The secret to peace

A teacher and his student were walking through the forest. The student asked: “Why are most people’s minds restless, and only few possess a calm mind? What can one do to still the mind?”

The teacher smiled and told his student a story:

On one beautiful day, an elephant was standing by the shade of a tree, eating leaves. Suddenly, a small fly came buzzing and landed on the elephant’s ear. The elephant stayed calm and continued to eat, not heeding the fly.

The fly flew around the elephant’s ear, buzzing noisily, but the elephant seemed to be unaffected. This bewildered the fly, and it asked, “Are you deaf?”

“No,” the elephant answered.

“Then why aren’t you bothered by my buzz?”

“Why are you so restless and noisy? Why can’t you stay still just for a few moments?”

The fly replied, “Everything I see, hear and feel attracts my attention, and all noises and movements around me affect my behavior. What is your secret? How can you stay so calm and still?”

The elephant stopped eating and said, “My five senses do not disturb my peace, because they do not rule my attention. I am in control of my mind and my thoughts, and therefore, I can direct my attention where I want, and ignore any disturbances, including your buzz. Therefore I can stay peaceful.”

At the end of the story, the student’s eyes opened wide, and a smile appeared on his face. “Now I understand! My mind will always be in constant unrest if my five senses, and whatever is happening in the world around me, are in control. On the other hand, if I am in command of my five senses, able to disregard sense impressions, and able to control my thoughts, my mind will become calm, and I will be able to disregard its restlessness.”

“That’s right,” answered the teacher. “The mind is restless and goes wherever the attention goes. Control your attention, and you control your mind.”

The core of addiction

It's a common experiment: Put a rat in a cage with two bottles of water to drink. One is regular water, but the other one has water laced with cocaine or heroin. The rat quickly gets addicted to the drug-infused water and stops drinking from the other bottle. This explains the power of addiction.

But it may not be that simple, as Johann Hari suggests in Does Capitalism Cause Addiction? One scientist created a “rat park.” Instead of just two water bottles, the park held everything a rat could want— food, colored balls to play with, and other rats for company. In the rat park, none of the rats grew addicted to the drugged water.

What does this show? That addiction is partly a response to one’s environment. With enough resources to distract and entertain us, most people won’t prefer the drugged water (or whatever). What we need is connection.

Make the call - make a difference

Consultant Michael Hargrove uses this exercise frequently in his training sessions:

Imagine you are on a 747 flying over the ocean. Halfway through the flight, the plane begins experiencing mechanical difficulties. The captain comes on the intercom and explains as calmly as he can that an engine has fallen from the plane, ripping a fuel line. The crew will continue to fly as long as possible until fuel runs low, and then they will attempt a water landing.

Hargrove asks his listeners to write down the name of the one person they would call in the next few minutes, and what they would say. Then he asks: “So what are you waiting for? Today, make the call.”

Two or three things I know for sure, and one of them is that to go on living I have to tell stories, that stories are the one sure way I know to touch the heart and change the world.

— Alexandra Watkins

November Daily

National Authors Day, Nov. 1. A day to honor authors by writing (or tweeting) a thank-you note to your favorite authors, purchasing new and old books alike, or working on your own writing projects.

All Souls' Day, Nov 2. A day of prayer and remembrance for the souls of those who have died.

Election Day (U.S.), Nov. 3. Vote!

Veterans Day, Nov. 11. Honoring veterans of the U.S armed forces, on the anniversary of the signing of the armistice that ended WWI.

Thanksgiving, Nov. 26. Whether you're together with your family this year or celebrating via Zoom, remember to be thankful.

November Weekly

Drowsy Driving Prevention Week, Nov. 1–7. Drowsy driving is responsible for more than 6,400 U.S. deaths annually. The National Sleep Foundation's annual campaign goal is to reduce the number of drivers who elect to drive while sleep deprived.

Geography Awareness Week, Nov. 8–14. Sponsored by the National Geographic, this annual public awareness program encourages citizens young and old to think and learn about the significance of place and how we affect and are affected by it.

National Nurse Practitioner Week, Nov. 8–14. National Nurse Practitioner Week is held annually to celebrate these exceptional health care providers and to remind lawmakers of the importance of removing outdated barriers to practice so that nurse practitioners will be allowed to practice to the full extent of their experience and education.

American Education Week, Nov. 16–20. Schools across the country participate in American Education Week during the week before Thanksgiving, promoting collaboration between parents and educators. The program also promotes the public education system—its goals, successes, and outcomes.

November Monthly

American Diabetes Month. For the millions of people who are at risk of diabetes, it's a time to get educated, find resources, and make sure all those around you are aware of their risk, too. And for the millions of people living with diabetes, it's a chance to tell your stories and awaken the world.

National Entrepreneurship Month. November was designated (in 2016) as National Entrepreneurship Month by presidential proclamation. To celebrate the tenacious and rebellious spirit of entrepreneurs, President Barack Obama wrote, “we celebrate entrepreneurs who serve their communities and bolster our economy.”

National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo). Each year on Nov. 1, hundreds of thousands of people around the world begin to write, determined to end the month with 50,000 words of a brand-new novel. NaNoWriMo, a nonprofit organization that supports writing fluency and education, runs year-round programs across 646 regions around the world and in thousands of classrooms, and empowers nearly half a million people to access the power of creative writing.

Manatee Awareness Month. November is Manatee Awareness Month—a time to celebrate Florida’s beloved, iconic marine mammal and also to create awareness and shed light on the many challenges imperiled manatees face every day.

As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them.

Luck at the track?

Joe was reading his paper one morning when his wife walked up behind him and smacked him on the back of the head with a frying pan.

“What was that for?” Joe asked.

“I found a slip of paper in your pocket with ‘Hot Sue’ written on it.”

“Jeez, honey, remember last week when I went to the track? ‘Hot Sue’ was the name of the horse I bet on.”

She shrugged and walked away.

Three days later Joe was reading his paper when his wife walked up behind him and smacked him on the back of the head again with the frying pan. “What was that for?” he asked.

“Your horse just called.”

At the movies

---

A man with an elephant walked into a movie theater.

“I’m afraid I can’t let your elephant in here, sir,” the manager said.

“Oh, I assure you, he’s very well behaved,” the man said.

“All right, then,” the manager said. “If you’re sure.”

After the movie, the manager said to the man, “I’m very impressed! Your elephant was well behaved, and he even seemed to enjoy the movie!”

“Yes, I was surprised, too,” said the man. “He hated the book.”

A kindly gesture

A man was walking down the street one day when he noticed a boy trying to press a doorbell on a house across the street. However, the boy was very small, and the doorbell was too high for him to reach.

After watching the boy's efforts for some time, the man walked up onto the porch behind the little fellow and, placing his hand kindly on the child's shoulder, leaned over and gave the doorbell a solid ring.

Crouching down to the child's level, the man smiled kindly and asked, "And now what, my little man?"

The boy laughed. "Now we run!"

Afraid of the dark

A little boy was afraid of the dark. One night his mother told him to go out to the back porch and bring her the broom. The little boy turned to his mother and said, "Mama, I don't want to go out there. It's dark."

The mother smiled reassuringly at her son. "You don't have to be afraid of the dark," she explained. "God is out there. He'll look after you and protect you."

The little boy looked at his mother very hard and asked, "Are you sure He's out there?"

"Yes, I'm sure. He is everywhere, and He is always ready to help you when you need Him," she said.

The little boy thought about that for a minute and then went to the back door and cracked it a little. Peering out into the darkness, he called, "God? If you're out there, would you please hand me the broom?"

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,
The Florida Anchor & Barrier Team
