FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Claudette Lusignan, LusiClaudi@aol.com, 727-223-5228

All our snowbird friends are migrating back north to their various homes. I know that I speak for all here at Riviera when I say that they will be missed and we pray for a safe journey back to their northern homes and a safe journey back to us next fall. I will miss you and I love you all with my whole heart!!

The Good Neighbors board has decided that Saturday coffee Klatch will not continue for the summer due to lack of participation and donuts would not be delivered in such a small quantity. So instead, we will have a breakfast once a month. Not sure if it would be the first Saturday or which Saturday, but keep eyes open for postings.

FROM THE CO-EDITOR

TERRI WALLS, #89

Happy May everyone.....we have survived the winter and now heading straight into a summer that appears to be hot and humid. It seems the north can't get the snow showers stopped and we cannot have a spring or fall, we just go from winter to summer and then back to winter. But I am not complaining, it is better than the cold, ice and snow.

It is official, the sidewalks have been rolled up and the lazy, hazy crazy days of summer are here again. We have been busy trying to get things caught up around here after my health issues with my hip and it is really not an easy task to try to clean after a year of just a lick and a promise, but I am determined to take it room by room and get at least half done in a day. We also need to get the north outside wall powerwashed, and then things will be a bit better.

I am looking forward to going to the pool and exercising, I keep saying that, but haven't made it yet. It has to be really warm, I cannot get chilled as my joints scream at me if I do, so waiting for the hot days so I can go everyday. I am feeling better just thinking about it LOL. I do water aerobics and swim and when the pool is real busy during the winter months when heated I feel like I am "taking over" the pool. I like to go around 5 in the evening when most are preparing and eating supper, so it is not busy.

It is with great sadness that I report we lost Denise Childs on March 31st, after a very courageous battle with cancer. She will be sorely missed. She loved this park, and said it was the best thing she had done when she moved here. She loved and enjoyed her "Galli" (her dog,) even when he gave her a hard time. He brought her a lot of joy. She was described as "a peach" of a girl by Dot Haggerty, who said she and Denise went to their treatments together, and they laughed and had such a good time while doing so. She brought joy and had a wonderful smile. I will miss her and know she is now no longer suffering while being in God's glory. Rest in Peace Denise, you certainly deserve it.

So what is going on in May? Well according to my handy dandy calendar a LOT! May 1st is May day, also International Workers Day. May 3rd is National Day of Prayer, May 5th is Cinco de Mayo. May 6th starts National Pet Week. May 13th is Mother's Day. Ramadan begins on May 15th at sundown. May 19th is Armed Forces Day. May 21st is Victoria Day for Canada and also National Patriot's Day. May 26th is National Sorry Day for Australia. And the 28th of May is Memorial Day. So alot to celebrate this month. I am from Indiana, and May is all about the Indianapolis 500 race with track testing, qualifying, tire testing, etc. and of course the big race on the Sunday of Memorial Weekend.

So how are you planning on spending your summer? I am going to get back on my diet (I better) as I am going the wrong way since my hip surgery. I use the Weight Watcher program Smart Points and it has been very difficult for me to get back on it. My appetite seems unquenchable, which was never a problem when I was in that pain with my hip. I had no appetite. Made losing weight much easier than it is now.....so I have to be even more vigilant. Got to get it going the other way.....so there is this new recipe I have been using a lot. We love pizza here at the Walls household, and I could not find a pizza dough recipe I liked that wasn't sooooo many points until now.. This dough is used for pizza dough, bagels, pretzels, garlic knots, breadsticks, etc. Bread is pretty much a no no on any diet, but is allowed on WW, you just lose so many of your points for the good tasting ones. So this has become my go to dough recipe. You take 1 cup of nonfat plain yogurt, mix in 1-1/2 cups of self rising flour. It is pretty sticky, but mix it well and cover and let rest for 15-20 min. Flour your surface, roll the dough out onto the floured area, sprinkle flour on top, knead, adding enough flour till it becomes a smooth dough. Let rest again. Meanwhile, spray your pizza pan with Pam (I use olive oil spray) and place the dough on it. Spray a sheet of plastic wrap or waxed paper, lay it on top of the dough, and spread it to fit the pan with your hands. Bake until it begins to brown, at 400 degrees, then take it out, let cool, add toppings and bake till bubbly. I use lots of vegetables, cheese (reduced fat) etc. The only points are for the crust and it works out to be very low so you can have 2 or 3 slices and still be within your point range for the meal. For bagels, you cut the dough into 4 sections, roll each into a rope and then make a bagel shape, brush with egg bath, sprinkle spices and salt (whatever you like) or cinnamon, bake till golden. They are very good and low in points. Same with pretzels (only make the rope longer and twist into pretzel shape). I love the garlic knots which you tie a rope of dough into a knot, brush liberally with oil and garlic, bake till golden brown. Try it. My family likes it very much.

Another recipe I want to share is Easy Grilled Steak: 1 1/2 teasp fresh chopped basil, 1 1/2 teasp fresh chopped parsley. 2 teasp minced garlic. 1/2 teasp salt, 1/4 teasp pepper. 1 pound lean steak. Mix the spices together, coat top and bottom of steak. Grill 4 min on each side or until desired tenderness. This is quick and easy and serves 4, each serving is 3 WW Freestyle Smart Points.

One of my quick go to lunches is tuna salad in a crisp lettuce leaf bowl. Tuna, celery, onions, dill pickle relish and Olive Oil Kraft Mayo, mix together. Wash and dry lettuce leaf (can use cabbage, greens, any thing you like) place tuna in it and fold and eat like a sandwich.

I use egg salad, tacos etc. like this too. Or if you want a crispy taco shell, take 1/4 cup low fat cheese and place in hot skillet. It will bubble up and cook very quickly and as it starts to brown, lift it out of pan and allow it to bend and form like a taco shell, then let it cool. Stuff with meat, lettuce, tomato, onion, FF sour cream etc. Crunchy and delish.

What about that sweet tooth you ask? I take an angel food cake mix that calls for water only, dump dry mix in a large bowl, add a 20 oz can of crushed pineapple in its own juice, juice and all, mix well. It will foam up like crazy. Place in angel food cake pan, bake per directions. This is a very moist cake, super easy, sweet, and is only 2 points for 1/12th slice. Or take a spice cake mix, add a 15 oz can of pumpkin puree, 1/2 cup water, 1/2 cup walnuts. Bake per package directions and you have a yummy pumpkin bar only 2 points for 1/12th. You can get creative and add raisins, cinnamon chips, choc chips etc. but the chips add points to it. I stick with the nuts and raisins. It is so good, satisfies my sweet tooth and keeps me in line. Try some of these, you will be surprised.

Hurricane season is right around the corner, starts June 1st and they are predicting several storms with a couple of them becoming major. Next month I will give my "Hurricane Preparedness" speech to you. I am sure you just can't wait LOL. I do it so that new residents who may be spending their first hurricane season in Florida will know what they need to do. Sorry if I bore you but better to be safe than sorry.

In closing, I want to ask that you continue to pay it forward. Check on your neighbors, make sure they are doing all right, share a case of water with those less fortunate, buy a breakfast for that struggling person, etc. Do what you can to make your day and someone else's a great day. Also I ask that continued prayers be said for those residents who are struggling with health issues.

Have a great May everyone

Terri

RIVIERA ESTATES HOMEOWNER'S ASSOCIATION

ED MITCHELL, PRESIDENT

The next meeting of the homeowner's association will be next fall, in November. It will be time to elect officers again, so please plan to attend this meeting.

The Home Owners Association, also referred to as the HOA, is an elected group of residents that work as your collective voice to address issues and concerns with park management. The HOA also keeps you informed of changes to government laws regarding mobile home communities. Please attend the meetings to keep informed about your park issues. There is no charge to attend the meetings and all are welcome. Thank you Alan Hennigar

RIVIERA ESTATES GOOD NEIGHBORS

STEVE WALASKI, PRESIDENT

The next meeting of the Good Neighbor's Club will be the first Friday in November. This group is our planners for the outings and parties and good times we have. Please be sure to attend this meeting

Steve Walaski, President reports: The next meeting of the Good Neighbors Club will be in November when the Welcome Back Party will be discussed. We are planning an outside block party. Tina has booked DJ Vicki for November 17th. The exact location of the party and other details will be worked out at the November meeting.

Elections will be held during the December meeting. We will have three positions open on the board. The President's job as well as both Vice President's jobs will need to be filled. Take some time to think about filling one of these jobs. Good Neighbors welcome new ideas and people to keep Riviera a fun place to live.

The end of the year picnic was a success. With 62 people in attendance it was the second best attended party of the season. I hope all enjoyed the food. Thanks to our cooks, Dave Holton and Wayne Kelly and also thanks to anyone who brought food and snacks to share. Many thanks to all that played one or more of the games. I thank Earl Nauss for the shuffleboard games, Al Dominie, Donna Ammonite and Jean Byers for the horse races, Frank Rigiero and Sharron Stevens for the bocce ball, and finally, Diana McNiven and Janice Holton for Cornhole. The sum total of everybody's work made for an afternoon of good fun.

I would also like to thank everyone for an enjoyable season. I am also grateful to the people who supported the 50/50 drawing's week after week.

So for now, I wish everyone a safe and fun summer and I will see you in October.

ACTIVITIES AND REMINDERS:

POOL: The rules are posted at the pool, however, a review is needed to keep the pool safe and fun for all. Please do not touch the "heater" settings, this is controlled by management. No glass bottles/drinking glasses, etc. When you leave, please be courteous and roll the umbrellas down so they will not be damaged if a wind/storm comes up. If you see them up, and no one is in the pool, please put them down. They are expensive to continually replace. No pets are allowed in the pool area. Be sure to rinse off before getting into the pool to keep from allowing oil/lotion etc. Into the pool water. Do not allow grand children to swim unattended. Jumping and splashing is not received well by many swimmers. Review the rules and make sure you are abiding by them.

CLUBHOUSE: The clubhouse is not a storm shelter of any kind. Also, grandchildren should not be in the clubhouse unattended. There is a free library, please return books when you are finished with them. Unfortunately, the cabinets, refrigerator etc. Are locked as we kept having things mysteriously disappear. If you need to have them unlocked for use of a private party. See an officer of the good neighbors for list of who have keys. Be sure to lock all up when you leave. The clubhouse can be used for private parties. There is a calendar posted on the board and if you need to use the clubhouse for a family/private gathering, list it on the date with your name and time needed. We have many wonderful parties in the clubhouse and the bulletin boards is where you learn what is coming up and sign up if you are interested. Be sure when you leave, if the clubhouse is empty, turn off the lights etc. Make certain stove/oven are turned off.

SPEED: The speed in the park is to be 15 mph. Even though this is a senior park, there are guests and grandchildren visiting. They like to play outside, ride bikes, etc. A speeding vehicle is an accident waiting to happen. Please also tell your guests/family to respect the speed limit. Don't be surprised if you are yelled at by a resident to slow down if you are going too fast. Signs are posted so please be aware of your speed.

PETS: This is a pet friendly park with certain rules. It is required that you be a responsible pet owner. Cats are considered to be "inside" pets and are not to be running free all over the park. If you have a dog, please pick up after them. There is a pet disposal station in the rv lot. Do not allow your dog to use yards to do their business in. Some homeowners are not pet lovers and do not want them in their yards doing their business. Please use your own yard or the rv lot. It is important that we are respectful so we can continue to enjoy our dogs and not cause any anxiety with non-pet residents.

Juliettes Club (formerly Ladies Luncheon) Reported by Chris Rigiero

Hi everyone. Just a short report on the past months (March) luncheon....We had 22 signed up to meet but due to colds and last minute changes, a few had to opt out.

This month we went to Ruby Tuesdays. All the meals came out looking good and tasted as good as they looked. There was a salad bar offered with any varieties of ingredients. I think it is one of the better salad bars offered in the area, and if you really like salad, it's all you can eat. Which makes it a great value while keeping calories down.

16 of us women enjoyed the afternoon chatting, joking and enjoying the food and hospitality.

We will have at least one more luncheon prior to the exodus from the park to our homes up North. I'm not sure where as yet but hopefully will select a place that we all will enjoy.

Til then,think sunshine. This winter has been cooler than we usually experience but still better than if we were up North.Chris

April is here and we have had our final Juliette luncheon of the season. Frank and I traveled by Villa Bellini located on Gulf to Bay so often. The building is so attractive and inviting. I always intended to try it,but for what ever reason we never did.

I decided, after checking the lunch menu while on line, it might be a good place to cap off our season. Posting a sign up sheet seemed to cause some excitement among the ladies. I guess everyone else had the same idea as we did but never been there.

We had 22 girls signed up by Monday prior to our date of Thursday. Speaking to the reservation taker, I felt it was a wise choice because she seemed very pleasant and accommodating. 15 actually showed up.

Upon arrival and entering into the building I found the decor very nicely appointed.

The waiters spoke broken English and tended to our every need. Some ordered mixed drinks and seemed happy with the flavors.

Our meals were served by these personable waiters. I know I will be visiting Villa Bellini again. Hopefully soon. Some even suggested we consider dining here for our Christmas luncheon. Sounds like a good idea.

I had suggested that being the last of the season we would invite the Romeos to join us. Frank was the only male to sign up so he quickly removed his name and instead he, Earl, and Albert went to the causeway to fish and enjoy a few dozen oysters which they seemed to enjoy more than listening to a bunch of ladies talk.

Well, til next season I would like to wish everyone a safe trip back to their homes and enjoy the Summer. See you all in the Fall.....Chris

Health benefits of coffee for (almost) everyone

Is coffee good for you? Bad? The arguments go on and on, but a meta-analysis of 127 studies on the question by the University of Catania in Italy has found that drinking coffee is associated with the following health benefits:

- Decreased risk of breast, colorectal, colon, endometrial and prostate cancers, among others, from 2-20 percent depending on the cancer type.
- Five percent reduction in risk for cardiovascular disease.
- An approximately 30 percent lower risk for both Type 2 diabetes and Parkinson's disease, thanks to coffee's ability to improve enzymes that regulate glucose and insulin metabolisms.
- A lower death rate.

Coffee's natural antioxidants reduce free radicals that can damage cells and cause aging. It's also an anti-inflammatory that calms you down so you don't overact to stress.

One group that should avoid coffee, however, is pregnant women. Coffee, the study notes, can increase the risk of miscarriage.

Be ready to donate

Are you nervous about donating blood or signing up to be an organ donor? You don't have to be. An infographic from Work The World explores some of the common misconceptions about blood and organ donations. They include:

- Age. There is no age limit on organ donations. In fact, the oldest known donor to date was a Scottish woman of 107 who donated one of her corneas after death. The main factor is the health of the organ and the donor.
- Organs. A single organ donor can improve or save up to eight lives. Donating tissue can save even more.
- Blood type. All blood types are needed, even the most common ones.
- Tattoos. Got a tattoo? That won't prevent you from donating blood as long as you're otherwise healthy.
