A Guilty Face?

A farmer went to cut some firewood for his stove one morning and discovered that his ax was missing. As he was searching, he noticed his neighbor's son watching nearby.

"Aha," the farmer thought. "He must have stolen my ax. I can see a guilty look on his face."

But he had no proof, so he went inside and ate his breakfast cold. Later in the day as he walked past the woodpile, he noticed the ax underneath a few logs that had fallen over it during the night. Overjoyed, he picked it up and went to work chopping wood.

Then he spotted the neighbor's son again, right where he'd been before, with the same expression on his face.

"That's odd," the farmer thought. "Somehow he lost that guilty look he had."
