Health insurance decisions can be confusing due to endless coverage changes and many policy types. Fortunately, there is someone who can work diligently to help and without cost to you – Michael Crotts, owner of Best Plan Choice.

Through his own healthcare experience Mr. Crotts learned the value of good health coverage and quality medical care. He dedicates his agency to helping people with Medicare and Medicaid needs. You can visit the office to learn about Medicare plan options or he will come to your home.

Every year your Medicare health plan coverage changes even if you do not change plans. Also, new products are introduced and many offer benefits beyond original Medicare and/or Medicaid plans. Baby Boomers had completely different insurance products during their working years. The indemnity and major medical policies are no longer the only choice and often do not meet the financial needs of consumers today.

Don't waste time trying to figure it out. Michael will sit with you and review all of the documents, and answer all of your questions. Most importantly, he will conduct a needs analysis to determine your individual needs – if you expect a hospitalization, use certain medicines, or want benefit like dental or vision – everything is taken into consideration.

Best Plan Choice is there to help you make the right choice and is available long after the policy is written. This means helping with doctor changes, plan questions, annual review of your benefits, and of course taking great care of any friend or family member you refer. At Best Plan Choice clients become friends, and friends become clients.

October is still hurricane season we need to make sure we have supplies on hand and our evacuation plans in place. If anyone has concerns about a neighbor, they can call the sheriff's department for a wellness check 727-582-6200, also, anyone can drop off their expired or unused medication during business hours at Operation Medicine Cabinet drop boxes located at two Sheriff's Office locations: 10750 Ulmerton Rd and 2496 Bayshore Blvd Dunedin. We will be seeking nominations for several HOA board vacancies to be announced at the October 28th meeting. We hope to see you there

Fall is almost upon us and we are gearing up for the season. Our first event is the pancake breakfast on Saturday, October 5th. The price will still be $5.00. The time is 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 am. We will be serving pecan or plain pancakes, scrambled eggs, bacon, a sweet roll, coffee and OJ. Please mark your calendars. Hope to see you there.

We are looking for some servers. If you can help please give me a call.

We are having our first carport sale on Saturday, November 16th, so start getting the items ready for the sale. We will be advertising in all the Messengers that are delivered to the parks, and fliers will be posted in those parks also. We will also be posting the sale on Craig's list and yard and garage sale sites. We will also put an ad in the Largo Leader, which covers all of Pinellas County. If you can volunteer to help please contact MaryJo Fallinske at 727 832-5956. Balloons for your mailbox will be sold on Friday, November 15th from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the clubhouse. The price is $3.00 and the people who purchase the balloons will have their name put into a drawing to win $50.00. The drawing will be on Saturday around 2:00 p.m. you need not be present to win. The tables are heavy so please bring a friend to help you load it into your vehicle. These tables are not the white clubhouse tables so please do not take any of those tables. Those tables cannot leave the clubhouse.

Halloween Golf Cart Parade

The season is starting, enough staying inside to avoid the heat! It's time to come out and enjoy your life at Oakcrest, starting with Halloween!

The Halloween Party is Saturday the 26th, but I'm here to tell you about the Halloween Golf Cart Parade, Sunday, Oct. 27th. Put your name on the sign-up sheet in the clubhouse if you want to go. It's lots of fun - get a friend and put together a Halloween golf cart!

Ingredients:

1 Golf Cart

Some Lights

And then.....

Something fun, something scary,

Something silly, something merry;

Add a Skellington or pumpkin

Add a witch or head that's shrunken!

Frankenstein or vampire bats,

Screaming ghost or hissing cats!

Line up at the clubhouse at 6:30; we're leaving at 7 p.m.
(or whenever it's dark).

For those who are going to watch, get some neighbors to join you, and some lawn chairs, and be ready to catch some candy (and dog treats).

We'll end up at the clubhouse for coffee and cookies - that's for paraders and watchers! Everyone is welcome to bring cookies to share.

Let the season begin;

HALLOWEEN! THANKSGIVING! CHRISTMAS! NEW YEARS!

See you there!

Monthly

Adopt a Dog Month. American Humane celebrates “Adopt a Dog Month” each October to help the estimated 3-4 million animals waiting in shelters every year get the loving, forever homes they deserve. Be a hero this month and adopt a dog from your local shelter or rescue group. You’ll be saving his or her life and greatly improving your own.

Eye Injury Prevention Month. Experts say that more than 90% of eye injuries can be prevented by wearing protective eyewear and taking other simple precautions. The American Academy of Ophthalmologists sponsors Eye Injury Prevention Month every October to reinforce the importance of preventing accidents and injury.

National Bullying Protection Month. Every day thousands of young people experience bullying from their peers while at school, after school, and at home through social media. There are many ways to support bullying prevention as an individual, with friends and family, and with your school or community. Go to the National Bullying Prevention Center for information and resources: <https://www.pacer.org/bullying/>

Weekly

National Walk Your Dog Week, Oct. 1–7. Forty percent of dogs—about 17 million in the United States alone—are overweight. If you walk your dog just 30 minutes a day, you (and your dog) will meet national recommendations for heart health. Make the pledge to start walking your dog at least 30 minutes a day for a week—and beyond.

Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 6–12. In a typical home fire, you may have as little as one to two minutes from the time the smoke alarm sounds to escape safely. Escape planning and practice can help you make the most of the time you have, giving everyone enough time to get out.

Earth Science Week, Oct. 13–19. The American Geosciences Institute has organized this national and international event to help the public gain a better understanding and appreciation for Earth sciences and to encourage stewardship of the Earth. This year’s Earth Science Week will celebrate the theme, “Geo-science is for Everyone.”

National Massage Therapy Awareness Week, Oct. 20–26. Years of research support the efficacy of massage therapy for the treatment of many health issues. These include massage therapy for chronic pain management, behavioral health treatment, rehabilitation/physical training, and acute medical conditions.

Collateral

During the Depression of the 1930s, an old farmer went to a bank to apply for a $500 loan.

“What are you going to do with the money?” the banker asked as he pulled out the loan application.

“Plant more soybeans,” the farmer responded.

“What have you got for collateral?”

“What’s collateral?”

“That’s something of value that would cover the cost of the loan. Have you got any vehicles?”

“Yes, a Model T Ford,” replied the farmer.

The banker shook his head, “How about livestock?”

“I have a horse.”

“How old is it?” the banker asked.

“Don’t know. It’s blind and doesn’t have any teeth,” the farmer said.

It didn’t seem like a good idea, but the banker liked the old man, so he decided to make the $500 loan.

Several months later the farmer was back in the bank. “I’m here to pay.” He handed the banker $500.

“What are you going to do with the rest of the money you made?” the banker asked.

“I’ll hide it in my mattress,” replied the farmer.

“Why don’t you deposit it in my bank?”

“How does that work?”

The banker smiled. “You put the money in our bank, and we take care of it for you.

Whenever you want to use it, you can withdraw it.”

The farmer leaned across the desk. “What you got for collateral?”

One-liners

Try these zingers at your next party:

- My dog used to chase people on a bike a lot. It got so bad. I had to take his bike away.
- I’m so good at sleeping, I can do it with my eyes closed.
- My boss told me to have a good day. So I went home.
- A woman walks into a library and asks if they have any books about paranoia. The librarian whispers, “They’re right behind you!”
- What did the pirate say when he turned 80 years old? “Aye matey!”
- Why did the old man fall in the well? Because he couldn’t see that well.
- A blind man walks into a bar. And a table. And a chair.
- I know a lot of jokes about unemployed people, but none of them work.
- My wife accused me of being immature. I told her to get out of my pillow fort.
- I ate a clock yesterday. It was time consuming.

The little puppy

A shop owner placed a sign above his door that said, “Puppies for sale.” Signs like this always have a way of attracting young children, and soon a boy saw the sign and approached the owner. “How much are you going to sell the puppies for?” he asked.

The store owner replied, “Anywhere from $30 to $50.”

The little boy pulled out some change from his pocket. “I have $2.37,” he said. “Can I please look at them?”

The shop owner smiled and whistled. Out of the kennel came Lady, who ran down the aisle of his shop followed by five teeny, tiny balls of fur.

One puppy was lagging considerably behind. Immediately the little boy singled out the lagging, limping puppy and said, “What’s wrong with that little dog?”

The shop owner explained that the veterinarian had examined the little puppy and had discovered it didn’t have a hip socket. It would always limp. It would always be lame.

The little boy became excited. “That is the puppy that I want to buy. I’ll give you $2.37 now, and 50 cents a month until I have him paid for.”

The shop owner countered, “You really don’t want to buy this little dog. He is never going to be able to run and jump and play with you like the other puppies.”

The little boy reached down and rolled up his pant leg to reveal a badly twisted left leg supported by a big metal brace. He looked up at the shop owner and replied, “I don’t run so well myself, and the little puppy will need someone who understands.”

A recipe for success

A sixth-grade girl was running for secretary of her elementary school class. A major part of her campaign was a speech to be given to her classmates, but she had no idea what to say. She asked her mother for ideas.

“Well, you love to cook,” her mom said. “Why don’t you look in a cookbook?”

It was the stupidest idea she’d ever heard, but, desperate, the young girl followed her mother’s advice. Then, flipping through the pages, it hit her: Why not write a recipe for what would make a good class secretary? Two cups of good handwriting, one cup of dependability, and so on.

She won the election. But she also learned to look in unusual places for creative solutions.

No story lives unless someone wants to listen. The stories we love best do live in us forever.

How do you like your pizza?

Pizza may be many people's favorite food, but it's not without controversy. Take, for example, the debate about pineapple and anchovies. The Food&Wine website reports on a survey by Slice, a pizza ordering platform, in which consumers were asked to rate different toppings.

With more than 9,000 responses to Slice's poll of customers, pineapple emerged as the least popular topping, rejected by 54% who said it shouldn't be considered a topping at all. Anchovies turned out to have some fans, though, principally in East Coast states. Delaware is where they're most popular—63% of residents there are willing to include them in their order, but only 1% of Kansans would do the same thing.

One thing many people agreed on, however, was breakfast. The survey found that 53% of respondents would prefer a slice of cold pizza for breakfast over juice and eggs.

Support for electric cars building

Are you ready for an electric car? If so, you've got plenty of company. According to the CleanTechnica website, a survey of 1,659 Americans planning to buy a new car in the next two years have a strong interest in electric vehicles. Thirty-one percent said they'd consider an electric vehicle for their next purchase, and 27% would think about it further in the future. Five percent said they'd definitely buy or lease one for their next vehicle.

Other findings from survey participants:

- Seventy-three percent believe increased electric cars will help reduce oil use.
- Seventy-two percent said auto manufacturers should provide a wider range of electric vehicles, including SUVs, pickup trucks, and minivans.
- Seventy-two said they think increased electric car use will help reduce pollution.
- Sixty-five percent believe electric cars will help save money on fuel and maintenance.

Pet insurance on the rise

The North American Pet Health Insurance Association reports that total premiums for pet insurance have hit a new level, reaching $1.42 billion in 2018.

In the United States, pet insurance increased 18% for 2.43 million pets. In Canada, the rate grew 10.9% for 277,000 pets. The most common coverage was for accident and illness plans. Accident and illness premiums for dogs came in at $566 yearly in the U.S., and $734 in Canada. For cats, the U.S. premium was $354, and the Canadian rate was $400.
