PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Submitted by Bob Doty

Wow can't believe it is April already! It's been my first full winter here and it has been great! I don't miss my snow shovel at all. Hopefully everyone else has had an uneventful and peaceful Winter.

At the last HOA meeting, Ms Porsha Mills expressed interest in filling the interim Vice President position on the Executive Board. However, before the board could approve her, she indicated that she was no longer interested. The Vice President position remains vacant.

On a personal note, CC and I want to express our deepest Thanks and Gratitude to our Shangri-La family for the thoughts and prayers for our daughter Melissa and Grandson Dorian. It has meant the world to us to have friends and neighbors like you.

ACTS OF KINDNESS

A Letter to All

I just wanted to say Thank you to everyone. The entire neighborhood came together to help me in my time of need. No matter how much we talk, fight, gossip, not speaking, dislike what others do..... Well in a time of need we all gathered and became one. It was a true blessing to see. So let's try to stop all the negative stuff and become a family and make this the greatest place to live. Thank you to everyone for everything.

JOKES

Submitted by various residents

A State Trooper was patrolling one night off the main highway. At nearly midnight, he sees a couple in a car, in Lover's lane, with the interior light brightly glowing. He carefully approaches the car to get a closer look. He sees a young man behind the wheel, reading a computer magazine. He immediately notices a young woman in the rear seat filing her nails. Puzzled by this surprising situation, the Trooper walks to the car and gently taps on the driver's window. The young man lowers his window, "Yes Officer?". The Trooper asks, "What are you doing?" The young man says, "Well Officer I am reading a magazine." Pointing towards the young woman in the back seat, The Trooper asks, "and what is she doing?" The young man shrugs and says "I believe she is filing her fingernails." Now the Trooper is totally confused, a young couple alone in a car at night in a Lovers lane and nothing inappropriate is happening. The Trooper asks, "What's your age young man?" The young man says "I'm 22 Sir". The Trooper asks "And how old is she?" The young man looks at his watch and replies "She will be 18 in eleven minutes"!

April Is...

Financial Literacy Month. With taxes due, this may be a good time to learn more about good financial practices. Are you ready to accept responsibility for changing your financial situation? Do you believe that you can and will change the way you make financial decisions? If so, it's time to start.

Month of the Military Child. More than 2 million children in grades K-12 have parents who are serving in our military. Make a difference in the life of a military child by seeking out opportunities to acknowledge their sacrifice, volunteering for organizations that support them, and recognizing their contribution to the nation.

National Autism Awareness Month. A nationwide effort to promote autism awareness, inclusion, and self-determination for all and to ensure that each person on the autism spectrum is provided the opportunity to achieve the highest possible quality of life.

National Garden Month. Gardening grows fun for the whole family. Whether you're digging in the dirt, enjoying the magic of a small seed transforming into a beautiful flower, or observing the bugs, birds, and butterflies, gardening is a delightful way to celebrate the coming of spring.

Weekly

National Robotics Week, Apr. 2-10. The purpose of National Robotics Week is to celebrate the United States as a leader in robotics technology development, educate the public about how robotics technology impacts society, and advocate for increased funding for robotics technology research and development.

Animal Control Officer Appreciation Week, Apr. 10-16. This week recognizes the hardworking men and women who risk their lives and devote huge amounts of personal time and resources while serving the public and helping animals when no one else can.

National Environmental Education Week, Apr. 17-23. The nation's largest celebration of environmental education, EE Week reaches hundreds of thousands of students and educators across the United States with non-biased, high-quality, environmental education materials grounded in accurate, timely scientific information and tied to local, state, and national learning standards.

National Pet ID Week, Apr. 17-23. Collars and tags are a reliable way to identify your pets should they become lost. Make sure your dog, cat, or other animal friend always wears a current identification tag. Pet supply catalogs, stores, veterinary offices, and animal shelters often have forms to order ID tags.

April Fool!

It's April 1st—the day for practical jokes large and small. If you're looking for inspiration, remember one of the all-time great media hoaxes.

In 1957, the BBC's respected news program Panorama ran a story celebrating a bumper spaghetti crop in Switzerland—thanks to a mild winter and the near elimination of the destructive “spaghetti weevil.” The program included footage of Swiss farm workers pulling strands of spaghetti from trees and laying them in the sun to dry.

Although some viewers caught on—and chastised the BBC for playing fast and loose in a news program—others fell hook, line, and pasta ladle. Many even telephoned the network to ask where they could get their own spaghetti trees.

Make new friends all through your life

Building friendships and creating thriving social circles is a key component of good health throughout your entire life. From Mayo Clinic's HealthQuest newsletter come these suggestions for making new friends no matter how old you are:

- Take your pet for walks. Make conversation with folks who stop to chat.
- Join a hobby group.
- Volunteer in community groups or at a hospital, church, or school.
- Take a course at your local community college.
- Shape up while meeting new people in an exercise class.
- Get active in a social cause or goal.
- Go out to lunch with a work or social acquaintance at least once a month.
- Ask a small favor of a neighbor or co-worker, and do the same for him or her.
- Volunteer to usher at your local community theater.

Love and money: Pet products are big online

You can't put a price tag on love, but you can spend a lot of money on those you love—and that includes your pets. The pet care and pet product industry is a yearly $60.59 billion business, serving almost 80 million households. And like everything else, more and more of that business is online. Forrester Research estimates that online purchases of products for pets hit $3.7 billion in 2014—6 percent of the total—representing a rise of 76 percent since 2010. Experts expect the online pet case market to grow by 15-20 percent in 2016-2017.

Lift your glass to these wine stats

Do you enjoy a glass of wine with dinner? If so, you're not alone. Decanter Magazine estimates that 93 million people drink wine regularly in the U.S., which adds up to 40 percent of all adults. The amount of wine Americans drank last year rose from 2014 by 0.2 percent, but Decanter predicts that by the year 2025, 11 million more people will be wine fans, for a total of 104 million dollars. That's a lot of wine.

Save your cash when you eat out

Eating in restaurants can get expensive in a hurry. When you want to get out of the house but you don't want to spend a lot, try these tips to lower your tab:

- Have a snack first. Eat something healthy before you head out. Then order a smaller meal or an appetizer instead of a full dinner.
- Skip the extras. Don't have cocktails or order dessert. These can add up quickly. Have a glass of wine and your own dessert at home instead.
- Go out for dessert only. You can prepare an inexpensive yet romantic meal at home, then go out for ice cream or your favorite dessert afterward.

Creative confidence is about believing in your ability to create change in the world around you.

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

Fast and funny

Looking to get a few quick laughs? Try some of these short zingers:

- Explaining puns to kleptomaniacs is hard because they always take things literally.
- What's the best thing about Switzerland? I don't know, but its flag is a huge plus.
- I told my doctor that I broke my arm in two places. She told me to stop going to those places.
- I asked my friend in North Korea what living there is like. He said he couldn't complain.
- I was wondering why the Frisbee seemed larger the closer it got. Then it hit me.
- Have I told you this déjà vu joke before?
- I didn't know my husband stole things from construction sites, but when I got home all the signs were there.
- They all laughed when I said I wanted to be a comedian. Well, they're not laughing now.

A bull by the tail

An old rancher filed a lawsuit against a railroad company when his prize bull went missing because a train damaged a section of his fence. The rancher only asked to be paid the fair value of the bull.

A date for the hearing was set, and the railroad sent a slick lawyer to represent it. Just before the hearing began, the railroad attorney approached the rancher and started to pressure him to settle the case immediately. After a few minutes, the rancher gave in, agreeing to half the money he was asking for.

After signing the settlement papers and handing over the check, the lawyer said, "You know, I have to admit, you would have won this case. The engineer was asleep and the train was going too fast when it passed your farm."

The old rancher shrugged. "I was a little worried myself. The darned bull came back this morning."

Google answers your health questions

People turn to Google for all kinds of information. Health is always a concern, so naturally the search engine fields a lot of questions about diseases and symptoms of illness. Take a look at some of the top health-related inquiries people typed into the Google search bar in 2015 (as reported on the CNN website):

- “Is bronchitis contagious?” Answer: Maybe, if it’s the result of a bacterial infection.
- “Is pneumonia contagious?” Answer: It can be, because most cases of pneumonia are caused by bacteria.
- “How much water should I drink per day?” Answer: About half as many fluid ounces as your weight in pounds. For example, if you weigh 140 pounds, you should be drinking about 70 fluid ounces per day (nine cups), although factors like heat, exercise, pregnancy, and other considerations should be taken into account.
- “How many calories should I consume?” Answer: Check with a dietician to get advice tailored to your physical needs.
- “What is Lupus?” Answer: Lupus is a chronic autoimmune disease. Symptoms include headaches, fatigue, joint pain, fever, and rashes.

Slow down to eat less

Eating too fast can lead to eating too much. But when you’re busy, the temptation to cram a meal down your throat may be overwhelming. Here’s how to slow down and savor every bite:

- Stop multitasking. Don’t try to eat while you’re working, texting, or doing anything else. Turn off your devices and focus on your meal. You’ll have a better sense of how much you’re eating and how full you feel.
- Sit down. Eating over the sink or grazing while you search the refrigerator may result in consuming more unneeded calories. Set the table and put your portions on a plate to keep control of how much food you’re really eating.
- Chew slowly. Count each bite as you chew your food, and aim for about 20 seconds of chewing for each mouthful. You’ll force yourself to slow down, and your food will be digested more easily.

The planets: A quick tour of our solar system

Think you know a lot about the solar system we live in? The UPI website shares these intriguing facts about Earth's local neighborhood:

- Mercury. The planet closest to the sun can reach temperatures of 800 degrees Fahrenheit, but also a chilly low of -279 degrees at night.
- Venus. Farther from the sun but hotter than Mercury, Venus's surface has an average temperature of 875 degrees, hot enough to melt lead.
- Earth. Our rotation is slowing, but don't panic. The decrease is only about 17 milliseconds per 100 years, so we won't have 25-hour days for 140 million years.
- Mars. Looking for a rock from Mars? You can find them here on Earth. Meteorites from the red planet have been discovered in the Sahara, Antarctica, and other places.
- Jupiter. This gas giant has a magnetic field so powerful it draws space debris into its orbit, thus protecting the inner planets.

- Saturn. Saturn is famous for its ring, but they aren't unique. Jupiter, Neptune, and Uranus also possess rings, but they're harder to see from Earth.
- Neptune. Winds on Neptune can reach a speed of 1,500 miles per hour or more.
- Uranus. All planets rotate, but only Uranus does so on its side. Scientists speculate that a collision with another large object may have caused its tilt.
- Pluto. The dwarf planet really is small, relatively speaking. With a diameter of just 1,475 miles, Pluto is much smaller than the continental United States.

TO RAISE NEW QUESTIONS, NEW POSSIBILITIES, TO REGARD OLD PROBLEMS FROM A NEW ANGLE, REQUIRES CREATIVE IMAGINATION AND MARKS REAL ADVANCE IN SCIENCE.
