Joke

A man goes to see the Rabbi. "Rabbi, something terrible is happening and I have to talk to you about it."

The Rabbi asked, "What's wrong?"

The man replied, "My wife is poisoning me."

The Rabbi, very surprised by this, asks, "I'm sure you're wrong."

The man pleads, "I'm telling you, I'm certain she's poisoning me. What should I do?"

The Rabbi then offers, "Tell you what, let me talk to her. I'll see what I can find out and I'll let you know."

A week later the Rabbi calls the man and says, "Well, I spoke to your wife. I spoke to her on the phone for three hours. You want my advice?"

The man anxiously says, "Yes, please."

"OK. Take the poison," says the Rabbi.

4th of July Party

Thanks to John and Roberta O'Brien, residents enjoyed Independence Day at the clubhouse observing social distancing rules. Tables were six feet apart, and only four seats at a table. We enjoyed an outlay of delicious foods consisting of: Barbecued ribs, pulled pork, barbecued chicken, baked beans, cole slaw and potato salad. For dessert, delicious small sugar coated doughnuts to dip into individual containers of chocolate syrup and/or raspberry sauce was offered.

Each resident introduced him/herself and stated from what state they were from and where they lived. Introductions were made to new residents by our hostess, Roberta. What was so nice is that of all the people attending is that we had so many new residents we got to meet. Hopefully we can continue to encourage more residents to start coming to our events. Many memories were exchanged regarding past events and ideas for new events were discussed. Several residents "pitched" in and clean up to enable those of us that wanted to spend the rest of the day lounging at the pool side and/or swimming in the pool. All in all it was a perfect day, even the weather agreed to remain dry and hot!! Again A big thank you to John and Roberta for their hard work to establish, develop, and present the event. We are grateful! Also a big thank you to Serena for all her help.

Joke

Church Ladies With Typewriters
They're Back! Those wonderful Church Bulletins! Thank God for the church ladies with typewriters. These sentences actually appeared in church bulletins or were announced at church services:

The Fasting & Prayer Conference includes meals.

Scouts are saving aluminium cans, bottles and other items to be recycled Proceeds will be used to cripple children.

The sermon this morning: 'Jesus Walks on the Water.' The sermon tonight: 'Searching for Jesus.'

Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.

Don't let worry kill you off - let the Church help.

Miss Charlene Mason sang 'I will not pass this way again,' giving obvious pleasure to the congregation.

For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.

Next Thursday there will be try-outs for the choir. They need all the help they can get.

Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24 in the church. So ends a friendship that began in their school days.

A bean supper will be held on Tuesday evening in the church hall. Music will follow.

At the evening service tonight, the sermon topic will be 'What Is Hell?' Come early and listen to our choir practice.

Eight new choir robes are currently needed due to the addition of several new members and to the deterioration of some older ones.

Please place your donation in the envelope along with the deceased

WHEN TREATING A HEART ATTACK OR STROKE, TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. EVEN DURING THESE TIMES.

Don't hesitate when it comes to getting emergency treatment.

Even during a pandemic, you still need to be treated immediately if you have an emergency. Debating whether or not to risk going to an emergency room during a heart attack, stroke or other health emergency—waiting even a few extra minutes—could be harmful. That's why in all BayCare hospital emergency rooms, patients who have symptoms of COVID-19 are isolated from other patients. This helps keep emergency room patients and our team members safe. So if it's an emergency, don't wait. For more information: BayCareEmergencyCare.org person you want remembered.

The church will host an evening of fine dining, super entertainment and gracious hostility

The ladies of the Church have cast off clothing of every kind. They may be seen in the basement on Friday afternoon.

This evening at 7 PM there will be a hymn singing in the park across from the Church. Bring a blanket and come prepared to sin.

The pastor would appreciate it if the ladies of the Congregation would lend him their electric girdles for the pancake breakfast next Sunday.

Low Self Esteem Support Group will meet Thursday at 7 PM . Please use the back door.

The eighth-graders will be presenting Shakespeare's Hamlet in the Church basement Friday at 7 PM. The congregation is invited to attend this tragedy.

Weight Watchers will meet at 7 PM at the First Presbyterian Church. Please use large double door at the side entrance.

And this one just about sums them all up:

The Associate Minister unveiled the church's new campaign slogan last Sunday: "I Upped My Pledge - Up Yours."

Joke

Customer at a counter of a lawn ornament shop:

"Give me four of those pinwheels, two of those pink flamingos, two of the sunflowers, and one of those bent-over grandma in bloomers."

Cashier's reply:

"That'll be eight dollars for the pinwheels, ten dollars for the flamingos, six dollars for the sunflowers, and an apology to my wife

KNOW YOUR NEIGHBOR

Do you know who the person is that writes and edits the Shangri La monthly newsletter?

Did you know that same person has held every position on the HOA board except secretary? And today is the Treasurer on the board. Would you call that person industrious, workaholic and principled? I would and here's her story:

Diane Pelkey, Lot 2 was born on November 20, 1947 in Syracuse, New York. Daughter of Agnes and Neil Pelkey, she is the oldest of five children. She has two brothers and two sisters.

She attended St. Anthony School from elementary thru High School, graduating in 1965. While in high school she worked as a nurse's aide. Entered the Crouse-Irving School of Nursing upon graduation but had to drop out due to illness in the first semester.

Diane worked in a department store until 1967 when she had the chance to take a typing test for the state of New York. She passed, got the job and states: "I worked for NY State Insurance Fund., ( worker's compensation )retired in 33 years and never had to type again!" In 1978, she was promoted and moved to Albany. Diane started as Grade 3 and retired in Sept. 2000 at Grade 23. She started as a bill payer and advanced to Associate Claims Examiner upon retirement.

Upon retirement Diane decided to come to Florida to visit her ailing father. Agnes and Neil were living here in Shangri La. She decided to buy Lot 2 but lived with her parents until she could move into it. In February, her dad died, so she continued to live with her mom until April 2001 when she was finally able to move into her own home. She looked after her Mom until 2006 when Aggie moved to Syracuse

Diane enjoys scrapbooking, doing crafts, and making family calendars

She has ten nieces and nephews and fifteen great nieces and nephews whom "I spoil rotten!

You will know her house by all the frogs in the yard.

When asked, Diane states she enjoys our park because of the activities and the friendliness of the people who reside here. On her scooter, she goes everywhere! She'll toot her horn if you wave! Wave-away! Just call us lucky to have such a good neighbor!!

PULLED ROAST BEEF

2 to 3 pounds roast beef (cheap - with fat in it)
salt / pepper
minced garlic
basil and parsley to taste

Put roast beef into a 9x12 loaf pan. Cut slit openings in the meat and push minced garlic into them.. Sprinkle with herbs. Pour 1/2 cup of water around the roast. Cover with foil and Bake at 300 degrees for 3 hours. Occasionally look at the roast to add a little more water.

When roast done, place on platter, separate and throw away the fat from the beef. Pull meat apart to serve.

Joke

A highway patrolman pulled alongside a speeding car on the freeway. Glancing at the car, he was astounded to see that the elderly woman behind the wheel was knitting!
The trooper cranked down his window and yelled to the driver, "PULL OVER!"
"NO!" the woman yelled back, "Cardigan!"

Wildlife

Lately it seems Shangri-La has turned into a wildlife sanctuary. In recent months we have seen rabbits, egrets, ducks, peacocks and now chickens.

It even left us an egg

Joke. Are you a true southerner

---

Well.... Bless my grits and fry my tomatoes!

Only a true Southerner knows the difference between a hissie fit and a conniption fit, and that you don't "HAVE" them - ou pitch a hissie fit, and throw a conniption fit.

Only a true Southerner knows how many fish are in "a mess."

Only a true Southerner can show or point out to you the general direction of "yonder."

Only a true Southerner knows exactly how long "directly" is - as in: "Going to town, be back directly."

All true Southerners, even babies, know that "Gimme some sugar" is not a request for the white, granular sweet substance that sits in a pretty little bowl on the middle of the table.

All true Southerners know exactly when "by and by" is.

Only a true Southerner knows and understands the difference between a redneck, a good ol' boy, and po' white trash.

A true Southerner knows that "fixin'" can be used as a noun, a verb, or an adverb.

Only a true Southerner knows that the term "booger" can be a resident of the nose, or a descriptive, as in "that ol' booger," or a first name or something that jumps out at you in the dark and scares you senseless.

Only true Southerners make friends while standing in lines. We don't do "queues," we stand in "lines," and when we're "in line," we talk to everybody!

True Southerners never refer to one person as "y'all."

True Southerners know grits come from corn and how to eat them.

Only true Southerners say "sweet milk." "Sweet milk" means you don't want buttermilk.

And a true Southerner knows you don't scream obscenities at little old ladies who drive 30 MPH on the freeway. You just say, "Bless her little heart...!" and go on your way.

TA great teacher for Bill Gates

When Microsoft founder Bill Gates attended Seattle's View Ridge Elementary, he was a typical nerdy 4th-grade introvert who kept to himself. However, a kindly librarian named Blanche Caffiere helped him into his own in a way that would one day change the world forever. Gates tells the tale on his blog:

"When I first met Mrs. Caffiere, she was the elegant and engaging school librarian at Seattle's View Ridge Elementary, and I was a timid 4th-grader. I was desperately trying to go unnoticed, because I had some big deficits, like atrocious handwriting ... and I was trying to hide the fact that I liked to read—something that was cool for girls but not for boys ... Mrs. Caffiere took me under her wing and helped make it okay for me to be a messy, nerdy boy who was reading lots of books."

Mrs. Caffiere encouraged Gates' passion for reading by helping him explore it through introspective questions, such as what he liked to read and why. She went out of her way to find books that were progressively more interesting and challenging for him. Once he'd read them, she would ask him if he liked what he had read, and more importantly, what he'd learned and why. "She genuinely listened to what I had to say," Gates recalls.

Blanche Caffiere passed away in 2006, shortly after reaching her 100th birthday—but not before Gates was able to thank her personally for the lasting impact her love and curiosity had on his life.

Problem

Two parents came to a counselor because they were having trouble with their 25-year-old son. The son had refused come to the counseling session with them. "He doesn't think he has a problem," the father said.

"Maybe he's right," the counselor said. "Tell me about it."

The son was having trouble staying in school and finding a job. He was using drugs, keeping questionable company, and avoiding responsibility in general.

The parents said they'd tried everything: Always making sure he had everything he needed, giving him plenty of money at college so he wouldn't have to work and he'd have plenty of time for study and a social life, and helping him find another college when he flunked out of his first one.

Finally, the counselor said, "I think your son is right. He doesn't have a problem."

The parents stared at him in shock. The father said, "Did I hear you right? You don't think he has a problem?"

"That's correct," the counselor said. "He doesn't have a problem. You do. He can do whatever he wants. You pay, you plan, you exert energy to keep him going. He doesn't have a problem because you have taken it from him. Those things should be his problem, but as it now stands, they are yours."

Lights began to go on in the parents' heads.

The counselor said to them, "Would you like for me to help you help him to have some problems?"

Seeing-eye dogs

Two friends were out walking their dogs on a hot day when they passed by a bar. The first guy said, "Let's go in there for a pint."

"They won't let us in with our dogs," said his friend.

"Sure they will. Just follow my lead."

He walked into the pub, and sure enough, the bartender said, "I can't let you in here with that dog."

He replied, "Oh, I'm blind. This is my seeing-eye dog."

The bartender said, "I guess that's OK, then."

The second guy saw and heard the exchange, so he walked into the bar with his dog.

Again, the bartender said, "No dogs, sorry."

He replied, "I'm blind and this is my seeing-eye dog."

The bartender crossed his arms, "You have a Chihuahua for a seeing-eye dog?"

"What?" the man exclaimed. "They gave me a Chihuahua?"

Spy story

A secret agent was sent to a small town in Ireland to pick up sensitive information from an agent named Murphy. His instructions were to walk around the town using a code phrase until he met his fellow agent. He found himself on a desolate country road and finally ran into a farmer.

"Hello," said the agent. "I'm looking for a man called Murphy."

"Well you're in luck," said the farmer. "There's a village right over the hill where a butcher is called Murphy, the baker is named Murphy, and three widows are called Murphy. In fact, my name is Murphy."

"Aha," thought the agent, "maybe here's my man." So he whispered the secret code: "The sun is shining, the grass is growing, and the cows are ready for milking."

"Oh," said the farmer, "you're looking for Murphy the spy. He's in the village over the other direction."

New location

A telemarketer called a house, and a friendly woman answered the phone. After explaining who he was, he asked for Mr. Smith.

"I'm sorry," said the woman, "I'm afraid he doesn't live here anymore."

"I'm sorry to hear that," the telemarketer said. "Do you happen to have a number for where he is now?"

"Certainly." She read off a number. The telemarketer thanked her, hung up, and dialed the number.

After four rings he heard, "Thank you for calling Shady Acres Cemetery ..."
