THANK YOU:

Drive-by Birthday Party.....OMG!

I would like to thank everyone that attended my “Drive-by” surprise birthday party. WOW! What a surprise. Special thanks to my very good friend, Leanne Lowery who schemed the whole thing, I am told. And she did it last minute by word of mouth. Wow, what a community! For you snowbirds that have gone home, it went like this: Duke lured me to the front porch to sit for a spell and then, promptly at 7PM, the party began. People started showing up in golf carts, SUVs, bicycles and walking. The entire intersection in front of our house was crowded with well wishers. And, of course, social distancing was the rule. Bev Benkowski showed up with a big cake which she cut and served to all. Wow! What a community! Thanks to all! June Ward

Independence Day Facts

Here are some fun facts to share with your family and friends on the Fourth of July while waiting for the hot dogs to cook on the grill:

- Three presidents died on July 4: Thomas Jefferson and John Adams in 1826, and James Monroe, in 1831. Calvin Coolidge was the only president born on July 4, in 1872.
- The Massachusetts General Court was the first state legislature to recognize July Fourth as a state celebration, in 1781.
- The first recorded use of the name “Independence Day” occurred in 1791.
- The U.S. Congress established Independence Day as an unpaid holiday for federal employees in 1870. It became a federal paid holiday in 1931.

July Monthly

Eye Injury Prevention Month. Of the approximately 1 million eye injuries in the United States each year, health experts say that 90% are preventable. The leading causes of eye injury are sports accidents, fireworks, yard and workshop debris, and household chemicals. Protect your eyes this month and all year round.

Independent Retailer Month. Now more than ever, independent retailers need your support to survive. Independent Retailer Month encourages consumers to shop local and celebrate indie retailers, creating more sustainable cities, towns, and communities.

National Baked Beans Month. July is National Baked Beans Month, the perfect time to enjoy one of America’s favorite side dishes. Beans, such as kidney beans, pinto beans, navy beans, and black beans are naturally low in total fat, contain no saturated fat or cholesterol, and provide important nutrients such as fiber, protein, calcium, iron, folic acid, and potassium.

World Watercolor Month. World Watercolor Month is an annual global charitable event featuring the ultimate challenge of 31 watercolors in 31 days. Artists around the globe come together to paint the world with beautiful watercolors and help raise awareness for arts education to get art supplies for kids who need them via The Dreaming Zebra Foundation.

Weekly

National Therapeutic Recreation Week, July 5–11. Established by the National Therapeutic Recreation Society, the week is intended to raise awareness of therapeutic recreation programs and services that could improve the health and well-being of individuals with physical, mental, and emotional disabilities.

Operation Safe Driver Week, July 14–20. Operation Safe Driver Week aims to help improve the behavior of all drivers operating in an unsafe manner—either in or around commercial motor vehicles—through educational and traffic enforcement strategies to address individuals exhibiting high-risk driving behaviors.

National Moth Week, July 18–26. National Moth Week celebrates the beauty, life cycles, and habitats of moths. “Moth-ers” of all ages and abilities are encouraged to learn about, observe, and document moths in their backyards, parks, and neighborhoods.

Time-wasting habits to ditch

Do you complain that you never have enough time? The reason may be that you're wasting it—by making these mistakes:

- Beginning your day without a plan. If you have no plan on how you'll tackle your workload, you'll end up battered by competing demands. Manage your time better by doing the right things, not by doing the wrong things quicker.
- Keeping a messy workspace. A minute here, a minute there spent looking for stuff can add up fast. A messy desk wastes time and adds to your distractions.
- Cheating yourself of sleep. Lack of sleep increases your stress level and intensifies feelings of lack of control. You'll spend time at work wishing you weren't so tired.
- Not taking a break. Get away from work during lunch. Any brief breather from the day recharges your batteries and keeps you more productive.

The four agreements

1. Be impeccable with your word. Speak with integrity. Avoid using the word to speak against yourself or to gossip about others. Use the power of your word in the direction of truth and love.
2. Don't take anything personally. Nothing others do is because of you. What others say and do is a projection of their own reality, their own dream. When you are immune to the opinions and actions of others, you won't be the victim of needless suffering.
3. Don't make assumptions. Find the courage to ask questions and to express what you really want. Communicate with others as clearly as you can to avoid misunderstandings, sadness, and drama. With just this one agreement, you can completely transform your life.
4. Always do your best. Your best is going to change from moment to moment; it will be different if you are healthy as opposed to sick. Under any circumstances, simply do your best, and you will avoid self-judgment, self-abuse, and regret.

The weight

A psychology professor was teaching stress management principles to an auditorium filled with students. As she raised a glass of water, everyone expected they'd be asked the typical "glass half empty or glass half full" question. Instead, with a smile on her face, the professor asked, "How heavy is this glass of water I'm holding?"

Students shouted out answers ranging from eight ounces to a couple pounds.

She replied, "From my perspective, the weight of this glass doesn't matter. It all depends on how long I hold it. If I hold it for a minute or two, it's fairly light. If I hold it for an hour straight, its weight might make my arm ache a little. If I hold it for a day, my arm will likely cramp up and feel completely numb and paralyzed, forcing me to drop the glass to the floor. In each case, the weight of the glass doesn't change, but the longer I hold it, the heavier it feels to me."

As the class nodded in agreement, she continued, "Your stresses and worries in life are very much like this glass of water. Think about them for a while and nothing happens. Think about them a bit longer and you begin to ache a little. Think about them all day long, and you will feel completely numb and paralyzed—incapable of doing anything else until you drop them."

The moral: It's important to remember to let go of your stresses and worries. No matter what happens during the day, as early in the evening as you can, put all your burdens down. Don't carry them through the night and into the next day with you. If you still feel the weight of yesterday's stress, it's a strong sign that it's time to put the glass down.

I'm obsessed with giving the audience something they don't see coming.

The necktie

Jack, a recent college graduate living with his parents, woke up late on the day of his first big job interview. Frantically he threw on a suit. “Oh, no!” he thought. “My tie!”

Jack had never learned how to tie a necktie. His parents were already at work, so the house was empty and there was no one to help him. He grabbed a necktie at random and ran out the door.

“Excuse me, sir,” he said to a crossing guard at the corner of his street. “I have an important job interview and I have no idea how to tie a necktie. Can you please help me?”

“Sure,” said the guard. “Just lie down on this bench.”

Jack thought that was odd, but if someone was going to help him he wasn’t going to ask any questions. After the crossing guard finished and the tie looked good, however, Jack just had to ask why he had to lie down.

“Well, in my previous job I learned how to tie neckties on other people when they were lying down. “

“What was your previous job?” Jack asked.

“I was a mortician.”

Cutting in line

---

A group of senior citizens, socially distanced, stood in a long line at 7:45 a.m. at a grocery store that opened at 8 a.m. for seniors only.

A young man ran from the parking lot and tried to cut in at the front of the line, but an old lady beat him back with her cane.

When he tried to cut in again, an old man punched him in the gut, then kicked him to the ground and rolled him away.

As he approached the line for the third time, he said, “Listen, if you don’t let me unlock the door you’ll never get in there.”

Homo sapiens made it to Europe earlier, scientists say

Modern humans may have reached Europe thousands of years earlier than previously thought, according to the U.S. News & World Report website. Fragments of bones and teeth found in a Bulgarian cave, identified as belonging to homo sapiens, have been dated to 46,000 years ago. Before this, the earliest European bone fragments, found in Romania, were dated to 40,000 years ago. Those bones had Neanderthal DNA in them, indicating that interbreeding had occurred some 200 years before.

Scientists believe that homo sapiens migrated from Africa about 47,000 years ago, during a brief global warming period. Thus, for about 7,000 years or so, humans and Neanderthals lived on the same continent and interacted at least somewhat. The first humans to reach the Danube Valley in Europe probably numbered only a few hundred people and likely never made their way west past the Alps before dying off. Modern Europeans probably descended from a second wave of migration from Africa.
