Will This Be Us in A Few Years????

Please don't be offended by the following ... if you remember doing any of them.

An elderly Floridian called 911 on her cell phone to report that her car has been broken into. She is hysterical as she explains her situation to the dispatcher: "They've stolen the stereo, the steering wheel, the brake pedal and even the accelerator!: she cried. The dispatcher said, "Stay calm, an officer is on the way." A few minutes later, the officer radios in "Disregard," he says, "She got in the back seat by mistake."

Three sisters, ages 92, 94, and 96, live in a house together. One night the 96-year-old draws a bath. She puts her food in and pauses. She yells to the other sisters, "Was I getting in or out of the bath?" The 94-year-old yells back, "I don't know. I'll come up and see." She starts up the stairs and pauses, "Was I going up the stairs or down?" The 92-year-old was sitting at the kitchen table having tea, listening to her sisters, she shakes her head and says, "I sure hope I never get that forgetful, knock on wood." She then yells "I'll come up and help both of you as soon as I see who's at the door."

Three retirees, each with a hearing loss, were playing golf one fine March day. One remarked to the other, "Windy, isn't it?: "No," the second man replied, "It's Thursday." The third man chimed in, "So am I. Let's have a beer."

As a senior citizen was driving down the freeway, his cell phone rang. Answering, he heard his wife's voice urgently warning him, "Herman, I just heard on the news that there's a car going the wrong way on Interstate 77. Please be careful!" "Heck," said Herman, "It's not jut one car ... it's hundreds of them!"

CHURCH HUMOR

A sign in front of a country church ... "If you have troubles, come in and tells us about them. If you have none, come in and ell us how you do it."

Church Bulletin Bloopers: "This afternoon there will be a meeting in the south and north ends of the church, children will be baptized at both ends."

6 Weird Things That Have Happened in August Through History

The Old Coot Had A Hamburger for Breakfast

By: Merlin Lessler

I had a hamburger for breakfast today, a "John Dillinger" from the Calaboose Restaurant in Owego. I couldn't finish it at dinner; it was too big, so I brought the remains home in a Styrofoam container, like old coots often do. I knew I wouldn't be home for lunch, I'd be at a committee meeting of the Senior Citizen Foundation, to participate in the "granting" of tens of thousands of dollars to organizations in Tioga county that provide valuable assistance to well deserving senior citizens. It's something they do every year. I never knew the foundations existed and now I'm lending a hand in the good work they do.

Since I'm a newcomer to the board, I knew it would make a bad impression if I brought half a hamburger to the meeting and ate it for lunch. So, I popped it in the oven and had it for breakfast. I finished it off with a piece of Nancy Ruiz's birthday cake - hat also was transported home from the Calaboose in a Styrofoam container. She turned 60 and like many newcomers to senior citizen land, she didn't want a big to-do to mark the occasion. A small group of us gathered on the front porch of the restaurant for dinner to help her adjust to the milestone in a low-key way.

It was my first breakfast burger. It made me wonder why I'd waited so long to break the breakfast rules. Thou shall only consume eggs, cereal, toast, bagels, pancakes, waffles, ham, sausage, bacon and no other food products when thou break-thy-fast after a night of slumber! It was such a relief to be freed of the shackles that held me back for seven decades. It's also the kind of thing I get into when I'm left unsupervised in the morning, which is often the case since I'm the only early riser in our household. The floodgates are open now; I see a breakfast future of burgers, pizza and hot dogs. Oh what a world awaits those who break free of the breakfast rules.

I guess I should have seen it coming' it was only last week when I sent three of my grandchildren off to school after a scrumptious breakfast of applesauce, pistachios and ramen noodle soup, but that was an act of desperation; there was no milk in the fridge. They seemed happy enough and I did my job; sent them to school on a full stomach. My subconscious must have kicked into gear, bringing me to my hamburger breakfast today. We are such creatures of habit, seldom questioning the everyday stuff we do. No more! Have a burger of breakfast and enter a new world of freedom. It's nice here!

VINYL IS FINAL

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

Puerto Rico - History and Heritage

Christopher Columbus arrived at Puerto Rico in 1493. He originally called the island San Juan Bautista, but thanks to the gold in the river, it was soon known as Puerto Rico, or "rich port;" and the capital city took the name San Juan. Soon, Puerto Rico was a Spanish colony on its way to becoming an important military outpost.

Puerto Rico began to produce cattle, sugar cane, coffee and tobacco, which led to the importation of slaves from Africa. As a result, Puerto Rican bloodlines and culture evolved through a mixing of the Spanish, African, and Indigenous Taino and Carib Indian races that shared the island. Today, many Puerto Rican towns retain their Taino names, such as Utuado, Mayaguez and Caguas.

Over the years, numerous unsuccessful attempts were made by the French, Dutch, and English to conquer the island. To guard against these incursions, the Spanish constructed the many forts and ramparts still found on the island. Puerto Rico remained an overseas province of Spain until the Spanish-American war, when U.S. forces invaded the island with a landing at Guanica. Under the Treaty of Paris of 1898, Spain ceded Puerto Rico (along with Cuba, the Philippines and Guam) to the U.S.

As a result, the turn of the century saw Puerto Rico under United States sovereignty. At that time, Puerto Rico's economy relied on its sugar crop, but by the middle of the century, an ambitious industrialization effort, called Operation Bootstrap, was underway. Cheap labor and attractive tax laws attracted American companies, and soon the Puerto Rican economy was firmly grounded in manufacturing and tourism. Today, Puerto Rico is a leading tourist destination and manufacturing center; the island produces high-tech equipment and many top-selling American pharmaceuticals.

Puerto Ricans received U.S. citizenship in 1917 and Puerto Rico officially became a U.S. Commonwealth in 1952. The issue of political status is one under constant debate, with some in favor of statehood, others independence, and still others the continuation of commonwealth status.

During World War II, the U.S. Navy purchased two-thirds of the island to use as a naval base. The Navy used the area for military exercises and bombing practice for nearly 60 years until a civilian was killed during a bombing exercise in the 1990s. This sparked a wave of protests that finally ended when the base closed in 2003. Since then, the Navy's lands have become wildlife reserves.

Spanish and English are official languages and the currency is the U.S. Dollar

Take a road trip, go camping for a weekend, or visit tourist attractions in your home state or a neighboring one. Whatever you do, don't let the season end before you and your family have had an adventure.

Happiness Happens Month. Of all the random things that can happen in your life, choosing happiness can have a powerful influence on your quality of life. Embrace joy, smile more, choose kindness, and let the good vibrations flow.

National Peach Month. Once again peaches are in season. If that's not something to be happy about, then what is? Because some of the best tasting peaches have been grown in western Colorado for over 125 years, consider attending the 50th Palisade Peach Festival this month. To learn more, visit <https://palisadepeachfest.com/>.

National Water Quality Month. How can you reduce pollution and help protect natural sources of water in your community, and the world at large? Use environmentally friendly household cleaners; dispose of waste, pharmaceuticals, and hazardous chemicals properly; and manage the gray water and debris flowing into your storm drains.

Weekly

Simplify Your Life Week, Aug. 1–7. It's not at all complicated. If it doesn't serve a purpose, isn't working, and can't be fixed, get rid of it.

Exercise with Your Child Week, Aug. 5–11. Do your part to prevent obesity, improve bone density, and contribute to the overall health and welfare of younger generations. Help your children develop a habit of regular physical exercise and activity. Walk your talk this week and beyond.

Safe and Sound Week, Aug. 13–19. Workplace and employee safety take center stage this week. Visit <https://www.osha.gov/safeandsoundweek/> for ideas and activities.

Be Kind to Humankind Week, Aug. 25–31. What the world needs now is for people to show more kindness to each other. This week, allow courtesy, respect, and mindfulness to shape your conversations and actions.
