PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Submitted by Wally Schultz

In our short time back to our “Southern Home”, my wife and I (during our strolls through the park) have noticed how nice everything looks. During our absence over the past summer, Marilyn, has managed to either rent or sell most of the vacant homes in the park. These new residents seem to be taking great pride in their homes, along with the current residents; flowers planted, trees planted, gardens spiffed up and homes painted. Let’s keep up the good work everyone and very shortly, I’m sure, we can restore the park, once again, to the beautiful place it once was. Thanks again to Marilyn and a special thanks to our maintenance man, Jon, for all his handiwork, and who can forget Pat Vogel for all the “behind the scenes” work she does. On behalf of myself and the other appreciative residents, thank to all of you.

WELCOME HOME PARTY

Submitted by Polly Pifer

If you missed the Welcome Home Party, held Nov. 13th at the clubhouse, you missed a great time. Fifty-two residents and guests listened and danced to the music by “Doo Wop Duo”. The lasagna casseroles provided an excellent and delicious meal which was thoroughly enjoyed.

Prizes were donated by Helen DellaPenna, Polly Pifer, and Don Justason. Those wood wall plaques and the napkin holder were hand crafted by Don. These lucky people took home prizes: Wally Schultz, Janette Martin, Larry Medeiros, Lisa DeGust, Ginger Auerwald, Nancy Wheeler, Linda Kohloff, Patsy Logue and Janis Jones.

Of course we all know these wonderful parties could not be given with-out a hard working committee. Plaudits go to Chairperson Helen Del-laPenna, Polly Pifer, Kathy Schultz, Carol Byrd, Barbara Malorney, Mary Mitchell, Mauderine Poole and Wanda Keezer.

A special thanks to David and Jewel Mayo for the decorated hall and grateful assistance.

Did you taste one of the delicious “pumpkin pie shooters” Connie Speight made and brought to the party? YUMMY!!! AND did anyone see Wally spiking the punch? The combination made some mighty happy people on the dance floor. That’s what I call a good time, right?

Lastly, thanks to all you residents and guests for attending and making our Welcome Home Party a success.

RECIPE OF THE MONTH

Submitted by Marylou Justason

Best Oatmeal Cookies

- 3 cups of flour
- 3 cups brown sugar
- 3 cups butter
- 6 cups old fashioned rolled oats
- 2 tbsp baking soda

- Cream the butter and sugar together. Add the baking soda to the flour. Mix all together and add the oats. Bake at 350 for 12 - 15 min. If they puff up flatten them with a fork partway through the cooking.

SHUFFLEBOARD

Submitted by Marylou Justason

Captain Don Justason and Co-Captain Wally Schultz are pleased to have signed up a team for the 2014-2015 season, playing competitively in the Friendly League.

The team is comprised of some seasoned players, some people who practiced over a very hot summer and some brand-new, but anxious to learn, players.

As well, several loyal supporters of the team have paid an exorbitant fee of $3.00 each to become associate members. Help is needed to prepare the courts before competition when games are played here. Check in with President Bob Vogel, Don or Wally.

A Complete Listing of Resident Services can be found on the page before your calendar

The team practices every Tuesday at 10 AM but spontaneous practices can happen anytime. As well, the Club members gather the first Monday of each month at 7 PM at the Club House for a very short meeting.

The first game resulted in a win of 18-14 against Down Yonder and we all hope we continue to have such success.

RESIDENTS NEWS

Welcome to our new residents and we look forward to you becoming involved and joining in our activities.

Residents that Passed:

In Memoriam

Submitted by Marylou Justason

Many long time residents of this community were saddened to hear of the deaths recently of Anne Rice (#29) and Art Matthews (#33). Both of these friends, with their spouses, enjoyed spending their winters in the sunny south for many years.

Anne Rice

Anne was married to Bill Rice for over 60 years and is survived by him, their six children and several grandchildren. Lifelong residents of Concord, NH, Bill worked in the road construction industry and Anne for a time, worked outside the home doing office work. But mostly, she cared for Bill and the children, their home outside Concord and her wonderful gardens. She was a deeply faithful Christian and practiced that faith every day.

Anne had a big heart, was caring and compassionate, with a gentle spirit and an admirable inner strength. She was stubborn though and no one could be mistaken about where they stood with her. But she was never unkind.

She cared for everyone, most especially her sister, Helen, a special needs person, and after promising their mother to look out for Helen, she and Bill would take her from the nursing home where she lived to come and spend some quality family time with them. Her son, Jim, will carry on for his mother as Helen survived Anne.

Bill and Anne loved to shuffle and would come down to the courts after lunch, almost daily, to play with so many others. Bill served on the executive of the Shuffle Board Club, including being captain for many years. Anne was co-captain for while.

They volunteered at many events here until they were no longer able to come south. They remained interested in and caring about the friends they knew in Shangri-La.

Bill is 93, is blind, and lives in a nursing home near Concord, NH, missing Anne, his best friend and the love of his life.

Art Matthews

Art and Molly Matthews lived at #33 for many years and were deeply involved with the community. They were both excellent shufflers, play-ing as often as possible after lunch, and being members of whatever league the team or teams were associated with. At one time, there were enough players in this park to have three teams and it was a honor to be selected to play for the A Team.

Art was married to Molly, a feisty Irish woman, for over 60 years. They have four children, 2 granddaughters and three great grandchildren. Art served in the Canadian military and they moved often. They have a cot-tage in Honey Harbour, ON where we met them. They introduced us to Shangri-La, finding us a place at #81 to rent for 3 years before we bought #140.

Molly was activity director for a while and organized group cruises, as-sisted by her very patient husband, Art. Art was the treasurer of the HOA and the Shuffle Board Club.

They worked together as a team and when a few years ago, they had to sell because of health reasons, they moved back to Ontario to the small city of Orillia, where Molly continues to live.

These two couples were an integral part of the community of Shangri-La over many years and leave a legacy of citizenship and leadership that we could all emulate.

your bikes, walkers, scooters or yourself and join the parade. We are trying something new this year, we want you to dress your pet and join the parade. We will have prizes for the best dressed pet. If you sing, come along and join the carolers and Santa after the parade for some eggnog, hot chocolate and cookies. Come one, come all, come with pets.

The Cookie Exchange and Karaoke will be Dec. 12th from 7:00 – 9:00 PM. Make your best cookies and come exchange them with all your friends. After the exchange we will have Karaoke with Vince. So bring your vocal chords and sing with us, even if you can't sing, just kick back and enjoy the fun.

Dec. 31st is our New Years' Eve Party. The Beach Billies will be performing from 8:30 PM – 12:30 AM. We will have appetizers, party favors and a champagne toast at midnight. Where else can you party with great friends, munch, enjoy great music, drink and NOT drive home for the low price of $10.00 per resident and $15.00 per guest. The more people we have, the better the party. Please pay Helen by Dec. 25th. Let's ring in the new year with all our friends!

I'VE SURE GOTTEN OLD!

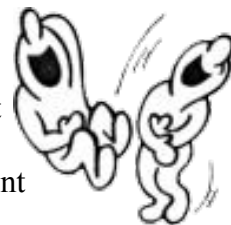

I've had two bypass surgeries, a hip replacement, new knees, fought prostate cancer and diabetes.

I'm half blind, can't hear anything quieter than a jet engine, take 40 different medications that make me dizzy, winded, and subject to black-outs.

I have bouts with dementia, poor circulation; hardly feel my hands and feet anymore.

I can't remember if I'm 85 or 92, and have lost all my friends.

But, thank God, I still have my Florida driver's license.

NEIGHBORHOOD BLOCK CAPTAINS

Shangri-La Mobile Home Park,
249 Jasper St. N.W., Largo, FL 33770

Neighborhood Watch is an association of neighbors who look out for each other's families and property, alert the police to any suspicious activities or crime in progress and work together to make your community a safer place in which to live.

Block Captains are volunteers whose responsibilities are to relay information to neighbors on their block and serve as liaisons between the neighborhood and the police, also to communicate information about meetings and crime incidents.

Don Justason	140	727-587-6687
Linda Kohloff.....	122	727-600-6119
Dale Jones	23	417-588-9987

If you are interested in volunteering to be a Block Captain, please speak to Vince Malorni, Chairperson, at 585-8885. We need your help.

Do you have a bike, tryke or scooter that needs to be registered? Speak to your block captain or to Vince Malorni.

Have you received your car or truck sticker that shows that you are a resident of Shangri-La M.H.P? Has it been applied to the windshield? If you do, it will be easier for us and for you when we have a blockade of the entrance. The sticker on the windshield will get you through with no questions.

When you have visitors staying with you and they are parking their own cars in the Park overnight, you should have a guest card showing that the car is a guest of Lot #? This will be another way to check on strange cars in the park. With your help we can make this park safer and more enjoyable for everyone.

Vince Malorni - Chairperson, Neighborhood Watch
