Homeowners of Oak Crest / Acorn Residents, Inc.

By: Tony Fania, President

I would like to thank the Residents for their cooperation in using the dues envelopes. We had a large increase in payments this year. Thank you. I also spoke to almost all who paid and was impressed with their enthusiasm for participating in future HOA meetings. We have a diverse cross section of residents that have worked in many different fields and could bring a lot of experience to new committees.

One of the first things I'd like to do is to form a Standing Committee to negotiate group rate with different services we all use such as WI-FI.

We need to get an EMAIL HOTLINE established to send out instant messages of concern such as reporting an unscrupulous tradesmen , trespassers, thefts and other information you would like to hear "now", rather than through the grapevine. The black tubes are ok for notices that mention road closings, future events, etc.

The EMAIL HOTLINE could help the Neighborhood Watch and Residents Club with their notices.

Right now all we have is the once a month messenger and the black tubes. If we wanted to set up a meeting with a vendor we could immediately email the notice for the meeting date. We have 644 homes in the community just think if we could get 75% participation that's 483 homes. Remember there is strength in numbers. We could bargain from a position of strength buying services. So let's get the word out tell your neighbors to sign up for the EMAIL HOTLINE and send your email address to:

fanial406@gmail.com

What chapter was that?

A minister told his congregation, “For next week’s sermon, I would like everyone to read the 17th chapter of Mark from your Bible. This will help you fully understand my topic on an important sin.”

The following Sunday, the minister opened his sermon with, “Now, how many of you have read Mark 17 this week as I asked?” Nearly all the hands went up.

The minister smiled. “Mark has only 16 chapters. I will now proceed with my sermon on the subject of lying.”

How many cats?

Teacher: “If I gave you two cats, and another two cats, and then another two, how many would you have?”

Johnny: “Seven.”

Teacher: “No, listen carefully. If I gave you two cats, and another two cats and another two, how many would you have?”

Johnny: “Seven.”

Teacher: “Let me put it to you differently. If I gave you two apples, and another two apples and another two, how many would you have?”

Johnny: “Six.”

Teacher: “Good. Now if I gave you two cats, and another two cats, and another two, how many would you have?”

Johnny: “Seven!”

Teacher: “Johnny, where do you get seven from?”

Johnny: “Because I’ve already got a cat!”

Cities encourage healthy lifestyles

Cities are doing their part to help people stay healthy and physically fit, adding bike paths, parks, public transportation options, and “walkability.” According to Healthways, which uses scientific means to measure and encourage healthy behavior, the cities with the highest “active living environments” are:

- Boston
- San Francisco
- Chicago
- New York
- Washington, D.C.

The lowest scoring cities include Fort Wayne, Indiana; Indianapolis; Oklahoma City; and Tulsa.

Get up and work out

The alarm rings. Do you leap out of bed to head for the gym? Or hit snooze and tell yourself you’ll work out tomorrow? Motivating yourself to get up and start exercising can be tough. If you give in to temptation to skip the health club more than you’d like, try these tips to get moving:

- Watch what you eat before bedtime. A heavy snack right before you hit the mattress will make you feel lethargic in the morning. Stick to fruit, vegetables, and lean, protein-rich foods, and don’t eat anything for at least 90 minutes before you go to bed.
- Go to bed early. You’ll wake up feeling refreshed and ready to work out if you get enough sleep—seven to eight hours. Limit your TV, computer, and cellphone use before bedtime so you can get to sleep easier.
- Look forward to something. Don’t think of exercise as drudgery. Find something you enjoy about it so you wake up excited about hitting the gym, or give yourself a reward for working out once you’re finished.
- Find a workout buddy. Exercising alone can be boring. Ask around your neighborhood, workplace, or health club and find someone who works out on the same schedule you do. When you know you’ve got someone waiting for you, you’ll be more motivated to show up.
