New Years Eve Dance a Hit!

Susan Henderson

Archie and I would like to give a heart filled “Thank You” to all that helped set-up, decorate, clean-up and moving all the tables and chairs before and after.

Jim and Joann O’Sullivan, we can always count on you to take tickets at the door and everyone loves to see you two!!

But most of all we are very thankful for Joyce Nichols-Food Concession with a very generous check for the entertainment. Also, Dollie Hoover-Bingo for the Door Prizes, that were enjoyed by 4 lucky winners. And last but not least, Diane Swindlehurst-Kitchen, for donations that helped with the purchase of champagne and plates for snacks.

We Hope Everyone has a Happy & Healthy “2016”.

Five Card Draw Poker Tournament - Sat. Feb. 6th – 6 pm

Tom Stevens – Outside Social

We plan to have 3 tables with 6 players each, plus the dealer, buy-in is $10.00. The game is five card drawer poker. You will be dealt 5 cards and can discard up to 3 cards, giving discards to the dealer. Everyone will ante on each deal, if you are unable to cover the ante, you are no longer in the game. The minimum and maximum bets will be posted. These amounts will change as players are eliminated or as time passes. It is OK to check and raise, and there is no limit to the number of raises. You may open on anything.

You will receive $10,000.00 in chips and will be unable to buy more. There will be no “combining” of tables. This is a winner take all and there will be one $50.00 winner at each table. Your $10.00 entry fee should have been paid by the end of January. Sign-up sheet is in the Clubhouse. Come and enjoy a night of cards!

Horse Races - Sat. Feb. 13th – 6:30 – 9:00 pm

Lillian Martinez – Inside Social

The horse races are back again on Sat., Feb 13th. Come for a night of laughs and join a great crowd. Bring your dimes to bet on the races and also be a horse and win. Bring your favorite snacks and refreshments to enjoy during the races. Betting will start at 6:45 pm and races will start at 7:00 pm. you will have lots of fun so, come and join us at the Clubhouse. The more the merrier!!

“Celebration of the Heart” – Sunday, Feb. 14th 7-10 pm

Club Council Celebration Committee

The Club Council is hosting a “Celebration of the Heart” party on Valentine’s Day, Sunday, Feb. 14th from 7-10 pm in the Clubhouse for all residents, whether married or not.

This celebration is in lieu of the “Goldenagers” celebration that is a tradition at Regency Heights which was held on Valentine’s Day every year for couples celebrating their 50th Anniversary. As we have no celebrants, we decided to hold a party to celebrate the day.

There will be cookies, cake, wine punch and coffee. We will also have entertainment for your dancing pleasure. It is free and open to all residents. We are also going to put up the arch so you can take pictures.

It will be a wonderful evening of fun for all, so come and enjoy!

In Memory of Elaine Lamora

Ginger Cutright

My neighbor Elaine passed away November 18, 2015, she was 71 years old. She was always there to lend a helping hand. Being a retired nurse, she could even give you free medical advice, which I always found very helpful.

Elaine moved to Florida in 1966 from Bow, New Hampshire and lived in Largo for a few years. Then in December 1969, was one of the first residents to Regency Heights.

When she moved here, she purchased a new home at Lot 119 for $8,000., in addition, the lot rent was only $35.00 a month. With the purchase, you also received plants for your flowerbed and sod for your lot. In addition, they put a sign in your lawn with your name on it. At first there were only sand roads and sand for your lot. However, the roads were paved, and lots sodded by March 1970. The Sales Office was located at Skylark Mobile Home Park, which used to be located where Kohl’s is now. This was an adult park, no children and you had to be over 21 years old. Resident’s ages ranged from 25 years to the oldest 100 years old.

Elaine said this land was purchased from Ed’s Riding Stables by five investors. It was developed in three sections. The first year the first section ended at 8th Avenue, 2nd year it went to 9th Avenue and the 3rd year it was completed. Their first Friendship Dinner was held at the Skylark Club House with 36 people attending.

She remembered when SR 580 was just a two lane highway. In addition, there was only a caution light at US 19 and SR 580. The Countryside Mall was not built until 1974. You could buy your food at Publix on Sunset Point Road or in Dunedin. When the Club House caught on fire, the residents had to hose it down with their lawn hoses. The closest fire station was at Sunset Point Road.

By 1988, Elaine moved to Lot 420 because she purchased a dog. After 40 years working in Home Health she retired in 2006. In 2004, her father moved back to the park to be close to her. Every day you could see him riding thru the park and to the Steak n’ Shake. Elaine was his caregiver until he passed away about 5 years ago.

You would always see Elaine sitting outside in her carport with many of her friends and neighbors visiting her for afternoon and evening chats. She is missed.

For My Golfing Friends But a Lesson to All

Ron Reger from the Internet

A man was walking down the street when he was accosted by a particularly dirty and shabby-looking homeless man who asked him for a couple of dollars for dinner. The man took out his wallet, extracted ten dollars and asked, “If I give you this money, will you buy some beer with it instead of dinner?”

“No, I had to stop drinking years ago,” the homeless man replied. “Will you spend this on green fees at a golf course instead of food?” the man asked. “Are you NUTS!” replied the homeless man. “I haven’t played golf in 20 years!”

“Well,” said the man, “I’m not going to give you money. Instead, I’m going to take you home for a shower and a terrific dinner cooked by my wife.” The homeless man was astounded. “Won’t your wife be furious with you for doing that?” The man replied, “That’s okay. It’s important for her to see what a man looks like after he has given up drinking and golf!”

Willard T. Rat

George & Iva Bailey

Services for Willard T. Rat will be held today (asap) at the Bailey's. Mr. Rat died when he received a crushing blow to the head while dining at the tom cat inn, an all nite diner, when the ceiling came crushing down on Mr. Rat killing him instantly. Willard is survived (maybe) by several wives, dozens of children, hundreds of grandkids. Donations for Mr. Rat can be made to the G.B.R.F (Geo.. Baileys' Retirement Fund).

Mr. Rat was alone at the time of the accident no others were hurt. The owners of the diner said repairs were made quickly and opened for quests that evening. No calling hours are available per Mr. Rats' request. Besides no one liked him and who cares about the dirty filthy low down rat anyway.

Notice for "Fun Day" – Wed. March 30th

Club Council

March is just around the corner and it will be that time of year again for our Fun Day. We will need volunteers to work our games. We also need suggestions and ideas for skits and talent for our program after Strawberry Shortcake is served that evening. There will be a sign up sheet in the Clubhouse and who you can get in touch with. Any other info. needed get in touch with Lillian M. Marchese, 474-6827. Thank you...

Perks of reaching 60 or being over 70, heading towards 80!

Jay Landry from the Internet

1. Kidnappers are not very interested in you.
2. In a hostage situation you are likely to be released first.
3. No one expects you to run--anywhere.
4. People call at 8 PM and ask, "Did I wake you?"
5. People no longer view you as a hypochondriac.
6. There is nothing left to learn the hard way.
7. Things you buy now won't wear out.
8. You can eat supper at 5 PM.
9. You can live without sex but not your glasses.
10. Your supply of brain cells is finally down to manageable size.
11. You can't remember who sent you this list.
12. And you notice these are all in Big Print for your convenience.

Gotta Love the Irish

Gordie & Colleen Harrison from the Internet

Paddy was driving down the street in a sweat because he had an important meeting and couldn't find a parking place. Looking up to heaven he said, "Lord take pity on me. If you find me a parking place I will go to Mass every Sunday for the rest of me life and give up me Irish Whiskey!" Miraculously, a parking place appeared. Paddy looked up again and said, "Never mind, I found one."

Father Murphy walks into a pub in Donegal, and asks the first man he meets, "Do you want to go to heaven?" The man said, "I do, Father." The priest said, "Then stand over there against the wall." Then the priest asked the second man, "Do you want to go to heaven?" "Certainly, Father," the man replied. "Then stand over there against the wall," said the priest. Then Father Murphy walked up to O'Toole and asked, "Do you want to go to heaven O'Toole?" "No, I don't Father." The priest said, "I don't believe this. You mean to tell me that when you die you don't want to go to heaven?" O'Toole said, "Oh, when I die, yes. I thought you were getting a group together to right now."

Paddy was in New York. He was patiently waiting and watching the traffic cop on a busy street crossing. The cop stopped the flow of traffic and shouted, "Okay, pedestrians." Then he'd allow the traffic to pass. He'd done this several times, and Paddy still stood on the sidewalk. After the cop had shouted, "Pedestrians!" for the tenth time, Paddy went over to him and said, "Is it not about time ye let the Catholics across?"

Gallagher opened the morning newspaper and was dumbfounded to read in the obituary column that he had died. He quickly phoned his best friend, Finney. "Did you see the paper?" asked Gallagher. "They say I died!" "Yes, I saw it!" replied Finney. "Where ye callin' from?"

An Irish priest is driving down to New York and gets stopped for speeding in Connecticut. The state trooper smells alcohol on the priest's breath and then sees an empty wine bottle on the floor of the car. He says, "Sir, have you been drinking?" "Just water," says the priest. The trooper says, "Then why do I smell wine?" The priest looks at the bottle and says, 'Good Lord! He's done it again!'

Walking into the bar, Mike said to Charlie the bartender, "Pour me a stiff one - just had another fight with the little woman." "Oh Yeah?" said Charlie, "And how did this one end?" "When it was over," Mike replied, "She came to me on her hands and knees." "Really," said Charles, "Now that's a switch! What did she say?" She said, "Come out from under the bed, you little chicken!"

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

Multiply Your Monthly Mania!

As you probably already know; patronizing the advertisers in this newsletter also pays YOU with our Monthly Mania Cash Give-a-Way. We pay out $400 every month to residents who submit tickets they have received from using the businesses in the newsletter. Winning is easy, just patronize any advertiser in the newsletter, then submit either the ticket or a paid receipt to us for your chance to win!

Now You Have More Chances to Win!

We are now offering unlimited entries into our Monthly Mania drawing by just SUGGESTING a business to advertise.

Here is how it works:

1. Call our office and suggest a business to advertise in the newsletter
2. We will take down your information (name, address, phone number) and enter you into the next month's drawing for over $400 in cash prizes
3. The more businesses you suggest, the more chances you have to win.
(To qualify each resident can only suggest a business once)

What businesses would you like to see advertising?

We have spots available in the following categories:

Patton staggered home very late after another evening with his drinking buddy, Paddy. He took off his shoes to avoid waking his wife, Kathleen. He tiptoed as quietly as he could toward the stairs leading to their upstairs bedroom, but misjudged the bottom step. As he caught himself by grabbing the banister, his body swung around and he landed heavily on his rump. A whiskey bottle in each back pocket broke and made the landing especially painful. Managing not to yell, Patton sprung up, pulled down his pants, and looked in the hall mirror to see that his butt cheeks were cut and bleeding. He managed to quietly find a full box of Band-Aids and began putting a Band-Aid as best he could on each place he saw blood. He then hid the now almost empty Band-Aid box and shuffled and stumbled his way to bed.

In the morning, Patton woke up with searing pain in both his head and leen staring at him from across the room. She said, “You were drunk last weren’t you?” Patton said, “Why you say such a mean thing?” “Well,” Kathleen said, “it could be the open front door, it could be the broken glass at the bottom of the stairs, it could be the drops of blood trailing through the house, it could be your bloodshot eyes, but mostly it's all those Band-Aids stuck on the hall mirror.”

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT ABOUT DINNERS

Diane Swindlehurst – Kitchen Director

Thank you for all the wonderful responses to all of our dinners. We love doing them. Unfortunately due to a few inconsiderate individuals, our policy for ticket sales will change as follows:

Ticket sales will only be available at Wed. Coffee Hour from 8:30-10:30 am and Monday night Bingo 5:30-6:00 pm.

If you cannot come at those two times then please have your friends or family members purchase them during those times.

Tickets will no longer be available after the Monday before the dinner or from our homes or by phone, NO EXCEPTIONS. We also will not deliver tickets. Please do not call the office or Joyce Nichols as they are not involved with our dinners.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration in this matter.

Blonde Joke

Gordie & Colleen Harrison

A blonde goes into a coffee shop and notices there’s a “Peel and Win” sticker on her coffee cup. So she peels it off and starts screaming, “I’ve won a motor home! I’ve won a motor home!”

The waitress says, “That’s impossible. The biggest prize is a free Lunch.” But the blonde keeps on screaming, “I’ve won a motor home! I’ve won a motor home!”

Finally the manager comes over and says, “Ma’am, I’m sorry but you’re mistaken. You couldn’t have possibly won a motor home, because we didn’t have that as a prize.” The blonde says, “No, it’s not a mistake. I’ve won a motor home!” And she hands the ticket to the manager and he reads....”WINABAGEL”.

KARAOKE NIGHT – Sat. Feb. 27th – 7:00 pm

Lillian M. Martinez – Inside Social

On Saturday, February 27th there will be a Karaoke party, the music by Steven Lamb at the Clubhouse, free of charge. BYOB and snacks. There will be door prizes and also we will have a 50/50 drawing. Come join us for a fun night... For any other info. call Lillian at 474- 6827. Hope to see you all there!

Keep Those Old Eyeglasses Coming

Lion - Dave Barry #471

The Lions Club wants to thank everyone for their contributions to their eyeglass drive. Keep them coming, there is still a great need for them. If you have any, please bring them to the Clubhouse. The box for the used eyeglasses is on the counter by the library. The Lions Club will clean and fix them for reuse. We thank you for your participation.

February Is...

American Heart Month. Heart disease kills an estimated 630,000 Americans each year. February has been celebrated as American Heart Month since 1963 as part of the effort to urge Americans to join the battle against heart disease. Learn how to reduce your risk through lifestyle changes and, in some cases, medication.

Black History Month. An annual observance in the United States, Canada, and the United Kingdom to commemorate the history and contributions of black people. Black History Month was officially recognized by the U.S. government in 1976, with President Gerald R. Ford urging Americans to “seize the opportunity to honor the too-often neglected accomplishments of black Americans in every area of endeavor throughout our history.”

Grapefruit Month. Rediscover the naturally invigorating grapefruit. Loaded with vitamin C, grapefruit helps boost the immune system during these winter months when colds and flu are at their peak. Whether you enjoy it fresh from its golden skin or straight from a glass, there’s nothing quite like the bold taste and healthy goodness of grapefruit.

Library Lovers’ Month. Library Lovers’ Month is a month-long celebration of school, public, and private libraries of all types. This is a time for everyone, especially library support groups, to recognize the value of libraries and to work to assure that the nation’s libraries will continue to serve.

Weekly

National School Counseling Week, Feb. 1-5. Sponsored by American School Counselor Association, National School Counseling Week highlights the impact school counselors can have in helping students achieve school success and plan for a career.

Burn Awareness Week, Feb. 1-7. Designed to provide an opportunity for burn, fire, and life safety educators to unite in sharing burn awareness and prevention messages in communities, and to kick off a year full of burn awareness education.

National Entrepreneurship Week, Feb. 20-27. National Entrepreneurship Week is a celebration of a lifelong learning challenge for youths and adults interested in finding exciting career opportunities. Teachers and students can get involved at all levels, as well as entrepreneurs, policy makers, community leaders, and parents.

National Engineers Week, Feb. 21-27. Dedicated to ensuring a diverse and well-educated future engineering workforce by increasing understanding of and interest in engineering and technology careers.

The history of Black History Month

We owe much of our greater understanding of black history to Carter G. Woodson. Born to former slaves, Woodson worked hard and against the tide of prejudice to obtain his own education. In earning his doctorate from Harvard, Woodson was disturbed to find that during his studies, history books virtually ignored the black American population. So he decided to take on the challenge of writing black Americans into the history books.

He established the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History (now called the Association for the Study of Afro-American Life and History) in 1915, and a year later founded the widely respected Journal of Negro History. Then in 1926, he launched Negro History Week, the precursor to Black History Month, as an initiative to bring national attention to the contributions of black people throughout American history.

February was chosen as Black History Month for the significant events and people who figured prominently in black American history. For example:

- Feb. 23, 1868: Civil rights leader and co-founder of the NAACP, W.E.B. DuBois, was born.
- Feb. 3, 1870: The 15th Amendment was passed, granting blacks the right to vote.
- Feb. 25, 1870: The first black U.S. senator, Hiram R. Revels (1822-1901), took his oath of office.
- Feb. 12, 1909: The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was founded by a group of concerned black and white citizens in New York City.
- Feb. 1, 1960: A group of black Greensboro, North Carolina, college students began a sit-in at a segregated Woolworth's lunch counter. The event marks a watershed moment in the civil-rights movement.

Valentine's Day doesn't have to break the bank

Looking for something to do with your sweetheart on Valentine's Day that's not too expensive? Try these ideas:

- Read a story together. Buy two copies of your favorite book or story (or borrow them from your library) and spend the evening discussing it. You may both learn things you didn't know about the story (and each other).
- Team up on a new recipe. Instead of going out to a restaurant, delve into your cookbooks and find a meal to collaborate on. Choose something different and challenging, and enjoy the results.
- Visit a museum. Your town probably has a museum (or two) that you've never been to. Or a landmark you haven't seen yet. Select someplace new and check it out together.
