Manager's Corner for September 2015

Jeff Hahn, LCAM, Property Manager

MANAGER

Effective on September 1st, a contract will be in effect with a new lawn care provider, Matthew's Lawn Service Inc. out of St. Petersburg. Although Davey's has been providing this service to the community for many years, the decision was made to make a change, one which the ROC Board feels will provide certain advantages, to include more cuts per year at a cost that is no different than what has been paid. In addition, this company will use a street sweeper after every cut. All leaves and debris throughout the community will be blown off into the parking areas and roads and will be picked up by the sweeper. Also, and very importantly, MATTHEW'S WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DAMAGE TO ANY VINYL OR PLASTIC LIKE BUILDING MATERIAL INSTALLED WITHIN NINE INCHES OF THE LAWN AREA. As such, it is imperative of each home owner to remove the ground lights, decorations, etc. that may be damaged by the mowers, edgers and weed cutters. If not done, the cost of the damage will fall back to the resident. Another change, the cutting day will move from Tuesday to Monday, with the first cut scheduled for August 31st. I do not have the schedule after that day, but expect cuts to be done every Monday in September. Any updates will be posted on the Clubhouse billboards and perhaps on the electronic information board at the front of the community.

The weather has put a damper on a lot of areas that need to be addressed in the Park. These include the cleaning of the fountain in front of the Park, the completion of the sealing/painting of the east clubhouse roof, the painting of the shuffleboard court posts, the power washing some of the sidewalks that need it, etc. These projects will be done as quickly as possible and as Kevin, Bill and possible outside vendors can get to them.

Again, Rule #3 states the following: "No additions or alterations may be made to any mobile home without prior approval of the Park". If something is done prior to an approval and the change is not approved, you will be responsible for correcting the violation.

Please make certain that with every check or money you remit for your monthly rent or assessment, you place the unit number on it.

Thanks and enjoy the beginning of Fall, and perhaps cooler temperatures and less rain!

Strange Beaches

Barbara Clark, 303-0171

During my research about beaches one thing led to another as it usually does, and I found out there are some very interesting beaches in the world. I bet most of us have never visited any of these out of the way places (with the exception of Hawaii) and have probably never even heard of them. From Iceland to New Zealand and some places in-between, here some of the most fascinating beaches.

In Vik, Iceland there is a beautiful black sand and pebble beach next to the Katla volcano. The hot lave flowed into the frigid ocean and created the black sand. Offshore, there are some jagged basalt sea stacks, inhabited by puffins.

Going to warmer waters, on the Marietas Islands in Mexico, there is a hidden, sandy beach. It was used as a bomb site in the 1900's by the Mexican Government for military testing. The bombs carved out chunks of the rocky landscape creating this hidden, sandy beach as well as several caves. You can swim 40-50 feet through a water tunnel to get to the beach. No scuba gear is needed in this beautiful turquoise-blue water.

On the Big Island of Hawaii there is a black sand beach made of basalt created by lava flowing into the ocean. It is located in the town of Naalehu, Punaluu near Hawaii Volcanos National Park. There are tall leaning coconut palms on this beach which is a striking contrast with the black sand. I am lucky enough to have seen this beach!

Papakolea Beach is located in the Kau district of Hawaii. It is one of only two green sand beaches in the world. The other one is in the Galapagos Islands. The green sand is composed primarily of olivine crystals, which erode out of basalt (lava) flows. The green sand in Papakolea comes from the enclosing cinder cone, formed over 49,000 years ago. The constant erosion of the cone ensures a steady supply of olivines for the beach sand. Eventually, the supply will run out and the beach will lose its unique color.

There is a distinctive beach located on Jervis Island, sometimes called Rabida Island with reddish brown sand and steep slopes of volcanic cinders. The red color is from the high amount of iron in the volcanic sand. The island is one of the Galapagos Islands and is home to a sea lion colony, a number of birds (including brown pelicans) and marine iguanas. The island is located about half way between Hawaii and the Cook Islands. This deserted island has no harbor, has dangerous currents and has a desert climate.

There is a beach in Western Australia that is made entirely of shells. There are only two beaches in the world made entirely from shells. It is aptly named due to the great abundance of cockle shells. The shells typically reach a depth of 33 feet. Over time, the shells have formed a limestone that is known as Coquina.

Boulders Beach in Simon's Town in South Africa is a sheltered beach made up of inlets between granite boulders. It is home to a colony of African penguins that established there in the 1980's. There are wooden walkways to allow tourists to view the penguins in their natural habitat.

Maho Beach on the island of St. Martin, Caribbean is not only good for sunbathing but plane spotting! You'd expect a typical beach to be a nice, quiet haven to relax. Not so! This beach is known for its beautiful water but is most famous for its low flying airliners, which fly so closely above the beach that people can actually be blown into the water from the jet blast. The beach is next to the Princess Juliana International Airport and because the runway is short (with the ocean on one side and a mountain on the other), the planes must touch down as close to the edge of the runway as possible. If you are a thrill seeker, this is a landing for you! Please remain seated while on the beach!

Visit Hot Water Beach on the East coast of the Coromandel Peninsula in New Zealand and you will notice immediately that the tourists are digging holes in the sand with spades and buckets. Then, they sit in their own personal hot springs. The underground hot water (up to 147°F) filters up through the sand between the high and low tidal reaches. The best time to enjoy the hot spring is two hours each side of low tide. Spades are available for rent!

Imagine walking over 100 meters from the sea shoreline and stumbling over a small charming beach right in the middle of a green meadow. There is just such a place on the northern coast of Spain in the town of Llanes. Gulpiyuri Beach is a flooded sinkhole within an inland beach roughly 131 feet long, with a golden stretch of sand and crystal-clear waters that are even fully tidal. Just how is it that waves from the ocean appear on this inland beach? The salt waters of the Cantabrian Sea bored through the earth, creating a series of underground tunnels that constantly feed water to Gulpiyuri Beach. The shallow crystal-clear water of this place invites you to take a dip but the water is a little cold from remaining underground for a while.

Azure waters surround this unique shape-shifting beach on the southern coast of the island of Brač, Croatia. It is a white pebble beach shaped like a golden horn and the sand shifts with the tide changes, the currents and wind. It extends out into the sea like a tongue about 2,080 feet long. It is popular with wind surfers and water sports fans.

Warm thoughts like lovely flowers lighten the heart and brighten the hours.

I send Get Well or Sympathy cards to residents who are ill or the families of someone who has passed away. Let me know of anyone in these situations. Thanks.

Sympathy cards were given to or sent to:

David and Analova Haupt (#100) – Analova's mother, Shirley Granderath, passed away

Ken Tripp and Family (#392) – Ken's wife Lynn passed on July 6th

Joy Gutjahr in Canada – her husband, Ross, passed away

A Get Well card was sent to Mary Lou Erdman (#117) at the Sylvan Rehab Center in Clearwater.

A special thank you goes to Alma Cowing (#8). She donated a lot of the cards that I send out. Thank you Alma!

September Is...

Baby Safety Month. Drowning, falls, chemicals, and other hazards can endanger the life and health of any small child. During September, take a good look around your house and eliminate any threats to babies' safety that might be hiding in plain sight.

Library Card Sign-Up Month. A time to remind parents and children that a library card is the most important school supply of all. If you don't already have a library card, get one in September; if you do, visit your local library and use it.

National Bourbon Heritage Month. A celebration of bourbon as America's "Native Spirit." The U.S. Senate declared September National Bourbon Heritage Month in 2007, calling on those who enjoy bourbon to do so responsibly and in moderation.

National Campus Safety Awareness Month. College campuses are not immune to destructive behaviors and violence due to high-risk drinking, drug abuse, sexual assault, fire safety, and more. As your kids head to college this month, talk to them about safety and investigate the resources their school offers.

Week to Week

National Suicide Prevention Week, Sept. 8-14. An annual campaign to inform and engage health professionals and the general public about suicide prevention and warning signs of suicide. Awareness events are held throughout the week around World Suicide Prevention Day, Sept. 10.

National Truck Driver Appreciation Week, Sept. 13-19. Sponsored by the American Trucking Associations, a federation of state associations, affiliated conferences, and individual members committed to developing and advocating policies that promote highway safety, security, environmental sustainability, and profitability.

Pollution Prevention Week, Sept. 21-27. The best way to protect the earth and its people is to stop creating pollution in the first place. Less waste and pollution means fewer hazards to public health and the environment. Pollution Prevention Week highlights the efforts of the EPA, its state partners, industry, and the public in preventing pollution right from the start.

Banned Books Week, Sept. 27-Oct. 3. Sponsored by the American Library Association to promote the importance of ensuring the availability of books to all who wish to read them.

The Best Antidote

A young wife lived with her husband’s mother. Although she loved her husband, she found her mother-in-law impossible to deal with. In her desperation, she decided to poison the woman and get her out of her life.

She found a doctor willing to help her. As he gave her the poison, the doctor said, “Just so that no one suspects you, treat your mother-in-law as nicely as you can. Give her a little bit of this poison every day, and in a month your problems will be over.”

The wife followed his instructions, treating her mother-in-law with special kindness as she slipped the poison into her food every day. Toward the end of the month, she went back to the doctor.

“Something strange happened,” she said. “Ever since I’ve been nice to her, she’s been nicer to me. Now she seems more like a friend than a mother-in-law. Can you give me an antidote for the poison before she dies?”

The doctor smiled. “I gave you ordinary vitamins. The only poison was in your own mind.”
