Homeowners of Oak Crest / Acorn Residents, Inc.

Jim Kiefner, President, Lot #84, 330-7061, Janet Amon, Secretary, Lot #579, 518-8112

Welcome to all snowbirds who have returned and are busy with the activities planned for everyone. We also welcome all new folks who have purchased property this summer. By the time you are reading this message, the Annual Meeting of the Homeowners of Oak Crest/Acorn will have been held and new Board members elected. We hope that many of you attended that meeting as was posted in previous issues of the Messenger and announced at the meetings. Please support the new Board by attending the monthly meetings and giving your input and suggestions.

Oak Crest / Acorn Residents' Club, Inc.

Margaret Fuller, President, Lot #456, 586-1590, Kathy Brady, Vice-President, Lot #226, 239-8726

It appears that, although I said my farewells as President at the January meeting, I'm not officially 'out' until February 1st. SOOOO, here I am again.

We had no report of shut-ins this year and although we missed doing our annual gift giving, we were happy to know some of our past shut-ins had rallied and are doing well. We happily returned the donations given us and thank you for your support.

The Golf Cart parade was a huge success again this year. You folks do a great job decorating those carts. What a lot of work! Hope to see you again next year.

Annette & Charles Watts at 504 Arizona Oak won the $50.00 prize for the best decorated house this year. Congratulations.

We were really very disappointed at the small showing we had for the New Year's Eve party. The music was very good and those of us who attended had a great evening. Some thoughts will have to be given as to what will be done next year as your Club cannot afford that kind of financial loss very often. Peggy Heinzman won the $35.00 50/50.

We had a great group at our pancake breakfast this month - served 74 folks in spite of the power outage. The kitchen crew was great and Dave kept up with the orders for pancakes even though he could only do six at a time on his personal grill. Great job everyone. And thank all of you attendees for your patience. The winner of the $38.00 50/50 was Kevin Hussey of 368 Jack Oak. Your new President will be on Board for the next breakfast and I hear she has some new ideas - well - all I can say is it takes younger minds, for which I am thankful, to start new beginnings. I KNOW all will go well. I'm sure the vanilla will not be in the syrup bottles again. Come join us on February 7th. 8:30 to 10:00, $3.00 per person.

The Soup Kitchen was super. Homemade Chicken and Beef Vegetable soups were very tasty as was the salad, bread and dessert.. The entertainment by Mark Ralston was just plain fun. Patsy Haley of 156 Silk Oak and Jill Werner of 115 Live Oak won the 50/50 prize of $33.00 each. The evening was enjoyed by all.

FEBRUARY 21ST - POTLUCK WITH PARK ENTERTAINMENT. 5:30 BYOB, 6:00 DINNER, 7:00 ENTERTAINMENT. Bring a dish to share with your neighbors and friends. A sign-up sheet will be on the Board for listing what you will bring (we don't want all desserts please - I don't eat sweets). Also, please sign-up what special talents you will be entertaining us with. We know there has to be lots of talent in this Park and we would all love to hear you - instruments, singing, whatever. Come join us for a fun time.

Our new Board of Directors was voted into office at our January meeting. Please welcome on board as of February 1st: DONNA HENNIGER, President; KATHY BRADY, Vice-President; DOROTHY NOLLER, 2nd Vice-President; ED KOHLER, Treasurer; and VICKIE CHAMBERLAIN, Secretary. Congratulations and the Best Of Luck.

MY PERSONAL THANKS. My sincere thanks to all of you for supporting me during my 5 years as your President. I keep saying 4 years but it really was 5 - YIKES - no wonder we need a change. My special thanks to all who volunteered for so many activities particularly for the Pancake Breakfast - I really appreciate such loyalty. Also special thanks to the Activities Committee for their hard work in trying to have entertainment and functions that will please everyone, That is an on-going and sometimes thankless task - having gone through it for so many years myself, I know how difficult it is to come up with new ideas.. Keep up the good work folks, you are doing great. Could not have done my job without you. Again, thanks to you all for your help over the years.

MEETINGS; Executive Board - January 30th - 10:30 a.m.

General Meeting February 2nd - 7:00 p.m.

PS. I have been hearing comments about the Activities Committee being such a "clique" and always sitting together at the functions. The committees who do the planning, setting up, cooking, serving, etc., have ALWAYS, for as far back as I can remember and that's at least 24 years, sat together at the first two tables since they have to run back and forth to the kitchen. That is not a "clique" - that is a working group doing this for you. On the other hand, don't we all ALWAYS sit with the same folks at all the functions? Does that make us a "clique"? Because if it does, it includes you folks who make the comments. So let's not be hearing any more of that - OK? Thanks.

Jim and I attended a meeting on January 8th in Lakeland Fl. The main speaker spoke on the information that our Canadian Residents need to know while they are here.

Next Dist. 2 Meeting will be on Tues. February 27, 2015 . Check the board in the Club House for details. You can email or call us at the information above.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS:

ART CLASS

We would like to thank all the members and volunteers who painted the clubhouse windows over the holidays. Homemade soup and desserts were provided for all. They included Jack Smith, Lee and Rhonda Gillespie, Irma Londono, Alan and Linda Pierce, Pat and Ed Kohler, Patricia Cole, Annette and Kevin Watts, Pauline Fowlston, Gloria Tatro, Jill Werner, Betty Pitstick, and Dave Larsen. Job well done!

Ron Gay, who passed away this Fall is missed by all. We are lucky to have one of our members, who stepped up, to lead and instruct Friday classes. Dave Larsen comes from a family of artists. His Grandfather and Uncle, painters who saw his talents, supplied materials and started him drawing at eight years old. He did his first oil painting at twelve.
