BIRTHDAY PARTY

Twenty six residents and guests enjoyed an evening of good food and games during the annual birthday party given at the clubhouse, hosted by Kathy Schultz on Jan. 20. As has been said before, it takes a village to bring about an event. Thanks to the following residents, our special event was delightfully successful.

The set up for the party was done by Joy Lyman, Carol Byrd, Pat Signor, Kathy and Wally Schultz. The hall beautifully decorated by Diane Desrochers.

Menu: Arlene Sardo made the fruit salad, Larry Byrd the deviled eggs, Jewel Mayo the baked beans, Kathy the barbecued hamburgers, and Sam's club the Macaroni and Cheese and the iced cupcakes.

The clean up crew included: Roberta O'Brien, Peter Batchelor, Carol, Pat, Bob Vogel, Arlene, Patricia Wright, Wally and John O'Brien.

A coloring contest started the evening. Each place setting contained a picture of a butterfly. Crayons were placed on the tables to use to color the picture. Results as pictured.

First prize was won by Diane Pelkey. Second: John O'Brien. Third: Larry Byrd.

A game narrated by Kathy awarded prizes according to tickets given at the door upon arriving.

Everyone went home with a prize, some with more than one. The gifts were donated by Diane Pelkey, Linda Keenan, and Polly Pifer.

To recap: The food was delicious, the company the best, the prizes worthy, and the time well spent. Thank You, Thank you, Thank you

Twenty-one residents and guest attended the NFL Championship Party and Chili Cook Off. Five different Chili dishes were made by John O'Brien, Joy Lynam, Terri Tynam, Peggy (Pat Signor's daughter) and Carol Byrd. Ben Jackman and Wally Schultz judged the chili and decided upon two, Peggy and Carol's chili. Several snacks and desserts were brought by some of the residents for others to enjoy.

NFL Championship pool was run by Larry Byrd selling a 100 square sheet. The following won: 1st quarter: John Holmes 2nd quarter: John O'Brien 3rd quarter: Polly Pifer 4th quarter: Polly Pifer.

Everyone seemed to have enjoyed the food and the company of others. Patriots beat the LA Rams 13-3.

DO YOU KNOW

When you go into the clubhouse to pay your rent or read the notices on the bulletin board, did you ever wonder who decorated the hall with various themes to fit the different occasions? Did you look and admire the signs and decorations as you borrowed a book to read or to use the WiFi, or even to watch T.V.? Well, did you know this same kind, generous person also delivers your Shangri La Newsletter to your door too? Who is this great lady?

Diane Descrochers was born in Lowell, Mass. on Jan. 19, 1959 to Pauline and Ray Frechette. The oldest of four children, she graduated from St. Joseph High School in June of 1977. On Sept. 10, 1977, at the age of eighteen, Diane married Louis Descrochers. They have two children. A daughter Rhonda lives in New Port Richey and has four children: Alysha, Tyler, Zander, and Jaclynn. Their son Louie lives in Massachusetts and has a daughter, Jaycee.

Diane worked at Raytheon Mfg. where they made missiles for the government. She is retired after twenty three years.

Lou and Diane moved from Mass. to Largo, Fla. 2012. November 2014 they bought Lot 101 in Shangra La. Diane says "the best move ever, I love this park". They have a dog Bailey who is a rescue dog and ten years old.

When questioned as to where and how Diane became such an awesome decorator, she states she gets it honestly from her mother: "my mother could make a dump look like a palace!!" Believe you me, Diane has the knack to do the same impressive thing. Not only is she talented, but she's also kind, generous and willing to do more than her share. She states she loves the friends she has made in the park, and "my utmost favorite thing is being on the shuffle team. I love the sport! It's a lot of fun!"

Yes, Diane, we love you too. Lucky us having a neighbor like you.

Activities

March is here which means the little Leprechauns will be scampering about. Come join us Sunday March 17th for a traditional Corned Beef and cabbage dinner between 6 and 7, with music by DJ Gary to follow. This year for those of you who do not like corned beef we will also be serving ham. Residents are free, guests are $10.

Just to let everyone know with the increases in food costs all guests for all events will now be $10.

Welcome

We have a new welcome committee. They are Polly Pifer and Linda Keenan. Thank you for taking on this job.

Thank You

I hope that everyone had a wonderful time at the Valentine's Day party this year. We did have a good turnout and plenty of delicious food. I usually jump in and help wherever it is needed: Setting up or cleaning up. This time I decided to jump in and host this party. Since this was my first time I needed a lot of support and advice. I must give a huge Thank you to Carol Byrd and Kathy Schultz for all of your advice, suggestions and planning. Also Thank you to Linda Keenan and to Joy Lynam Joyce Cutlip, Pat Signor, Linda Jackman, Vicki Dasco, Penny Campbell and Tammy Tynam. A special Thank you to Barbara Fernandez for the Flamingo performance. It was a big hit. As usual Diane Derochers did a great job on decorations. Can't forget the male helpers Wally Schultz, Larry Byrd and my husband John O'Brien who knew he had no choice. If I miss anyone I am sorrybut THANK YOU ALL

Roberta O'Brien

Thank you to Cathy Mayle for making up our phone directories for us once again this year. Cathy is also the one who makes sure your birthday and/or anniversary is listed on the calendar.

These drawing games can spur your brain

Drawing can spur your creativity. You don't have to be a Picasso. Just try some of these games with your friends (from the My Modern Met website):

- The Exquisite Corpse. In this game, developed by the 20th-century Surrealist artists, one person begins a drawing at the top of a sheet of paper, then folds it over or covers it up so only a bit of the bottom is showing. The next person continues the drawing, folds it down, and so on. Unfolding it to reveal the completed drawing should produce surprises, laughs, and even some ideas.
- Paper Telephone. One person writes a short, descriptive phrase on a piece of paper, then passes it to the next. He or she then draws a picture based on the phrase. The next person looks only at the picture and then writes a phrase or sentence describing it. The following person then draws a picture of that phrase, and so on. By the end, the final picture and the original phrase may have nothing to do with each other.
- Blind Contour. In this exercise you (and a partner) draw something around you, but without looking at the paper—just the subject of your drawing. Keep your pen or pencil on the paper at all times. You might be surprised at what you see.
- Scribbles. One person scribbles on a piece of paper, eyes closed. The next person has to turn that doodle into a drawing. This forces your mind to make sense of nonsense.

A simple exercise for imagination

Your subconscious mind can help you exercise your imagination. Try this technique (used by Thomas Edison):

Ten minutes before you go to sleep, organize your thoughts. Think about a problem you're trying to solve, or ask your brain a question. Keep thinking about this as you drift off to dreamland. Then, during the first 10 minutes after waking up, write down whatever pops into your head. You'll often find that your brain has answered your question during your sleep. In the morning your mind is looser, and you're more likely to remember dreams and connect them to your daytime reality.

INVENTION, STRICTLY SPEAKING, IS LITTLE MORE THAN A NEW COMBINATION OF THOSE IMAGES WHICH HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY GATHERED AND DEPOSITED IN THE MEMORY; NOTHING CAN COME FROM NOTHING.

Americans prefer to stay at home

Planning a vacation overseas this year? You're not exactly alone, but you're not in the majority. As reported on the NerdWallet website, a survey by Priority Pass found that only 14 percent of Americans plan to leave the United States for a vacation this year. Forty-five percent said they'd prefer to stay in the U.S.

The survey included 10,000 people in nine countries. Overall, 32 percent of respondents said they expect to go abroad for their holidays. Among other travel-related findings from the survey:

- Americans are least likely to spend a cash gift on travel. If given $300, U.S. residents are least likely to use it to help pay for a trip. People in the United Kingdom and Mexico are most likely.
- Americans spend more on travel. Although they travel less, Americans have the highest per-person budget for overseas travel.
- Americans don't share. Finally, the survey found that Americans are least likely to share their travel memories on social media, or recommend hotels, airlines, and transportation services than residents of other countries.

We're still looking at our phones on the road

We all know the dangers of texting while driving—or do we? A survey of drivers in Philadelphia, as reported on the Fox 8 website, found that 75 percent admit to using mobile devices behind the wheel.

They're not all kids, either. Although 91 percent of millennials reported using a smartphone or other device while driving, so did 79 percent of Gen Xers and 64 percent of Baby Boomers. What are they doing? Reading text messages or emails (48 percent), updating or checking social media (23 percent), and recording videos (18 percent). Only 9 percent of drivers in the survey said they use a "Do not disturb" app on their phones while driving.
