JULY 4TH HOLIDAY AT POINTE WEST

INDEPENDENCE DAY, also known as “,the Forth of July” is a Federal Holiday in the USA, commemorating the Declaration of Independence of the United States on July 4, 1776. The Continental Congress declared their independence from Great Britain for the thirteen American Colonies. We were united, free and independent states. The Congress had voted to declare independence two days earlier on July 2, but it was not declared until July 4, 1776.

July 4th is traditionally associated with fireworks, parades, picnics, fairs, and celebrations. We at Pointe West will be celebrating on:

GAME NIGHT AT POINTE WEST

This summer a group of us are trying something new. Every Monday evening at 6:30p.m. we are gathering at the clubhouse to have a game night. The first night was successful. We had 15 people and we separated into three groups of five to play dominos. We all brought a light snack to share. We supply our own drinks other than coffee. We will play various games that can be suggested at Game Night. Come out and enjoy your summer with us, “Year Rounders”. Hope to see you there.

MEMORIAL DAY

On May 27th we celebrated Memorial Day at Pointe West. At 9a.m. in the morning we held a ceremony to honor those who gave their life for us to enjoy the freedoms we have. At 1p.m. we gathered together to have a picnic and following the picnic we viewed the new film by Peter Jackson, “They Shall Not Grow Old”. It was a solemn ceremony in the morning and light-hearted picnic in the afternoon.

The original day was known as “Declaration Day”. It is unclear where the tradition originated, and many different communities may have independently started the memorial gatherings before it became nationwide.

Waterloo, New York, which is where the first official Memorial Day was celebrated on May 30, 1866. On this day it was hosted as an annual community-wide event. At that time the businesses and residents decorated the graves of soldiers with flowers and flags. This tradition continues today.

It is interesting to note, that it was not proclaimed a federal holiday by a president. On May 5, 1868, General John A. Logan, Leader of the “North Civil War Veterans”, called for a national day of remembrance for all those who gave their lives in the Civil War.

As time passed, Declaration Day was renamed Memorial Day to honor all American military personnel who died in all wars.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

Early birds versus night owls—who's better off?

The early bird gets the worm, and early risers enjoy other benefits, according to a story on the New York Post website. A survey of sleep habits involving 2,000 people found that, among other things, self-identified early birds have more sex on a weekly basis than their night owl counterparts.

The survey also found that early birds generally make more money, are more likely to work in an office setting, and describe themselves as happy. They're also more likely to be married with children in their home. On the other hand, night owls are typically shy and sarcastic, likely to believe in ghosts and cryptids, and more often single.

They tend to sleep about the same amount—seven hours a night for early birds and six hours for night owls. However, early birds are light sleepers, and they feel more well-rested when they get up than night owls.

Disconnecting may not lead to the benefits you're looking for Ever feel the need to disconnect from your devices for a “digital detox”? The Yahoo Finance website reported on a survey by Mojo Vision (Saratoga, California), which found that people tend to use technology as much, if not more, after distancing themselves from their smartphones and tablets for a while.

The survey of 1,000 Americans found that 67 percent agree that technology makes life easier, but 55 percent believe that all that tech is a distraction, with one-third worrying that it hurts people's ability to connect with one another. Still, 54 percent said that abstaining from their devices didn't produce the positive benefits they'd hoped for—or at least were unsure whether it had a beneficial impact.

The most common strategies for “subtracting” tech are setting devices to send fewer notifications, putting them on a “Do Not Disturb” setting, scheduling times to not use their devices, or simply turning them off for a period of time.

A good decision is based on knowledge, and not on numbers.

—Plato

Flower power

A dairy farmer in Japan, Toshiyuki Kuroki, found a novel way to help his wife, Yasuko, cope with her failing health. When complications from diabetes robbed her of her vision, he began planting shibazakura around their farm. It's a species of phlox and a hearty groundcover that blossoms March and April.

Though he knew his wife of 30 years would no longer be able to see the beautiful fuchsia-colored petals, he hoped the sweet fragrance of the flowers would lure her outdoors and out of her deepening depression. It didn't, for a while, and then something pretty wonderful happened.

As the farmer continued to plant more flowers, they thrived and spread across the farmland. People from surrounding areas, even tourists, began to visit the farm. Everyone wanted to see the beautiful pink fields and walk among the spring flowers. With so many new and different people showing up on their land, the farmer's wife began to wander outside and interact with the visitors. She was happy again.

For the past 25 years, the shibazakura fields that surround the home of Toshiyuki and Yasuko Kuroki have sparked joy and wonder in the hearts of many. The Kurokis receive about 7,000 visitors a year at the farm during March and April, and they no longer raise dairy cows.

Their story is a reminder that love and flowers are a powerful healing force.

That's what friends do

A story recently went viral on social media that attracted the attention of national news outlets:

A teenager from a small town in Arkansas saved two years of earnings from his part-time job to buy a motorized wheelchair for his best friend and fellow high school classmate. It was a selfless act that speaks volumes about friendship and goodwill while serving as an example of how each of us can do and give more to contribute to the greater good.

A flower cannot blossom without sunshine. A man cannot live without love.
