. We hope to go out to a dog park together soon before he goes back up to Canada.

Mom got some very important stuff about how to take care of us dogs and other pets in the summer time. I want to share it with you all. Remember we wear fur coats all year long and also walk around barefoot when you guys have on shoes. It gets HOT in a hurry!! We sweat thru our mouth and feet, so keep us cool and give us plenty of water.

Recipes from Lincolnshire

By the Editor Ann Curry, Teri Thara (Lot 1015 - 727420-6518...acuria10@gmail.com, Lot 717, 708-351-9242, terithara@gmail.com)

If you haven't roasted radishes before, you are in for a surprise. The sharp flavor mellows into a sweet earthiness that is completely family-friendly. Besides this wonderful recipe listed below to add flavor to a baked radish, you can also just put them in the oven with a little olive oil, salt, and pepper and roast for 20 minutes at 400 degrees. Enjoy!

Roasted Radishes with Green Goddess Dressing

- 1 lb. radishes, about 15, cut in half, lengthwise
- 2 tsp. olive oil
- ¼ tsp. kosher salt
- ¼ teaspoon black pepper

Green Goddess Dressing:

- ½ cp. low-fat plain Greek yogurt
- 1 tbs. Lemon juice
- 1 tsp. olive oil
- ¼ cp. chopped green onion
- ¼ tsp. minced garlic (about ½ clove)
- ¼ cup roughly cut parsley
- 1 tbs. Fresh dill (or 1 tsp. dried dill)
- ¼ tsp. kosher salt

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Place the halved radishes, olive oil, and salt and pepper in a small bowl and stir to coat. Pour the radishes onto a parchment-lined baking sheet and roast until tender, about 20 minutes. Meanwhile, place the dressing ingredients into a blender and blend just until mixed, but a few green flecks remain, about 20 seconds (The recipe makes extra.)

Serve the radishes warm or at room temperature with about half of the sauce – either drizzled on top or served in a small bowl as a dip.

Makes 6 servings.

3rd - O God, your never-failing providence sets in order all things both in heaven and earth: Put away from us, we entreat you, all hurtful things, and give us those things which are profitable for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Deuteronomy 5:12-15, Psalm 81:1-10, 2 Corinthians 4:5-12, Mark 2:23-3:6

10th - O God, from whom all good proceeds: Grant that by your inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by your merciful guiding may do them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Genesis 3:8-15, Psalm 130, 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1, Mark 3:20-35

17th - Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Ezekiel 17:22-24, Psalm 92:1-4, 11-14, 2 Corinthians 5:6-10, [11-13], 14-17, Mark 4:26-34

24th - O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Job 38:1-11, Psalm 107:1-3, 23-32, 2 Corinthians 6:1-13, Mark 4:35-41

As always your Bible an open heart and God will do the rest! Sunday's at 10a in the Clubhouse
