Dance Club Bulletin April 2019

Sad to say the winter season is coming to a close on the second of April. The good news is that we will end it with the Hawaiian Luau. Our best night. Our Grand finale. we get to dress up in our tropical clothes, our grass skirts (coconuts are optional of course). The entertainment will be Blikey N Fritz.

The Valentine Day Dance was a romantic evening. A night of holding hands and each other as we strolled across the dance floor listening to Sea Breeze.

We had four $25 ticket winners: Carlene Wine, Don Cyr, Beverly Horibogen and Janet Jewell.

There were seven lucky winners of $25 each for Share the Wealth raffle. Linda Raimondi, Julia St. Amand, Norman Levitt, Annette Small, Judy Pepin, Pat Richards and Anne McElhone. Congratulations all.

Have a wonder Easter everyone and a Bon Voyage to all the snowbirds that will be leaving the park this month and next.

Till next season, Aloha.

News and Notes from the Pool Improvement Club

How nice it is to get into the pool with the Wind Breaker off and with the tropical sun and breezes all around you!

Safety Issues

It has been noted that the dividing float-rope strung between the shallow and deep waters of the pool has been unhitched and set aside on the walk. It was found at least three times. That rope is NEVER to be removed. It is a major safety infraction and would be cause for an inspector to close down our pool. If you do that to swim laps, you need to swim under the rope. Please, if anyone sees this taking place, please politely let the person know about this forbidden by law. If you are met with insolence or disdain, give the information to a governing board member.

Please remember, we do not have Spa workers at our pool. When using the facilities for your and your GUESTS, go over all the Pool rules with them, always shower upon entering and exiting, apply your sun screen at home, not near the pool, rinse off any noodles or barbells after use and return to the utility chest. Use a towel on the lounges and chairs. If you have repositioned a chair or chase, replace them to their corrected positions on the pool deck. Remove all articles you carried in (towels, sunglasses, goggles, water bottles, paper or plastic waste, etc.).

Do not have any open containers of drinks at the pool, such as cans of soda or alcoholic drinks enticing bees and flies and gnats to join us in our fun. We have to be smart about everything concerning food and drinks. We have a huge problem with rats in the neighborhood, and we do not want to lure them to our pool. We have already seen birds flying in to enjoy crumbs and they love to leave their droppings. Squirrels also enjoy cleaning up after a picnic of just about anything! There is plenty of room for food and drinks in the Pavilion Area. It is shady and easy to get to through the aide gate, yet far enough to keep the critters away from the pool area.

Always be respectful to the property and other swimmers. We had some issues at the pool last spring, involving someone with a cut and bleeding and a child throwing up in the pool. Believe me there was even instances of feces in pool area. All these facts caused a disruption for the other Ranchers and their families, in the closure of the pool. Because of these circumstances we now have commanding rules to adhere to. If there is bleeding on the grounds or other bodily matter or fluids rendered, TAKE ACTION, OWN IT! YOU need to immediately close the pool and call a member of the governing board to conduct the proper cleaning. It may involve the Pool closing for a day or so, depending on the matter and extent of clean up.

Safety First:

So if you are ill in any way, do not enter the pool areas. Please if anyone has an open wound or feeling ill, do not come into the pool area. We need to have respect and protect our fellow Ranchers and guests from infection and disease. Avoid an accident. We all need to keep the Pool clean and safe and follow the rules listed next to the shower area. A dose of good common sense is a wonderful preventative.

Aluminum Cans:

Thank you for recycling your aluminum cans. We continue our collection year round. All the funds collected go toward the cost of the Splash party.

Splash Party:

Our Splash party this year will take place on April 6th at the Clubhouse. You do not have to bring any place settings, we have that all covered, with plastic utensils. You may bring your own silverware if you desire. It is open to all our Ranch Mobile Residents and their overnight guests. There is a cost of $2.00 per tickets. We have a limit on our tickets, so don't wait too long to purchase them.

There is NO reserved seating for the Splash Party. You will be able to use the Pavilion to enjoy your meal outside like a real picnic. Bring your tickets to the door, there will be ticket takers. All Doors will be locked until it is time to serve lunch. Only then will the doors on the STAGE end be opened at 11:30 a.m. This is to save chaos in the hall. We will serve from both ends of the serving table just like a regular dinner for efficiency All drinks and condiments will be stationed in front of the stage.

Prospective Splash Party menu: Hotdogs, Sloppy Joes, baked beans, Macaroni and potato salad, lemonade, water, and Klondike's for dessert. Looking to see plenty of sunshine and a great hungry crowd! Tickets will go on sale Wednesday, March 20th at Koffee Klatch. You can pick up your tickets from Misty Marston (207-350-6202, Nancy McMichael (419) 236-9113 or Sue Berton (412) 721-4896.

Thank you so very much. Now enjoy a swim!

Sincerely, Sue Berton,

Pool Improvement Club, President

Kiss THE COOK

The Old Coot, 'No Speaka Yo Name!'

By: Merlin Lessler

Not all the people I associate with are old coots. Some are in their 40's or 50's, though many are older than that. What's my point? It's that I converse with people that are young enough to have fully functioning memories. Yet, every single one is "name" challenged. It's so bad they've almost entirely given up names and replaced them with elongated "people" descriptions.

"Who bought the brown house on Main Street," someone will ask? - This is what you get in reply, "You know the big guy that works in the meat department at the Super Duper with the black VW convertible you see parked in the M & T lot on Friday night?" - "Yea, I know him!" - "His sister bought it." That's how we converse. It's a small town thing. We know everything about everybody except their name. We don't use names.

I guess it's a habit that developed as a short cut. We got tired of saying Betsy Smith broker her leg at the ball game last week only to be asked, "Who is she?" And, then saying, "You know, the woman who used to live next to the library with the Great Dane." Now, we skip the name and go right to the description. It's an American Indian tradition. But, instead of descriptive names like Sitting Bull and Running Bear, we trot out complicated, descriptive substitutes in an attempt to precisely explain the "who" we are referring to.

This can get a little irritating, like when you overhear your own descriptive name. Besides "Old Coot" I've heard myself described as "That old guy who lives on the corner of Front Street that shut his coat in the car door, with his keys locked inside and had to stand in the cold like an idiot until a passerby noticed and went to his house to get a spare set of keys." You then realize just how complicated this naming process has become. And, you have many more names than you imagined. In my case: That grouchy guy in the front window at The Goat Boy Coffee Bar - The guy who comes in here and never leaves a tip - That old guy who rides his bike through red lights.

If you have a common name, the shift to no name at all is a quick, two-stage process. First your name is coupled to a partial description and then disappears entirely. Take Mike, for example. There are 14 Mikes around here that I know of Mike in the brick house on the curve - Mike the Irish music guy - Mike who sings in a barbershop quartet 0 Mike who can fix any plumbing problem. Mike, Mike, Mike, No Mike is ever, Mike. Not around here. Nancy is another name in widespread use. Lunch Lady Nancy - Nancy Fancy Pants - New Nancy - Jewelry Nancy - That Other Nancy. There's Nick, Young Nick, /soccer Nick, Bank Nick. All lose their name in rapid fashion. Do you know your name? Maybe you should find out Then again, maybe you don't want to know.

Facts You Didn't Know About The Month of April

In the northern hemisphere April is a most confusing month; rainy and wet one day, the next full of a warm promise of green growth to come. Besides the weather, the month is full of surprises and contradictions, prized for rebirth and endings, and a birth month to amazing geniuses and crazed despots both, making fun of astrological predictions.

You must love April. It is just like life.

April is Named for Aphrodite

April is named after the Greek goddess of love, Aphrodite. In the Roman calendar, the fourth month April is spelled Aprilis, meaning "to open." Festivals which were planned for April included Parrilla, a day celebrating the founding of Rome. And, in so many places in the northern hemisphere April is the month when trees and flowers begin to bloom and go on the flower.

April's Zodiac Signs are Four-Legged Hooved Creatures

Two signs in the traditional Zodiac calendar fall in April, both of which are domestic animals, quadrupeds and cloven hoofs. People born in the first part of the month between March 21st and April 19th are said to be born under the sign of Aries the Ram, a Sun sign which is ruled by the planet and the Roman god of War, Mars. Those born from April 20th to May 20th are born under Taurus the Bull, an Earth sign who is ruled by the planet and the Roman goddess of love, Venus. No wonder people born on the cusp (between April 19th and 20th) are just confused.

April's Honorary Flowers are Daisies and Sweet Peas

Two flowers signify the month of April: the daisy and the sweet pea. The daisy symbolized innocence, loyal love, and purity; but it also means "I'll never tell!" The oldest daisy on record is the Bellis perennis, known as Daeges eage (or Day's eye) in the Middle Ages because its petals close at night to cover the yellow center.

The sweet pea signifies blissful pleasure, and are used to say goodbye. Sweet peas may be a pretty flower, but they are also one of the oldest food crops on our planet, domesticated by humans about 11,000 years ago.

The Diamond Is April's Birth Stone

The birthstone for people born in April is the diamond, one of the hardest substances on earth. Diamonds are said to bring all kinds of benefits to their owners, supposedly leading the wearer to experience better relationships and an increase in inner strength. They are supposed to bring balance, clarity, and abundance, and it is symbolic of eternal love and the bringer of wealth to six centuries of the diamond trade.

Poet William Wordsworth Was Born in April

The English poet William Wordsworth was born April 7, 1770, and one of his best-known poems is perfect for April in the northern hemisphere: "I wandered lonely as a cloud," which he first published in 1807. Here's a little snippet for an April day:

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Noah Webster Copyrighted the First Edition of His Dictionary in April

The famous language expert Noah Webster was a bit of an April fool; one of his dearest wishes was to reform English spelling for Americans, to make it simpler and more obvious. While millions of school children could definitely go for that; Webster's proposals included removing all double vowels. Bread would be spelled bred, friend would become frend; tuf for tough, laf for laugh, kee for key, and speek for speak. He also wanted us to spell machine masheen and pique peek.

His successes included changing plough for plow and draught for draft; but if you're a poor speller, you might just peek your friends and attribute that to your fondness for April's Noah Webster

Leonardo da Vinci Was Born in April

What can you possibly say about Leonardo in 100 words? He was a painter, a scientist who painted many pieces of religious art, he was fascinated by the flight of birds and the mechanisms of guns. He was a Renaissance genius for his and any other time, capable of turning his hand to anything. And he was born in April.

William Shakespeare Born and Died in April

The Elizabethan playwright William Shakespeare was another April genius, born on April 23, 1564, and died on or about his April birthday at the age of 52 in England in 1616. He may have stolen whole plots and plot twists from his fellow playwrights and ancient history, but his prose and poetic output is unmatched for originality and complexity, and still revered today.

Adolf Hitler Was Born in April

Just in case you were thinking that only marvelously talented people and gifted people were born in April, Adolf Hitler, surely one of the most depraved leaders ever, was born in Austria on April 20, 1889. His brand of crazy involved world domination and extreme mass murder that makes you wish there was a better word than "mass murder." Maybe it was that "cusp" thing.

A Snippet of a Poem for April by Sara Teasdale

There are so many different poems written for April that it's hard to pick. Here's one from Sara Teasdale, called April Song.

Willow, in your April gown
Delicate and gleaming,
Do you mind in years gone by
All my dreaming?
Spring was like a call to me
That I could not answer,
I was chained to loneliness,
I, the dancer.
Willow, Twinkling in the sun,
Still your leaves and hear me,
I can answer spring at last
Love is near me!
