EDITOR'S CORNER: Honoring Veterans

By Susan Kerr, Editor

Florida has the third highest population of veterans in the country, with 1.5 million veterans; 66,683 in the 13th Congressional District, which includes Largo, Clearwater and St. Petersburg.

On November 11, we will pause to honor and acknowledge all veterans. Truly, there should be a monthlong acknowledgement, rather than one day.

November 11 is the anniversary of the signing of the armistice in 1918, which ended the World War I hostilities between the Allied nations and Germany. The first Armistice Day was in 1919, when President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed the day should be “filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country’s service and with gratitude for the victory.” The day eventually became known as Veterans Day to honor all those who served in the U.S. Military. In Canada November 11 is known as Remembrance Day.

Some wars may not end in a declared victory. Still, our military members perform heroic deeds, not the least of which is to set aside their own lives to sacrifice themselves in service to our country. Many are young, and give up years and life passages that their non-veteran peers take for granted. Those years and experiences change them forever, sometimes robbing them of experiences they can never replicate in their lives. The time is gone.

For some, the effects of their experiences surface throughout their later lives, with many suffering lifelong health issues related to their service locations or exposures from their jobs.

Many experiences of service are unique and wonderful with veterans gaining lifelong friends, education, training and newfound careers. Some have mixed experiences. On the other end of that spectrum, many suffer through what is called the “horrors of war”, when people are faced with killing or being killed, when “normal” is a distant memory, when isolation never goes away, when staying alive is the only goal at that moment. Not many of us stand on that precipice. Not many of us ever feel that loneliness, that danger, or the power of courage and action that propel a person to selfless heroism or simply to do what it takes to survive.

As a group, an estimate by the Veterans Administration indicates there are an estimated 18 million veterans alive today. More than 42 million men and women have served since the first shots were fired April 19, 1775 in Concord and Lexington, MA, the start of military engagements in the Revolutionary War.

Add to that number all the mothers, fathers, spouses, children and relatives of those veterans. That is a significant portion of the U.S. population whose lives have been affected by military service – the loved ones and the veterans themselves who interrupted their lives to serve their country and to serve all the citizens of the United States.

If, for math purposes, we add another eight people minimum per veteran affected by his or her service – two parents, one spouse, two children, two siblings, that comes to 336 million people over the 245 years of our history. That is five million more people than currently live in the United States, the world’s third most populous country. If you add eight other people to the 18 estimated million veterans alive today, that is 144 million people.

Yes, one day of acknowledgement each year is not enough.

This month, the cover of THE LINK features a statue of a Navy sailor at attention and in salute. This statue stands sentry in a driveway at a home in Palm Hill. Every time I see him, I reflect on the meaning of service and duty that this sentry represents.

Most of us know a veteran or have veterans in our families. Their stories are important, especially those who served during a war or in a combat situation or war theater, but all the stories are important.

We know many of those stories through films or from veterans who share their stories, or teach others about military service. But many stories are closed off to us because the veterans hold them tight, as the stories are sad, or the veterans are confused, ashamed or afraid to revisit those memories, or they just wish to keep those stories to themselves. Television documentaries show veterans in their 80s or 90s whose eyes tear, and whose voices tremble or choke up as they reflect on their service time many years ago.

The phrase “heroes walk among us” is meaningful when you look around yourself, and wonder who in your small area of the world was called upon to follow orders into danger, complete a mission, to save someone, to lead others into the unknown, to hurt or kill someone to save someone else, or to see a fellow soldier, sailor or airman die. They don’t always talk about it.

At the Georgia Veterans Park in in Cordele, Georgia, not far from the national site of the Andersonville Civil War prison and cemetery, a small museum tells the story of all America’s wars. With medals and maps, tatters of uniforms, flags (some with faded blood stains), weapons, photos and narratives, a visitor can start with the American Revolution and move through all the wars right up to the present.

The most impact comes from short stories of the Georgia veterans who were given the Medal of Honor. As you read the descriptions of what they did, you are at the scene with them, and wonder how they did what they did. Then, you turn to the other sections of the museum, war after war, through all the years of our country's history. And you sense the immense weight of the stories of the people who stepped in to serve during times of conflict and war.

Major Steven Pless received the Medal of Honor for his daring helicopter rescue of wounded Americans. Pless, a native of Newnan, Ga., was assigned to the First Marine Aircraft Wing. On Aug. 19, 1967, near Quang Ngai, Vietnam, he responded to an emergency call from a nearby beach. When he got there, he found over 30 enemy soldiers overwhelming a small group of wounded Americans. He proceeded to launch a devastating attack, the aircraft flying so low that it had to fly through the debris created by the explosions. Pless then used the gunship as a shield to pick up the wounded. Dangerously overloaded, the aircraft bounced off the water four times before becoming airborne.

Sgt. Rodney Davis (1942-1967) born in Macon, Georgia. Davis was awarded the Medal of Honor for giving his life by throwing himself on a hand grenade to save his comrades. Davis, assigned to the First Marine Division, was directing the defense of his platoon near Da Nang on Sept. 6, 1967.

Walking recently through that museum in Cordele, Georgia, it struck me that every community or at least every state should have such a museum to remember their heroes and keep alive the memories of all the sacrifices made during our wars, and to honor all who serve.

These museums show us an essential truth: Freedom isn't free.

To every veteran: Thank you for your service.

(The Veterans History Project within the Library of Congress' American Folklife Center collects, preserves, and makes accessible the personal accounts of American war veterans so that future generations may hear directly from veterans and better understand the realities of war. To participate or view or read personal veteran stories, go to <https://www.loc.gov/vets/kit.html>.)

THOUGHT WORTH THINKING: Don't give up the ship.

REMEMBER TO VOTE NOVEMBER 3 at your polling place.

OR, return your vote-by-mail ballot to one of the supervisor of elections offices by 7 p.m. on election day.

A SOLDIER'S STORY: IS THIS REALLY SPRING

By John Caputo, of Palm Hill and Boston, United States Army Retired, Vietnam Veteran

John Caputo, 1969, with the 9th Infantry Division during the Vietnam War

Feeling cold under my camouflage blanket
Missing my family and friends back in the real world
Wondering if this Spring will erase my memories of
The things I've done in Nam

Horrified by the constant deaths and wasted youth
Of young lives who will never see a Spring again
Numbd by the beauty of Spring in Nam
Terrified of dying in this forgotten land of horror.

Crying and praying for those who died beside me
That beautiful Spring day with the birds chirping
Knowing that I will never be the same person
That naïve kid from Southie who just didn't know
That war is hell on earth even in Spring

(The above was taken from a poem, "Is This Really Spring", that is part of a collection of writings by John Caputo: "It Ain't Nothing", Thoughts from Vietnam; Stories, Poems and a Few Laughs. John is a part-time Palm Hill resident from Boston, and spent many years trying to heal from the experiences and injuries he endured during his military service in Vietnam. Thinking, writing and talking about his experiences have helped him and many others whom he has guided in his careers as a teacher, counselor, coach and school administrator.)

DID YOU KNOW?

While the six branches of the military whose emblems are depicted above are often considered our full armed military force, it may not be widely known that two other branches are also part of the eight branches of the U.S. Uniformed Services whose officers are called upon in times of war or crisis. They are the U.S. Public Health Service (PHS) and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA). Both branches are made up entirely of commissioned officers who are eligible for the same or similar veterans benefits as the veterans of the armed forces. NOAA is the smallest of the uniformed services, with just 321 officers, 16 ships, and 10 aircraft. The Public Health Service has 6,000 officers.

While the PHS and NOAA officers are labeled noncombatants, they can be lent to the Armed Services and they wear Navy or Coast Guard uniforms and hold Navy or Coast Guard ranks. The PHS mission, whose head is the U.S. Surgeon General, is to deliver public health and disease prevention expertise at home and abroad as well as to disaster areas and areas affected by U.S. military operations. NOAA is a rapid response force, shuttling experts where they need to be in quick succession while supporting peacetime research.

Personal Planning: As you have a Hurricane Plan, consider creating a Coronavirus Plan.

An example:

- A one-page document can contain: Selfie of you, contact info/phone number or email for family or personal emergency contact info, your medical conditions info, your medication list, your doctor's name and number. Share with your family members.
- Insert this document in an envelope marked with large bold letters: "EMERGENCY MEDICAL INFO/RX LIST".
- Consider putting it in a conspicuous place, perhaps taped to your refrigerator door, which will make a handy grab if you have to leave your home for medical care or are ordered to evacuate your home in an emergency.
- Email the document as an attachment to your own email so you always have accessible in your cell-phone.
- (Hurricane plans would include quick access to critical documents/information that you may need for any extended relocation.)

GENERATIONS LIST

Carolyn Story: 727-585-1579

Palm Hill continues to attract generation after generation of residents. Once the clubhouses are reopened, you should check the Generations List in both clubhouses -- and on the Palm Hill website -- to see how true that is. There are 81 people currently on the list, including six families of 3rd Generation and one family of 4th Generation. If you are a descendant of someone who lived in Palm Hill previously, or who is a current resident, please contact Carolyn Story at 727-585-1579. This list is updated periodically and it would be good to have you included.

EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES – EXCEPT AS NOTED BELOW AND IN THE CALENDAR – ARE CANCELLED.

Resumption of activities and listings of events will be reported in the LINK, via Webmaster email and on Channel 732.

Please stay alert to announcements, and check with the listed organizers before assuming the “usual” events or activities are being rescheduled. The calendar and approved event/activity announcements are also on the Palm Hill website: palmhillcountryclub.net.

Please note: Event/activity leaders or organizers whose names are listed with a particular activity: please contact the LINK (linktopalmhill@gmail.com) when changes are necessary in the information: changes in the name of the listed organizers, changes in times or dates, offerings, etc. Otherwise, the listing from the prior month’s LINK will be carried over to the next month.

LADIES GOLF ASSOCIATION

VP Jessie Walcott (Acting President.) 727-288-7521 or email jessijow1@yahoo.com

Welcome to all the Snowbirds who have made their way back to Palm Hill. It is with regret that I am announcing that the November meeting and all planned events for this winter will be cancelled until further notice. The safety and well-being of our members is our first concern. It takes a lot of planning and volunteers to carry off our big events and quite a few of our members will not be making it down for this winter. There will still be Ladies Golf on Fridays for those who wish to play. Information about Friday women's association play sign ups, pairings and time slots will be issued at a later date.

MEN'S GOLF ASSOCIATION

Bill Mattingly, VP, email: Billmattingly2299@twc.com

As per Palm Hill guidelines, all Men's Golf Association functions have been cancelled. We look forward to returning to past activities and meetings as soon as possible.

However, changes have occurred with the Association and there are now two vacant board seats. Wayne Marshall has resigned his position as president and Don Rice has resigned his position as secretary. Both resignations were influenced by Covid travel restrictions and regulations. Both Wayne and Don have expressed disappointment and are looking forward to returning to Palm Hill as soon as possible. We look forward to resuming all the fun activities related to the Association (including the Bandits) and working with the Ladies Golf Association.

Association dues, activities and the filling of vacant positions on the Men's Golf Association board will be discussed at a future meeting (date to be determined). Stay tuned for information. If there is other business or news that needs attention, please notify me at my email billmattingly2299@twc.com.

As a sidebar, it is noted that John Brauchler, Ken Keller and Lawrence Lotz had holes in one last spring, and Bill Wenske had a hole in one on September 25. Ken's was his first hole in one. Congratulations to all four men.

Thanks to everyone for your considerations.

BOOK CLUB RECOMMENDATIONS

Stay tuned for announcements about the book club meetings listed below.

Susan Fisher, 813-312-3872, susantfisher11@aol.com

With social distancing and the clubhouses being closed, we were not able to do the April 2020 book discussion on “Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine”. It will be worked into the schedule listed below, or the book and discussion will be substituted for one of the dates listed.

We are listing these for next season with the great hope they will give you reading enjoyment during your extra time in social distancing as long as it lasts, and that things will be back to normal by the time this schedule goes into effect in November. You can get these books free from the Largo Library as an e-book with a free app on your smart phone or tablet and a library card.

HELPING SERVICES AT PALM HILL

Ted Silva, 508-965-6072

GEORGEANNE'S HELPING HANDS

Georgeanne's Helping Hands will be slowly trying to resume some medical transport services to Palm Hill residents.

That means if you require transportation to a medical appointment, we will attempt to offer transportation if needed. Call 508-965-6072. Unfortunately, there are no guarantees that we will be able to provide it. We need to know as early as possible before the appointment so that we can alert you well in advance if no one is available.

Many of our usual volunteers are up north, basking in the less than 95-degree temperatures. Many of the other volunteers here are still very vigilant, following the CDC guidelines and re-restricting contact for everyone's safety. Palm Hill is just slowly starting to open and GHH is also going to, but with extreme caution.

We are still encouraging residents who cannot get to the grocery store to shop "on-line" with home delivery either through Publix, Walmart or any other stores which offer the service. However, if you need something else please call me (Ted Silva) and we will try to find a solution that is safe.

PRAYER TEAM

With the significant restrictions on religious services and church attendance (and thanks to our volunteers) Georgeanne’s Helping Hands is pleased to be able to offer a new service: PRAYER TEAM. If you have a need, we have individual volunteers in the park offering to pray with you. The Prayer Team in Palm Hill is Claudia Hartz, Maureen Livers and Bonnie Swanson. Please call Claudia at 315-368-8166 if you have any questions. All social distancing guidelines will be followed.

“PALM HILL CALLING”

The purpose of the project is to make sure that everyone has contact with someone at least once a day. Most people have friends or neighbors and they routinely check on each other. We now have at least forty “clients” who receive a call from a Palm Hill volunteer.

Palm Hill Calling is available to anyone interested in having this service whether you are a shareholder or renter, full time or seasonal. If you would like to be on our call list and have someone check on you once each day please call Hope Barina at 727-475-7574.

There is no charge for any services from the Helping Hands volunteers, and we do not accept any monetary “tips.” If we can help you, or you can help Helping Hands, please call Ted Silva at 508-965-6072.

MESCO – SERVICES CLOSED

Linda Simon, 727-559-0164

No return items are being accepted at this time. If you need to return an item or need equipment please call 559-0164.

Religious Community Services (RCS) Food Drive

From Charlotte Ernest, 727-585-5845

RCS is picking up food donations from the Park at the South Clubhouse. The North Clubhouse opens November 1 (accessible by fob Monday through Friday, hours 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.) and donations may be made in the barrel that will be located there.

The South Clubhouse is accessible by using your fob from 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday.

RCS picks up the LAST Thursday of each month.

Please wear a mask and sign in at the lobby. There are masks available if you don't have one.

Thank you for your patience during these trying times.

(RCS is the Religious Community Services of Pinellas County, which helps feed the needy of the area.)

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

Peggy Novara, 716-903-2844 and 727-581-6739

Call Largo Police at 727-587-6730 to report suspicious activity. Dial 911 for an emergency or a crime in progress.

Largo Police Department Crime Prevention Officer Vu Tran said there were several other communities near Palm Hill that had incidents around the same time period in April that Palm Hill had crime incidents. He said one community had 3x more “crimes of opportunity” in two weeks.

A crime of opportunity is a crime that is committed because the perpetrator sees they have the chance to commit a crime, such as: dark surroundings, unlocked cars, carts, bikes, homes. Largo Police Department advises all residents to be vigilant.

Leave outdoor lights on at night, use a light timer overnight inside your home, keep doors and cars locked at all times and always be alert.

(A discussion on the Message Board on the Palm Hill website provides examples of how residents’ use of driveway cameras can provide video evidence for police.)

MORTON PLANT TRANSPORTATION SERVICE – During the pandemic, volunteer services were suspended.

For the following services or a special circumstance, call the reservation line and leave a message at 727-461-8548: chemo infusion, radiation therapy or active wound therapy.

When the service resumes: Morton Plant's free Care Van Services Mondays through Fridays 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. is available to Palm Hill residents.

No charge for transportation to the following Morton Plant-related medical facilities:

Axelrod Pavilion, BayCare Laboratories, Cheek-Powell Heart and Vascular Institute, Morton Plant Hospital Campus, Ptak Orthopaedic and Neuroscience Institute, Turley Family Health Center.

AVOID FLORIDA PROBATE COURT

ATTENTION: OUT-OF-STATE RESIDENTS, CANADIAN CITIZENS, AND FLORIDA RESIDENTS

Steps should be taken to avoid Florida Probate Court on your Florida Home, your Lease and your Park Share.

Don't leave your family with a legal mess!
