Thank you to Jennie Harsh for sponsoring Coffee Klatch on February 8th in honour of her late husband Ron Harsh's birthday. Ron was well liked and a very active member of Riviera Shuffleboard and served as Captain and President for several years.

Our guest just left and it's so darn quiet, we miss them very much. We would like to thank everyone who made them feel so welcome. Several friends provided bikes, scooters, sand toys, water toys for their enjoyment. They commented on how generous and friendly everyone was to them.

Thanks everyone for making Riviera Park so fun!!!

RIVIERA ESTATES – FROM THE OFFICE

Mike Richards, Community Manager

Resident Update; If you did not yet turn this in, please do this as soon as possible.

RV And Boat Storage; Items must be registered through the office, have current license, be in good working order and not a commercial/ work vehicle. Only items titled in the home owners name are allowed. Items must be moved with short notice if necessary for maintenance or emergency.

Fences and Lattice; Fences are not allowed around the lot. We do allow a white vinyl fence along the carport with approval from the office. Lattice is not allowed as skirting. I am following up on this violation of our prospectus. Lattice is not approved at all for outside construction and will eventually be removed at all homes. Any construction outside of the home must be approved through the office.

Oversized Trash; For couches, appliances or mattresses call Waste Pro at 727-452-5278 to set up and pay for a special pick up.

Health and Safety; Trash cans must have a lids. The green trash cans are provided with lids. No water may be left standing as this attracts mosquitos.

New Home; Lot 57. The model is Avon Park from Palm Harbor Homes. I am glad to open this home for you to take a look. We would be happy to take your home as a trade in. See <https://www.palmharbor.com/model-center/plantcity/floorplan/fp-09-se-AvonPark-LS24482E/#floor-plans> for a virtual tour.

For Sale; Lots 57, 105 and 166 are for sale. I will work the hardest for you when you are ready to sell your home. We have sold 13 homes through our office last year. I show homes and have people looking every week. We do have another new home coming soon.

I am here Monday – Friday, 9am – 4pm. Let me know how I can help.

Cruise Night Report

Captain Deb

The Donna Mae Knot set sail from the Riviera Clubhouse on a tranquil evening in January.

Passengers were welcomed outside the clubhouse to celebrate the launch with a shower of confetti and streamers and breaking a bottle of champagne over the hull of the ship. After the ceremony passengers enjoyed a welcome cocktail on board and made their way to their cabins.

The Captain went through the obligatory safety demonstration where passengers found they had to blow up their own floatation device and swim for shore through shark infested waters. Of course the crew and first class passengers would be whisked away in speed boats.

The first nights onboard entertainment was Diana, all the way from St. Catharines, Ontario, she warmed the crowd up with a few zingers to get everyone ready for the first port, New Orleans.

As the ship pulled into New Orleans passengers were pelted with beads and chants of, “Show us your xxxs”. Fortunately no one took them up on the challenge. At this Port passengers were treated to Crawfish Gumbo & chocolate cake, and some lively Jazz music. Thanks to Doreen Mitchell, Tina and Nancy Moll for a fun time!! What happened in New Orleans stays in New Orleans.

Doreen Mitchell, Nancy and Tina Moll boarding the Cruise Ship”

The fog horn blew to indicate re-boarding and we prepared to sail on to Jamaica. This evenings on-board entertainer was a dead ringer for Johnny Carson all the way from Nova Scotia, Albert Dominie had many top ten lists to keep the crowd laughing.

As we sailed into the port of Jamaica, Bob Marley tunes got you in the vibe mon. This port really went overboard with their decoration. I hope everyone noticed the Bob Marley poster! Well they did make up for the lack of decoration by the awesome jerk chicken & pineapple served with Jamaican peas and rice. The Rum Punch was a welcome treat for thirsty travellers. Thanks to Larry & Brenda Burnett, CJ Russell and John Girard for the good ganja in Jamaica.

“John Girard, Larry Burnett, Captain Deb, Brenda Burnett & CJ Russell serving up the Rum Punch in Jamaica”

We were fortunate to connect with the Jamaican bobsled team training session. They were very supportive and wanted to get everyone involved, so a relay race was quickly organized.

The two team leaders were Captain Alan (Port Side) and Captain Jeannine (Starboard). Both Captains selected four of their top athletes to compete in a ski relay.

The race was a close one with Captain Alan’s team seizing the lead when Sharron Stevens gave it her all in the last lap pull ahead of Captain Jeannine’s team who were struggle with some equipment malfunctions.

Winning team: Doreen Stevens, Marion Kelly, Brenda Arsenal, & anchored by Sharron Stevens

2nd place team: Cindy Corbet, Jeannine Hennigar, Chris Rigiero and stand-by was Nancy Weimer.

After re-boarding it was discovered that we had picked up some cocaine in Jamaica and the First Mates were again called on to select a few members to do a few lines. Team Captains (well known drug lords) could not resist and joined in along with three additional members to represent their teams.

Captain Alan along with Denis Byers, Andy Cardinali and Lola Webb represented the Port side team with great enthusiasm. They dove full face into the cocaine bowl and couldn’t help but have some stick all over their faces.

Captain Jeannine's team of Albert Dominic, Jennifer, Steve Walaski also made the Starboard team proud with their effort.

“Alan's team Lola Webb, Andy Cardinelli, Denis Byers and Alan doing a few lines of cocaine”

We were very fortunate to have the famous on-board entertainer from Michigan, Fred Bebow. Fred had the crowd rolling in the isles and many mentioned how glad they were to have worn Depends to the show. He was hysterical, cracking one joke right after another.

Next port was Mexico, wow what a fantastic stop this was. The festive party atmosphere greeted us as soon as we pulled ashore. The mariachi music along with the festive decorations and light show were the best yet. The famous Mexican spinning wheel determined your future, whether you had to perform the Mexican hat dance or take a shot of tequila. The food was amazing at this port too, salsa and guacamole and quesadillas made this port unforgettable. (Unless you had too much tequila, which the Ship Captain did and can't remember a thing). Many photo opportunities at this port in the photo booth and picture frames. Thanks to Dave & Pat Shiner, Fred & Fanny Bebow and Fran Unterborg for a good time in Mexico. No

Montezuma's Revenge was reported.

“Captain Deb may have had too much tequila with Owen Price”

“Alan going LOCO in Mexico”

This port was soo well done, it was very difficult to get passengers back on board, the fog horn sounded three times before we set sail again for Paris!!!

Despite the Captain having passed out, the ship sailed on to Paris. Passengers broke into a lively version of Frere Jacques sung in rounds by the Port and Starboard sides of the ship. This put everyone in the mood for a little French pastry and champagne served up in the City of Lights.

No one was expecting Chef Gary to show off his large baguette, which was admired by women and envied by the men. Couples fell in love again in this romantic port. Julie and Andy were seen cuddling up at a sidewalk café. Paris was really well done complete with their very own Mime. (whose husband had a bet going with her for how long she could keep quiet)

“Cutest Mime Ever”

But we did have to re-board and start our return leg of the journey to Riviera Florida. After much booking and rebooking, the Balloon Dance was finally going to happen as our last on-board entertainment. We had started off with the Chippendale waiters from Las Vegas. When they cancelled we books Bob’s Burlesque and Auto Mechanics, and then Fleas are Us Dance Company. Finally we firmed up with “Old Guys from Riviera”.

Old Guys from Riviera Balloon dancers, Roger, Albert, John and Owen”

The Old Guys had been rehearsing and nursing their parts for months and now were ready to take to the stage. They proudly showed off their junk and coordinated dance moves prompting one of the passengers to slip a dollar bill into Owen’s D-string. The dance was well received by the passengers and the dancers can be very proud of their performance. (The dancers have asked for all pictures to be deleted).

Just when you thought it was over, it turned out we had picked up Elvis’s grandfather in Mexico and he hobbled out on a walker to perform, “That’s all Right Mama”. Unfortunately he had to cut the show short when he discovered his Depends were leaking and made a quick exit.

“Elvis’s grandfather playing his last gig (we hope), “That’s all Right Mama”

Alias it was time to sail home after a wonderful adventure. Passengers had great experiences, lots of belly laughs and made priceless memories to last a lifetime. Riviera proving once again that we have the best people in our park!!!

Rigiero's Famous Fabulous Pasta Night Report

By Frank Rigiero

As I sit here awaiting a Super Bowl to begin without the Patriots involved, I will try my best to stay awake.

Last night was our annual Pasta night. Chris and I are trying to figure out how many we have held. We believe 9 years of treating our Friends of Good Neighbors.

Last night would have to be one of the best times. (also, possibly our Swan song). As people dropped by during the day commented as to the aroma of the sauce. Even our Postman(lady) dropped in and said it reminded her of how her Grandmothers kitchen smelled. I guess that puts a circa on my age!

As our guests began to arrive and search for their chosen seats there was a little confusion as a few seats needed swapping but Chris handled with aplomb.

After Fran Unterborg gave the before meal blessing all were treated with salad, stuffed shells, sausage, meatballs and topped off with a great lemon-flavored cake by Teri Walls.

Then came the clearing of tables while Riviera's own entertainers warmed up. Deb Girard on the Uke, John Girard and Bernie Rief on The Guitar, Larry Burnett played several instruments and topped off with Dave Shiner on Harmonica. Then came our Talented (?) vocalists. Each one of them just taking time off their busy tours just to be there to entertain us. This will always be a memorable night for me. Thanks for allowing us to be part of it.

Frank "The Pastaman"

P.S. Everyone in the Park would like to THANK Chris and Frank (and their whole family) for their many years of wonderful Italian food and a lot of fun times over the past 9 or 10 years. I've never seen a pot as large as the one Frank lovingly makes his sauce in. This function has been a big fundraiser for Shuffleboard bringing in over $500 every year. Thanks so much!!!!

The ladies traveled north to Tarpon Springs and Hella's Greek Restaurant for our February luncheon. The food is always good but it's difficult to control the dessert choices!

Next month we'll be going to "The Living Room" located on Main Street, Dunedin. There are so many great and interesting places in the area to eat that it's a hard decision. Looking forward to a good turnout as this may be the last luncheon of the season. Hard to believe!

Located in the heart of Dunedin, The Living Room on Main features an eclectic menu of dishes inspired by world cuisine, an upscale yet relaxed dining room, and an inviting bar. Experience The Living Room for lunch, brunch on the weekends, and dinner every day. We invite you to unwind, indulge, and enjoy your very own culinary journey, guided by your expert server.

The men enjoyed a hearty lunch at O’Keefe’s Tavern in February.

Men’s March 19th Luncheon will be at Joey’s New York Pizza and Italian Restaurant.

You can discover a variety of handmade Italian dishes, and classic New York style pizza’s hand-tossed to order. Growing up in Howard Beach, New York – Joey, the founder, wanted to share his passion of cooking Italian traditions with others. This is why Joey’s N.Y. Pizzeria & Italian Restaurant was created: to share his Italian traditions passed down from generations, using nothing other than fresh ingredients from Florida.

Portions are large, you won’t go home hungry.

RIVIERA GARAGE SALE REPORT

The final result of our semi-annual sale was greater than hoped for this year. Riviera residents were asked months in advance to scour their homes for items to be donated. As a result, we were able to display merchandise that attracted a steady flow of customers.

With the help of volunteers who made themselves available for three days, we were able to pick up and deliver the large number of household and outdoor furniture residents donated.

Another group of volunteers came faithfully Friday and Saturday to set up; sort; price; sell; pack; and clean-up after the sale. Sincere thanks to all.

Everyone agreed that it was a fun time.

The Shuffleboard Club and Good Neighbors Club appreciate the effort by all those who took part in this sale.

The Goodwill Corp. came and picked up all the items we didn’t sell. We received a call thanking us for our donation again this year.

Diana McNiven, Garage Sale Co-ordinator

Come on out and enjoy the fun, no experience necessary.

SHUFFLE LEAGUE REPORT

Shuffling Tips and Drills
By Resident Pro: Gary Russell
Every Friday, morning at 9am, prior to Fun Shuffle
If you would like to improve your game come on out

LEAGUE PLAY: Riviera Park has two teams that play in the Stirling League. The Stirling League is made up of several neighboring parks and games are played every Monday at home and away, mid-November through to mid-March.

Riviera Shuffle Teams are always looking for players. All abilities welcome, give either Team Captain a call.

Team 1

Captain, Jennie Harsh

January 20, at Golden Acres. Rumor has it that Golden Acres has mandatory practices two times a week and it really showed. This was a very close game but we pulled out the win 17 to 15.

January 27th at Regency. The Regency Team is struggling for members so, they have recruited a couple of ringers from the Big Ten. The Burnett's were able to stand their ground against these two guys to pull off a win in both their games. The score was 20 to 12.

February 3rd Lake Highlander at Riviera. We did a good job and displayed our good sportsmanship against this team. Final score 22 to 10.

February 10th at Alcove. Well we got an axe kicking on the Alcove magic courts. We lost the day and lost a little ground in the standings. Final score 20 to 12.

Thanks Team!!!

Team 2

Captain, Connie Russell

January 20th, weather caused our postponement to host Regency, date to be determined???

January 27th we were host to Lake Highlander.

We had intermittent showers in the third game that caused the match to end. It was decided to split the fourth game. We still took the WIN

18 - 14

winners: Fran, Sharron, Cindy and Janice.

February 3rd we traveled across the dangerous highway 19 to play the mighty Doral team. We didn't win but we had a great showing.

3 game winner: Fran. Double game winners: Wayne and Marion. Single game winners: Connie, Debbie, Denis, Victor, Sharron and Janice.

February 10th we were hosting Golden Acres.

Unfortunately we couldn't pull out the win, losing 13 - 19.

Double game winners: Wayne, Jean and Sharron. Single game winners: Connie, Doreen, Fran, Janice, Victor, Marion and Wes.

Our next match will be hosting our other team Riviera 1 on February 17th, followed by the February 19th Clearwater Tournament. Hopefully you all have a fun day and bring home all the prize money.

I would like to thank everyone who shows up early to prepare the courts on game days, you make my job easier.

CJ
