Chicken Alfredo Shells

These Alfred stuffed shells are seriously to die for!

They are so rich and creamy, you will always and forever dream about this dish after just having one bite!

It's also way easier than I ever thought it would be! I've been avoiding this recipe for way too long thinking it's too complicated! Little did I know...

Ingredients

- Large Pasta shells
- 1 lb. cooked shredded chicken
- 1-1/2 cup cottage cheese
- 1 cup freshly grated Mozzarella cheese
- 1/2 cup shredded Parmesan cheese
- 1/2 cup shredded Romano cheese
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1/2 tsp pepper
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 1 - 15oz jar garlic Alfredo Sauce

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 350°F.
2. Spray a 9 x 13 inch baking dish with non-stick cooking spray.
3. Prepare shells according to package directions.
4. Drain water from shells, pat dry with paper towels
5. In a large bowl combine Mozzarella, Parmesan and Romano cheese.
6. Remove 1/2 cup for topping.
7. Add cottage cheese, egg, pepper and salt. Stir until well combined. Add chicken and stir until completely combined.
8. Spoon 1 cup Alfredo sauce on the bottom of the prepared pan.
9. Stuff shells with chicken mixture either using a spoon or a small scoop.
10. Arrange in prepared pan in single layer. Spoon remaining Alfredo sauce over shells. Sprinkle with reserved cheese.
11. Bake in preheated oven for 20 minutes or until cheese is lightly browned and bubbly.
12. Garnish with parsley.
13. Enjoy!

VINYL IS FINAL

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

15 Delightful Facts about Saint Patrick's Day

1. We Should Really Wear Blue

Saint Patrick himself would have to deal with pinching on his feast day. His color was "Saint Patrick's blue," a light shade. The color green only became associated with the big day after it was linked to the Irish Independence movement in the late 18th century.

2. Saint Patrick was British

Although he made his mark by introducing Christianity to Ireland in the year 432, Patrick wasn't Irish himself. He was born to Roman parents in Scotland or Wales in the late fourth century.

3. The Irish Take Saint Patrick's Day Seriously

As you might expect, Saint Patrick's Day is a huge deal in his old stomping grounds. It's a national holiday in both Ireland and Northern Ireland.

4. So Do New Yorkers

New York City's Saint Patrick's Day Parade is one of the world's largest parades. Since 1762, 250,000 marchers have traipsed up Fifth Avenue on foot - the parade still doesn't allow floats, cars, or other modern trappings.

5. Chicago Feels Lucky, Too

New York may have more manpower, but Chicago has a spectacle all its own. The city has been celebrating Saint Patrick by dumping green dye into the Chicago River since 1962. It takes 40 tones of dye to get the river to a suitably festive shade!

6. It Used to Be A Dry Holiday

For most of the 20th century, Saint Patrick's Day was considered a strictly religious holiday in Ireland, which meant that the nation's pubs were closed for business on March 17. (The one exception went to beer vendors at the big national dog show, which was always held on Saint Patrick's Day.) In 1970, the day was converted to a national holiday, and the stout resumed flowing.

7. It's the Thought That Counts

Not every city goes all-out in its celebratory efforts. From 1999 to 2007, the Irish village of Dripsey proudly touted that it hosted the Shortest Saint Patrick's Day Parade in the World. The route ran or 26 yards between two pubs. Today, Hot Springs, Arkansas claims the title for brevity - its brief parade runs for 98 feet.

8. There's a Reason for The Shamrocks

How did the shamrock become associated with Saint Patrick? According to Irish legend the saint used the three-leaved plant as a metaphor for the Holy Trinity when he was first introducing Christianity to Ireland.

9. Cold Weather Helped Saint Patrick's Legend

In Irish lore, Saint Patrick gets credit for driving all the snakes out of Ireland. Modern scientists suggest that the job might not have been too hard - according to the fossil record, Ireland has never been home to any snakes. through the Ice Age, Ireland was too cold to host any reptiles, and the surround seas have staved off serpentine invaders ever since. Modern scholars think the "snakes" Saint Patrick drove away were likely metaphorical.

10. There's No Corn in that Beef

Corned beef and cabbage, a traditional Saint Patrick's Day staple, doesn't have anything to do with the grain corn. Instead, it's a nod to the large grains of salt that were historically used to cure meats, which were also known as "corns."

11. The World Runs Up Quite a Bar Tab

All of the Saint Patrick's Day revelry around the globe is great news for brewers. A 2012 estimate pegged the total amount spend on beer for Saint Patrick's Day celebrations at $245 million. And that's before tips to the pubs' bartenders.

12. It Could Have Been Saint Maewyn's Day

According to Irish legend, Saint Patrick wasn't originally called Patrick. His birth name was Maewyn Succat, but he changed his name to Patricius after becoming a priest.

13. There Are No Female Leprechauns

Don't be fooled by any holiday decorations showing lady leprechauns. In traditional Irish folk tales, there are no female leprechauns, only nattily attired little guys.

14. But the Leprechaun Economy is Thriving

Another little-known fact from Irish lore: Leprechauns earned that gold they're guarding. According to legend, leprechauns spend their days making and mending shoes. It's hard work, so you can't blame them for being territorial about their pots of gold.

15. The Lingo Makes Sense

You can't attend a Saint Patrick's Day event without hearing a cry of "Erin go Bragh." What's the phrase mean? It's a corruption of the Irish Eirinn go Brach, which means roughly "Ireland Forever."

The Old Coot's Got Nothing!

By: Merlin Lessler

I hit the wall. Writer's block! Nothing I want to write about, complain about. A sad state for an old coot. I need something to stir me up; otherwise, I'll lose my status in the old coot world. I thought I might opine about the ads on TV for the Oral-B power toothbrush. It shows the device gliding along top a row of teeth, with the bristles reaching down both sides to the gum line, flecking away tartar particles with a voice over claiming this will prevent gum disease. My immediate reaction was to yell, "Bull."

I have the exact same toothbrush displayed in the ad; you have to tilt it to get it to reach the gum line, and thus it only does one side of a tooth at a time. Then I did the math. The bristles are a quarter of an inch long; the distance between the gum line and the top of my shortest tooth is an eighth of an inch greater than that. A majority of human's teeth are the same. Thus the caricature of the portrayal of an Oral-B in action is bogus and thus deserving of my "Bull!" (Even though I like the toothbrush and it works great, just not as portrayed.)

But so what? Who cares about a stupid toothbrush ad on TV? Then I considered complaining about my lack of small talk skills. And, my need for an App for my smart phone to help with the shortcoming. Like when I'm stuck in a seat next to a stranger on a plane, in a long line at the DMV, at a wedding reception, cocktail party or gallery opening. To help me after I've exhausted my small talk skills of, "How you doing?" and "How about this weather?"

The App would come to my rescue. I'd type in a stranger's age, sex, dress style and social status (redneck, yuppie, slob, outdated, old coot, etc.) and up would pop a set of questions. Questions are the best mechanism to a successful conversation. People love to talk about themselves. They don't want to hear about YOUR children and grandchildren, dog, cat, professional and social successes. And, they definitely don't want to endure listening to a litany of ailments from an old coot like me. Let them talk about themselves and they'll think you are a gifted conversationalist!

But, neither of these topics held my interest long enough to create a discourse. It troubles me greatly. There's not enough stupid stuff going on around me to energize my old coot crankiness. I guess I'll give it up and close with the thought, "All's well with the world." DARN! DARN! DARN!

Barbie

"My whole philosophy of Barbie was that through the doll, the little girl could be anything she wanted to be. Barbie always represented the fact that a woman has choices." ~Ruth Handler (creator of the Barbie doll), on being inspired by her young daughter Barbara's fascination with teenage live and love for fashion dolls.

Ruth and Elliot Handler founded Mattel Creations in 1945, and 14 years later, Ruth Handler gave the world the Barbie doll. When asked her relationship to Barbie, Ruth simply replied, "I'm Barbie's mom."

The inspiration for Barbie came as Ruth watched her daughter Barbara playing with paper dolls. Barbara and her friends used them to play adult or teenage make-believe, imagining roles as college students, cheerleaders and adults with careers. Ruth immediately recognized that experimenting with the future from a safe distance through pretend play was an important part of growing up. She also noticed a product void and was determined to fill that niche with a three-dimensional fashion doll.

Several years and many designs later, Mattel introduced Barbie, the Teen-Age Fashion Model, to skeptical toy buyers at the annual Toy Fair in New York on March 9, 1959. Never before had they seen a doll so completely unlike the baby and toddler dolls popular at the time.

Today, with a professional resume thicker than a phone book, a circle of friends that rival any social network and a community of caring that spans the globe, Barbie continues to find new ways to inspire and encourage the next generation of girls.

Barbie's full name is Barbara Millicent Roberts.

She is from (fictional) Willows, Wisconsin where she attended high school.

Barbie's official birthday is March 9, 1959 - the exact date she was unveiled to the toy industry during New York Toy Fair.

Barbie first appeared in the now-famous black-and-white striped swimsuit.

Barbie's debut look was polished off with her signature ponytail - a hair style representative of the times (1959).

The first Barbie doll was sold for $3.00

Barbie's first pet was a horse named Dancer

Barbie's signature color is Barbie Pink (PMS 219)

Barbie stands 11.5 inches tall

The best-selling Barbie ever was the 1992 Totally Hair doll, with hair from the top of her head to her toes

Barbie has had 180+ inspirational careers

Barbie first broke through the plastic ceiling as a business executive in 1985

Barbie traveled into space in 1965, four years before man walked on the moon

Although she has never won an election, Barbie has run for president 6 times since 1992.

It takes a professional staff of top fashion designers, makeup artists and the most elite couturiers - more than 100 people in all - to create a Barbie doll and her fashions

Barbie has a powerful social media presence with over 13 million fans on Facebook, 240,000 followers on Twitter and over 600,000 followers on Instagram (@Barbie)

@BarbieStyle launched in 2014 and quickly reached 1.2 million followers - it is one of the fastest growing fashion Instagram channels to date.

In 2015, Barbie launched her first video blog (vlog) on YouTube

To date, Barbie has starred in more than 30 DVDs taking on roles from a super hero to rockstar

The Barbie brand spot "Imagine the Possibilities" was selected as one of the most iconic ads of 2015, based on this year's YouTube Ads Leaderboard

Fifty of the world's top designers created couture looks for the first-ever Barbie runway show in celebration of Barbie dolls 50th birthday.

Barbie is the most popular fashion doll ever produced, and the brand continues to dominate

SPLASH PARTY April 1, 2017. Tickets to the annual splash party will go on sale on March 16th at the Koffee Klatch. Cost of each ticket is two dollars to residents and immediate family only. No out of park friends.

There is a charge due to the low return on recycled aluminum cans. The aluminum can collection has always covered the cost of the splash party in total, except for the last two years. Rebate on the cans has gone down and the cost on food stuffs has gone up.

There is a limit of 300 tickets for sale. Please do not wait for the last minute to buy your tickets. It is a fun day rain or shine, when we get together with fellow ranchers and family to break bread and bask in the Florida sun. Contact; Lou Lowery, 420 Lake Rd., phone 536-5060 or Susan Berton, 422 Lake Rd., phone 412-721-4896. Thank you so much.

Help for Severe Aortic Stenosis

Severe aortic stenosis is a narrowed aortic heart valve that doesn't open and close properly, reducing blood flow to the rest of the body.

Morton Plant Hospital is now enrolling eligible patients in the Medtronic Evolut R low-risk trial, which investigates the safety and effectiveness of a transcatheter aortic valve replacement (TAVR) system in patients with severe aortic stenosis who are at a low surgical mortality risk. TAVR is a minimally invasive alternative to open-heart surgery used to treat failing aortic heart valves in patients with severe aortic stenosis. Morton Plant Hospital was chosen as the first hospital in Tampa Bay to offer the TAVR procedure for patients with severe aortic stenosis who were at an intermediate or high surgical mortality risk. Our team has completed more than 700 TAVR procedures over the last five years.

To see if you or a loved one with severe aortic stenosis may be eligible for this trial, or for more information on the trial, call the Center for Advanced Valve and Structural Heart Care at Morton Plant Hospital at (855) 44-VALVE (855-448-2583) or visit MortonPlantValveTrial.org.
