Health insurance decisions can be confusing due to endless coverage changes and many policy types. Fortunately, there is someone who can work diligently to help and without cost to you – Michael Crofts, owner of Best Plan Choice.

Through his own healthcare experience Mr. Crofts learned the value of good health coverage and quality medical care. He dedicates his agency to helping people with Medicare and Medicaid needs. You can visit the office to learn about Medicare plan options or he will come to your home.

Every year your Medicare health plan coverage changes even if you do not change plans. Also, new products are introduced and many offer benefits beyond original Medicare and/or Medicaid plans. Baby Boomers had completely different insurance products during their working years. The indemnity and major medical policies are no longer the only choice and often do not meet the financial needs of consumers today.

Don't waste time trying to figure it out. Michael will sit with you and review all of the documents, and answer all of your questions. Most importantly, he will conduct a needs analysis to determine your individual needs – if you expect a hospitalization, use certain medicines, or want benefit like dental or vision – everything is taken into consideration.

Best Plan Choice is there to help you make the right choice and is available long after the policy is written. This means helping with doctor changes, plan questions, annual review of your benefits, and of course taking great care of any friend or family member you refer. At Best Plan Choice clients become friends, and friends become clients.

Crafts

As the summer draws to a close and we look forward to our time at Pointe West where we can re-connect with our winter friends and have a fun morning learning a new craft. We have requested time in our calendar for each Monday from 10am – 12noon at the clubhouse for our many talented people to share their ideas with those that are looking to learn something new. Knitting, crocheting, tie dye (had a great time), seasonal items, greeting card boxes, pastel painting, etc. The only thing that is needed from you is to want to learn something new and have a fun morning with friends, new and old. If you have a talent that you are willing to share with others, please let me (Sandy) or Judy know so we can schedule a date for you. You don't need to be a professional, just someone who is willing to share some fun with others to enjoy. Contacts are Judy Master (708) 602-3144, 9-H (full time resident), and Sandy Swartz (317) 498-3325 #6.

BAZAAR

If you have articles to give for our annual bazaar and you would like them picked up, please contact Amos Master at (708) 602-3144 or Jim Piccott at (727) 474-7574

Ancient human skulls hint at early European arrival

Two skulls unearthed in Greece suggest that Homo sapiens arrived in Europe from Africa much earlier than previously thought. The Sci-News website reports that the partial skulls were discovered decades ago, in 1978, but a recent re-examination allowed scientists to virtually reconstruct them.

One skull, 170,000 years old, belonged to a Neanderthal, but the other is 210,000 years old and appears to be an early modern human. This means that Homo sapiens spread out to Europe some 150,000 years earlier than believed. Scientists speculate that Neanderthals originally displaced Homo sapiens, but over time they died out as more early modern humans made their way to southern Europe.

Giant squid sighted off New Orleans coast

For the first time, a giant squid has been sighted and captured on video in U.S. waters, the Popular Mechanics website reports. A research vessel grabbed video of the squid, Architeuthis dux, 100 miles from the New Orleans coast. It's only the second footage of a giant squid in the wild; the first was captured on video in 2012 off Japan's Ogasawara archipelago.

The video was taken with a camera called Medusa, designed to resemble bioluminescent prey in the deep sea and attract predators like the giant squid to obtain a close-up look that can be recorded and studied.

Three myths about creativity

People have lots of misconceptions about the nature and practice of being creative. Here are some common myths to ignore (from the Livemint website):

- Creativity is serendipitous. Don't wait for the proverbial light bulb to go off inside your head. Enhance your imagination by talking to people, immersing yourself in information, and focusing on the problem you want to solve instead of hoping you'll get an idea out of the blue.

- Creativity is lonely. We imagine the painter alone in a studio, or a poet shivering in a chilly garret. You won't get ideas, though, unless you get out into the world and explore. The more perspectives you can get from other people, the more fuel your imagination has.

- Creativity requires a team. Organizations rely on R&D teams for creative ideas. Although seeking input from others is useful—even essential—many great ideas come from people who weren't actively seeking solutions at the time. Teamwork is great, but don't ignore ideas from offbeat sources. They may be the most innovative.
