PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Submitted by Wally Schultz

Hello, fellow Shangri-La-ers. Where does the time go when you're having fun? Well, we're past another Christmas, New Year's and most of all, the Election of Officers for the SL Homeowners Association for 2015. Expectations will run high, everyone hoping the Board will accomplish many things in the park. Once the CAPX Budget is approved by management, we will present our wish list for what we would like to see done in the park, and depending on how much money is available, priorities will have to be established as to what has to be done first. Hopefully we can get as much done as possible and hope that the money, or part of it, is not channeled to another park. In other word, we have to spend it fast. Thanks to everyone who came to our December HOA meeting. Welcome to our new HOA officers, Janette Martin (Vice Pres), Nancy Wheeler (Recording Secretary), and returning for another term (we got her out of retirement), Helen DellaPenna (Asst. Treasurer). Congratulations to all, and I'd like to thank Maryann Rodgers and Shirley Gray for their handiwork in the 2014 Board. Thanks again to everyone who decorated their coaches with Christmas lights; it really makes the park festive. One last note, I would like to thank my wife, Kathy, for having refreshments after our meetings, I think they help keep many people around, rather than going home and watching TV. Thanks again...Wally

MANAGER'S MESSAGE

Marilyn Sisti, Community Manager - Shangri-La 727-585-2850

I want to wish everyone a happy and healthy New Year!!

Just a few items – first, please pick up after your pets, there has been dog poop in the street. That is nasty, please remember if you do not follow the pet rules we will ask your pet to leave the park.

Second, all checks must be in the office by the 10th of the month no later than 4:30 so I can post them and you will not get a late fee. They have not started the new procedure for sending checks to Tampa as yet so please continue to pay them at the office until further notice.

Third, please do not purchase another home in this community until you check with the office first. We will need a new application signed and a new proof of income for the other home, we do not charge for this nor do we rerun credit but your application must be updated. If you are trying to sell your home and have already purchased another do not forget you are responsible for two lot rents on both homes until one is sold. We do not take title turn-ins!!!

Fourth, unauthorized occupants are not allowed. An unauthorized occupant is someone who stays with you past the two week visiting period. If you wish them to stay longer, and they are age qualified, they need to have a criminal background check.

Lastly, please do not throw mattresses in the dumpsters unless you cut them up (this goes for furniture also). The trash company will charge the park extra and this charge is passed onto the residents.

Always be proud of your home; keep it clean, pressure-washed, and painted, driveways clear of clutter and your yard not overgrown with weeds.

As always, my door is always open for comments or complaints.

KNOW YOUR NEIGHBOR

Submitted by Janette Martin

After a long hiatus, I am finally getting back to introducing our new neighbors. It's been difficult finding folks that want to share their stories. So I am pleased that the first interview after the break is with neighbors from back home.

Dave and Elaine Schemm hail from Philadelphia, PA, my hometown. We enjoyed reminiscing about the old neighborhood. When asked about birthdays Elaine gave me hers as 10/27/44, Dave simply gave me 10/26. Even though they were both born and raised in Philly, the job industry moved them to Delaware.

Dave spent 4 years in the Navy, stationed aboard the USS Antietam CVS-36, during the Korean War. After coming home he got a job as a knitter with Robert Bruce, a knitting mill; he continued working in the knitting industry for over 30 years.

Elaine was the first to move to Delaware. She worked as a computer programmer/analyst and software consultant for several companies and banks. In 1992 Dave moved to Delaware, where he met and married Elaine. Dave and Elaine have been married for almost 22 years, their anniversary is January 25th. Between them they have 8 children, Elaine has 1 and Dave has 7. They are the proud grandparents of 25, and great-grandparents of 7. (At least, that's how many there were at last count; Elaine says they just keep coming).

Dave decided he didn't like the cold anymore, so he told Elaine it was time to head south to warmer weather. They went online, looked at a few websites, found #108 for sale, and jumped on it.

Dave and Elaine say they love living in Shangri-La. They think all of the folks they have met are very friendly, and they feel they have been made to feel extremely welcome. Elaine is considering joining some of the many activities in the park, but for the time being she just wants to sit back and observe until she gets a little more comfortable. She does come out to coffee and Bingo, so she has her toes in the water.

So, if you haven't already done so, please help me in making Dave and Elaine feel like they have come home.

LETTER FROM ANONYMOUS

We know we all love our little pooches, but please, have a little consideration for those around you. When you leave for a few hours we know your pooches miss you. But those living around you don't want to hear them crying for you. When you're not at home the barking & yipping never stops, so please put them somewhere where they cannot be heard. Let's not make enemies with your neighbors, it's very annoying, especially now that the weather is warmer and we like to have our windows open.

Also, to the inconsiderate person who walks his/her dog on 3rd St., please pick up the droppings. They're all over the street, not a pretty picture. It would be nice to install cameras to catch you. Look out, someone will be watching.

LADIES LUNCHEON

Submitted by Helen DellaPenna

The Ladies Luncheon was held on December 9th at the Golden Corral. The luncheon was hosted by Joy Lynam & Helen DellaPenna. A good time was had by all that attended. After lunch Chris Lynam delivered many bags of Toys for Tots to the Marine Hall on Jasper St., which Jack Leonhardt of Lot #108 is a lifetime member. They were very pleased to receive our donations. Kathy Schultz made toilet tissue ornaments for all of the attendees, and pocket calendars were also provided by Joy and Helen.

SHUFFLEBOARD

Submitted by Don Justason, Captain

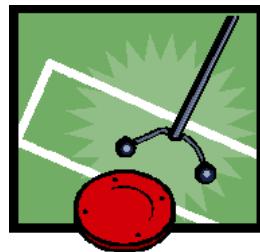

The shuffle season is well underway and we are off to a good start with a full team of players. Plans are in place for the Captain's Pizza Lunch and for the pre-Christmas turkey shoot but these events will be in the history books by the time you read this.

There are opportunities for players to learn more about the game at the Clearwater Shuffle Courts and for family fun on Sunday afternoons at the same facility. Information is posted on the bulletin board.

I look forward to more volunteer help in preparing the courts when we compete here and for the end of day cleanup. Barb McGerrigle needs lots of help in setting up the tables for our coffee and cake and for cleaning up afterwards. Many hands make light work. Please speak to Barbara or simply show up.

I have shared information about the etiquette of the game of Shuffleboard which may seem a little old-fashioned but it has worked for many years.

Practice makes for more players being successful. Learning the strategy of the game makes it more interesting than just sliding discs down the courts. Just ask for help from good players.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

Submitted by Vince Malorni

Thanksgiving Dinner was held at the clubhouse on November 27th. Everyone who attended had a great time and all enjoyed the good food prepared by the residents.

We had 77 people registered for dinner. We served 55 residents and 17 guests, and delivered 5 dinners to residents' homes.

We would like to thank all the volunteers who helped to cook and pre-prepare all the food, set-up the hall and decorations, the servers, the clean-up crew and anyone else who helped during the day.

Without the help of all volunteers we would not have been able to hold this dinner.

ACTS OF KINDNESS

Submitted by Marylou Justason

Over seventy-five residents and guests attended Thanksgiving festivities at our Club House and enjoyed a sumptuous meal. Our friends, Barb McGerrigle and Vince Malorni, #140, have worked for years to make sure those of us who are far from home or alone have somewhere to go on this special day.

Following detailed notes from previous dinners, they shop at a variety of stores to get the best food, at the best price. From early in the morning until almost when the lights are turned out, they are at the Club House. Yes, they do have some help (which they appreciate so much) in preparing food at private homes, and help with the service and cleanup but they coordinate the whole effort.

The meal is a collaborative effort, but without Barb and Vince's dedication to lead us, we might not have the opportunity to enjoy the meal with our friends.

THANK YOU, BARB AND VINCE, FROM ALL OF US.

ACTIVITIES

Submitted by Serena Libby

Please refer to the Park calendar for the upcoming events. We both need and enjoy your participation. It has been proven, the more the merrier.

Come out and join us for coffee every Wednesday morning. It's an hour of fun and laughter (Polly has a whole reserve of good jokes). It's also an opportunity to meet your neighbors and new people in the park. And finally, there are announcements and information about happenings in or around the park.

So come on out, bring your favorite coffee cup and $.50. That's a bargain for coffee and doughnuts or bagels.

BINGO

Submitted by Janette Martin

The holidays are over and Bingo is about to resume. First games of the year begin on Thursday, January 8th. Come out and join us for an evening of fun, cards go on sale at 6:00 PM until 6:45 PM, first games begins at 7:00 PM. We have a 50/50 drawing, door prizes, a Bonanza, Speedy round, and a bonus round along with the regular games. There are always refreshments; cake, cookies, chips, pretzels, candy, soda, coffee and water. Bingo is hosted by Bobbi Christian & Janette Martin. So, come on out, the more people that play, the bigger the prizes.

JOKES

Submitted by Polly Pifer

"Grandpa, I'm really proud of you," said the modish young lady. "What's to be proud of?" asked the old man. The young lady replied, "I noticed that when you sneeze, you've learned to put your hand in front of your mouth." "Of course," explained Grandpa. "How else can I catch my teeth???"

Two women were discussing marriage, and one said, "We've been married twenty-five years, and every night my husband has complained about the food. Not one night without complaining about the food." The other woman said, "That's awful. Doesn't it bother you?" The first one said, "Why should I object if he doesn't like his own cooking?"

Little Johnny and his family were having Thanksgiving dinner at his Grandmother's house. Everyone was seated around the table as the food was being served. When little Johnny received his plate he started eating right away. "Johnny, wait until we say our prayer." "I don't have to." The boy replied. "Of course, you do," his mother insisted. "We say a prayer before eating at our house." "That's our house," Johnny explained. "But this is Grandma's house, and she knows how to cook!"

On the first day of school, about midmorning, the kindergarten teacher said, "If anyone has to go to the bathroom, hold up two fingers." A little voice from the back of the room asked, "How will that help?"

A three-year-old put his shoes on by himself. His mother noticed that the left shoe was on the right foot. She said, "Son, your shoes are on the wrong feet." He looked up at her with a raised brow and said, "Don't kid me, Mom. They're the only feet I got!"

MY FIRST IRISH DRINK WITH MY SON

I was reading an article last night about fathers and sons, and memories came flooding back to the time I took my son out for his first pint. Off we went to our local pub which is only two blocks from the house. I got him a Guinness. He didn't like it, so I drank it. Then I got him a Stroh's, he didn't like that either, so I drank it. It was the same with the Molson's and the Labatt's. I thought maybe he'd like whiskey better than beer so we tried a few of those. He didn't like that either. By the time I decided he just didn't like to drink, I could hardly push the stroller back home.

Happy New Year

RECYCLING

Submitted by Marylou Justason

Congratulations to the residents of Shangri-La MHP for your efforts in supporting the recycling program of Largo, FL. We have been recycling so much that we graduated from smaller blue bins to a larger dumpster.

One phone call to Marissa Sugundo resulted in getting the small bins, often over-flowing, removed and one large dumpster installed. To make it easier, no separation is required; so paper, steel and aluminum cans, glass and other containers can be put into the same bin (but, please, no plastic bags).

At certain functions at the Club House, we will have a smaller container, so we encourage you to divert "good stuff" from the garbage bin into the blue recycling box which will be emptied into the appropriate dumpster.

If we all work together we can make the world a better place, one can at a time.

EARLY RISER VS. NIGHTHAWK: WHO'S BETTER OFF?

Are you the early bird who gets the worm, or a night owl burning the midnight oil? The answer may have an impact on your health—and even your career.

One study cited in U.S. News & World Report found that teens who are early to bed and early to rise tend to be in better health than their peers who stay up late and sleep in, even if they get the same amount of sleep. And other studies suggest that morning people do better at resisting fatigue, anxiety, and depression, while nighthawks appear to suffer higher rates of insomnia and ADHD. The stay-up-late crowd may also have a higher propensity for substance abuse, addictive behaviors, and mental health problems.

But being a night owl has its advantages, too. Research also indicates that they can have higher IQs, more stamina during the day, better reasoning and analytical skills, and greater creativity and productivity. These traits, along with an inclination toward more risk-taking, seem to contribute to night owls having a higher average level of financial and career success.

The Mayo Clinic website notes that our sleeping habits are governed by the body's natural 24-hour cycle, known as the circadian rhythm. Some people have a slightly longer light-to-dark ratio, making them night owls; others with a short cycle tend to be early risers. However, the cycle can shift over a person's lifetime: Young children are usually early birds, then become nighthawks as teenagers, then gradually transition back to being morning people as adults.

NEIGHBORHOOD BLOCK CAPTAINS

Shangri-La Mobile Home Park,
249 Jasper St. N.W., Largo, FL 33770

Neighborhood Watch is an association of neighbors who look out for each other's families and property, alert the police to any suspicious activities or crime in progress and work together to make your community a safer place in which to live.

Block Captains are volunteers whose responsibilities are to relay information to neighbors on their block and serve as liaisons between the neighborhood and the police, also to communicate information about meetings and crime incidents.

Dale Jones23417-588-9987

If you are interested in volunteering to be a Block Captain, please speak to Vince Malorni, Chairperson, at 585-8885. We need your help.

Do you have a bike, tryke or scooter that needs to be registered? Speak to your block captain or to Vince Malorni.

Have you received your car or truck sticker that shows that you are a resident of Shangri-La M.H.P? Has it been applied to the windshield? If you do, it will be easier for us and for you when we have a blockade of the entrance. The sticker on the windshield will get you through with no questions.

When you have visitors staying with you and they are parking their own cars in the Park overnight, you should have a guest card showing that the car is a guest of Lot #? This will be another way to check on strange cars in the park. With your help we can make this park safer and more enjoyable for everyone.
