The Hurricane Preparedness article in this month's Link summarizes the high points of the presentations made during Largo Fire Rescue's annual hurricane preparedness event. There were only a few Palm Hill residents at the event -- perhaps a half-dozen -- so it seemed to us important to provide at least the key points most applicable to Palm Hill.

Presentations were made by eight key city and county officials and by Mike Clay, Bay News 9's chief meteorologist, who we all will rely on -- plus members of his staff -- in the event of a hurricane.

One sub-theme that ran throughout the presentations was that going to one of the public shelters should be a last resort. Presenters referred to them as places where each person might have little more than a 2-by-5 foot space, where restrooms become odorous and unkept, behavior unregulated, noise uncontrolled, etc. An oft-repeated phrase: "A shelter is a lifeboat, not a cruise ship."

Presenters repeatedly cited the desirability of finding refuge in what we mobile home dwellers sometimes refer to as a "real house." Or, if that's not possible, perhaps a local church or civic organization can be found. Or, leave the area.

If the decision is to leave the area, presenters emphasized that the departure should be made before any formal evacuation order is issued. They pointed to the horrendous traffic jams last year when Irma was expected to slam into us with major force; many people made last-minute decisions to leave, and highways became parking lots.

Your Editors can testify to the validity of that last point. We left the area early and drove north on Interstate 75 in traffic that was normal. Only a day later, we sat comfortably in our hotel in Atlanta and saw on TV bumper-to-bumper traffic jams on I-75. Not everyone is going to leave, but if you are, leave early.

A final point emphasized by the presenters: If you choose to seek safety in a local hotel/motel, make sure it is not in an evacuation zone, lest you move once, then must move again. And, ask whether it has emergency electrical power. Many, the presenters said, don't, so when the electricity goes out the air-conditioning disappears, TV is useless and there's no way to charge cell phones or any other devices.

Last month's appeal for the identities of "Palm Hill Pioneers" drew some immediate response. Your Editors are now in the process of interviews, and hope that the proposed series can begin soon. Meanwhile, please continue to identify yourselves or others. We don't want to begin the series until we're reasonably confident that the first person/couple featured really will be the the one/ones who have lived here the longest.

HURRICANE PREPAREDNESS

A wealth of information was presented at Largo Fire Rescue's recent Hurricane Preparedness Event. Here are some highlights, with particular focus on the particular needs and concerns of Palm Hill.

One of the major points made by presenters is that when any mandatory evacuation order is issued, the order applies to all mobile homes, so Palm Hill always is included.

Along with that point, presenters made clear that while "mandatory" doesn't mean that authorities are going to force anyone to leave their home, the mandatory order does have great significance. It means that anyone who chooses to stay in place despite the evacuation order needs to understand that if they need help from fire or police, that help might not be available.

For example, presenters said that when winds reach between 30 and 35 miles per hour, transportation to general shelters and to special needs shelters stops. And when winds reach 45 to 65 miles per hour, the fire department and the police are unable to answer calls for assistance.

One of the pieces of information presented that applies particularly to Palm Hill is that there is specific assistance available for those with special needs, such as oxygen concentrator use, limited mobility such as wheelchair use, moderate/middle stage memory impairment, adult incontinence, or other needs.

There are three special needs shelters in Pinellas County, apart from the general public shelters, and the assistance available includes transportation to those shelters.

In addition to providing transportation to special needs shelters, transportation also is provided to residents who require transportation to a general shelter.

Presenters emphasized that those who have special needs must register to get the help that the program provides. And, they emphasized, people should register now, not wait until a hurricane is headed our way or is forming and could head our way.

Also, those without special needs but who need transportation to a general shelter must register before a hurricane is upon us.

To register, go www.pinellascounty.org/emergency or call Pinellas County Emergency Management at 727-464-3800. Once registered, you will find out -- ahead of time -- whether you qualify for the special needs program.

Also of particular interest for those Palm Hill residents who have pets: Pets are allowed in only a few shelters, but it may be possible to get help for pets if the pet owner makes prior arrangements. More information about that can be found at the website and phone number cited in the paragraph above.

The day's theme could be summed up like this: Help is available, but it must be asked for ahead of time.

HURRICANE REMINDERS

In the event of a hurricane, remember that the first priority of our maintenance staff is to ensure that the Palm Hill common areas -- the clubhouses and other facilities -- are secured. Items outside homes that could become airborne in high winds should be secured by homeowners.

If circumstances permit, the staff will pick up small items that have been left outside homes, such as plants, statues, tool, lawn furniture, etc. The staff will take those items to the maintenance area, but they cannot be responsible for the items' fate.

Also, Carmen Foti asked The Link to again let it be known that he will be available to help anyone who needs it. He is at 826 Coconut, phone 973-773-7647.

A WORD ABOUT FLAGS

Harry Chambers, a retired Army first sergeant, asked The Link to remind everyone that while it's wonderful to see U.S. flags displayed on Palm Hill homes, it's distressing to him -- and others -- if the flags are torn, worn or otherwise damaged.

Harry urges everyone to replace flags that need replacing, and offers to pick up and properly dispose of worn flags at services conducted by local military organizations.

He can be reached at 727-276-5559 and at his home, 2 Frangipani Circle.

Harry adds: "Having lost 27 friends in Vietnam who died for freedom and democracy, it tears my heart to observe our flag not being cared for."

RCS

Charlotte Ernest 727-585-5845

The RCS barrels are looking a little slim this past month, but Palm Hill is pretty empty. The good thing is it's almost time for our Northern friends to be returning and we'll be glad to have them back.

Soon Palm Hill will start bustling with activity and we will have LOTS of volunteers again-----won't we !!

Remember, when you come to Coffee on Monday and Wednesday, bring a cup for your coffee and a can for the RCS barrel !!

THE BAZAAR

Rick Campbell, Director

Donations are being accepted now for the Bazaar. Clothing, crafts, furniture, jewelry, electronics and household items are sought. You can drop off donations at the South Clubhouse laundry room, or contact one of the volunteers to arrange pickup.

Please note that the Bazaar cannot accept computer monitors, mattresses, box springs or TVs, but we now are accepting infant and toddler items.

For pickups, contact:

Carmen Foti 973-773-7647

Mel Silcox 419-360-8301

HELPING HANDS

Ted Silva 508-965-6072

Summer hopefully is cooling down and all of us snowbirds will start heading back in the next few months. At this point we have a limited number of dedicated volunteers taking care of the needs of Palm Hill. If you would like to become a volunteer yourself please call me.

We provide transportation to doctors visits, eye exams, bank trips, grocery shopping, beauty parlor, whatever else.

And, we also try to arrange for "comfort visits" to our residents who live alone, or maybe can't get out and might just like to have someone come by to visit. If you want someone to stop by occasionally, or know someone who would like to have a visit, please call.

Helping Hands does not charge for any service, and volunteers do not accept any "tips" of any kind.

If there's no answer when you call, leave a message. If you don't get a response in a reasonable time, please call Carl Simon at 727-475-0489.

Anyone in Palm Hill who needs medical equipment should contact one of this month's MESCO volunteers to see whether what's needed is available. If it is, the person who needs it will be able to use it free of charge for as long as the person is a Palm Hill resident.

Some examples of available equipment: walkers, shower seats, toilet seat extenders, wheel chairs, commodes, etc. Whatever the need, inquire!

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

GENERATIONS LIST

Carolyn Story 727-585-1579

Palm Hill continues to attract generation after generation of residents. Check the Generations List in both clubhouses -- and on the Palm Hill website -- to see how true that is. There are 81 people currently on the list, including six families of 3rd Generation and one family of 4th Generation. If you are a descendant of someone who lived in Palm Hill previously, or who is a current resident, please contact me. I update this list periodically and would like to have you included.

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

The Palm Hill Neighborhood Watch program works directly with the Largo Police gathering the facts about any crime in our neighborhood. Neighborhood Watch does not assume the role of the police, but asks neighbors to be alert, observant, and caring. The more the police are aware of, the better they can continue to protect us.

Please: Always call Largo Police to report suspicious activity 727-587-6730.

Dial 911 for an emergency or a crime in progress.

We would also like to remind all residents to leave outdoor lights on at night, keep doors and cars locked at all times and to continue to be alert. Palm Hill is a very safe community – and with your continued help it will stay that way.
