Paradise Island Website

By Harold Noeller

The link to 'Recent Activities' was updated to show activity pictures on one page instead of the previous slide show the first of November starting with the pictures provided for the Halloween Dance. I have tried since to get pictures of any activities thereafter to post on the web site. The web site address is: www.paradiseislandlargo.com.

If anyone wishes to submit pictures of an activity that will be of interest to our residents, please email them to me at: monthy.media@paradiseislandlargo.com with a brief description and I will put them up for all to see.

Should anyone have constructive ideas for the web site, please let me know.

2017 in Retrospect

By Marcia White

appy New Year!!
Wow what a year we had. 2017 was a very busy year for our Social Committee. We had several changes this year in our officers, directors and chairpersons, and we are very happy to welcome all the new volunteers to the committee. We were able to provide a program for 9 months out of the 12 last year and I consider that a huge feat. We also were able to provide the men's club with a new stage that is considerably easy for the men to assemble and disassemble at the end of a program. We were able to support some new programs as well, so all in all 2017 was a very successful year for the Social Committee.

Thank You to each and every resident who helped us out during 2017. We couldn't do what we do without the help you give us throughout the year. I am very proud to be your neighbor in such a giving community.

2018 looks to be just as busy and hopefully just as much fun for all. Check your media each month for the new programs being sponsored for you, and save as many dates as you can to join us. The media calendar is also a great place to find the events you're interested in. We hope to see even more of our residents join us in 2018. We are looking forward to meeting more of our new residents this year.

Warm Regards, Marcia White

SAVE THE DATE: All Park Brainstorming Meeting

n Wednesday February 21, 2018 at 7:00 pm the boards of both the HOA and the Co-op will join together in the clubhouse to get your ideas on how we can make Paradise Island an even better place to live. For example, you may think that plantings in a certain area would make a difference. So come with your constructive ideas (leave the complaints at home!) and join us to share ideas on how we can improve our community. See you there!

Scams And Frauds

From Largo Police Bulletin

ake Amazon gift cards, phony Wal-Mart sites and other cyber scams tempt Susan Tompor, Detroit Free Press Personal Finance Columnist Published 10:00 a.m.
ET Nov. 17, 2017

1) Stop chasing any and all deals

"We live in an age where we have all these push notifications and emails," said Steve Koenig, senior director of market research at the Consumer Technology Association, a trade group in Arlington, Va. The volume of such activity during the holidays, he said, only makes consumers even more vulnerable to clicking on a $100 coupon before thinking twice. "We're all moving super fast, we get distracted," said Tim Helming, director of product management at Domain Tools. When we're rushing, we might not notice that the website in an email has an odd name.

Brands that continue to be spoofed include Amazon, Wal-Mart and Target. Other brands that are commonly targeted include PayPal, Yahoo and Apple. Helming told me that consumers need to be wary of fake sites that play up the "Black Friday" frenzy. Dozens of malicious domain registrations that touted a Black Friday connection cropped up last year beginning around Nov. 20, and he'd expect the same this year, too.

2) Learn how to spot a fake

Watch out for a domain decorated with a few extra, possibly even reassuring words or odd spellings. Domain Tools listed some brand-abusing domains that have a dot-com at the end but they're still frauds, such as Amazon secure-shop, Target-official site or Wal-Mart.. Other fakes include: Amazonshop.gq or Target home. Today or Walmart-outlet.ga. Helming said domains that include a hyphen and words such as shop or secure can be good clues to a phony site, as many brand names use their names alone for their sites. Other words in a fake URL site that appears to be connected to a well-known name might be something like outlet, discounts or deals. Many times, the fraudsters use words like "official site" to make their fake sites look legitimate. Or there might be extra letters, such as "Yahoo" or "Wal-Mart." Take care on social media. Phishes can use of "URL shortening" services to obfuscate phishing URLs. As a result a very short URL, can be used in Tweets, which automatically redirect the visitor to a longer "hidden" URL, according to the Anti-Phishing Working Group's research.

3) Recognize the risks of rushing

Consumers who click on the links or visit malicious sites are typically unknowingly handing over their name, ad-dress, and credit card information. Never click on links in emails or social media to go to a retailer's website. A better bet: Take a few extra seconds to go directly to the site yourself. Be sure to take a second look at all URLs.

4) Ask yourself why would Amazon be sending you a free gift card? Really?

Yes, one of those free $50 Amazon gift cards popped up in my email the other day. Of course, it's a spoofed email. So I just hit delete. Amazon is warning consumers that phishing emails will direct you to a "false website that looks similar to the Amazon website, where you might be asked to provide account information such as your e-mail ad-dress and password combination." The fake sites can steal sensitive information that can be used without your knowledge to commit fraud, according to Amazon. Phishes can steal usernames and passwords from one site to engage in fraud on other sites. Too many consumers carelessly use the exact same usernames and passwords across different sites. Amazon doesn't send emails that ask for your Social Security number, bank account information, PIN, or your Amazon.com password.

5) As you order gifts online, don't get tripped up by fake email alerts

As holiday shipping goes up in November and December, the frequency of phishing emails relating to orders or shipments goes up, too. Wal-Mart warns that if you received an order confirmation email from Wal-Mart but never placed such an order, it may be a "phishing scam attempting to gather information, or in some cases, spread mal-ware." FedEx warns consumers about a "delivery failure" scam email. Fraudulent emails claiming to be from FedEx or the U.S. Postal Service "regarding a package that could not be delivered." The consumer is then asked to open an attachment in order to obtain the invoice needed to pick up their package. The attachment in the email may contain a virus. Don't just rush and assume there's trouble with something that you ordered. "Be suspicious of incoming email from unknown or unsolicited sources, especially those that have attachments as well as hyperlinks," said Jeremy Stempien, detective for the City of Novi, Mich., and a special federal deputy marshal for the Southeast Michigan Financial Crimes Task Force. "The same should apply to incoming phone calls," he said.

appy New Year Neighbors! What a great Christmas season we had. It was very festive with all the parties and the cold weather even made it feel like Christmas. Thank you to all the volunteers who worked together to make all these events happen. This is what Paradise Island was meant to be. A community of neighbors working together to have fun and enjoy retirement life. We are all one community. This is a new year and new mind set in the community. We want to all be referred to as RESIDENTS. HOA members are not "renters". We all own homes in Paradise Island. We all invested money in this community and we all care about the community. The Co-Op Board and HOA Board have been working together to build a closer respectful relationship so that all will benefit.

Mark your calendars for February 21, 2018 for the Town hall meeting. For the first time in a long time everyone in the community will be given a chance to be heard. We want to hear great ideas and suggestions from you on how to make this community even better.

The tree pruning program is going nicely. We had approximately just over 70 owners take advantage of this program. Our tree vendor The Tree Feller of Pinellas (727) 348-2768 has begun trimming. It was so nice to see so many Co-Op members take advantage of our vendors reduced prices. For those in the community that missed the deadlines for this program can still use the services of the vendor. He is a certified tree arborist licensed and insured. His prices are fantastic. Give him a call for a proposal.

I'm sure everyone has had the opportunity to see the beautifully newly remodeled kitchen in the clubhouse. The HOA donated $1500 to change the long counter on the wall by the bathrooms to match the kitchen counters.

The HOA yearly meeting will be on the 21st this one time only. There was a scheduling conflict with the clubhouse and we agreed to move our meeting.

We are having issues with residents following the rules and the leases. Take out your rules and leases we all signed to live here and read them again. The HOA Board will not back anyone having problems because you broke the rules whether you were aware of the rule or not. Everyone in this community has to follow the rules. You cannot allow someone to move into your home without the permission of the management office. Parking on the sidewalks is not allowed. Blocking the view of drivers at stop signs is not allowed. Going through stop signs, speeding....READ YOUR RULES. If management has to continually seek the assistance of the lawyers to stop you our rents are going higher and higher.

Remember the new lot rents are due this month. Refer to the letter you received in October for your new amount.

Paradise Island Annual Flea Market

By Marcia White

ur Flea Market will be held this year on Saturday March 3, 2018. As most of you know this is one of the biggest events we do here in Paradise Island and we hope to continue that tradition again in 2018.

We will accept donations on Friday March 2, 2018 at the clubhouse while we are setting up. Both of our storage sheds are filled to capacity due to the generosity of our residents who have been donating since last March. If you want to donate any items, and are willing to store them for us until March 2, 2018 we will be happy to pick them up for you or if they are smaller donations you can bring them directly to the clubhouse for us. We rent a U Haul to pick up large donations and furniture the day before the market so if you need to arrange a pick up please call either Marcia or Jim White, at 727-953-3616 to be put on the pick- up list.

Because of the lack of storage space we will not be picking up any donations until March 2, 2018

For anyone wishing to participate by renting table space please call Marcia. All tables are $10 per 6'table space. All wall spaces, which include electric, are $15 per 6' space. Tables sell out quickly so reserve your space early. All calls will be returned within 48 hours in the event you need to leave a message. Anyone previous participants will receive an email early this month with your event information and the new contract. You will be given first priority for table selection. Any remaining Tables will be publicly advertised in Feb.

We will need as many volunteers as possible for unloading the storage sheds on Friday March 2, 2018 so please save the date to help us out. We start at 9:00 am, right after we set up the tables for everyone.

Thank You all in advance for helping out. You are so appreciated.

Thanksgiving Thank You!

By Marcia White

hanksgiving dinner was served to 225 residents and a great time was had by all. By all reports dinner was served hot and everyone enjoyed their meal. We wish to Thank the Co-op, the HOA and our very own Social Committee for their generous donations to pay for the meal.

I also need to Thank everyone who stepped up to help, which includes the men's club for setting up for us and resetting at the end, the great servers who did a fabulous job, the staff in the kitchen who plated all the meals and to those who prepared the meal, Thank You for donating your time to make this a special day for all. Most of all I need to Thank Frank Toner who generously stepped up to help us clean up the kitchen after the meal was served. Clean up is the biggest job in serving a large number of people so his offer to help was greatly appreciated by those of us who had already spent 2 days in the kitchen cooking and preparing the meal.

Let us not forget those who donated food to our food pantry. Thank you for sharing on this day for giving Thanks. We are so thankful to live in such a caring community. God Bless you all.
